From the desk of Carol Hinkle (HACC Director)

As I read my devotion recently I came across one by Max Lucado (one of my favorite authors). He spoke of Clamshells in his book Outlive Your Life, and how we all have them. He went on to explain that they become “bunkers for the soul” and how we come by them honestly. Inside there is no hunger or orphans; no poverty or injustice. He goes on to say how we want to help, but the “problems are immense, complex and intense.” These are the ills that fall into our mission statement. These are the ministries we operate in order to alleviate some of the issues for some individuals and families.

The question is, how do we continue to serve the Lord in this place? Each of us is given different talents and abilities. We each feel an affinity to different ministries; we each hurt for a different group of individuals. If you hurt for the hungry then you may want to use your talents in PAL or Ruth's Harvest. It takes a lot of people to work behind the scenes to sort and pull food. You may have talents in this area, but have an uneasiness of working directly with people you do not know. We can accommodate this situation. The same is true for our Clothing Bank. The sorting is done Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings, the racks filled and

Don't Worry, Be Happy

I like summer; I'm sorry to see it come to a close. Summer provides time in the year for a little relaxation; time to spend with friends or family. It is a time to be light hearted, a time to leave behind our responsibilities for awhile, even as we remain faithful believers and rest assured in the promises of our Lord.

In Matthew's Gospel, we are given a gentle reminder of this. Don't Worry, Be Happy ... the Father knows what we need and will provide it. Instead, use your energy to seek first ... the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.

It's good to hear this message from Scripture because our usual daily lives provide us with ample time to worry. In fact, I heard a poll recently that said the thing people worry most about, is money ... but also about our jobs, our families, our health, our relationships. It's easy to see how we can be overwhelmed. We become enslaved by our obligations and worries, our money and responsibilities. But, Jesus gently reminds us today to "... not worry about our life, what we will eat or what we will drink, or about our body, what we will wear ... that Jesus will provide, just like the birds in the air.

According to the world standards, we are blessed abundantly by God and, for that we are grateful. Many of us don't have to worry where our next meal is coming from or whether or not we'll have a roof over our head this month. We are good people, so in our abundance we have also good intentions. We know we're supposed to donate to worthy causes, but then how do we pay for the ever-rising cost of gas and food? We plan to be more charitable in the future, but right now there are so many everything straightened in order to open for business on Tuesdays (free day) and Thursdays and first Saturday of the month sale days. If you enjoy people, you may want to cashier.

If you hurt for the homeless there is opportunity at Changing Lives Shelter to volunteer on a regular basis, or teach a life skill, or prepare a meal. There are so many ways of serving. If you chose not to come in to the shelter, sponsor a drive for blankets or gloves, or Christmas gifts.

If you have administrative skills, teaching skills, people skills or a just yearn to help address the problems that ravage communities all over this country may I suggest that you start with one step at a time. That step would be trust the Lord to direct your path and guide your choice of service area. Pray for insight and the will to step out in faith. There are so many jobs to be done here at the council that everyone could do something. There is an urgency that so many in the church do not feel to show Christ's love in these troubling times. I feel all of us as the body of Christ need to pray for our community, for our citizens, for our leaders, for the ministries we offer, and all those who serve and are served.

2 Chronicles 7:14 "If my people who are called by my name, shall humble themselves and turn from their wicked ways; then I will hear from heaven, and will forgive their sins, and will heal their land."

Prayer Need: Frank George has suffered another stroke. Please lift up him and Hazel in prayer.

things that our families need. Many of us have worked overtime or held second jobs, spending less time with our families, because we want to provide them with so many things. Some of us save like misers because we know we'll soon need the extra cash for a college education or retirement. Therefore, our obligations become a source for much of our worries. But, Jesus tells us today not to worry about our life, what we will eat or what we will drink, or about our body, what we will wear. So, how do we reconcile these two premises?

Jesus used another teaching moment in Matthew to say that "We cannot serve God and wealth." So, is Jesus saying that we shouldn't work hard with the gifts God has given us? Are we not to use our brains and our bodies to the best of our ability? Are we not to reap the rewards of our labor? No, of course not! That wouldn't be putting our God-given gifts to good use. Jesus tells us that material wealth is fine and good, that we should work hard by using our God given talents, and we should, by all means, reap the rewards of our labor. But, in the process, as faithful people, we cannot become enslaved by our wealth. And, by way of our wealth, we are not to be the master of our world, our accomplishments, or of our destinies. We are, however, to use the gifts that God blesses us with for the good of the Kingdom ... because we are not made to be totally self-sufficient, but are made to depend on God to help us serve God's people.

Enjoy your last easy days of summer. You've worked hard all year long ... and you earned the break. Take some time also to discern how you might be a faithful servant of God who provides all that you need. Ask how the blessings God gives you can be used for the good of God's Kingdom. Live these days, and every day, confident that your life is in the hands of a loving Father, who holds you as close as a baby in a mother's womb, who has your name inscribed on his hand and who will provide for your every need. Amen.

How To Increase Your Donation While Decreasing Taxes

Chances are you have had a good year with your stock or mutual fund investments in 2017, since the major stock indices hit all-time highs. You may be wondering should I sell and protect my capital gains. Of course cashing in your capital gains comes with a price tag in the form of capital gains tax. For most people the realized gains will be taxed at 15 percent.

With the stock market at all-time highs, many people don't realize the advantages of giving appreciated securities (stock, bonds, mutual funds) to the Hanover Area Council of Churches (HACC). You can take an immediate tax deduction on the full market value of securities held longer than one year, and also avoid the capital gains tax you would owe by cashing in the securities.

