St. Louise de Marillac is a Roman Catholic community called together as family to worship, to minister, and to evangelize. As true disciples of Jesus Christ, we are called to renew His love and spirit by sharing our time, talent and treasure.

St. Louise de Marillac Mission Statement

The Lord speaks to us in a variety of ways, at work, through others and at every moment.

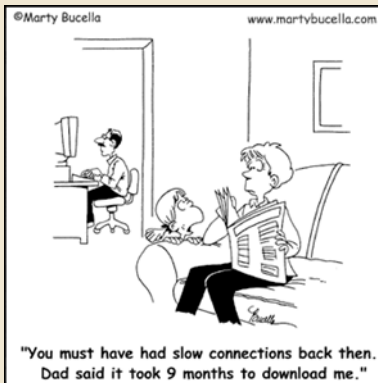

Pope Francis,
Gaudete et Exsultate

Rejoice and Be Glad

Gaudete et Exsultate (Rejoice and Be Glad), published in May of this year, is an apostolic exhortation, a papal document that ranks below an encyclical but above everyday homilies and speeches. It is the third one issued by Pope Francis after Evangelii Gaudium (Joy of the Gospel) and Amoris Laetitia (Joy of Love). He has also published two encyclicals, Lumen Fidei (Light of Faith) and Laudato Si (Praised Be: On Care for Our Common Home.)

Pope Francis is easy to read. This is just as true in his latest writing as it was in his earlier works. In “Rejoice and Be Glad,” Pope Francis is calling us to Holiness. This document is supposed to be practical. It is not a “treatise on holiness..., [filled with] definitions and ... discussion ... of sanctification. Rather, it is a meditation on how to respond to Christ’s invitation to be saints.”

Introduction, Besides those saints and martyrs whose lives were “an exemplary imitation of Christ,” Pope Francis also praises “the middle class of holiness”: the everyday sanctity of “those parents who raise their children with immense love, in those men and women who work hard to support their families, in the sick, in elderly religious who never lose their smile,”

Chapter 1, The Call to Holiness, “The Holy Spirit bestows holiness in abundance among God’s holy and faithful people,” the Pope writes, which begins from baptism. Here he summons the universal call to holiness, citing Lumen Gentium: “all the faithful, whatever their condition or state, are called by the Lord – each in his or her own way – to that perfect holiness by which the Father himself is perfect.” Pope Francis emphasizes the phrase “each in his or her own way,” for the diversity of forms of holiness means that Christians must discern how the Lord is calling each of them to holiness.

Chapter 3, Light of the Master, centers on the example of Jesus, particularly in an interpretation of the Beatitudes and Matthew 25. For while there “can be any number of theories about what constitutes holiness, with various explanations and distinctions... nothing is more enlightening than turning to Jesus’ words and seeing his way of teaching the truth.” Pope Francis writes that “Jesus explained with great simplicity what it means to be holy when he gave us the Beatitudes (Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23),” such that “The Beatitudes are like a Christian’s identity card,” The Beatitudes become our guide to doing what Francis urges us toward, namely imitating Jesus.

In Chapter 4, Signs of Holiness in Today’s World, the Pope tells us, the Christian should be patient and meek; joyful; bold and passionate; communal; and constantly prayerful. Pope Francis casts this chapter in terms of following and becoming more like Jesus, a life-long effort which leads us to and is sustained by the Eucharist.

Chapter 5, Spiritual Combat, Vigilance, and Discernment, Francis tells us that the Christian life is a constant battle. We need strength and courage to withstand the temptations of the devil and to proclaim the Gospel. This battle is sweet, for it allows us to rejoice each time the Lord triumphs in our lives.

Go online and read the entire Exhortation. I promise you, you won’t be disappointed.

Father Robert Fulton

STRENGTHENED BY THE BREAD OF LIFE

Today we resume the “Bread of Life” discourse from John’s Gospel that began two weeks ago. He makes reference to the Jews’ ancestors who ate manna in the desert. These days we would think primarily of Israel wandering in the desert, but faithful Jews would also have known the story of Elijah that we hear today. Strengthened by food and drink in the desert, the angel of the Lord sends him on his forty-day and forty-night journey (the biblical number for a preparation time). Like the food given to Elijah in the desert, Jesus tells his listeners that he is bread for the life of the world. It is very important that we not stop listening to Jesus after his promise of eternal life—a marvelous promise, but this “reward” is not the only reason we feast on the Bread of Life. We also come to the table to be made strong for the journey of mission, that the whole world might have life in the fullness of Christ. We are compelled, if we have eaten of the bread of life, to go forth in service to all.

