Getting Started

Getting Started

What are you passionate about?

- ★ A cause or social movement (feminism, LGBT issues)
- ★ An interest/topic (fashion, travel, food, beauty, cats)
- ★ A fandom (Attack on Titan, Buffy, Lord of the Rings)
- ★ A specific subgenre (paranormal romance, dystopian YA)
- ★ A writing/reading group (book clubs, author support/advice)

Use your passion to determine the focus of your community profile. Community profiles are a place to share stories and to have a conversation about a given interest/topic.

Making the Profile

Add a relevant profile picture and background.

Lookin' good

Fill out the details for your community profile.

What's the purpose of your community profile?

How can Wattpadders contribute or participate?

Welcome to Marvel Fan Fic Recs 🎉!

We're an account dedicated to collecting, reviewing, and organizing Marvel fanfiction. Marvel fangirls started this project, because we wanted a place to bookmark all of the quality fic we have here on Wattpad. Feel free to suggest or review a fic. You can browse using our reading lists.

We're open to new suggestions so tag your fic, #marvelfanficrecs or message us if you want us to feature your fic!

Building & Managing the Community

Establish guidelines and set the tone for your community.

Let people know how things work (submissions, contributions) as well as any other relevant information.

Recruit admins or mods.

It's always better together. Find people who share the same interests as you and collaborate. Ask your friends IRL, online, or send out a broadcast message asking Wattpadders to give you a helping hand.

Share your feels with other fans, find undiscovered fic writers, participate in writing contests, or even hone your craft with our how-to guide. This is a place to connect with people who love the same things as you. Please do not advertise your story.

Here in The Maze Runner Community all of us shanks come together and express our love for the books/movies. Here you can see recommended fanfictions, rants about your favorite characters, and more! We hope you like our account!

Able to sync across devices. great looking book cover art works, nice search engines, nice book descriptions. I like the app due to authors continuing to update their books and updating them on Wattpad. Besides new writers there are established writers on this site. It is a well organized engine for different genres. Download this app and use it!
