Paul Erlandson

STRATHAM — Paul "Ken" Erlandson, 83, recently of Sunrise Lakes, Fla., died Wednesday, May 17, 2006, at Rochester Manor in Rochester, N.H., following a long battle with cancer.

He was born Jan. 24, 1923, in Malden, Mass., a son of the late Paul G. and Elsa (Carlson) Erlandson.

He was a graduate of Malden High School. He served as a staff sergeant in World War II under General Patton in the 101st Infantry Regiment and received a Purple Heart, Bronze Star and Good Conduct medal and various other medals and commendations, including a special citation from the French Ministry of Defense. He never viewed himself as a hero, but acknowledged that he did his job to the best of his ability and considered the men he was charged with fighting as no more or less of a man than he.

Following the war, he married his sweetheart, Elizabeth Cummings, on Dec. 10, 1945, and made a home in West Roxbury, Mass., before moving to Stratham, N.H. in 1960. He was an active member of the Order of the Masons, Bektash Temple in Portsmouth and the Newmarket American Legion. He was a former member of the Stratham Community Church and served as deacon. He worked for the Macallen/Essex Company in Newmarket for many years.

He was a master of an infuriating trick ping-pong and tennis shot and loved friendly competition on the golf course and cribbage table as well. He will be remembered for his immense garden through which he provided a bounty for many cookout parties. He always had a twinkle in his eye and loved to make people laugh, whether with a joke or his antics. He was a talented singer, golfer and loved animals.

A special thank you to all the people who cared for him in his last days and months, his son, Glenn, with whom he stayed until his needs became too great, the killful and compassionate Rochester Manor staff and Seacoast Hospice, who continue to be a great comfort and source of inspiration.

Family members include his wife, Elizabeth C. Erlandson of Newmarket; a son, Glenn Erlandson of Newmarket; two daughters, Karen Erlandson of Center Barnstead and Lauren Karosis of South Berwick, Maine; three grandchildren, Alexander, Cameron and Anna Karosis.
