Governor's Message

We are at the end of our 2-year term as Board members and for me as Governor. We want to thank the many hands who have made the Washington State Society a great place to remember our Pilgrim ancestors.

We thank those persons who volunteered their time to on the Board in 2015-2016. Our Historian Jerri McCoy has welcomed 93 new members with seamless ease, shared brief new-member profiles, recorded birth years and kept our website up-to-date.

Tim Rogers, Chair of the Finance Committee for processing lunch reservations (496), membership renewals (580), and divining how to generate our roster from member data in Excel.

Deputy Governor Jocelyn Paulson chaired the Program Committee making venue decisions for the pleasure of our attendees and finding most interesting speakers on witchcraft, skippering the ship Lady Washington, and on the Governor William Bradford painting permanently at the Tacoma Art Museum. Our AG Judy Arnold for generating 93 membership certificates plus 350 luncheon name placards and 350 luncheon name cards.

Genie Parrott for membership reports to the General Society. Nick Parrott for championing (with Steve Arnold) our donation to the historic First Church in Plymouth, MA ($1046 donated), and for transporting our treasures: Society Charter (1912), Society Flags (1912) and ship Mayflower model.

Lynn Pittier costume focal for setting the historic tone at luncheons. Ann Shipley for speaking on Colonial Life, welcoming 35 Junior Members and sending over 500 junior birthday cards.

Marilynn Sabo for detailed meeting minutes, coordinating book memorials with the Seattle Public Library and procuring over 130 Plymouth A Scenic Pictorial books for education. Elder Mavis Ratcliff for sharing our Pilgrim's Christian heritage and many sympathy cards to members. Former Governors Catherine Roberti (and Don Wingerson) for representing the Society at President George Washington's birthday events. Additional board members

105th Annual Meeting

11:45 am — 2:30 pm, Sunday April 2 at the Tacoma Yacht Club, Tacoma, WA, near Tacoma's Point Defiance Park.

Ken Lazarus, Skipper of Washington State's only tall ship, the Lady Washington, will speak on sailing a ship comparable in size to the Mayflower. Details on Page 5.

This meeting commemorates the granting of our state Charter on March 28, 1912, 105 years ago.

Come meet with your cousins!

WELCOME ABOARD!

New Members

Congratulations on tracing your family's history to a passenger of the ship Mayflower, emigrants in 1620 from England and Holland to Plymouth Colony, and present at the first Thanksgiving in America!

Compact Day Luncheon
October 30, 2016

Bellevue Red Lion Inn, Bellevue, Washington

Our Compact Day Luncheon began at 11:45 am with a social hour. Members were invited to peruse the sales table for sales books and Mayflower items, view displays about the 2017 GSMD Historic Sites Tour and a list of members who belong to other heritage societies.

Governor Guy Moellendorf called the meeting to order at 12:20 pm.

Elder Mavis Ratcliff led the Invocation, and Captain Nick Parrott led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Governor Moellendorf introduced former Governors, Steve Arnold, Catherine Roberti, Margaret Spangler, and Don Wingerson, current Board Officers, and the Board of Assistants.

Governor Moellendorf gave a brief summary of the Mayflower Compact and its signers (men). He then did the Ancestor Roll Call, noting that in 2007 the list of ancestors was expanded to include all ancestors arriving on the Mayflower, including women and children. There were 58 members, two junior members, and 22 guests present. James Chilton had the most descendants present (7), and John Alden was second with 6 descendants.

Since our speaker's topic for today was witches, Governor Moellendorf asked members with ancestors who were witches, judges, accusers, or others involved in witch trials to stand. More members stood than didn't, demonstrating how profoundly the "witchcraft" hysteria affected our ancestors in New England.

Historian Jerri McCoy and Corresponding Secretary Genie Parrott recognized our new member in attendance, Katherine Doughty (James Chilton), and presented her with her membership certificate. Lynn Pittier, in Pilgrim attire, introduced our Junior Members in attendance, Calvin Paulson and Dinah Reed, presenting them with certificates of attendance.

