SCOUTING THE CARDINALS

- Louisville faces James Madison for their second of three straight home games to open up the season. They took down Western Michigan in the season opener, 6-2, as Julia Simon and Nina Nicosia both scored two goals.
- Simon and Nicosia lead the Cardinals in points and goals, while Brooke Dardano also picked up three points on a goal and a pair of assists. Nicosia leads the team with five shots.
- In goal, Gabby Kouzelos has spent all 90:00 and has picked up three saves. She has a 2.00 goals against average.

SCOUTING THE DUKES

- JMU returns to the field after bouncing back from a season-opening loss to VCU, picking up a 4-0 win over American on Sunday.
- Four different Dukes have scored, with Lidia Nduka and Ebony Wiseman leading the way with three points each on a goal and an assist. Amanda Attanasi and Ariana Reyes have also scored. Attanasi leads the team in shots (five) and shots on goal (three).
- Alexandra Blom has spent the majority time in goal for JMU, 171:27 to be precise. She has made nine saves and posts a 0.52 GAA.

SERIES HISTORY

- This will be the second ever meeting between JMU and Louisville, with the Dukes earning the win last time they faced.
- The Dukes and Cardinals last faced off in the inaugural season of JMU women's soccer, as JMU earned a 5-1 win on Oct. 21, 1990 in Harrisonburg.

QUICK KICKS

- Ginger Deel and Ebony Wiseman were both selected to the Preseason All-CAA Team as honorable mentions.
- The Dukes were picked fifth to win the league, following Hofstra, Elon, UNCW, and Northeastern.
- Rob Donnenwirth and Devin Zvosec are new additions to the coaching staff, with Donnenwirth coming from Arkansas and Zvosec joining from North Florida.
- Three of the five point scorers in the win over American racked up points for the first time in their careers. Amanda Attanasi and Ariana Reyes both scored their first goals, while Lexi Vanderlinden was credited with her first two assists.

JAMES MADISON SOCCER

Joshua Walters, Sr.
Education: Columbia Southern, '04
Record at JMU: 22-24-4 (Fourth Season)
Career record: Same

James Madison Director of Athletics Jeff Bourne appointed Joshua Walters, Sr. as the second women's soccer head coach in JMU history on Friday, Feb. 2, heading into the 29th year of the program in 2018.

Walters' third season at the helm was during a shortened spring 2021 season where the Dukes finished 1-3-2. Ginger Deel, Ebony Wiseman, and Lexi Vanderlinden all were named to All-CAA teams.

In his second season, the Dukes finished 9-12-1 and earned the No. 6 seed for the CAA Tournament after beginning the season 2-7. The Dukes then took down the No. 2 and 3 seeds in the tournament before making their first appearance in the CAA Finals since 2015 where they took on top-seeded Hofstra.

Four Dukes were named to All-CAA teams with Ebony Wiseman being named to the First Team and Iris Rabot, Ginger Deel, and Wiseman earned All-Tournament nods.

In just his first season with the Dukes, Walters immediately made his presence felt, leading the Dukes to massive turnaround as JMU turned a 1-6 start to the season into an 11-8-1 campaign that saw it capture the 2018 CAA Regular Season Championships along the way.

Five different Dukes were named to All-CAA teams in the title-winning campaign, highlighted by Haley Crawford and Ginger Deel earning First Team nods, while Walters himself was named the CAA Coach of the Year in just his first year at the helm.

Walters took over for Dave Lombardo, who retired in November of 2017 after 28 years as the only head coach in JMU women's soccer history and ranked 12th in NCAA Division I history with 415 career victories, including 337 at James Madison.

For the five seasons prior to his arrival in Harrisonburg, Walters served on the coaching staff as recruiting coordinator at UCLA, spending the first four seasons as assistant coach before being elevated to associate head coach in 2017. His time in Los Angeles started with the 2013 NCAA Division I national championship, while he was personally recognized as the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) Pacific Region Assistant Coach of the Year. As recruiting coordinator, he assembled the No. 1 incoming class in the country in 2016 and followed that with the No. 2 class nationally in 2017. The Bruins went 85-20-11 during his five seasons in blue and gold.

Prior to UCLA, Walters coached one year at UCF in a similar capacity as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator. He helped guide the Knights to a 17-5-2 overall record and the first Conference USA title in program history. UCF advanced to the NCAA Tournament and established program-best marks for fewest goals allowed (12) and most shutouts (15), while ending the season ranked 20th nationally.

For two seasons (2010-2011), Walters was the director of soccer operations at Florida State, with responsibility for the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, gameday operations and community involvement. The Seminoles were ACC champions and reached the national semifinals in 2011 after reaching the NCAA quarterfinals in 2010.

Walters began his collegiate coaching journey on the staff at Houston for the 2005 and 2006 seasons before going on to two seasons as assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Utah State for the 2007, 2008 and 2009 campaigns, including a pair of WAC Championships in 2008 and 2009. Along with his duties for Utah State, Walters also earned positions on both the Region IV and Utah Olympic Development Program (ODP) staffs.

A 10-year military veteran, Walters served 12 months as a First Lieutenant with Brigade S2 (Military Intelligence) of the Florida National Guard during Operation Enduring Freedom V in Bagram, Afghanistan. While in Afghanistan, Walters set up and directed a soccer clinic, as well as a series of games, for Afghan youths. He later made a presentation on his experiences to the 2005 NSCAA Convention and was awarded the NSCAA Honorary All-American Award. During his military deployment, Walters received the Bronze Star for Valor and Service, the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal.

JAMES MADISON SOCCER

Walters' coaching career started in Tallahassee at Godby High School, where he coached from 1998-2000. He was the head coach and an assistant coach at Lawton Chiles High School in Tallahassee from 2000-05. Additionally, he was the Top of Florida Soccer Club until 2001 and head coach of the Tallahassee United Futbol Club in 2002.

"I can't wait to get started with the team, get to know them and find ways we can grow together," Walters said. "I believe in developing players as decision makers, athletes and leaders. During the interview process, I could feel a hunger to win from this group of players. This spring will be about fueling that desire and getting us ready to compete in the CAA."

Walters received his associate's degree of the arts from Marion Military Institute in 1998. He then received his bachelor of arts in sports management and graduated cum laude from Columbia Southern University in Alabama in 2004. He holds a United Soccer Coaches Premier Diploma, as well as a United Soccer Coaches Goalkeeper Advance National license.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Walters is married to the former Amy Lucas, a former Ole Miss soccer player. They have four young children, Joshua Jr. ("J.J."), Rylan, Avonlea and Carolina.