THE ASSUMPTION OF MARY

The Assumption is the oldest feast day of Our Lady, but how did it come to be first celebrated? Its origin had been lost in the days when the city of Jerusalem had been leveled in the year 135 by Emperor Hadrian (76-138) and was rebuilt as Aelia Capitolina in honor of Jupiter.

For the next 200 years, every memory of Jesus was obliterated from the city, and the sites made holy by His life, death and Resurrection became pagan temples. Jerusalem was restored as a sacred city at the time of the Roman Emperor Constantine (c285-337). The building of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in 336 came first, then the sacred sites began to be restored and memories of the life of Our Lord began to be celebrated by the people of Jerusalem. On the hill of Mount Zion, was the “Place of Dormition,” the spot of Mary’s “falling asleep,” where she died.

The “Memory of Mary” was celebrated, at first, only in Palestine, but then it was extended to all of the churches of the East. In the seventh century, the day was celebrated as “Falling Asleep” (“Dormitio”) of the Mother of God, in Rome. Soon the name was changed to the “Assumption of Mary,” since there was more to the feast than her dying. It was also proclaimed that she has been taken up, body and soul, into heaven.

The prayer for the feast reads “All-powerful and ever-living God: You raised the sinless Virgin Mary, mother of your Son, body and soul, to the glory of heaven. May we see heaven as our final goal and come to share her glory.”

It is celebrated on the 15th day of August each year and is a Holy Day of Obligation.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Careful readers of the “Treasures” will have noticed that the two columns about the oldest monastic communities in the United States refer to the colonial states. The Louisiana Purchase gained a great treasure for our nation, the Ursuline monastery of New Orleans. Among the greatest pioneers of that city were nuns who came from France on a perilous voyage in 1727, pestered by pirates and tossed by fearsome storms. These were genteel, well-educated Ursulines, yet their first task was to roll up their sleeves and open a hospital to care for the pestilence-ridden colony. Next, they opened a school for girls and launched a plan to educate the women being shipped over from France to marry settlers. In this way, they had enormous influence in molding patterns of family and domestic life.

At Christmastime in 1814, the threat of a British assault on the city was growing. On the terrifying night of January 7, 1815, the women of New Orleans gathered in the monastery chapel to pray that the city be spared from destruction in battle. The mother superior made a vow to have a Mass of Thanksgiving on that date every year should the Americans win. That night, Our Lady of Prompt Succor, to whom the nuns had great devotion, became the protector and patron of this great city. The convent in the French Quarter is the oldest standing building in the Mississippi valley, and the only surviving building of the French colonial period. The nuns relocated in 1824, but their old monastery is preserved as a museum and archives for the Archdiocese of New Orleans. The school the nuns began, Ursuline Academy, is the oldest continuously operating Catholic school, and school for women, in the United States.

CARING THROUGH CANCER

Holy Name of Mary Church is offering an evening in prayer and fellowship, sharing the journey through cancer with those who care. Join Fr. Bill Moore, SS.CC. in this sacred time and sacred space and to listen and share journeys of caring through cancer as one faith-filled community. Join us on Monday, August 20th, at 7:00 pm at Holy Name of Mary Church, 724 E. Bonita Avenue, San Dimas, 91773 in the Sacred Hearts Hall.

ROAD TO RECOVERY PROGRAM

Every day thousands of cancer patients need a ride to treatment, but some may not have a way to get there. The American Cancer Society, Road to Recover program provides transportation to and from treatment for people with cancer who do not have a ride or are unable to drive themselves.

Depending on each individual needs and what is available in your area, the American Cancer Society will:

- Coordinate a ride with a volunteer driver.
- Coordinate a ride with a local organization that has partnered with us to provide transportation such as Lyft.
- Refer you to a local resource you can contact for help.

Patients must be traveling to a cancer-related medical appointment. Other eligibility requirements may apply. For example, a caregiver may need to accompany a patient who cannot walk without help, or is under age 18. Contact us to find out what is available in your area, and what the specific requirements are.

VOLUNTEER DRIVER NEEDED

St. Louise de Marillac is looking for several volunteer drivers who would be available to drive our visiting priest, Fr. James Yakubu, to his sick calls and ministry. The driver would need to be available from the hours of 8:00 am to 8:00 pm on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday on an "on call" basis, and carry a valid California driver license. Please call the Parish Office at (626) 915-7873 if you could assist Fr. James Yakubu during his two months he will be at St. Louise.

Children will return to their families for the Presentation of the Gifts. When the children return, they will stay with their families for the remainder of the Mass. For more information, please contact the Office of Faith Formation (626) 332-5822.