Catherine Roberti was presented with the Past Governor's Award and Badge. Catherine also has 17 supplemental ancestors!

Lunch was served at 12:45 pm. Tables were decorated in a fall theme, with gold tablecloths and napkins. Round mirrors were covered with fall leaves and miniature flags. Food selections included burgundy beef tips, parmesan crusted chicken, pesto chicken penne, and ratatouille, with chocolate cake or cheesecake for dessert.

Following lunch, Deputy Governor Jocelyn Paulson welcomed our guest speaker, Deborah McNally, PhD, Lecturer at the University of Washington on Early American History. Dr.

Guest speaker Professor Deborah McNally, left, and Deputy Governor Jocelyn Paulson, who chairs the Program Committee, making speaker and venue arrangements.

McNally's presentation was "The Salem Witchcraft Crisis of 1692: Why Salem? Why 1692?"

Some points Dr. McNally made were:

This was different than previous New England witch hysteria cases.

1600 were named, 162 were arrested, and 144-156 were said to be "in the snare of the devil."

- Conflict with the Native Americans made this an intensely fearful time.

Many families had ties to the isolated frontier in Maine, which was experiencing severe Indian troubles.

- Colonists who experienced or feared Indian attacks had severe anxiety and showed signs of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder, PTSD.

- Lyme disease and ergot-affected grain poisoning could cause symptoms similar to those attributed to demonic possession.

- Family conflicts, disputes with neighbors, misogyny, and religious disagreements could be to blame. These people were under a high degree of stress.

- Afflicted and accusers were powerless young women. Being in the spotlight gave them attention and control which they did not have otherwise.

- Almost everyone believed that witches (and devils and demons, etc.) were real. It was just part of their religious belief system.

The reigning English king at that time, James II, became a Catholic when he married his second wife. He advocated religious tolerance to stop the persecution of Catholics (and others). He merged the New England colonies, creating the Dominion of New England. This replaced the religious governments of the Puritans and Separatists, and advocated religious tolerance of Catholics, Quakers, and Baptists. They certainly did not want to tolerate these groups, and did not want to give up their original charters and freedoms. In 1688, James II was overthrown by his Protestant daughter, Mary, and her Dutch Protestant husband, William of Orange (William and Mary). This inspired Massachusetts colonists to rebel against the Dominion and its officials, including ousting Dominion Governor Andros. However, the overthrow of the Dominion officials in the Massachusetts Bay Colony didn't work out as the colonists had hoped. William and Mary refused to reissue the colony's original charter and instead issued a new charter in 1691 that merely continued the policies of the Dominion of New England, including restricting religious Puritan-based laws. Needless to say, this created intense strife for the Puritans of Massachusetts. Governor Winthrop's "City on a Hill" was Historian Jerri McCoy welcomed the one new member in attendance, Katherine Doughty, by presenting her membership certificate. Katherine had also been given a Life Membership by her family.

Twenty-four Mayflower Descendants attested they have ancestors involved in the 1692-93 Witch Trials of Salem, Massachusetts.

coming to an end. More stress!

This was a very litigious society, using courts to resolve disputes. There were disputes over property lines, grazing rights, and church privileges to name a few. (Salem Village residents were considered quarrelsome.) When the Colony Charter was suspended, the courts were also suspended, leaving many issues unresolved.

In October of 1692, as more prominent people were being accused, prominent ministers began speaking out. They believed confessions were being coerced, and spectral evidence was called into question.

Governor Moellendorf thanked Dr. McNally for her enjoyable and thought-provoking program and presented her with a certificate of appreciation.

