THE LITTLE BOOK OF LIVING SMALL

Laura Fenton • Photographs by Weston Wells

Make the most of limited square footage and manage a tight carbon footprint with this innovative design book by Laura Fenton. Twelve case studies showcase homes ranging in styles from urban to rural, minimalist to bohemian. Clever, real-life solutions transform one-bedroom apartments, a tiny house, and whole homes—each under 1,200 square feet—into comfortable spaces to eat, work, and play. The Little Book of Living Small is your cheerleader to living with less and focusing on what is truly important for your home and your life.

NEW ENGLAND MODERN

Jaci Conry • Photographs by Michael J. Lee

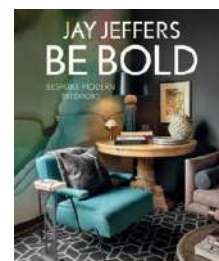

In this striking look at New England interiors, author Jaci Conry highlights ten New England designers who embrace contemporary flair and panache. The modern feel and flow of each curated room enchants the eye, showing how punches of unexpected color, bold patterns, and layers of textural elements can enhance a classic foundation. Leave behind formal rooms for open floor plans, and heavy chairs for clean décor. Witness a dynamic mix of furnishings, modern assemblages of leather, glass, and steel, and other statement-making contrasting elements. New England Modern inspires a bolder approach to design for a more vibrant and stylish home.

JACI CONRY has been covering home design for more than fifteen years. She has written for countless publications including the Boston Globe, Better Homes & Gardens, Domino, Dwell, Design New England, and Boston Home. In late 2017, she became editor-in-chief of a new shelter magazine, Interiors Boston.

PRIVATE GARDENS OF SANTA BARBARA

THE ART OF OUTDOOR LIVING

Margie Grace

Take respite in eighteen private gardens of coastal Santa Barbara, captured by the brilliance of Margie Grace, principal of Grace Design Gardens. From large estates to surf retreats, each garden captures the unique character of the site, the architecture, and the environment to become something truly sublime. Strolling through the flora is akin to learning the lifestyle and personality of the people, the area, and the history; whether naturalistic or urban, bold or subtle, each scenic vista tells a story. Readers will take inspiration for their own garden making while learning from Grace's water-smart, maintenance-smart, and eco-friendly garden approach.

HYDRANGEAS

BEAUTIFUL VARIETIES FOR HOME AND GARDEN

Naomi Slade • Photographs by Georgianna Lane

From late spring to early autumn, hydrangeas burst forth in magnificent heads packed with hundreds of blooms. In Hydrangeas readers will discover the wide array these flowers have to offer, and why their bountiful blossoms are wildly popular in the garden and in bouquets.

While six types are commonly grown in North American gardens, many more are possible, such as Cotton Candy, Wedding Gown, Limelight, Glam Rock, and Nikko Blue. Lane's entrancing photography highlights an assortment of mophead, lacecap, and starburst varieties of the beloved French hydrangea, while Slade's writing imparts her gardening expertise for the fullest bloom of this rewarding flower.

FRENCH COUNTRY COTTAGE INSPIRED GATHERINGS

Courtney Allison

Emulating the mood and manner of French entertaining in all seasons, Courtney Allison shares the secrets of her signature table settings for a crowd or just for two. A simple picnic; coffee by the lake; a cheese board for friends outdoors; a formal dinner in a borrowed barn; a table in the woods; a family dinner indoors—each setting exhibits Courtney’s romantic style of hosting friends and family.

Entertaining starts with setting a fabulous table. And the pièce de résistance in every venue, any setting, is a gorgeous display of seasonal flowers. Courtney’s bouquets and garlands will take your breath away—from spring to fall, outdoors and inside.

COURTNEY ALLISON is the author of the book French Country Cottage and a blog by the same name. She has a floral line with Balsam Hill and also works as a freelance photographer and stylist for magazines and brands.

WELCOME TO BUTTERMILK KITCHEN

Suzanne Vizethann • Photographs by Angie Mosier

Suzanne Vizethann, award-winning chef and owner of Atlanta’s critically acclaimed Buttermilk Kitchen restaurant, redefines the culinary boundaries of breakfast and brunch with her farm-to-table Southern comfort food. Packed with regional favorites, traditional dishes, and seasonal ingredients, Welcome to Buttermilk Kitchen presents creative recipes that incorporate new spice and flavor combinations. Along with the delicious egg, waffle, pastry, cheese, fruit, granola, and chicken recipes, you will also find beverages, condiments, preserves, vegan and vegetarian options, and a leftovers chapter straight from the Buttermilk Kitchen.

