Thanksgiving—365 Days a Year!

This is the time of year in the United States and also in Canada when we celebrate a special holiday—Thanksgiving. As the holiday season approaches, our thoughts begin to turn toward family and friends. But we need to be careful that we do not allow Thanksgiving to become just another day when we get together with our loved ones to feast and watch football games. We need to remember that Thanksgiving is a time of giving thanks to God!

The Bible gives us scripture after scripture on the subject of thanksgiving. Psalm 100:4 tells us, “Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.” And Colossians 1:12-13 says, “Giving thanks unto the Father . . . Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.”

As we approach this season, we need to do so with thanksgiving in our hearts because God has given us so much. But I believe we can't have a true attitude of thanksgiving if we are not reaching out to those who are less fortunate than we are.

This Thanksgiving, many people will sit down to eat a meal while their hearts are crying out. They will not be enjoying the benefits of this great salvation that God has given us, and there will be no joy of thanksgiving in their hearts.

If you and I had not learned the truth of God's Word, God only knows where we would be today. We need to be thankful every day that Jesus Christ was born, that He died for our sins, and that He rose again. Every day we need to be thankful for His amazing grace!

Thanksgiving should not be something that we celebrate just one day of the year. Thanksgiving with God should be 365 days a year, 24 hours a day, 60 minutes an hour, and 60 seconds a minute. With every tick of the clock, with every breath we breathe, there should be thanksgiving in our hearts!

// KENNETH W. HAGIN

After the death of Moses, the children of Israel once again stood at the edge of what God had promised them. They had wandered in the wilderness for 40 years and were about to enter the Promised Land. The last time they'd stood at this place, they had refused to cross the Jordan River. But 40 years later, they were finally going to step into the blessings of God.

During the Israelites' time in the wilderness, they had to rely constantly on God to provide food and water. They had only just enough to get by and never came into the fullness of what God intended for them.

Unfortunately, many of us today feel as though we are living in a wilderness. We need to realize, however, that God wants us to have everything He promised us in His Word. He wants to do some wonderful things in our lives. And I believe that we as the Church are on the threshold of stepping into the supernatural blessings of God!

Before the Israelites crossed the Jordan River, Joshua told them, "Sanctify yourselves: for tomorrow the Lord will do wonders among you" (Josh. 3:5).

Joshua was telling the people to get ready, because they were going to a new level of living. They were going to experience a new level of provision and blessing. This was the hour they had been waiting for. This was a new day—a pivotal moment for them.

I believe the Body of Christ is also at a pivotal moment. And we are the ones who will choose our outcome. The Israelites could either go into the Promised Land or be satisfied with wilderness living. Likewise, we can be satisfied with where we are, or we can rise to a new level with God. I believe it's time to cast off the darkness of the past and realize that the dawn of a new day is here.

Second Corinthians 6:2 in the New English Bible says, "In the hour of my favour I gave heed to you; On the day of deliverance I came to your aid. The hour of favour has now come; now, I say, has the day of deliverance dawned." The word dawn indicates a new beginning. We are getting rid of the old darkness; the light of a new day has come.

The Israelites had to transform from a slave mentality to a conqueror mentality. To receive what God has for us, we also must

The Word of God is our way out. It's our way out of the mundane . . . and into an abundant life.

A New Day Is Here!

(Editor's Note: This article was adapted from Kenneth W. Hagin's book Healing—Forever Settled.)

If we want to go to another level with God, we have to think the same way He does.

change the way we think—not only about ourselves, but about what God will do for us. To get to the place where the Lord can do amazing things in our lives, we first have to change within.

Some people never rise to a higher position in life because they can't see themselves in a new way. For instance, some chronically ill people can't see themselves as well. They've been sick for so long that they can't imagine living like healthy, normal people. The same is true with finances. Some Christians have lived in lack for such a long time that they can't see themselves as prosperous.

If we want to go to another level with God, we have to think the same way He does. We do that by getting to know Him on a more intimate level through His Word and prayer. We need to renew our minds with the Word of God and consecrate and prepare ourselves for the amazing things that He wants to do for us and in us.

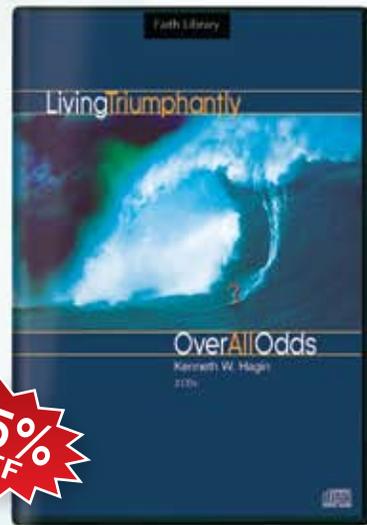

God did not sentence us to “barely-get-along” street. He has planned a Promised Land for our abundance. And He wants us to move up a level. He wants us to have abundance in wisdom; abundance in health; abundance in love, joy, and peace; abundance in finances; and abundance in power and strength.

The Word of God is our way out. It's our way out of the mundane, barely-get-along lifestyle and into an abundant life. Matthew 6:33 tells us, “Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.” As we seek God's Kingdom, we can expect His blessings to be added to us.

In every generation, God is looking for people who will consecrate and dedicate themselves to Him so He can show them His blessings. He wants to pour out on us His maximum, superabundant, over-the-top blessings—not minimum, barely enough tokens of provision.

