To celebrate Black History Month, seniors Akilia Robinson and Zoe Audifferen are coordinating a festival and planning a showcase of talent to commemorate the month. This is the 5th annual celebration and the event's founder, Imani Spencer '10, will perform.

Members of the Spring semester production class will produce an evening of food and fun with this year's mystery dinner experience. Student playwrights are submitting scripts for review. This show will be produced in March 2016.

MYSTERY DINNER THEATRE

Auditions will be held in November for students interested in being part of this year's Spring Musical. Taught by Marie Bruner, Megan Schuitema, and Dawn Parker, Harrison Theatre will be tackling a ghoulish delight this Spring — the show will be produced the last weekend of April 2016.

A new Harrison tradition, Take a Bow is the senior showcase in which seniors bring their best performances to the stage to take their final bow. Underclassmen prepare a video tribute for the Class of 2016 — don't miss our senior farewell on May 20th!

TAKE A BOW 2016

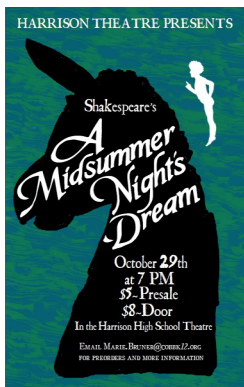

HARRISON THEATRE SEASON 2015-16

Induction Show

Students performed a montage of scenes spoofing the productions and antics of the 2014-15 season. After the show, new members were inducted into Troupe #4996 of the International Thespian Society.

A Harrison Theatre annual tradition, Back in Black serves as a fundraiser for the one-act play competition team. This year, proceeds will benefit the costumes needed to create our magical forest.

This year's one-act play teams is tackling on of Shakespeare's timeless classics. This years, we plan to ask the Georgia ITS plan to review our show with hopes that will be able to share our efforts at Thescon.

Our children's show represents collaboration at its finest. Written by senior Brenna McNulty, students in the acting class will perform this holiday show in December.