Compared with donating cash, or selling your appreciated securities and contributing the after-tax proceeds, you may be able to increase your gift, increase your income tax deduction and avoid capital gains tax.

For example if you purchased 100 shares of a stock for $20 a share and it is now worth $35 the 100 shares of stock has appreciated in value $1,500 or $15 a share. If you sold that stock you would normally owe capital gains on the $1,500 difference between the selling price and the cost. If you donate that stock to Council of Churches you can usually take an income tax deduction for the full current appreciated value of the stock in this instance $3,500, avoid the capital gains tax on the $1,500, and HACC would receive the full $3,500 and you owe no tax.

For more information you may check with your financial advisor and/or call the Council office 717-637-6353. HACC has partnered with the York County Community Foundation and you can also call Bryan Tate, Vice President and Chief Development Officer at 717-630-1843 and tell him you are considering a donation to Hanover Area Council of Churches.

Ruth's Harvest in Full Swing for Fall

We hope everyone has had a safe and relaxing summer. It is hard to believe, but by the time this article goes to print schools will have been back in session and we will be getting things started to send out our first bags of the year. This is our fifth year already, and we continue to serve the four elementary schools in the Hanover district. Our coordinators were unable to hand out the forms to the parents at the schools' open houses, so we are asking all of you to help us get this information to all of those in need. The forms can be picked up at the schools, Hanover Area Council of Churches, and New Hope Ministries. We have been working throughout the summer to get the program ready and up-to-date for the new school year. The first backpacks are scheduled to be delivered to the registered children on September 14th. We will begin our regular Monday morning collection from participating churches and civic groups on Monday, September 11.

The food items, of course, are the same. Individual servings of cereal, fruit, vegetables, mini meals, complete meals, drinks, and snacks. Because allergy to peanuts continue to be of concern, we have a particular need for peanut free snacks. You may also make monetary donations with checks made out to Hanover Area Council Of Churches with RUTH'S HARVEST on the notation line or simply to Ruth's Harvest. As always we ask for your continued prayers, and your continued support to make this yet another successful year serving God's Children in the Hanover area. The Ruth's Harvest Back Pack Program is only possible through your donations and many volunteers who accept, sort, pack and deliver your donations to the children.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT.

God's blessings, Ruth's Harvest Team Members

CROP Recruiter Orientation Meeting September 11, 7pm HACC

HANOVER CROP WALK!!

October 15, 2017—“Registration begins at 12:30 pm; with walkers stepping off at 1:00 following a prayer. Choose one of two town routes or walk the track. Walkers receive a thank-you gift at the end.”

The Hanover Area Council of Churches (HACC) invites you to help raise funds for those in our area and around the world who are living in poverty and suffering from hunger. Last year the walk raised almost $16,000 with 25% of the funds allocated to feed the hungry in the Hanover area. Some things you can do to help:

- Sign up as a walker in your congregation. Ask your friends/family to sponsor you by making a donation to CWS/CROP.
- Make a donation to one of the walkers/rockers who is representing your church on the day of the CROP Walk.
- Remember our walkers, and the people they walk for, in your prayers on the day of the walk.

Get your teams together now!

If you have questions please call Jan Davis at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, 637-7101 or jdavisaim@stmatthlutheran.org.

John Bullard, banjo

Markus Compton, keyboards

"Classical Banjo: The Perfect Southern Art"

John Bullard has gained international attention for his work in developing and transcribing classical repertoire for the five-string banjo. In 2005, he became the first classical banjoist to graduate from Virginia Commonwealth University's Department of Music. Critically acclaimed CD releases by Bullard include John Bullard—The Classical Banjo and Bach on the Banjo. Music from John's recordings has been included in several feature films such as the DreamWorks animated film The Rise of the Guardians and the award-winning The Edge of Heaven. His newest release, Classical Banjo: The Perfect Southern Art, is the summation of his life's work. This album presents a variety of tone color, beautifully executed ornamentation, and sensitive interpretations—fragile and intimate, peaceful and austere.

Markus Compton, keyboardist, is no stranger to the music scene in metropolitan Washington DC, Richmond and the Williamsburg (VA) areas. He is a Fulbright scholar having studied German Lieder and French Melodie at the Musickverein in Vienna, Austria. He has performed at the National Gallery of Art, Carnegie Hall, the White House, and in a collaborative recital with Peter Schikele (PDQ Bach). Currently, Markus is the Artistic Director for the Richmond Choral Society and serves as Director of Music and Pianist at Hebron Presbyterian Church, in Manakin-Sabot, VA. He also serves on the staff at Collegiate School where he teaches private piano.

Singers Wanted

The Gettysburg Choral Society

Preparations are currently underway for the formation of The Gettysburg Choral Society, an auditioned chorus to be based in Gettysburg, beginning in the fall of 2017. We are looking for 24-30 talented and experienced singers who are willing to work together perfecting the choral sound. While we are particularly interested in securing trained musicians (music teachers, church musicians, etc.), persons with the ability to read music and a keen understanding of choral music are invited to audition. The audition process is relatively simple: singers will be asked to sing a well-known song, sight-read a simple song, and match pitches with particular vowel sounds.

Rehearsals will be held on Monday evenings starting September 25th and culminating with a concert of Christmas favorites on Friday, December 15th. All auditions and rehearsals will be held at Trinity United Church of Christ, 60 East High Street, Gettysburg, PA 17325-2319.

Auditions will be held at Trinity U.C.C. on Sunday, July 30th from 3:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M.; Monday, July 31st from 6:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.; Saturday, August 5th from 1:00 P.M. to 4:00 P.M. and by appointment. Contact the director to schedule your time for this simple and brief audition.