Let's get ready—let's sanctify ourselves to the Lord and expect His blessings to be added unto us. 🍷

THE TAKEOVER

We were going to write about how amazing AXIS® Youth Summer Camp 2010 was, but those who experienced it said it so well that we decided to let them tell you.

YOUTH TESTIMONIES

"David* had a prayer line for people whose parents have a terminal illness. My mom, my sister, and I went down because my dad has cancer. Up until that moment, I'd been scared to talk about it. I'd been walking in fear since I found out. Today on my Facebook I said that my dad is healed. I'm walking in faith, and I'm not scared to talk about it anymore."

— R. A.

"During one of the services, David called for those who were depressed or suicidal to come to the front. I went down because I'd been dealing with both. When I was younger I used to cut myself, and I was thinking about doing it again. I started crying, because it was a big deal for me to tell people about my cutting and suicidal thoughts. When I was prayed for, I heard God tell me I was worth more than [cutting myself]."

— B. G.

"My parents had been fighting before I left for camp. My mom told me my dad was going to go back to Chicago, but we were going to stay in Tulsa. She said, 'By the time you get back from camp, he'll be gone.' He had already packed up half of his stuff before I even left. We prayed about it at camp and had a little Bible study. When we got back, both of my parents picked me up. I asked them what was going on, and they said my dad was staying. When I asked why, they said it was because of God, and asked if I had been praying. I said, 'Of course I was. I was at church camp!'"

— G. B.

"My back was really hurting me to the point where I couldn't play in the [camp] Olympic Games. One night David had an altar call for healing, but I didn't go up because I was nervous. At one point, he walked by me and my back popped and I was healed!"

— M. M.

"I was depressed for a long time. I attempted suicide and used to cut myself. When David called for people dealing with those kinds of issues, I went forward and cried like a baby. Ever since David prayed for me, I've felt peace. I feel like I can get to God and I'm joyful!"

— C. J.

"Lately I've been going through a lot of stuff and felt like I was far away from God. At one of the services, God was telling me to let some stuff go in my life, and I did. He told me, 'Now I can use you.' Later that service I was able to pray for some of my friends, and I felt like He was really using me because of the stuff I had given to Him."

— K. M.

OH CANADA, HOW WE LOVE YOU!

Eight days, four cities, and three time zones. From July 9th through 16th, Kenneth and Lynette Hagin traveled 4,600 miles bringing uplifting words to friends, partners, and RHEMA graduates in Canada.

At Capital City Church in Ottawa on the first day of the meetings, the Holy Spirit set the stage for what God wanted to do during the week. Lynette Hagin gave forth this word of prophecy:

“There’s about to be a mighty explosion in this country, and this Gospel shall be preached and a mighty harvest shall be reaped. And there shall be a great awakening as you have never experienced before. So prepare your hearts and make the way for that great awakening.”

And those who attended the Living Faith Crusades held across Canada eagerly soaked in every message that was preached to get ready for that mighty move of God.

At Destiny & Dominion Word Ministries in Toronto, Lynette Hagin declared, “It’s been awhile since my husband and I have been to Canada. But we can tell there’s a change in the spiritual atmosphere of Canada. I’m excited about it. The change is happening because everyone is taking their place and doing their part to push on through the hard places.”

The Bible says that as the disciples preached the Gospel, the Lord confirmed His Word by accompanying signs (Mark 16:20). And the same was true for Kenneth and Lynette Hagin. Their power-packed messages produced results. At every service, some accepted Jesus as their Lord and Savior, others rededicated their lives to the Lord, and still others received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.

Everywhere they went, the Hagins laid hands on people who desired healing. In one service a man testified that he’d had lower back pain for six months. But after Kenneth Hagin laid hands on him, he was instantly healed. “I felt fire in my abdomen first,” he said, “and then it moved to my lower and middle back. It felt like a thousand little cracks—like many fingers going up and down my back.”

A woman testified that she had suffered tendinitis in her right shoulder and had not been able to lift her arm for two years. She came forward for healing after Kenneth Hagin had a word of knowledge about a shoulder, and she was instantly healed! She is now able to lift her arm high above her head.

“We can tell there’s a change in the spiritual atmosphere of Canada.”

— L Y N E T T E H A G I N

In Edmonton, Alberta, Kenneth Hagin encouraged those who came to Victory Christian Center to put their faith in the written Word of God and it will see them through. The devil devours those who let up on the Word. But if we are full of the Word, that Word will come out of our mouths the minute the devil shows up.

you give God what you’ve got, He’ll turn it into a lot!

Throughout the week, the Hagins held luncheons for RHEMA Bible Training Center alumni and ministers. Kenneth Hagin encouraged them not to depart from what God had called them to do. “Revival begins in you,” he said. “Stir yourself up and restore to their roots. Adrian Weening, Director of Kenneth Hagin Ministries of Canada, aptly summed up the week of meetings. “My wife, Irene, and I are so grateful that Kenneth and Lynette Hagin have invested in our nation. We had it in our hearts that this week would be a major factor in helping bring in the revival that we are believing for. We’re so grateful that the Hagins would take the time to come. We were expecting great things, but God has done above and beyond what we were expecting. Canada will never be the same as a result of their visit.”♥

“There’s about to be a mighty explosion in this country, and this Gospel shall be preached and a mighty harvest shall be reaped.”