Bylaws Committee Chair, Margaret Spangler, introduced the Bylaws Committee and explained the proposed revisions to the Bylaws, Article III. Members were given ballots upon arrival. It was moved by Margaret and seconded by Nick Parrott that we put the revisions to a vote. There were five separate items to approve on the ballot by a yes or no vote: Section 5 – Transfers and Dual Memberships; Section 2.c. – Membership Classes; Section 3.b. – Junior Member; Section 3.c. – Life Member; Section 6.b. – Reinstatements.

Steve Arnold challenged the ballot vote, which required five separate tallies, and suggested we vote only once with a show of hands. We could vote yes if we approved all five revisions or no if we did not. This was done, and there were two no's. Everyone else voted to approve all five revisions. Motion Passed to Amend Bylaws, Article III. For the adopted wording, see page 10, Fall

Lynn Pittier, our costume focal, welcomed the Junior Members present with certificates of attendance.

2016 Evergreen Log, available on the Society website.

Governor Moellendorf thanked everyone for attending today's luncheon and reminded them of the books for sale at the back display tables, the information available for the 2017 GSMD tour of Historic Sites, and the list of members belonging to other heritage societies.

Our Spring Luncheon will be April 2, 2017, at the Tacoma Yacht Club.

Elder Mavis Ratcliff gave the Benediction, and Governor Moellendorf wished everyone a fond farewell. The meeting closed at 2:35 pm.

Respectfully Submitted,
Marilynn Tanner Sabo, Recording Secretary []

Skipper of ship Lady Washington to Speak at April Luncheon

By Jocelyn Paulson, Program Chair

Kenneth Lazarus is one of the active Skippers of the Lady Washington tall ship. He will speak about life aboard a historical wooden sailing ship. He will have a PowerPoint with about 20 slides to share with us.

The current Lady Washington tall ship is a replica of the original Lady Washington that was launched in 1780. The current Lady Washington was launched in 1989.

Ken works for the Grays Harbor Historical Seaport which is home port for the Lady Washington. Mr. Lazarus said that he may appear in his historical merchant marine Skipper's uniform (non-military) for the speech.

The Skipper of a historical sailing ship is a great catch for our speaker! What could be more relevant to descendants of those who sailed on the Mayflower?

Skipper Lazarus' Life Experience

Ken grew up on the Niagara River driving small fishing boats from the age of 10. In 1990, he moved to Southern California and spent 14 years teaching scuba diving. This led to St Thomas, US Virgin Islands to run Underwater Safaris Dive Operations for two years.

Now living in the Pacific Northwest, he is skippering charter boats such as the 65ft schooner, Mallory Todd, the Sea Scouts Ship Charles N. Curtis, SSS Odyssey and our state ship, The Lady Washington. Since moving to Tacoma in 2010, Ken has focused on maritime activities by volunteering at Tacoma Sea Scouts and is the new Marine Operations Manager at Grays Harbor Historical Seaport. [] who gave input at meetings and pitched in to make our luncheons run smoothly: Sandra Fisher, Bruce Harrington, Sharon Heath, Charlotte Killian, David Raese.

We thank those who volunteered as General Society officers. Steven Arnold for service as GSMD Board Member-at-Large and coordinating formation of the new state Society in Europe. Barbara Williams, GSMD Historic Sites chair for hosting the tour of Historic Sites in England and the Netherlands.

We thank those non-board members who volunteered their time for the general good of all Mayflower Descendants. Ted Todorovich for producing membership cards and the "members by Mayflower ancestor" reports. Alton Rogers for creating and editing Pilgrim Wikipedia pages for completeness and accuracy. For Tacoma Yacht Club members Jerry and Dorothy Hull for hosting the Society at the beautiful waterfront venue. Allen Gray for divining how the Bellevue's Kelsey Creek Park could be a workable picnic venue.

Many hands make light work.

On page 6, be sure to check out the hot links on "Watch the Mayflower II Being Restored."

We welcome the incoming Board who will carry on the work of preserving and sharing our Pilgrim heritage.

