PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF WESTERN SPRINGS

MARCH, 2015

EXPLORE:

During Lent on Sundays March 8, 15, and 22 after worship, the second hour educational opportunity for children, teens and adults is focused on "I am (not)".

It's a series that requires a bit of introspection because we'll explore the deeply personal reality of "I am happy, healthy, rested, strong, alive; not tired, depressed, crabby, stressed, dying when _____". Each Sunday, you may choose to go do something on your own or with your family that fills in this blank, that helps care for yourself, or you may choose to attend workshops that help you identify new ways to care for yourself. There will be workshops on prayer, meditation, faith, yoga, thoughtfulness, and more. A detailed schedule of workshops will be available in the bulletin announcements each week. We're hoping that people will share tips, practical suggestions, and personal examples of how they're filling in this blank throughout Lent.

Spaghetti Dinner - Saturday, March 14 Seatings at 5, 6 & 7 p.m.

Tickets are now on sale during fellowship hour on Sunday mornings or through the church office during the week through March 10. Choose your seating at the time of purchase.

Advanced Tickets: Adults $6 - Children (4-12) $3
At the Door: Adults $7 - Children $4

All proceeds will go towards the UPY Summer Mission Trip to Tennessee. Thank you in advance for your continued support of our youth!

Bring your friends and neighbors to enjoy a delicious homemade meal served with joy!

Annual Congregation Meeting - March 1

In this issue of Glad Tidings, you're receiving a copy of the congregation's annual report. Please bring it with you to the annual meeting, which will begin during worship, because we have things to celebrate that just make sense in the context of worship. There will be visual and aural presentations and we will give thanks. We'll briefly pause the meeting at the close of worship and invite you to grab a cup of coffee, take a seat in the Jones Room, and we'll take up the business that lends itself to discussion and vote.

It will be good to sit at tables, ask lots of questions, receive the 2015 budget and act on the pastors' terms of call, and more. It will all be interesting. It will all be important. And it will be much, much better if you join us.

Remember to set your clocks FORWARD one hour
Saturday night, March 8!

CONGREGATIONAL LIFE

I have a feeling March is going to feel like a long month. It includes four full weeks and three extra days. There are four full weeks of Lent and then Holy Week begins. The first day of Spring is March 20, but I have a feeling that it may still feel very wintry here. Hooray for people who have spring break! It will be here, just in time!

Mary Oliver's poetry is my antidote to winter doldrums, and other doldrums, too. Here's her poem, Spring:

*Somewhere a black bear
has just risen from sleep and is staring
down the mountain.
All night
in the brisk and shallow restlessness of early spring
I think of her,
her four black fists
flicking the gravel,
her tongue
like a red fire
touching the grass,
the cold water.
There is only one question:
how to love this world.
I think of her rising
like a black and leafy ledge*

*to sharpen her claws against the silence of the trees.
Whatever else
my life is
with its poems
and its music
and its glass cities,

it is also this dazzling darkness coming
down the mountain,
breathing and tasting;
all day I think of her --
her white teeth,
her wordlessness,
her perfect love.*

"There is only one question: how to love this world."

Together in the struggle,

Jennifer

All are welcome to join us and this is a great way to meet staff and leaders in the congregation. Children are welcome or child care can be arranged.

Please let Pastor Jennifer or our Director of Lay Ministries, Linda Murray (lfmurray99@hotmail.com) know if you'd like to attend. Hope to see you there!

Planning for the Future

Think about the part you want to play in your church's future. Naming your church as a beneficiary in your estate plan to create an endowment can assure your continued participation in the life and mission of your church far into the future.

Getting to Know Your Deacon: Erin Sullivan

On a recent trip in the church elevator, Erin Sullivan commented how shiny the doors looked. That's when the rest of us knew she was "officially" a church sexton. This bright and cheerful 16-year-old takes great pride in her job, always striving to do her best to keep our church spic and span. It's this same can-do attitude that makes her a perfect fit for her newest role as a youth Deacon. Read on for more about this compassionate, super-involved teenager.

