Four Friends Help Their Paralyzed Friend (Mark 2:1-12)

Jesus came back to His home in Capernaum. Jesus was teaching and healing and the home was full! Four friends brought their friend who was unable to move.

The friends couldn't get their paralyzed friend through the crowd. They knew Jesus could heal him. So, they brought him up to the roof and dug a hole.

The hole was large enough and the crowd looked up, amazed! People made room as the four friends lowered their friend all the way down to Jesus.

Jesus was happy to see the four friends' faith. Jesus went to the paralyzed man and said, "My son, your sins are forgiven."

The religious leaders in the crowd were unhappy. They thought to themselves, "Who is he? Only God can forgive sins," They grumbled.

Jesus knew what they were thinking and said, "Is it easier to forgive a man's sins or make him walk? To show you that I have God's power to forgive sins, I will also heal his legs."

"Get up. Pick up your mat and walk home," Jesus said to the man. The man got up, he was healed! He did just as Jesus said. Everyone was amazed.

The four friends cheered from the roof. They were filled with awe. All the people saw and came to know that Jesus has the power to forgive sin and heal.

The four friends wanted their paralyzed friend to be healed. But Jesus knew that being saved from sin is more important than being healed for the paralyzed man. SO, Jesus forgave the sins of the paralyzed man first before He healed him.

Let's ask Jesus to forgive us of our sins. Let's thank Jesus for forgiving us and praise God for sending us His Son!
