CATAN OVERVIEW

After celebrating its 20th anniversary, Catan® is one of the fastest growing major game brands in the World. It is the most highly regarded analog game series of our time. Designed by Klaus Teuber in 1995, the Catan core game (aka The Settlers of Catan®) has been the Game of the Year in countries all over the world. Proclaimed the “Game of the Century” in 2000, it has been described as the “best boardgame ever made.” Already this generation’s favorite and most enduring board game, Catan is a best-selling mainstay in most game shops, both brick & mortar and online. Everything from mom & pop shops to box stores have been part of Catan’s success.

In Catan your adventurous settlers seek to tame the rich isle of Catan. Its random mix of pastures, fields, mountains, hills, forests, and desert creates a different board virtually every game—no two games are alike! You guide your settlers to victory by using clever trading and cunning development. Combine resources—grain, wool, ore, brick, and lumber—to build roads, settlements, cities, and more. You acquire your resources through trade, planning and a bit of luck. There are many routes to victory. Everyone plays to the end, so victory is always possible, if not likely. Normally a game takes only ≈60-90 minutes to play.

With over 23 million games in circulation, Catan is a growing global brand. Catan is in over 35 languages and its international tournament program is a major draw at consumer game shows. The 2016 Catan World Championship will take place in Durango, Colorado. There dozens of national champions from all over the world will play before a live online audience. A record breaking 1040 players played together in a single Catan: Big Game™ at the International Game Fair in Essen, Germany in October 2015.

Strong social interaction and indirect competition make the game appealing to all, while countless board configurations and varying strategies invite frequent replay. People enjoy Catan regardless of age, socio-economic status, gender, or culture. That’s why so many publications describe Catan as the “Perfect Social Game.” Its easy to learn, always fresh, swiftly playable, highly interactive, unpredictable, addictive, and fun.

Recent articles about Catan have appeared in Wired, Newsweek, US News & World Report, The Washington Post, The New York Times, The Times, The Financial Times, and The New Yorker. The Wall Street Journal described Catan as the “New Golf for Silicon Valley.” Catan has appeared on TV shows like Supergirl, Orphan Black, The Big Bang Theory, The Tonight Show, The Daily Show, and Parks & Recreation. Everything from bath towels to auto models to soccer teams have borne the “Catan Sun” mark. All of this reinforces the fact that Catan is a growing cultural force and an emerging “lifestyle” brand.

The Catan® line of analog games and accessories is organized into five major categories: Catan Core line, Catan Variations, Catan Derivations, Catan Accessories, and Catan Merchandise. Best sellers in each category are highlighted below.

Oil produces pollution and spurs climate change, which bring the threat of coastal flooding—and worse. The settlers face a new challenge: deciding whether the common good is worth limiting oil usage or whether the pursuit of victory is worth the risk of ruin.

Worldwatch’s “Transforming Cultures” Project worked with Catan GmbH, Mayfair Games, Inc. and Kosmos GmbH to produce this eco-scenario.

Note: You need Catan to play this scenario.

Hark, friend! Let us “help” each other.

Ah! Thanks to their beneficence, Catan’s guilds reward such noble-minded behavior by handing out “Favor Tokens” that can be cashed in for everything from free roads to Victory Points!

Everyone is just in it for themselves. There is an ulterior motive for everything. In fact, sometimes you can “help a friend” while making things far worse for them.

Sigh... If goodwill really exists... it’s not part of this scenario.

Note: You need Catan to play this scenario.