One Great Hour of Sharing

As we begin the Lenten season, one of the things we consider as a congregation is our Lenten denominational offering: One Great Hour of Sharing (OGHS). Officially dedicated on Easter Sunday, April 5, this offering is a long-standing component of our Presbyterian heritage.

Each year, OGHS ministries provide immediate and long-term assistance to many in need via three essential programs:

Presbyterian Disaster Assistance
Self-Development of People
Presbyterian Hunger Program.

Many of the families and communities served have been affected by natural disasters. Others, many poor and hungry, are empowered by efforts which support the development of community gardening and micro-enterprise programs.

Throughout the season of Lent, you will find a series of inserts in your Sunday bulletins, highlighting the assistance provided through OGHS ministries. Please take a couple of minutes to read each insert to learn more about how we can each make a difference in the lives of many through our collective support of this program.

While this offering is officially dedicated on Easter Sunday, donations can be made any time during Lent, either with a specially designated envelope in the 2015 box of offering envelopes some may have received, with a check written to PCWS noting "OGHS" on the memo line, or give online through the Donate button in weekly emails or on the PCWS website.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration of a gift to the One Great Hour of Sharing ministry this Easter.

At the January meeting of Church Women United, the program was about human trafficking. There is a shop in Naperville that sells items made by, and profits go to, women at risk.

Human trafficking is the modern day slavery. We can help by visiting the WAR Chest Boutique (Women At Risk) located at 4 E. Jefferson Ave, Naperville (630) 904-9200, or shop on line at www.warinternational.org/store.

World Day of Prayer

Women, men and children in more than 170 countries and regions will celebrate World Day of Prayer, Friday, March 6, 2015. This year, the women of the WDP Committee of The Bahamas call us to consider Jesus' words to the disciples after washing their feet: "Do you understand what I have done for you?" The women of The Bahamas describe what Jesus does when he washes the disciples' feet as "radical love." Radical love comes from humility, compassion and commitment. God's radical love is not static or self-centered; it reaches out and draws others in.

Although we perhaps first associate this country of islands with the pleasures of vacation and images of tropical paradise, there is much more to learn. As we listen to our Bahamian sisters throughout the worship service, we see the transformation that occurs when a teen mother finds support to continue her education and to raise her child, when a breast cancer survivor or people living with HIV/AIDS find strength to live out their journeys, and when the chains of oppression and enslavement are broken. Through this service, the women of WDP Bahamas give us an invitation to beauty and love in the name of the transformative and radical love that Jesus brings to us all.

World Day of Prayer is a worldwide ecumenical movement of Christian women of many traditions who come together to observe a common day of prayer each year on the first Friday in March. World Day of Prayer was founded on the idea that prayer and action are inseparable. Services begin at sunrise in the Pacific and follow the sun across the globe on the day of celebration. Each year a different country's committee serves as the writers of the World Day of Prayer worship service.

World Day of Prayer USA promotes justice and equality for women through prayer, partnerships, service and celebration. For more information, visit the national office of World Day of Prayer USA (www.wdp-usa.org).

The Plant Tour

On Monday, Feb. 16, a dozen members of the church toured The Plant, a local Chicago not-for-profit warehouse filled with ideas and hopes for sustainability. The tour lasted over an hour. We began with an introduction to the overall vision of The Plant—for farms with closed-waste-loops, food business incubation, and sustainability education—before we saw how far they are from actualizing that hope. Their struggle for The Plant becoming truly “off the grid” and “closed-loop” is extremely complex and seemingly endless, and yet our tour guide showed a youthful determination to a achieve counter-cultural, patient kind of success.

In the basement, we saw wet, hanging logs that grow mushrooms, aquaponic systems for symbiotically farm-raised tilapia in conjunction with plants, as well as pools filled with thousands of shrimp. The tour challenged us all to think more sustainably and creatively, to see every aspect of materials already made as assets, and to consider what systems of waste in our homes, in our schools, at our work and in our church could become closed-looped instead of linear.
