

The Mustard Seed

GROWING CATHOLIC COMMUNITY

Once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the sky can dwell in its shade ~ Mark 4:32

Jesus looked at them and said, "For human beings it is impossible, but not for God. All things are possible for God." - Mk 10:27

The Mustard Seed is a weekly bulletin growing Catholic community through evangelization and connectivity in the community. The vision of the Mustard Seed is to walk together as disciples of Jesus Christ sharing the gifts of each person in meaningful ways. This new, small way of being community helps us work together in building up the Kingdom of God.

Last Sunday, many of us gathered at Saint Joseph Church for an opportunity to listen to one another. We shared thoughts and feelings about the merger. Everyone had an opportunity to write, on separate notecards, their "fears, hopes, and ideas." We read every notecard aloud and people then had a chance to speak and share.

Questions were raised about why the closure is happening. There were some concerns raised, accompanied with expressions of sadness, anger, and frustration. Overall, everyone was able to share and communicate in a very authentic and healthy manner. I was grateful for such honesty and solid input. This type of sincere communication is important for myself and each of the transition team members to hear. We are seeking to understand where our community is at so that we may develop reasonable and helpful plans in moving forward.

There were numerous and varied expressions of "fears, hopes, and ideas." Shared topics in each of the three areas included community and feeling welcome, ministries, music, Masses, and Mass times and locations. The transition team is now compiling a document of the "fears, hopes, and ideas" shared at the meeting. Once completed, we will publish these on the cluster website (www.catholicduluth.org). Thank you to every one of you who shared with our community on Sunday. I am grateful to each of you for your sharing.

The Transition Team will take time now to process the input, create next steps, and communicate those steps to the community. A key element to our process is continuing moments of dialogue with our community. We are listening; we are taking your input seriously. Various decisions will land on either the transition team, parish and/or finance councils, or myself. We will work collaboratively in this decision-making process.

We journey in charity through a time of paschal mystery, a time of suffering, death, and resurrection. I am very grateful for the charity you have demonstrated to one another. We will walk in love, hope, and faith as a community. Continue to pray for one another and know of my prayers for you.

May God bless you and may Jesus Christ be praised.

-Fr. Ryan

Saints of The Day

Mon	ST. TERESA OF JESUS
Tues	St. Hedwig St. Margaret Mary Alacoque
Wed	ST IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH
Thurs	ST LUKE THE EVANGELIST
Fri	STS JOHN DE BREBEUF AND ISAAC JOGUES AND COMPANIONS, MARTYRS
Sat	St. Paul of the Cross

St. Ignatius of Antioch.. The second Bishop of Antioch, Syria, this disciple of the beloved Disciple John was consecrated Bishop around the year 69 by the Apostle Peter, the first Pope. In yr 107, during the reign of the brutal Emperor Trajan, this holy Bishop was wrongfully sentenced to death because he refused to renounce the Christian faith. He was taken under guard to Rome where he was to be brutally devoured by wild beasts in a public spectacle. Bishop Ignatius was not afraid of death. He knew that it had been defeated by the Master. He followed the Lord Jesus into his Passion, knowing that he would rise with Him in his Resurrection. He wrote to the disciples in Rome: "Permit me to imitate my suffering God ... I am God's wheat and I shall be ground by the teeth of beasts, that I may become the pure bread of Christ". He died a Martyrs death in Rome, devoured by two lions in one of the cruel demonstrations of Roman excess and animosity toward the true faith.

Warm Clothing Drive As the weather gets colder, many people in our Duluth community will be needing warmer clothing. During the month of October, we will be collecting new or gently used winter clothing. Bring them to Holy Family or St. Lawrence. Items will be donated to Union Gospel Mission and Damiano Center.

"I never cease thanking God for you." (Ephesians 1:16) Thank you for everyone who helped make our Autumn 3:00 PM Bible Study successful. Thanks to Steve Reynolds for setting up the tables for the classes. Thanks to all who prepared the coffee and brought refreshments. Thanks to the many who attended, there were well over 100 people who attended one or more of the four afternoon sessions sharing your love of God and wisdom as we "broke open God's Word." I look forward to having another series of Bible Study classes as Advent nears when we will reflect on the Good News of the Advent season. Watch the Mustard Seed for details in coming weeks. With every good wish, -Chico Anderson, deacon

The Pope's October Intention
Evangelization: The Mission of Religious

That consecrated religious men and women may bestir themselves, and be present among the poor, the marginalized, and those who have no voice.

Please pray for the members of our parish cluster that are ill, homebound, or in nursing homes: Father, your only Son took upon himself the suffering and weakness of all mankind; through His passion and cross He taught us how good can be brought out of suffering. Look upon Frank Oman, Kelly Fleissner, Brenda Wennberg, Mark Pavlatos, Bonnie Nepstad, Terri Jensen, Joan Barrett, Jennifer Voge, Cade Voge, Hugo Leider, Donna DeTofol, David Gehlen, Joe Brahman, Jim Fisher Sr, Rosanne Mellsmoen, Diane Wagner & Jean Esler who are ill. In the midst of illness and pain, may they be united with Christ, who heals both body and soul; may they know the consolation promised to those who suffer and be fully restored to health, Through Christ our Lord Amen.

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

We extend a warm welcome to those who are visiting, or, if you are looking to join us, please feel free to call the office to join any of our cluster families of faith.