SUZANNE VIZETHANN earned a degree in hospitality from the University of South Carolina and trained in several kitchens with “Iron Chef” star Richard Blais. She won the Chopped competition on the Food Network cooking competition show, owned the small restaurant The Hungry Peach, and now is the chef and co-owner of the award-winning Buttermilk Kitchen. Food Network’s very own Guy Fieri even calls her the “brunch queen.” She lives in Atlanta.

MOON MILK

EASY RECIPES FOR PEACEFUL SLEEP

Anni Daulter

For those wanting to sleep soundly and deeply, relaxing nighttime drinks have been touted as a surefire way to dream peacefully. Author Anni Daulter's new cookbook Moon Milk: Easy Recipes for Peaceful Sleep will have you slumbering in no time with over fifty recipes for calming beverages to help close out the day. Many of the adaptogens you'll stir in, such as ginseng, turmeric, and cardamom, are shown to reduce stress, relieve fatigue, and bring calmness and peace.

While most of the beautiful beverages are warm drinks made with nondairy or dairy milks, there are recipes for cool elixirs, and options for using teas and flavored waters. There is a chapter dedicated to drinks using alcohol, but you can add spirits to any of the drinks.

S'MORES

Lisa Adams • Photographs by Susan Barnson Hayward

Whether over a fire, on a barbecue, in the oven, on the stovetop, or in your living room fireplace, s'mores are more creative and delicious than ever before with these delectable selections.

Go luxurious with the Hazelnut Raspberry Brownie, or rich and sweet with the Banana Caramel. Each unique recipe brings something new to this classic campfire treat—sweetness to the Strawberry Shortcake, spice to the Spicy Mayan Chocolate, and freshness to the Hardcore Mint. Spruce up the summer with these scrumptious treats and many, many s'more.

LISA ADAMS is a writer, camping veteran, and sweets enthusiast. When she's not munching on s'mores, Lisa writes books and plays, and runs a publishing company called Bad Wolf Press. She lives in Santa Cruz, California.

THE REAL DIRT ON AMERICA'S FRONTIER OUTLAWS

Jim Motavalli

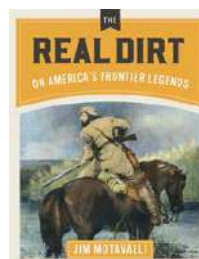

The rebels and bandits of the American West—like Billy the Kid, Jesse James, and Butch Cassidy—make for thrilling tales of gunfights, heists, and outlaws. These figures have been romanticized and magnified by penny dreadfuls, dime novels, Wild West shows, and urban legends from the beginning. But is all of it true? Not necessarily!

Jim Motavalli returns with the real dirt on these outlaws, separating fact from fiction and showcasing some lesser-known lawless figures, such as Pearl Hart, Belle Starr, and the Bloody Espinosas. This side-by-side look at the legends and the evidence give us a real and more inclusive view of the old West and the dangerous characters who immortalized it.

BILLY THE KID (1859-1881) (AKA WILLIAM H. BONNEY AND HENRY MCCARTY, JR.)

THE LEGEND
As the most notorious of the Old West cowboys, Billy the Kid was a legend. He was a young man, but he had a reputation for being a fearless and cunning outlaw. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid.

Billy the Kid, John Henry Hunter, and Henry McCarty, Jr.

HOW THEY GOT IT WRONG

The Kid is remembered because he was a kid, a boy, a young man. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid.

WAS BILLY THE KID A RACIST?

Some say he got the different names directly from Billy the Kid's tip in 1878. When he was twelve, Billy worked at Fay's Store, New Mexico. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid.

IT'S NOT THAT THE KID WAS A RACIST

It's not that the Kid was a racist. He was a young man. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid. He was a member of the Dalton Gang and the Ketchikan Kid.

CLUBHOUSE TURN

THE TWILIGHT OF HOLLYWOOD PARK RACE TRACK

Michele Asselin

On December 22, 2013, the world-famous Hollywood Park Race Track closed its doors forever. In 2014, demolition began on the landmark race track, effectively erasing seventy-five years of history, while at the same time making space for an entire new neighborhood to suddenly arise in the middle of the metropolis. Photographer Michele Asselin spent every day at Hollywood Park in the last two weeks before it closed, photographing the buildings, the employees, and the patrons of the track. Clubhouse Turn: The Twilight of Hollywood Park Race Track is the product of her efforts, and the story of two cultures colliding in the middle of a rapidly evolving city.

JUDSON

INNOVATION IN STAINED GLASS

David Judson and Steffie Nelson

Five generations of Judsons have worked with artists, architects, and designers to create Old World-style stained glass whose quality and craftsmanship has often been compared to the work of Louis Tiffany. Famed for its Craftsman glass, Judson Arts and Crafts-era windows have been celebrated by experts in the field for decades. Along with the studio's numerous institutional and residential projects, Judson: Innovation in Stained Glass illustrates fine work in churches dating back to the early twentieth century. Modern work is also featured.