On the last night of the crusades in Langley, British Columbia, Kenneth Hagin closed the final session with fiery, evangelistic preaching. He reminded the congregation gathered at Loft Ministries that God has an unlimited supply. And when

FULFILLING THE VISION AROUND THE WORLD

Bonn. Wels. Verona. Lusaka. Abuja. What do these European and African cities have in common?

Each is home, or soon will be, to a RHEMA Bible Training Center campus. And earlier this year Kenneth and Lynette Hagin traveled to each of these cities to participate in graduation ceremonies or see firsthand the preparations for new schools.

After 14 days, 18,500 miles, and 46-and-a-half hours of flying, one thing became clear—RHEMA Bible Training Center is exploding all around the world!

The Hagins' first stop on their May trip was Bonn, Germany, where their day began with an alumni luncheon. Around 140 graduates had the opportunity to spend time with Kenneth and Lynette and hear what RHEMA is doing worldwide.

That evening, after attending the graduation ceremony at RHEMA Germany, directed by John and Michelle Grunewald, the Hagins held a healing service. Monika Wagner, director of RBTC Europe, recalled, "Pastor Hagin preached a simple but very powerful message on healing before he laid hands on people. He prayed for approximately 300 people that night and many testified with a show of hands that they could see a difference in their bodies immediately. It was glorious!"

One woman named Sylvia was healed that night of complications from surgery. She had been unable to eat certain foods for many years, but her condition had recently worsened. She was constantly sick to her stomach and only left her house to see the doctors.

However, she decided that when Rev. Hagin laid hands on her she would be well. Monika related, "She received what she believed! From the moment she was prayed for, she began to recover. One week after hands were laid on her, she was perfectly well. She can eat things she hasn't eaten in years!"

At that same service in Germany, about 50 people responded to the altar call to be saved, rededicate their lives to Jesus, or be filled with the Holy Spirit.

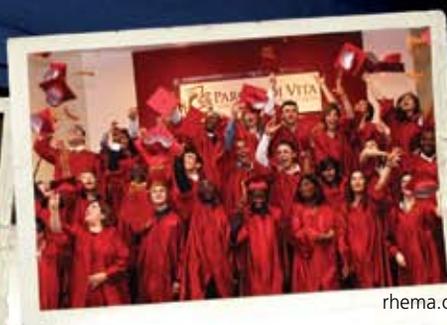

The Hagins next flew to Wels, Austria, home of RHEMA Austria. They had just enough time to check in at their hotel before meeting with alumni and then taking part in the graduation ceremony. Fred and Judy Lambert, directors of the school in Austria, remarked, "The students and graduates were so blessed that the Hagins came to visit them and to take part in this important day in their lives. All RHEMA Austria graduates, including those in full-time ministry, recognize the value of what they received at RHEMA and are particularly thankful for the ministry of the Hagins."

The Lamberts also described the role RHEMA Austria is having in reaching that nation for Christ. "Churches have been planted in 12 different cities in Austria, and there are graduates in various other countries serving as missionaries.” They continued, “That might not sound like much, but the largest Pentecostal denomination in Austria only has about 25 churches after more than 65 years of existence here. God is picking up the pace to save Austria through the work of RHEMA, and this nation is being filled with the knowledge of God’s glory.”

The day after RHEMA Austria’s graduation, the Hagins made their way to Verona, Italy. Before speaking at RHEMA Italy’s graduation, they attended a special luncheon for ministers at a castle built 800 years ago. The gathering provided an opportunity for pastors and ministers from the surrounding area to spend quality time with the Hagins. The directors of RHEMA Italy, Mauro and Connie Girgenti, recalled, “At the luncheon, Pastor Hagin shared how we must work together to accomplish lasting results in our nation. He emphasized, ‘No one can do it alone. We need each other.’ The pastors took this phrase to heart and are excited about the different projects ahead of us here in Italy.”

At the luncheon, the Hagins also heard an amazing testimony from the wife of one of the pastors. “She was miraculously healed of an incurable heart condition by reading and meditating on books she received from Kenneth Hagin Ministries and by studying her Bible,” the Girgentis said. “Her faith grew and she began to realize that Jesus had died so that she could live. It is well over 10 years now since doctors told her she would not live for more than a few months. She is a living testimony.”

That night at graduation, the Hagins laid hands on each of the graduates before sending them out into the harvest fields. “Our graduating class was so excited to have Pastor and Mrs. Hagin here with us to celebrate our special evening,” said one of the graduates. “Thank you for coming!”

From Italy, the Hagins flew to Lusaka, Zambia, where they held dedication services for a new 2,200-seat facility at Miracle Life Family Church, pastored by Walker and Haley Schurz. “Our last church had 600 seats,” Walker noted, “so this gives us a huge way to keep growing.”

Beginning in January 2011, the church grounds will also be home to RHEMA Zambia. Offices are being completed to house Admissions, and a chapel will be built for assemblies and other student gatherings. When the school’s opening was announced, hundreds took information and applications. “The Lord has been good,” said Walker. “He’s blessed us with 20 acres here. It’s a miracle because I can’t think of another church that has 20 acres.”

In Zambia, the Hagins also ministered to about 1,200 pastors and church leaders at a day-long Leadership Conference held at Miracle Life. While they ministered, the Schurzes hooked the RHEMA USA pilots up with a local orphanage. “We spent the day with about a dozen 13- to 16-year old boys,” the two pilots said. “They don’t have any family and would be on the streets if they didn’t have this orphanage and a pastor who works with them. It was just good to give and see the impact that the local RHEMA church in Lusaka is having in their city.”

