Preface

Recently, I came across a list someone had compiled of the things they had learned over a lifetime. The following are just a few of the items randomly selected from the list:

- Age 6 I've learned that you can't hide a piece of broccoli in a glass of milk.
Age 9 I've learned that when I wave to people in the country, they stop what they are doing and wave back.
Age 12 I've learned that just when I get my room the way I like it, Mom makes me clean it up.
Age 25 I've learned that wherever I go, the world's worst drivers have followed me there.
Age 30 I've learned that if someone says something unkind about me, I must live so that no one will believe it.
Age 40 I've learned that motel mattresses are better on the side away from the phone.
Age 50 I've learned that you can tell a lot about a man by the way he handles these three things: a rainy day, lost luggage, and tangled Christmas tree lights.
Age 60 I've learned that making a living is not the same thing as making a life.
Age 70 I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back.
Age 80 I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one.
Age 90 I've learned that I still have a lot to learn.

The most knowledgeable people in the world are the greatest learners. God counseled the one who would be the leader of His people "to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law...It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to revere the Lord his God and follow carefully all the words of this law."¹ Jesus instructed those who would be His disciples to "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me."²

This workbook is designed to help you as you continue a lifelong process of learning to listen to God as He speaks to you through His Word and of learning to obey God as an expression of your love for Him.³

My prayer is that as you meet the conditions of God's promise to Joshua, and you do not "let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; but meditate on it day and night,"⁴ that you will also receive the promised blessing of success in possessing all that God has for you.

In His Joy,

² Matthew 11:29
³ John 14:23
⁴ Joshua 1:8

Suggestions for Study

These worksheets are designed to be used as a companion to the study of the Gospel of John. Believing that God speaks to the individual through His Word, we have designed these worksheets to lead the Bible student through a series of questions concerning the Scripture passage. The exercises enable the reader to not only discover for himself or herself the eternal truths revealed by God in the Bible, but also to hear God speaking personally through His Word.

- Set aside a regular place for your Bible study.
- Set aside a regular time for your Bible study.
- Pray before beginning the day's assignment, asking God to speak to you through His Word.
- Write out your answers for each step of the worksheets in sequence - do not skip a step.
- Make the time to be still and listen, reflecting thoughtfully on your response in that final step to live it out.

Spiritual discipline is an essential part of an individual's ability to grow in his or her personal relationship with God through knowledge and understanding of His Word. We at AnGeL Ministries sincerely pray that these worksheets will provide you with an easy, meaningful format for this growth to occur. Please let us know if you have any comments or suggestions after you complete the study. We'd love to hear from you!

3-Question Bible Study Instructions

Read God's Word Look at the passage	1: What Does God's Word Say? List the facts	2: What Does God's Word Mean? Learn the lessons	3: What Does God's Word Mean To Me? Listen to His voice
To complete the daily worksheets, begin by reading the designated passage of Scripture. When you have finished reading the passage, move to step #1. Write out the passage verse by verse in this first section.	Be Literal. Make a verse by verse list of the most obvious facts using the actual words from the passage itself. Do not paraphrase. Do not get caught up in the details. Ask yourself: Who is speaking? What is the subject? Where is it taking place? When did it happen? Take a moment now to read Psalm 119:33-37 in the completed example on the following page. When you have read the passage, look over the list of facts so that you understand these instructions more clearly.	Be Spiritual. Go back to the list of facts and look for a spiritual lesson or principle within each fact. Ask yourself: What are the people in the passage doing that I should be doing? Is there a command I should obey? A promise I should claim? A warning I should heed? An example I should follow? Look over the lessons given in #2 of the example from Psalm 119.	Be Personal. The most meaningful step is #3, but you cannot do this step until #1 and #2 have been completed. To do #3 take the lessons you found in #2 and put them into the form of a question that you would ask yourself or your child, spouse, parent, neighbor, co-worker, friend or church member. As you write out the questions, listen for God to communicate to you through His Word. Don't rush. Take the time to prayerfully meditate and discover what God is saying to you. The object of these devotional studies is not to get through the worksheets, but to develop your personal relationship with God as you learn to communicate with Him.

How Will I Respond to God's Word? (Live it Out!)

Date: _____

Read the lessons prayerfully, objectively, thoughtfully, and attentively as you listen for God to speak. He may not speak to you through every verse, but He will speak. When He does, record the verse number, what it is He seems to be saying to you and your response to Him.

EXAMPLE

Read Psalm 119:33-37 then read the form below.
This is a Sample for the Daily Lessons.

Read God's Word Look at the passage	1: What Does God's Word Say? List the facts	2: What Does God's Word Mean? Learn the lessons	3: What Does God's Word Mean To Me? Listen to His voice
³³ Teach me, O Lord, to follow your decrees; then I will keep them to the end.	119:33 Teach me to follow and keep Your decrees.	119:33 Obedience to God's Word does not come automatically or naturally--it must be learned.	119:33 How teachable am I?
³⁴ Give me understanding, and I will keep Your law; and obey it with all my heart.	119:34 Give me understanding and I will keep and obey Your law.	119:34 We need to ask God to give us understanding of His Word so that we can be obedient to it.	119:34 When have I asked God to give me an understanding of His Word?
³⁵ Direct me in the path of your commands, for there I find delight.	119:35 Direct me in Your commands.	119:35 There is joy in living according to God's directions.	119:35 What real joy will I miss if I don't bother to read God's directions for my life?
³⁶ Turn my heart toward your statutes and not toward selfish gain.	119:36 Turn my heart to Your statutes.	119:36 It requires conscientious effort to turn away from caring more about ourselves than God's Word.	119:36 Instead of grasping for time to myself, what effort am I willing to make to spend time with God in His Word?
³⁷ Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word.	119:37 Turn my eyes and renew my life.	119:37 Renewal is not a church program, it is God's promise to those who spend time in His Word.	119:37 If I am seeking to be renewed, what could be more worthwhile than Bible study?