DAVID JUDSON is president of Judson Studios, the fifth generation of the Judson family to lead the studio since it was founded in 1897. David oversees the studio's creative process, where he works with architects, designers, and artists who turn to Judson for its legendary work in stained glass. In 2015, he opened the second Judson Studios facility which incorporates the firm's innovative fusing technology that allows fine artists to express their vision in glass. David is the president of the Stained Glass Association of America (SGAA) and lives with his family in Pasadena, California.

STEFFIE NELSON has covered art, design, and culture for the New York Times, Los Angeles Times, W Magazine, and others.

BUNKER HILL LOS ANGELES

ESSENCE OF SUNSHINE AND NOIR

Nathan Marsak

In Bunker Hill Los Angeles: Essence of Sunshine and Noir, historian Nathan Marsak tells the story of the Hill, from the district's inception in the mid-nineteenth century to its present day. Marsak commemorates the poets and writers, artists and activists, little guys and big guys, and of course, the many architects who built and rebuilt the community on the Hill—time after historic time. Any fan of American architecture will treasure Marsak's analysis of buildings that have crowned the Hill: the exuberance of Victorian shingle and spindlework, from Mission to Modern, from Queen Anne to Frank Gehry, Bunker Hill has been home to it all, the ever-changing built environment.

NATHAN MARSAK studied under the eminent historian of Los Angeles, Reyner Banham, at University of California, Santa Cruz, and completed his graduate work with noted Sullivan/Wright scholar Narciso Menocal at University of Wisconsin, Madison. He worked on the curatorial staff of Los Angeles Museum of Contemporary Art and served as historian for the LAPD Museum archives. Bunker Hill Los Angeles is his second book; his first was Los Angeles Neon (2002).

NEON ROAD TRIP

John Barnes

Neon Road Trip chronicles the North American history of the commercial neon sign with a remarkable collection of photographs capturing the most colorful and iconic neon still surviving today. The vivid photographs are arranged according to the signs' imagery, with sections such as Spirit of the West, On the Road, and Divers, Mermaids & Ladies. Sixteen of the most iconic landmarks include brief histories of how that unique sign came to be. A Neon Museums Visitor's Guide and an index, by state, of the signage featured in the book is included.

BAD DAD JOKES
THIS IS HOW EYE ROLL

Bart King • Illustrated by Jack Ohman

Your favorite punster will love this goofy book, celebrating the Dad Joke lifestyle, packed with puns and wordplay. You don't even need to be a dad to practice "Dad Humor"—at least that's the philosophy of Bad Dad Jokes, an in-depth look at the most loathed and loved joke form of all time. It's filled with hilarious (and awful) pre-loaded puns, the taxonomy of different types of wordplay, and examples of famous punsters; learn how to properly deliver your pun in any medium and how to pretend you're sorry for your Dad Joke (even when you're not).

With Bart King's snappy humor and Pulitzer Prize-winner Jack Ohman's art, there's no better duo to tackle this masterful humor style.

JACK OHMAN is the editorial cartoonist and Associate Editor at the Sacramento Bee, and won the 2016 Pulitzer Prize for editorial cartooning. He has published ten books, many on the subject of fly fishing, inexplicably. Ohman has also won the Robert F. Kennedy Journalism Award, and virtually every other American journalism prize. It doesn't go to his head, much.

INTROFLIRTED

31 LOVE NOTES FOR INTROVERTS

Josh Ryan Higgins

A hilarious postcard collection of pickup lines, love notes, and amusing affirmations to tear out and send to your favorite introvert. Each graphically bold illustration contains a humorous note that is just bold enough: “Let’s be each other’s excuse to not go to that party,” “I will never tell a restaurant it’s your birthday,” and 29 other witticisms about introversion that will leave you chuckling as you say, “Yes! That definitely sounds like us!”

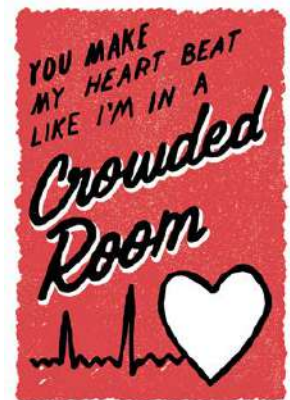

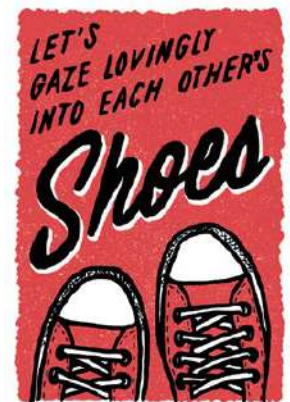

Each postcard is perforated so you can share the love with all your favorite introverts—a significant other, best friend, roommate, maybe even that cute stranger.

