A cruise call in Roses

Coast of contrasts with cliffs and hidden coves with crystal clear water, and fine sand beaches of an intense blue and shallow water.

It's origins go back to the 8th century BC with the foundation of the Greek city of Rhodes. Today Roses offers the possibility to follow the line of history from prehistoric times to the present day among its Greek, Roman and Medieval remains.

Roses cuisine is wellknown worldwide because is the town of Ferran Adrià's creations. The port is located just at 8 km far from this genius'temple.

As a natural harbour, Roses has an important fishing fleet that provides the town with fresh fish and seafood daily. Don't leave without enjoying the traditional Fish Stew called "Suquet de Peix".

Spend leisure hours walking around, mountain biking, paragliding, parachuting, sailing, diving, fishing, surfing or having fun in Roses'water park, minigolf courses, little train's excursions...
