Why Golden Hurricane?

Enter the name Howard Acher as the Tulsa head football coach in 1922. When he took over the position, Acher saw great potential in his team and wanted to publicize it by creating a new identity with a new nickname. Sports writers and others had called the school by any number of names from the Presbyterians to the Orange and Black, to the Kendallites.

After an opening day win against a strong Texas Christian University team in 1922, Acher put his mind to work. The press had claimed that the Kendall football team blew through its opponents like a tornado. So, it figured that Tornadoes would be the nickname with "golden" added to identify the color of the uniforms. However, it was later found that Georgia Tech had claimed that name, so from tornado it was evolved meteorologically to a hurricane. Thus the squad voted, and the name "Golden Hurricane" became the new team moniker with the gold added because of the jersey color.

EARNING DEGREES

Frank Haith has made achievement in the classroom as much of a priority as success on the basketball court over his nearly 15 years as a head coach. Since arriving at Tulsa, 19 of the program's 20 seniors (95-percent) have graduated, including DaQuan Jeffries, Alex Foree, Sterling Taplin, Lindsay Deline Jr. and Curran Scott from last year's team.

Additionally, Tulsa has had at least two student-athletes recognized on the American Athletic Conference All-Academic Team in each of Haith's five seasons. Last year, Tulsa placed eight student-athletes (George Christopoulos, Lindsay Deline Jr., Alex Foree, Peter Hewitt, Jeriah Horne, Martins Igbanu, Reggie Jones and Curran Scott) on the team, which honors student-athletes with at least a 3.0 GPA.

The junior class includes a pair of JUCO transfers in Brandon Rachal and Emmanuel Ugboh, along with Reggie Jones, who played his first two seasons at Western Michigan before transferring to Tulsa. • In all, Tulsa's 14-man roster has a combined 18 years of Division I playing experience.

THE SENIORS

• The only seniors on the Tulsa roster this year is 6'8" Martins Igbanu and 6'5" Lawson Korita.
• They have each started games since their freshman seasons… the two players have now combined to start 128 games, 77 for Igbanu and 51 for Korita.
• Last year, they combined to score 25-percent of Tulsa's points and 24-percent of Tulsa's rebounds.
• Igbanu averaged the second-highest point total behind DaQuan Jefferies, now with the Sacramento Kings, with 12.5 points, while Korita was the 6th leading scorer with a 5.7 average.
• Igbanu's .616 field goal percentage was second in the American Athletic Conference behind UCF's Tacko Fall's .748 percentage.
• This year, Igbanu averages 9.0 points and 3.7 rebounds in 23.4 minutes, while Korita averages 5.2 points in 22.5 minutes … Korita had his best game among the first 5 against ORU, scoring 13 points on 4-of-5 from the field, 2-of-2 from 3-point range and 3-of-3 from the free throw line.

*18 wins vacated by Missouri from the 2013-14 season

Frank Haith is in his sixth year as head basketball coach at The University of Tulsa.

Haith was named the program's 30th head coach on April 18, 2014. He carries more than 30 years of collegiate coaching experience and 19 years of advancing to postseason competition. His teams have averaged over 18 wins on the court in his 16 seasons as head coach, while compiling an overall 287-196 record (305-196 on-court mark, .609) for a .595 winning percentage, including a 100-67 (.599) record at Tulsa. Ten of his 14 teams have advanced to postseason competition.

In his first season at TU in 2014-15, Haith led the Golden Hurricane to a 23-11 record and an appearance in the second round of the postseason NIT. The Hurricane, which was picked to finish fifth in its first season of competition in the American Athletic Conference, finished second in the league with a 14-4 record and advanced to the semifinals of the AAC Tournament. TU boasted a 12-game winning streak during the season, which included a 10-0 start to conference play – its best league start since 1968-69.

In just his second season, TU reached the NCAA Tournament for the 16th time in program history, and the fourth time in Haith's head coaching career. The Hurricane tied for third in The American, and for the second straight year, James Woodard and Shaquille Harrison earned all-conference honors.

Last season, Haith guided the Hurricane to 18 wins and TU outperformed its preseason prediction for the fifth-straight season. DaQuan Jeffries led the team in scoring and earned all-conference recognition before capping his career at TU by winning the College Slam Dunk title at the Final Four in Minneapolis. The Golden Hurricane posted 14 victories at home during the campaign, including wins over Oklahoma State and nationally-ranked Kansas State, which was its most in the Reynolds Center since the 2009-10 season.

In all, Haith's Tulsa teams have compiled 20 wins, and advanced to the postseason in two of his five seasons, while players have collected six all-conference honors. Additionally, Tulsa has notched 54 league wins under Haith (2014-present), which ranks fifth in the conference during that span.

