THE FOUR FACTORS TO CONSIDER WHEN
BOOKING TRAVEL

THE FOUR FACTORS

1 Price

2 Value

3 Convenience

4 Safety

AN OVERVIEW OF THE STRATEGY

Let's face it, if you are not a travel expert or a travel agent, how can you be sure that what you are buying is actually what you are getting?

Well, we have a solution, and that is to share in the benefits of the world's largest and most reputable travel organization.

So where do we begin?

Let's take this one step at a time. As I mentioned in my webinar, I was introduced to a travel organization called World Ventures™ by a friend, and like any rational person, I was skeptical. I've sat through timeshare sessions and have tried out a few travel clubs in my day, but I found this travel organization to be different.

It was hands down better than any other competition in the market. It was even better than using outside travel agents or online booking search engines to find travel deals. I did my homework, I spoke to a few others that had joined, and they all said the same thing, “that this was the real deal”, and they raved about all of the trips they had been on and the amazing deals they got. They showed me pictures of beautiful places I had only dreamed of going to, and I was eager to get things started.

For me, however, when it comes to travel, it is not always about the price. I want value, and I want to have a curated experience. Anyone can travel on the cheap, but to get a great trip that also happens to be a great deal, now that's something that got my attention.

S O W H Y
WORLD VENTURES™

As I said, I did my homework. I felt comfortable to do business with World Ventures™, a Company that reached almost $1 Billion Dollars in sales last year with a price pledge* to ensure the best price on all trips or you get 110% of the difference for flights, hotels, and DreamTrips™ up to $500.

THE CATCH

Now I am a rational person, and as I said, I had a feeling like there was a catch coming. So I asked my friend, “What’s the catch”?

Well he said, “There is no catch, you just have to be a member to go”.
And that was it, I jumped in and have never looked back.

Now, I would like to share a story with you about my first DreamTrip™.

DESCRIBED

Like I said, a friend asked me to go. It was hosted on a yacht with only 87 guests aboard. I was intrigued. “87 guests”, I said? “Yeah, and a crew staff of 93 people”, he said. It was almost a one-to-one ratio of guest to crew staff.

We sailed the Caribbean to the Islands of St. Kitts, Nevis, Antigua, and St. Barts. Not only was the price affordable and much below the retail rate, they provide us with more benefits. We had an NFL Super Bowl Beach Party orchestrated for us on the beach and they monogrammed our names on yacht emblem pajamas just in case we wanted to sleep on the Balinese beds on the top deck and sleep under the stars. They catered every meal and all drinks were on the house.

I cannot expect you to relate to my experience, but I can say that having a 5-star travel experience like this on a 3-star budget has hooked me into making this a way of life...

EXPLAINED

All of this has given me the courage to book destinations I would have never done on my own and a pricing model that allows me to take family and friends with me where otherwise I could not afford, and the luxury to spend more quality time together while we are all still able. Life is short.

I want to make the most of my memories, don't you?

The Company* makes a point to curate and theme their trips, like surrounding their DreamTrips™ with Arts and Culture, Active Sports Adventures and Events like soccer, basketball, horse racing, NASCAR or football, and Culinary, Health and Wellness trips as well. They vendor with all the top cruise lines and even have relationships with small boutique vendors like my first DreamTrip™ mentioned. In addition, I have my own booking engine website portal*, so I can plan my own adventure, on my own time, during any part of the year when I have time off. I still receive the best hotel, car rental, and airline fare with any self-created trips. I can honestly say there really only was one catch; I just had to be a member, and I am so glad I signed up.

I even got a nice surprise that I was not expecting. After I signed up and went on my first DreamTrip™ I told a few friends about it, and they all became members. What I didn't know was that if I referred 4 people to the membership and if they remained active members, I got my membership for free! In addition, there are no membership contracts, no maintenance fees, no unexpected assessments owed, or annual dues.

There are really no good reasons not to do this.