The RHEMA team’s last two stops before returning to the U.S. were in Nigeria: in Lagos, where they met with partners; and in Abuja, where RHEMA Nigeria—directed by Matt and Julie Beemer—is to open this month (October). The Hagins hit the ground running, first meeting with alumni, pastors, and leaders from that nation. Then Kenneth W. Hagin spoke to a crowd of 3,000 at a Full Gospel businessmen’s meeting in the National Christian Center.

“All 3,000 people wanted to see the Hagins as they left,” said David Groves, Kenneth Hagin Ministries’ broadcast media director. “And it’s not just because they’re well-known people. It was because they read the books and watch the television show. I had several people tell me they never miss a webstream.”

While in Abuja, Kenneth and Lynette Hagin and Matt Beemer held a press conference to announce the launch of RHEMA Bible Training Center Nigeria. Eight national newspapers and four major TV/radio stations attended.

“RHEMA Nigeria is a prayer long overdue,” said one Nigerian minister. “We have been waiting for this to happen over the years, and finally it’s here. . . . Africa will hear from Nigeria because of RHEMA coming.”

In August 2011, the Hagins and their team will return to West Africa to hold a Living Faith Crusade in Abuja.

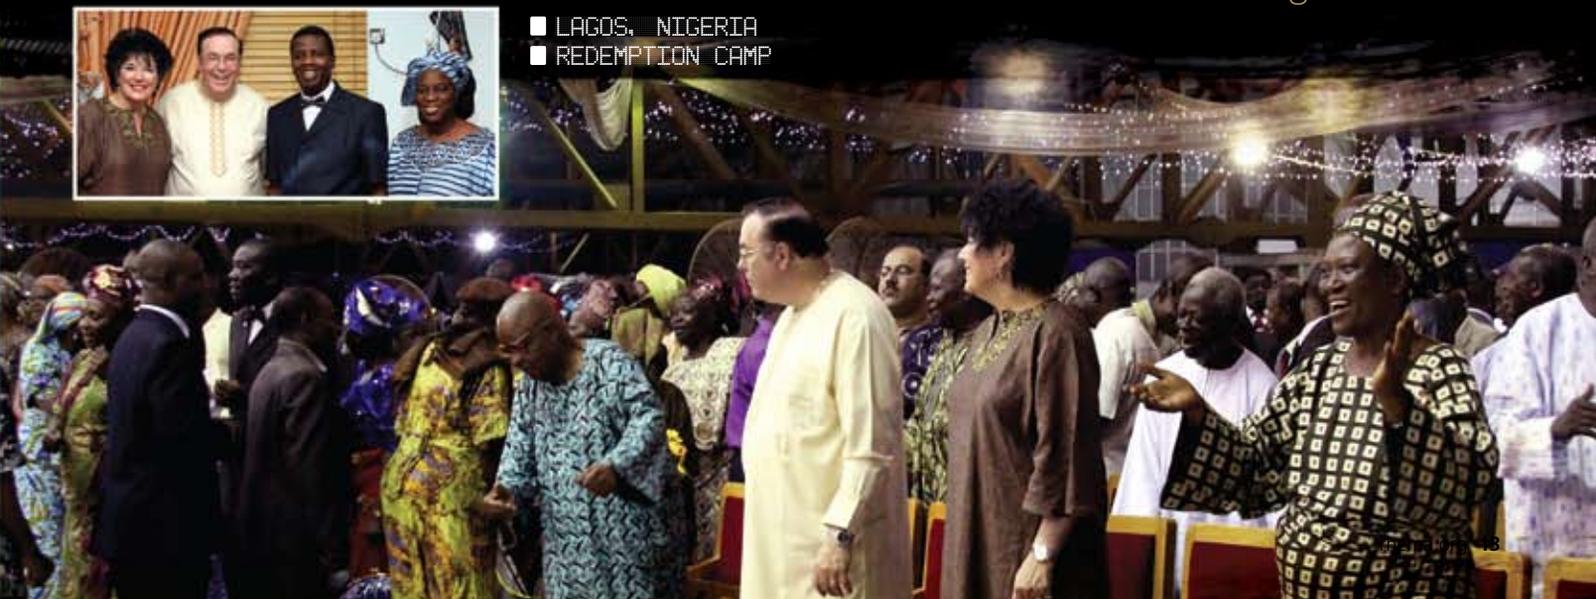

As RHEMA continues to grow and more graduates are sent out from schools around the world, the Hagins’ resolve to reach people with the Gospel is increasing. “There’s a world out there that is ready for harvest,” said Kenneth W. Hagin. “There’s a work that must be done. And I want to say thank you to all of our partners and friends who are helping us accomplish the vision that God gave us for RHEMA Bible Training Center and RHEMA churches all over the world.”

GOD EXPECTS OUR treasures

When I was very young, my parents taught me about tithing. I learned at the age of 3 or 4 that if I received a dollar, 10 cents of that dollar was supposed to go to the Lord.

I was taught that God blessed us, but we were supposed to give the tithe back to Him (Mal. 3:10–12). That was always sacred to me, and I've followed that principle all of my life. It was never a question of whether I was going to tithe. The only question I asked was, "How much is my tithe this week?"

These days, people are holding on tightly to their wallets. Many are thinking, I'd better save all I can. And the first place they cut back on their spending is at church. But our giving to the Lord is the one place where we should never tighten our budgets!