SAFETY & SECURITY 101: INCREASE YOUR AWARENESS

Ensuring parishioners' safety and security while attending Mass is a high priority. Given recent national shooting incidents—including at places of worship—the St. Louise Pastoral Council has developed a free, informational workshop designed to enhance your awareness of safety and security procedures.

The workshop is designed to educate parishioners, school families, and the visiting public about security measures when visiting the Church, specifically related to "Active Shooter" training and evacuation procedures. The workshop will consist of viewing a Department of Homeland Security (DHS) training video on active shooter scenarios and answering parishioners' questions—including, what to do, how to respond, and where to go.

Please SAVE-THE-DATE: The workshop will take place after each Mass on two Sundays in September. September 9th and on September 23rd, 2018. This workshop is free and will be very informative. More information will be provided in future bulletins.

Coat of Arms Logo

The apostolic disposition of the Missionary Society of St. Paul hinges on the appeal that our Patron, St. Paul, makes for the world to be reconciled in Christ (2 Cor. 5:25).

Our missionary apostolate is borne of the zealous endeavor to bring Christ's salvific message to people all over the world, through ministry that is undertaken in accordance with the Gospel, and in docility to the Holy Spirit.

Under the Church's hierarchy, we both as individuals and as a Society, strive for a universal love for all men and women of all races and creeds, especially the poor, through faithful living of the evangelical counsels.

Welcome Fr. James Yakubu, MSP

St. Louise de Marillac Church welcomes Reverend Fr. James Yakubu, MSP. Fr. Yakubu will be at St. Louise throughout the months of August and September. He is part of the same order of priests as Fr. Martin Yina and Fr. Paul Asoh, the Missionary Society of St. Paul of Nigeria (MSP).

"The Missionary Society of St. Paul of Nigeria (MSP) is a Society of Apostolic Life founded in Nigeria in 1977. It was in response to the call of Pope Paul VI in Uganda in 1969 that the time has come for the churches of Africa share in the missionary work of the universal Church. The Society now has 260 priests working in ten African countries of Botswana, Cameroon, Chad, Gambia, Liberia, Malawi, Nigeria, Kenya, South Africa and South Sudan. The priests of MSP are also working in Great Britain, Grenada, Ireland, Sweden, Germany, Italy, Bahamas, Canada and the United States of America. The order of MSP, strives to bring Christ to people of every nation wherever the Church needs them the most. They are involved in primary evangelization and revitalization of weak churches through the parish structure, and they also engage in hospital and school chaplaincies, social justice, education and care of the poor."¹

Father James Yakubu, MSP, is the oldest of four children. He has three younger sisters, all who are married. So when Father Yakubu mentioned to his parents that he wanted to join the seminary and become a priest and not a medical doctor as previous planned, it did not make sense and was hard for them at first. Through the grace of God they gradually accepted the decision. Father Yakubu was the first member in his family to be baptized. The family attended Mass at church weekly, but were not themselves baptized in the faith.

It takes nine years to become a priest in Nigeria. After Father Yakubu was ordained a priest, fourteen years ago, he worked in Nigeria for a year. He then was sent to Rome, Italy at Georgian university where he did Bachelor and License Program learning about Clinical Psychology for four and half years. He returned to Nigeria to work with Fr. Martin Yina at the House of Formation. As a Formator in the seminary, Fr. Yakubu provides Spiritual Direction and teaches Psychology and Clinical Psychology.

"I love meeting people to help them clarify their perspectives," commented Fr. Yakubu. "This fulfills me as a priest and clinical psychologist." Father loves the journey with people, the human journey and the inner connectedness between their faith and the human struggle." Over 1,000 young men apply to become a priest in Nigeria each year, but through the process of retreats, interviews, the seminary is able to admit between 20 to 25 candidates at the end of the process.

Father Yakubu's first time in the United States was in 2011 when he went to the Regional House of the Society of St. Paul in Texas. He has since traveled to many states talking about their missionary work and working through the Mission Co-op, preaching about the works of the Missionaries of St. Paul. His favorite place was Branson, Missouri. "They have so many attractions," said Fr. Yakubu, "they have The Lake Queen Riverboat, Branson Jet boats, Branson's Promised Land Zoo and a Titanic Museum." This is Father's first time in California. Wait until he sees all the attractions California has!

DID YOU KNOW?

Watch for signs of anxiety in your child

Everyone has had an anxious moment or two in their lives, but many people — even kids — struggle with daily anxiety. Anxiety can be a contributing factor in depression, and even if it's not that severe, it can make day-to-day activities tough. Kids who suffer from anxiety may exhibit physical symptoms like asthma and stomach aches, or could have trouble eating, sleeping, or going to the bathroom. If your child is showing signs of anxiety, it's important to ask why, and then to help your child address the cause and manage the associated feelings.
