The Breakdown

Tigers Host Final Nonconference Home Match of 2018

The LSU soccer team (5-1-0) is set to host the Samford Bulldogs in the final nonconference home match of the season for the Tigers on Sunday at 4 p.m. The match will air live on ESPN.

Series History - Samford

This is the second meeting between the two programs. In the first and only matchup, LSU won a 2OT thriller in the first round of the NCAA Tournament when Roslyn Jones' header found the back of the net in the 107th minute of play to give LSU the 1-0 victory. It was the first NCAA Tournament win in LSU program history.

The Winning Streak

LSU has reeled off five straight wins after dropping the season opener to Villanova 2-1 in overtime. The Tigers have outscored their opponents in this five-game stretch by a tally of 9-0. This is the ninth time in program history that LSU has registered a win streak of at least five games during a season. It's the second time in program history that the Tigers have registered a five-game winning streak in back-to-back seasons. LSU won seven in a row to start the 2017 campaign, and the other occasion came in 2002 (nine in a row/school record) and 2003 (five in a row).

NCAA Leader | Blanked by Brockmeier

Caroline Brockmeier tallied the 19th shutout of her career on Thursday night against Stetson. She was tested twice during the game in the 36th and 79th minutes and she made both of those saves with ease. Brockmeier has not allowed a goal in the last 450 minutes of play which is a career best. She had a stretch from the end of her sophomore year to the beginning of her junior year that she didn't allow a goal for 447 minutes of play. Her five shutouts in LSU's first six games are tied for the SEC and NCAA lead. There has been four instances in LSU's 24-year history that the Tigers have registered four-straight shutouts or more; two of those occasions have come in 2017 and 2018 with Brockmeier in net.

Attacking Adrienne

Sophomore forward Adrienne Richardson has added a dynamic skillset to LSU's attacking front in 2018. A transfer from Florida State, Richardson arrived in Baton Rouge in January and has immediately stepped right in and helped bolster LSU's offense. The Oakdale, Minn., native has already scored a team-high four goals and nine points in 2018. Her first breakout came on Aug. 26 against Texas State. She scored goals in the 21st and 71st minutes of the match against Texas State to lead LSU to a 2-0 win. Nine days later as LSU traveled to Lamar for a showdown on Sept. 4, she recorded another multi-goal performance with scores in the 38th and 55th minutes. She leads the SEC in shots per game (4.50) and her 0.67 goals scored per game ranks sixth in the conference.

Last Time Out

The freshmen duo of Abbey Newton and Molly Thompson accounted for both of LSU's goals on Thursday night at LSU Soccer Stadium to propel the Tigers to their fifth-straight triumph, a 2-0 win over Stetson. Abbey Newton scored the second goal of her collegiate career (35th minute), while Molly Thompson tallied her first collegiate goal with a right-footed strike in the 79th minute.

International Flavor

LSU has seven student-athletes on the roster that hail from outside of the United States. The foursome of Tinaya Alexander, Shannon Cooke, Lucy Parker and Chiara Ritchie-Williams all came across the pond from England. Reese Moffatt and Jade Clarke came to Baton Rouge via British Columbia, and Caitie Cantrill arrived in the states from Australia.

Offensive Variety

LSU's 10 goals this season have come from five different players. Adrienne Richardson owns the team lead with four goals. Abbey Newton and Marlena Cutura have scored two goals apiece, and all four of those goals have been game winners. Molly Thompson and Alex Thomas, who each have one goal, are the fourth and fifth goal scorers for the Tigers in 2018.

Cutura Clicking

Marlena Cutura registered the first multi-assist game of her career on Thursday night. The first came off a corner and the second was a delicately delivered lead ball sent in to Thompson. You could make the argument that Cutura is playing the best soccer of her career right now. She has scored six points (2 goals & 2 assists) in her last three contests played to give her a career high for points registered in a season and we're only five games into 2018. Both of her goals have also been game winners.

Roster Breakdown

LSU has 32 athletes on the roster for the 2018 season. Caroline Brockmeier, Alex Thomas and Christyna Pitre are the only three seniors on the roster for 2018. Thomas, Pitre and Brockmeier headline the senior class that will look to take the Tigers back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2015.

Fresh Faces

LSU has had five true freshman play this year – Abbey Newton, Shannon Cooke, Reese Moffatt, Molly Thompson and Meghan Johnson have all earned playing time. Newton has scored two goals and registered an assist to tie for second on the team in points registered with six. Thompson scored her first-career collegiate goal on Thursday night in the 79th minute, and the duo of Cooke and Moffatt have played big time minutes on the backline to aid Brockmeier's five-game shutout streak.