Of course, Satan will do everything he can to try to stop you from tithing. Why? Because he knows the blessings you're going to receive when you tithe, and he loves to keep you from receiving God's blessings.

He'll tell you, "If you tithe, you won't have enough money to pay your bills." He'll threaten you by saying, "If you tithe, you're not going to be able to eat this week." I've tithed all of my life, and I've never gone hungry, and I've always been able to pay my bills.

I'm thankful my parents taught me to seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness and also to give my tithes and offerings to the Lord. They knew that following these biblical principles would cause me to prosper and be successful in life.

> FAITH NUGGET

Where Do I Sign?

A cartoon once illustrated the attitude many Christians have toward giving their money to the Lord. In the first frame, a man was looking at a car he was interested in buying. He asked the salesman, "What are the terms?"

The salesman replied, "Ten percent down, and low payments for 48 months."

Immediately, the man replied, "Where do I sign?"

In the second frame, the same man was looking at a refrigerator on display in an appliance center. When he asked the salesman about the terms, the man told him, "Nothing down, and no interest for 12 months."

Once again, the man said without hesitation, "Where do I sign?"

In the third frame, the same man was looking for a house to buy. The realtor told him, "Ten percent down and 30 years to pay."

Without giving it much thought, the man exclaimed, "Where do I sign?"

In the last frame, the same man was talking to his pastor. The pastor asked him, "Would you please sign this commitment card to give the Lord 10 percent of your money for the next year?"

In shock and horror, the man replied, "What! And tie myself to an obligation like that for 52 weeks? No sir! The future is too insecure. I don't want to make a commitment that I might not be able to keep."

Write Your Tithes Check First

I will never forget an incident that happened in 1966, right after Ken and I were married. Our budget was really tight in those days, and it's always been my responsibility to pay the bills and make the budget work. In other words, I am the keeper of the books in our household. But as I began to calculate what our expenses were going to be that month, I realized there wasn't enough money to meet all of our needs.

For the first time in my life, the thought crossed my mind, You can hold back your tithes this month and make it up next month. But because the principle of tithing had been so strongly instilled in me, I was able to say, "No, Satan, you're not going to cut off the very thing that's going to open the windows of Heaven for me."

I told Ken about the situation, and we joined hands and agreed that our needs were going to be met. Then I wrote out our tithe check and told the Lord, "We're standing on Your Word and are expecting You to meet every need."

There were times when I tried to figure out how God was going to help us pay all the bills. I watched for extra money to arrive in the mail, but we didn't receive any. No money dropped out of Heaven. No one handed us a special offering at church.

At the end of the month, I had paid every bill, we had not missed any meals, and we had $5 left in our bank account. I do not know where the money came from, but I can truthfully tell you that our God is able to supply all of our needs according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus (Phil. 4:19).

I told the Lord, "The first thing I'm going to do every month is write out our tithe check. Then I'm going to calculate the rest of our budget for the month." From that day to this, as soon as our pay is deposited in the bank, the very first check I write is for our tithe. And because we're honoring God and putting Him first, He always supplies our needs.♥

of Kenneth E. Hagin

LOOK WHO Moved In!

“For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.”

— 2 TIMOTHY 1:7

FAITH NUGGET

Masters Over Evil Powers

Christians are God's representatives on this earth. The Holy Spirit came to dwell in us so we would be masters over the powers of darkness. And the Holy Spirit in us is just as powerful as He was in Christ when He was here on the earth. Jesus Himself declared this to be so when He said, "greater works than these shall [you] do; because I go unto my Father" (John 14:12). Let's remember that God has not given us a spirit of fear—a spirit of power dwells inside us. So let's allow the Holy Spirit to live big in us and begin dominating the devil and manifesting the works of Christ through us.

God never gives anyone fear, and He never comes with fear. We see throughout the Bible that whenever God sent a messenger from Heaven to speak to someone on the earth, the angel always began by saying, "Fear not."

When the angel of the Lord greeted the shepherds in the field to proclaim the birth of our Messiah, he said, "Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy" (Luke 2:10). In another example, an angel of the Lord appeared to Paul when he was in prison and said, "Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Caesar" (Acts 27:24).

Because of the many examples throughout the Scriptures of God telling us not to fear, my righteous indignation gets stirred up when I hear ministers that I call "preachers of fear."

We—the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ—should be triumphing over all the power of the enemy.

In a sense, however, we're all preachers. Every time we open our mouths, we're proclaiming something. But when you stop to think about it, if we always talk about fear, it makes sense that we'll be filled with fear. In fact, some folks talk more about fear than they do about God.

The Greater One Moved In!

I want you to know, friend, that Jesus didn't leave us helpless. After He ascended into Heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit to dwell in our spirits (John 14:16–17; 16:7). And we need to remember that "greater is he that is in [us], than he that is in the world" (1 John 4:4).

Because the Greater One is dwelling inside us, He has given us power (and authority) over all demonic powers on the earth. Common sense then teaches us that the Holy Spirit has made us masters.

Oh, how I wish that this truth would get down into the heart and spirit of every born again man and woman. Too many times we thoughtlessly quote these scriptures but they don't mean a thing in the world to us.

There's no comfort in knowing that the Greater One dwells in us if we don't know what He's in there for. The Holy Spirit of God is greater than Satan who is in the world. And He is greater than any devil or demon. So we need not have a spirit of fear, because the Greater One lives in us!

