Tamara Andersson, President

Welcome!

Got-Special KIDS & Got-Autism is your one stop for products designed for kids & teens with autism, developmental delays, sensory challenges & other special needs. Whether you are a parent, educator or therapist you will find our carefully selected products affordable, engaging & functional.

With the right supports & therapeutic interventions, children with special needs can be happy, confident & future ready. In a continuous effort to save our customers time and to provide them with the very best that money can buy, we carefully select our products – taking into consideration everything from developmental benefits, to value, durability and relevance. We categorize our inventory by therapeutic goals to help our customers find the right products without having to search far and wide.

Got-Special KIDS & Got-Autism donates 10 percent of sales back to the autism and special needs community. From sponsoring awareness events and funding therapy services, to helping with the costs of training autism service dogs, we believe in paying it forward.

We proudly support every product we sell with world-class customer care and an industry-best satisfaction guarantee. Our promise is to meet & exceed your expectations.
