By Dave Sim

Series Synopsis

He has been a champion of self-publishing and of creator rights. But his unorthodox world views on religion and feminism, oft-espoused within the pages of his comics, are seen as regressive by many and have alienated a large swath of his audience. In these pages, you'll see the collapse of Dave's last romantic relationship, right before he declared himself celibate and began practicing his own blend of Christianity, Judaism, and Islam. From surprisingly tender moments to bursts of rage, all the joys and pain of a relationship come through, unfiltered, from Sim's undeniable talent to communicate.