I like to say it this way: "The Bigger One lives in me!" He's bigger than sickness and disease. He's bigger than storms, tests, and trials. He's greater than any force that can come against us.

We need to learn to rely on the Greater One in us. The Father sent the Holy Spirit to give us dominion so we might reign as kings in life by Christ Jesus (Rom. 5:17 Amplified).

Too many times we don't really recognize what we have—that a divine Personality came to dwell inside of us when we accepted Jesus as our Savior.

We—the Church of the Lord Jesus Christ—should be triumphing over all the power of the enemy. But all too often, the enemy is dominating us instead of us dominating him.

When we start believing and acting like the Greater One is dwelling inside us, we will step out in a boldness and in a majesty of dominion and reigning in this life by Christ Jesus that we have never enjoyed before.

Born again, blood-washed Christians walking in the light of the Word needn't be afraid of the devil. In fact, fear of the devil for a Christian is nonsense. It's just foolishness! The Divine Master, the eternal power of God—the combined life and presence of God the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit—dwells inside us.

Let's wake up and start living in the light and privileges of what belongs to us. We're not weaklings. So let's rise up and walk in the power, dominion, and might of the Greater One Who dwells in us!

We're not in this fight of faith by ourselves. We've got the Holy Ghost on the inside of us. He'll help us with our faith. He'll help us with unforgiveness and hurt. When we choose to believe, THE HOLY GHOST WILL BRING US UP, BRING US OUT, AND BRING US OVER! He'll give us victory in every area of our lives!

— CHARLES COWAN

IF YOU'RE NOT GETTING THINGS TO CHANGE, PUT THE WORD IN! The more Word you hear, the more it will become a part of you—the more it will get down on the inside. God's power is available in His Word, and that power can change you in an instant. That power can change your circumstances. Tap into that power, because God is always able and He never fails!

— CRAIG W. HAGIN

When we're walking in the light of the Word and in obedience to God, He's got our back. We may not see or feel Him, but when the enemy comes and tries to steal from us, God's back there saying, "Don't even try it, devil." AS WE STAND STEADY, GOD IS WATCHING OVER HIS WORD TO PERFORM IT!

— SCOTT WEBB

Every day we have to work on our consciousness of who we are in Christ and what we have in Him. Instead of being self-conscious, people conscious, time conscious, devil conscious, or unconscious, WE MUST BECOME CHRIST CONSCIOUS. Everything God did in Christ, He did for us, and He set it to the credit of our account as though we did it.

— MARK HANKINS

A Noise That Will Shake the Earth

KENNETH W. HAGIN

After the children of Israel escaped from Egypt, they were well acquainted with the power of God. They miraculously walked across the Red Sea. God supernaturally fed them in the wilderness. They witnessed the bitter waters at Marah turn sweet. By the power of God, they circled the city of Jericho and the walls fell down. They subdued kingdoms that were four times as large as they were.

But history also records a time when the Israelites had turned their backs on God and were cut off from His supernatural power. In Ezekiel chapter 37, we read that the prophet Ezekiel was carried away by the Spirit to a valley filled with dry bones. These bones represented a nation that was lying dry and dead in the valley of defeat, despair, and hopelessness. The Spirit of God commanded Ezekiel to prophesy to the bones. Suddenly, the bones began to rattle, the breath of life from the four winds came, and once again, there was noise in the camp of Israel.

We can compare what happened to the Israelites to what is happening in the Church today. The Early Church began in the mighty river of Pentecost. Everyone who was in the Upper Room was filled with the Holy Ghost and spoke in other tongues (Acts 2:4). And as they went out in the supernatural power of God, they turned the world upside down (Acts 17:6).

But as we look at the river of Pentecost today, we can hardly recognize it. Various groups and denominations have poured their traditions and philosophies into it until it has become diluted.

There are even some churches that call themselves Pentecostal that no longer allow speaking in tongues! But in the hour of humanity's greatest need, we cannot back away from the Holy Spirit or the supernatural power of God.

As we march through the Book of Acts, we see that the Early Church believed in salvation by the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. They believed in the Baptism in the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues. They believed in the miraculous power of God and they demonstrated it.

The Early Church refused to back away from the power of God. When they were threatened and told to be quiet, they prayed for boldness to speak even more.

God was not content to leave Israel in the valley of dry bones. And God does not want the Church today to dry up on the vine. It's time for us to grab hold of this same power and go to another level. If you'll stay with me, I'll lead you to the mountaintop. I will never back away from the supernatural power of God or speaking in tongues.

I hear the footsteps of the Holy Spirit. I can hear the rustle of His garment. I am beginning to hear noise in our valley. But it needs to be louder.

Let's rise up and make a noise that will shake the earth—a noise that everyone will hear. A noise that will carry the end-time revival to the four corners of the globe! 🇺🇸

for us to grab hold of this same power
another level.

It's God Almighty Who is changing things around the world, because He's after something. There's a glory that is coming. . . . I've read the books about Smith Wigglesworth, and Finney, and Spurgeon, and even the early years of my spiritual father, Dad Hagin. But THE GOD THAT THEY SERVED THAT WORKED THE MIRACLES—HE IS STILL ALIVE. And if He is still alive, we should see the miracles today.