LITTLE NATURALISTS JOHNNY APPLESEED

Kate Coombs • Illustrated by Seth Lucas

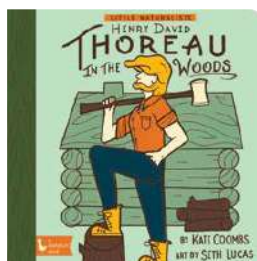

“Johnny walked for miles and miles, shared his stories and his smiles. Johnny cared for little plants, children, forests, birds, and ants.”

John Chapman, known as “Johnny Appleseed,” planted apple tree nurseries all over the US. He believed in trying to never harm a living thing, so he advocated for animal rights and planted seeds instead of grafting tree branches like most other orchardists. Now even babies can enjoy this wonderful story through Kate Coombs’ poetry and Seth Lucas’ beautiful artwork. Watch Johnny Appleseed be brought to life for young readers, encouraging them to Be Adventurous and Be Kind to every person, animal, and plant they meet.

KATE COOMBS is an award-winning author of several books for children, including the critically acclaimed Water Sings Blue and Goodnight Mr. Darcy. A former teacher of every grade from kindergarten through college, Kate makes her home in Utah.

LITTLE NATURALISTS ANSEL ADAMS AND HIS CAMERA

Kate Coombs • Illustrated by Seth Lucas

“Ansel begged his parents to take him to Yosemite. He got a camera there, and Ansel learned to see.”

Ansel Adams was twelve years old when he received his first camera on a trip to Yosemite National Park. He spent the rest of his life taking pictures and advocating for conservation. Now even babies can enjoy this wonderful story through Kate Coombs’ poetry and Seth Lucas’ beautiful artwork. Watch Ansel Adams be brought to life for young readers, encouraging them to Be Adventurous and Be Creative.

SETH LUCAS is an illustrator and designer. He is the co-creator of Ello There Outdoors selling prints and accessories supporting the National Parks and outdoors. He lives in Indianapolis, IN, with his wife and children.

BLACK AND WHITE / BLANCO Y NEGRO

Meritxell Martí • Illustrated by Xavier Salomó

Illustrations in this clever board book introduce your brilliant baby to all kinds of things that are black and white. The moon begins this string of connected scenes, including a rappelling spider, a ghost drinking milk, a parade of penguins, a rabbit hopping out of a snowman's hat, and a Dalmatian chasing a black cat. All the characters are drawn with a sense of humor, and all are colored in relaxing and harmonious shades of black and white with occasional pops of color.

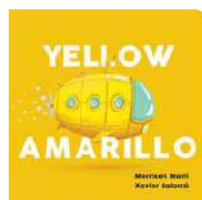

This fifth book in the bilingual English/Spanish board book series (including Red/Rojo, Blue/Azul, Green/Verde, and Yellow/Amarillo) will educate and delight your toddler.

MERITXELL MARTÍ was born in Barcelona and is a writer and professor of humanities at the Open University of Catalonia.

XAVIER SALOMÓ was also born in Barcelona. He studied illustration, drawing, and printing at the Massana School of Barcelona and art history at the University of Barcelona.

EL CHAPULIN COLORADO

SOUNDS / SONIDOS

Patty Rodriguez and Ariana Stein • Illustrated by Citlali Reyes

The children of Latin America know one superhero with a noble heart: El Chapulin Colorado (the Red Grasshopper) and his trademark red suit and yellow heart! El Chapulin Colorado's enthusiasm and goofiness inspire children all over the world to know that you don't need extraordinary superpowers to do extraordinary things.

This dashing superhero will teach your little ones sound effects in English and Spanish: your baby will learn that a clock's sound is "tic tac," or that when you knock on the door, you hear "toc toc" in Spanish.

ARIANA STEIN is the co-founder of Lil' Libros, a Los Angeles-based publisher that celebrates bilingualism and Latin American culture. Since 2014, she has co-authored a variety of first concept children's books. Recognizing the bilingual gap and diversity void in children's literature, she became passionate for bilingual education and multicultural books. In 2016, she left her corporate job to focus on Lil' Libros. She has been featured in the Los Angeles Times, Forbes, CNN, KTLA, and more. When she's not working, you can find her frequenting her local favorite seafood and taco spots, reading, running, and having in-home jiu-jitsu competitions with her son, Ethan, and husband, Nick. You can find her on Instagram @ariana_stein.
