SOLO FLIGHT: THE GENIUS OF CHARLIE CHRISTIAN

VHS

VIEW Video

When he began playing melodic single-string solos on an amplified guitar, Charlie Christian caused a guitar revolution, elevating the instrument front-and-center from its traditionally background position, and charting a new musical course from which jazz is still flowing. Solo Flight traces the life and music of Christian from Texas, where he was born in 1919, to Oklahoma City, where he made his first musical mark, to his legendary tenure with the Benny Goodman Sextet, and his night sessions at Minton's in Harlem with Dizzy, Kenny Clarke, Thelonious Monk and Bird, where we explore Christian's essential contribution to the birth of bebop. MICHAEL MANRING – PERFORMANCE STUDY

Star Licks
 Something special happens when a group of musicians gets together to play for the first time. This video captures that magic. Michael Manring assembled a group of first-rate musicians, only one of whom he’d met before, and they played without any rehearsal and videotaped the results. Selections include spontaneous and improvised versions of “Gloria’s Step,” “Giant Steps,” “Bright Size Life,” “Spirits in the Material World” and more, plus lots of extemporaneous grooves. This video presents an insightful look at Manring’s style and technique, and a glimpse into a truly enjoyable day of making music. Includes an accompanying booklet with easy-to-follow notation and diagrams that correspond to the video. Approximately 50 minutes.

CHICAGO BLUES HARMONICA

A GUIDE TO THE CLASSIC AMPLIFIED HARP SOUNDS OF JOHN LEE WILLIAMSON, LITTLE WALTER, SONNY BOY WILLIAMSON, AND BILLY BOY HIMSELF

featuring Billy Boy Arnold
Star Licks

Billy Boy Arnold is an unparalleled source of historical information about the development of the harmonica in this century. After delivering an informative and entertaining introduction about the instrument he loves, Billy walks and talks viewers through the important aspects of the playing styles of both Sonny Boys and the two Walters. Each artist's work is demonstrated by a performance with rhythm section backing and then a clear, concise explanation. Topics covered include playing in first, second and third positions, note bending, trills, back-up accompaniment and playing minor blues. Billy shows it all with diatonic and chromatic harmonicas, spicing his musical analysis with anecdotes and his gentle humor. The terrific video, along with an accompanying booklet with the main musical examples transcribed, makes this the definitive method for learning classic Chicago blues harmonica. 58 minutes.