— STEVE HOUPE

I'm not embarrassed by the Holy Ghost. I'm not embarrassed by speaking in tongues. I believe everybody should have it. Do we think we can build the church without the Church Builder? I didn't get filled with the Holy Ghost to speak in tongues. I found out that was a part of it. I GOT FILLED WITH THE HOLY GHOST BECAUSE I WANTED THE POWER OF GOD IN MY LIFE.

— DARRELL HUFFMAN

If you need a miracle, or a healing, or a deliverance, why don't we just get it tonight? People come to meetings oftentimes and say, "I hope tonight is my night. I hope the Lord decides to do something." I've got news for you—He already decided, over two thousand years ago. YOU'RE NOT WAITING ON GOD—HE'S WAITING ON YOU.

— DAVID HORTON

Revival begins with me! We've got to stir up our passion for revival. We've got to rekindle our passion for the lost. Our passion for the things of God should grow and grow. We need to cry out, "FATHER, IGNITE YOUR FIRE IN ME—the fire of the great Day of Pentecost. Oh God, prick my heart with passion for You once again!"

— LYNETTE HAGIN

Answering the Call

To Activate verb: “to make something active or operational.”

Activate is exactly what happened to the more than 500 youth who attended Summer Blitz 2010, AXIS® Youth Ministries’ annual event held in conjunction with Campmeeting.

Following this year’s theme—“Activate: His Power. Your Call. Their Future.”—Summer Blitz teens were taught, encouraged, and equipped to change their world by answering God’s call on their lives. In a timely message that most youth could relate to, Brent Bailey, RHEMA Bible Church senior high youth minister, exhorted the teens to “Activate Your Call.” God has called each of you to do something for Him, he said, whether in full-time ministry or in the business world. Holding up his cell phone, Bailey said, “God is calling each of you! It’s time to answer that call so He can get some things done on the earth!” As the service ended, youth flooded the altar to commit to answer the call God has placed on their lives.

Many youth feel they have so many problems that they’ll never be able to help someone else. Keith Nachbor, RHEMA Bible Church junior high youth minister, spoke powerfully to the teenagers about overcoming their own distractions and struggles so they will be able to minister to others. “Distractions make it difficult to do what God has called you to do,” Nachbor said. “Whatever you’re dealing with right now, if you overcome it, at some point you’ll be able to help someone who is struggling with the same thing.”

The week ended with a day-long trip to an area water park, followed by a concert that night with The Laura Cooke Band, The AXIS® Worship Band, and Unhindered. The youth left activated by God’s power to answer their call to change the future of everyone they meet! ♥

SUMMER BLITZ ONLINE

For the first time in Summer Blitz history, conference sessions were streamed live over the Internet at www.axisyouth.com. Nearly 800 different people logged on, with almost 1,700 total views. The power of God manifested during Summer Blitz 2010 touched people’s lives across the United States.

One 15-year-old boy remembered late Wednesday that a friend had told him the services were being broadcast online. He logged on just as Keith Nachbor was ministering at the altar to youth who wanted to be filled with the Holy Ghost. As Nachbor led them in a prayer, the teenager sitting in front of his computer in his bedroom prayed with them . . . and began speaking in tongues! The power of God had been activated in his life.

SUMMER BLITZ

KRISTINA BUTLER’S question for the teenagers was “Who is He to you?” In her message, she stressed the importance of knowing Jesus not only as our Savior, but also as our Lord. “He’s either both or neither,” Butler said. “We can’t halfway belong to the Lord and halfway belong to the world. It’s time for us to stop being ‘secret-agent Christians,’ because some people will only see Jesus through you.”

ERRIN HANKINS encouraged Summer Blitz youth to be people God can demonstrate Himself through no matter where they are. “God wants to use you outside of the walls of the church,” she said. “He wants you to be His go-to person—someone He can count on. God has specific instructions for each one of us. And when He calls you, He will be with you every step of the way!” Responding to her call for commitment, a room full of fired-up teenagers ran to the altar asking God to make them demonstrators of His power.

SHELLIE LOVE talked to the youth about the Christian nature. “Dogs bark,” she said. “When your dog barks, you’re not amazed by it. Cats meow. That is their nature. Christians should walk in the Spirit, defy the devil, change lives, and demonstrate being a Christian. It’s our nature. It should be the norm.” At the end of her message, hundreds of youth filled the altar, committing to reach and disciple at least one person a month for Jesus.

Rockin' Out for Jesus

"I promise you'll have a blast," said Denise Burns, RHEMA Bible Church children's minister, to a group of high-energy elementary kids. And they weren't disappointed! From visiting the land of the pharaohs to being shipwrecked on an island, Campmeeting's kids experienced it all!

In the mornings, kids "traveled" to Egypt to study the life of Joseph and how he moved from the prison to the palace. Through games and exciting Bible lessons, the children learned that God gives them hope, wisdom, forgiveness, and special abilities—just as He gave those things to Joseph.

After the lesson, the kids couldn't wait to line up and head to the Egyptian marketplace. In a room transformed by palm trees, woven baskets, ceramic pots, and a variety of shops, teachers dressed in Egyptian clothing stood ready as the youngsters rushed in. With satchels of "coins" they'd been given, kids quickly began shopping.

At an artist's shop, they wrote hieroglyphics. At a bakery, they plunged elbow deep in dough. At a barbershop and salon, boys were "shaved" and girls tried on Egyptian makeup. Two favorites were an embalming shop where kids wrapped each other up and a sand station where they dug for treasure and created their own pyramids. "This is fun," exclaimed one young boy, his hands covered in bread dough and a huge grin on his face.