Mayflower II dry docked for repairs

The Mayflower II, a replica of the 17th-century ship that brought the Pilgrims to Plymouth, was supposed to be in dry dock long enough to get a new rudder and generator, and some caulking. Then an inspection showed the ship's hull was rotting, leaving shipwrights on the hunt for hard-to-find white oak needed to fashion new planks and frames for the 56-year-old wooden ship.

Watch the Mayflower II being Restored

A $7.5 million, multi-year restoration is being undertaken of the nearly 60-year-old replica of the Mayflower that normally is found in the waters off Plymouth, MA. This is in advance of the 400th anniversary of the Pilgrims' arrival in Plymouth in 1620. The restoration honors the ship's original construction and uses traditional methods. The goal is to restore the Mayflower II to her original state when she first arrived in Plymouth in 1957.

The public can watch the restoration online via a live cam at plimoth.org/mayflowerlive. Towed to Mystic CT, before Thanksgiving, the Mayflower II is being attended to by Mystic Seaport shipwrights and Plimoth Plantation maritime artisans. Workers are replacing the half-deck area, as well as working on the tween deck and topmast rigging.

Inspections in 2013 revealed the Mayflower II, owned by Plimoth Plantation, was in need of a major refit, which was not considered unusual for a nearly 60-year-old wooden ship. Donations toward the restoration are accepted at plimoth.org/sos

The Mayflower Pilgrims

In 1620, a brave group of 102 men, women, and children sailed across the Atlantic on the Mayflower, searching for a life of religious and civil freedom.

These Pilgrims landed in Plymouth harbor, establishing the first permanent European settlement in New England. Only half survived that first difficult winter. Hundreds of years later, from those few survivors there are now millions of Pilgrim descendants.

In addition to bringing their values and spirit of adventure with them to the New World, the Pilgrims created a heritage of liberty and law by drawing up a document of self-government, the Mayflower Compact, which they signed onboard the Mayflower at Provincetown. The Mayflower Compact is considered a forerunner to the Constitution.

The General Society of Mayflower Descendants

To honor Pilgrim ancestors and to keep their story alive, the General Society of Mayflower Descendants was created in 1897.

A gathering of GMSD members in Plymouth, 1939.

It is the goal of The Mayflower Society to join together people who share this heritage and to carry on the memory of our Pilgrim ancestors.

About Us

- The Society has over 28,000 members around the world, with 52 societies representing all 50 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, and Canada.
- Individual societies meet locally throughout the year to keep the Pilgrim story alive and to educate the public.
- The Mayflower Society Headquarters is located in Plymouth, Massachusetts where we maintain a research library specializing in the genealogy of the Mayflower passengers and their descendants. The library is open to the public.

- The General Society of Mayflower Descendants (GSMD) is a leading authority in the field of Pilgrim genealogy.
- We fund Pilgrim research and publish findings in the highly-regarded Mayflower Families silver books.
- We award higher education scholarships to deserving high school seniors who are members or are direct descendants of GSMD members.
- We also maintain formal gardens and the elegant Mayflower Society Museum House, built in 1754, where we give tours to the public and host special events.

How Do I Join?

Mayflower Society memberships are handled through individual state societies. To receive a membership application and lineage research guidance, contact the state society through which you want to apply.

Contact information for the state societies is available in the Join GSMD section of our website:

Mary Ann White receiving her certificate
Christmas Day.

December 27, 2016

Hi Judy, Guy and Jerri,

Thank you so much for helping me get these certificates to my Mom, Mary Ann White, and sons Trevor and Kyle for Christmas. They were a big success... Please find attached a copy of the pictures of them receiving their certificates. My boys knew about all this before hand but it was a big surprise for my Mom.

Also, there were other relatives at the party wanting to sign up to join! Could you send me a couple blank applications?

Take care and thanks again for being an important part of this surprise. It went over as wonderfully as expected...thanks in large part to all your help!!!