Haith was the 2012 Associated Press and United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) National Coach of the Year, while he also was a National Coach of the Year finalist in 2005. Before coming to Tulsa, he spent the previous 10 seasons as a head coach, including seven seasons at Miami (Fla.), followed by a three-year stint at Missouri.

Haith has transitioned all three programs into new conferences, moving Miami from the Big East Conference to the Atlantic Coast Conference and Missouri from the Big 12 Conference into the Southeastern Conference. Tulsa transitioned into the American Athletic Conference from Conference USA on July 1, 2014.

In his three seasons at Missouri, Haith's teams posted a 76-28 record and advanced to the postseason in all three campaigns with a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances (2012-13) along with a spot in the 2014 National Invitational Tournament. Haith became the fastest Mizzou head coach to post 50 wins and he was the winningest coach at Missouri through two seasons with a 53-16 record (.768).

His first team at Missouri was picked to finish fourth in the Big 12 preseason poll but went on to record a school-record 30 victories and claim the Big 12 Tournament crown before it earned a No. 2 seed in the 2012 NCAA Tournament. The Tigers' 14 league wins also were a program record before winning their second-ever Big 12 Tournament title.

Following the historic season, Haith received recognition in the form of numerous coaching accolades, highlighted by the prestigious

Henry Iba National Coach of the Year and Associated Press National Coach of the Year honors. He also was named the Big 12 Coach of the Year and was the USBWA District VI Coach of the Year. As a first-year coach, Haith guided his team to more regular-season wins than any other Mizzou coach before him, and he became the first Tiger head coach since 1920-21 to win his first 14 games.

The Tigers followed that up with a 23-11 record and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2012-13 before a 23-12 mark in Haith's final season.

Missouri was the lone college basketball program in the 2012-13 season to advance to NCAA Tournament play with just one returning starter. Prior to Missouri's NCAA Tournament run that year, the Tigers enjoyed their second undefeated season in Mizzou Arena history, going 17-0 at home with wins over a pair of nationally-ranked opponents, including No. 5 Florida.

During Haith's tenure, Missouri posted a 10-8 record against top-25 teams, including five wins versus schools ranked among the top-10 nationally.

In his first of seven seasons at Miami, Haith guided the `Canes to seven ACC victories (despite being picked last) and qualified for postseason play in 2004-05. He was named a Naismith National Coach of the Year finalist and National Association of Basketball Coaches District 6 Coach of the Year in 2005.

Miami returned to postseason play in 2006 as the Hurricanes won 18 games and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NIT, recording the program's first postseason victories since 2000. Over his final four seasons, Haith's Miami squads averaged 21 wins per season, with four consecutive postseason trips, while three of the school's six all-time 20-win ledgers came under Haith. His Miami teams won six total games in the NCAA and NIT, including a memorable run to the second round of the Big Dance in 2008. The `Canes went 23-11 in Haith's fourth season, just one win shy of the school record and he was named a finalist for ACC Coach of the Year and Skip Prosser Man of the Year honors.

During his time as a head coach, Haith's players were visible in the community, while he also saw an incredible 31-of-33 seniors walk across the stage to receive a diploma.

Haith paid his own way through Elon and graduated in 1988, while beginning his coaching career as a student assistant coach at the school in 1986. Haith helped the Phoenix twice win 20 games and he earned the opportunity to coach at Wake Forest in the 1989-90 season as a graduate assistant.

His first full-time coaching position on the Division I level came at UNC-Wilmington from 1990-92, and he then went on to a three-year stint at Texas A&M from 1992-95, in which he helped the Aggies reach postseason play in 1994.

A remarkable 21-win campaign during his lone season at Penn State (1995-96) allowed the Nittany Lions to reach the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 31 years, and he returned to Texas A&M and the Big 12 Conference for one season as the Aggies' Associate Head Coach in 1996-97. He then returned to Wake Forest for the 1997-98 season. The Demon Deacons reached postseason play each of his four years in Winston-Salem, including an NIT Championship in 2000 and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2001.

Haith parlayed that success at Wake Forest into an opportunity at Texas. Under Rick Barnes, Haith was, at the time, a part of the winningest three-year stretch in Texas Basketball history. The Longhorns averaged better than 24 wins per season and never failed to reach the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament. The Longhorns advanced to the Final Four in 2003 and Haith worked magic on the recruiting trail, ushering four McDonald's All-Americans to Austin, including Brad Buckman (2002), LaMarcus Aldridge (2004), Daniel Gibson (2004) and Michael Williams (2004). Texas' 2004 recruiting class was rated No. 2 nationally by Rivals.com, while Aldridge became the No. 2 overall draft pick by the Chicago Bulls in the 2006 NBA Draft.

Born in Queens, N.Y., Haith spent most of his childhood growing up in Burlington, N.C. He is one of 11 siblings. Haith and his wife Pam have two children: Corey, and Brianna.