Participation was also high during the evening services as children were "shipwrecked" with the Apostle Paul. "All week long," said Rev. Burns, "we're learning about Paul and how he overcame adversities in his life."

As kids played games, worshipped, danced, and "rocked out" to an interactive DVD each night, they learned some awesome lessons: encourage others; put others' needs above your own; choose good friends; and give God the credit. On Tuesday, they learned to have a good attitude no matter what comes their way. The Apostle Paul was locked up, beaten up, and shipwrecked, taught Rev. Burns, yet he still said, "I will rejoice in the Lord always" (Phil. 4:4). She encouraged kids that whatever happens in their lives, at school or at home, they must count it all joy.

There amid lush island scenery, complete with palm and banana trees and a giant boat, kids' lives were changed and their hearts were turned to God. Asked what she most enjoyed about the services, one young girl said it was all the kids getting saved. "We've just had a tremendous outpouring," Rev. Burns affirmed. "We've had 47 salvations and 54 filled with the Holy Spirit. The kids are really receiving from God, and they're just excited to be here!"

"THE LORD WILL GUIDE YOU ALWAYS; HE WILL SATISFY YOUR NEEDS IN A SUN-SCORCHED LAND AND WILL STRENGTHEN YOUR FRAME. YOU WILL BE LIKE A WELL-WATERED GARDEN, LIKE A SPRING WHOSE WATERS NEVER FAIL."
— ISAIAH 58:11 (NIV)

HAS SOMEONE OFFENDED YOU? Are you still feeling the effects of that offense? I have three words that will help you: get over it! Every day each of us has an opportunity to be offended at something or someone. And each of us in the natural handles our offenses differently. My husband just naturally has never allowed offenses to affect him. He has always had the ability to let them roll off of him like water off a duck's back.

However, I did not naturally inherit that ability. I have had to learn to practice it on purpose even when my carnal nature wanted to do differently. Do you realize that being offended at someone only hurts you? It does not affect the person who has caused the offense.

Growing up in a pastor's home, I quickly learned the effects of a church member becoming offended. Many times offense was caused by someone simply misinterpreting what another had said. And yet, that miscommunication could cause untold trouble in the church and among its members.

I learned very quickly to keep a guard on my tongue and to weigh out my words before they left my mouth. Once spoken, words cannot be recaptured, and the results can be disastrous. All of us have regretted words that we have spoken to someone. And no matter how much we apologize, the hurt has become embedded in that person's thoughts.

The enemy would like nothing better than to destroy the unity of the Church. If he can keep Christians bickering, fighting, and becoming offended with each other, then he has succeeded in dividing the Church. He has won a victory! We are living in the last days, and it is so important that we bind together, not pull apart. Together we can accomplish untold things for the Lord.

There is so much power in a united effort. In the Bible we read of the building of the Tower of Babel. Genesis 11:1-7 (NIV) says, "Now the whole world had one language and a common speech. As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there. They said to each other, 'Come, let's make bricks and bake them thoroughly.' They used brick instead of stone, and tar for mortar. Then they said, 'Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth.' But the Lord came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building. The Lord said, 'If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them. Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other.'"

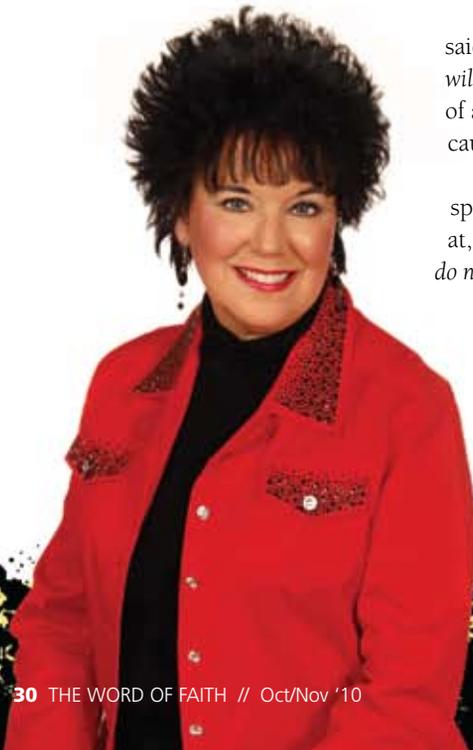

Of course, we know that the building of the Tower of Babel was not in God's plan, and therefore He confused the language of the people. However, the words that jump out at me in these verses are, "If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them." Do you realize that if we Christians would get over our offenses and bind together, then nothing would be impossible for us to accomplish?

There is so much power in unity. Jesus emphasized this in Matthew 18:19 (NKJV). He said, "Again I say to you that if two of you agree on earth concerning anything that they ask, it will be done for them by My Father in heaven." I want to encourage you to take an inventory of all those who have offended you. Some may not even realize that what they did or said caused you to become offended.

I want you to make a heart adjustment toward them. Display the God-kind of love in spite of the hurts they may have caused. When Jesus was being beaten, scoffed and sneered at, and mocked, the words that came out of His mouth were, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they do" (Luke 23:34 NKJV). Love always wins.

If you have let offense destroy a relationship, choose this day to go to that person and ask for forgiveness. The Lord is impressing me that families have been destroyed because of offense. Mend those fences—be the one who makes the first move to bring your family back into unity. Life is too short to allow offenses to rob you of the sweet fellowship of one with another. ♥
