Advance Your Career in Project Management

Our Project Management Qualifications

Project management is an essential part of the modern workplace – every organisation undertakes projects, as they evolve. And today more than ever, the value of strong, coordinated, efficient project management systems are at a premium; and trained, qualified professionals are consistently in high demand.

In fact, project management is ranked as one of the fastest growing sectors in the Australian labour market, with expected job openings and wages both substantially above the average.

Whether it is the substantial funding being allocated to new infrastructure projects, the rapid growth in healthcare services, or the baby boomers retiring from government roles, training for a career in Project Management now really is an unprecedented opportunity to put yourself in the right place at the right time.

Who is this course for?

Are you involved in managing complex projects?
Or would you like to move into Project Management?
This Diploma of Project Management is designed just for you.

Learn how to manage complex projects based on the international Project Management Body of Knowledge PMBOK – project, time, scope, cost, communication, procurement, risk...

Develop practical project management skills and learn how to manage the overall project, bringing it in on time and under budget!

Here's what one of our students thinks...

"I would recommend this training to others as the support is great. The most significant impact I have had is being able to solidify my Project Management knowledge and expand my understanding in areas, such as various ways to approach programming for a project, rather than just relying on proprietary computer based programs."

Graham Bickerstaf

Where can this course take you?

Becoming a Professional Project Manager with formal project management qualifications is a MUST have to advance your career in Project Management. Completing your Diploma of Project Management will also give you project management letters after your name and practical project management skills and techniques that are recognised and valued Australia wide and internationally.

Who is this course for?

If you have either :

- 2 years of full time experience in a Human Resources role, or;
- A Certificate IV in Human Resources.

During this course, you will discover and implement practical strategies that will make a REAL difference to developing and implementing performance management processes, managing people performance, developing job descriptions, advertising staff vacancies, assessing applications and interviewing applicants, and providing recommendations to management.

Here's what one of our students thinks...

"Before I started this qualification, I knew bits and pieces of HR as I had been in this role for 5 years.

Completing this qualification has made me a lot more confident. I can back myself up as I have all the knowledge behind me now. I recommend it to anyone in my field."

Simone Blackmore

Where can this course take you?
