WORKS OF ART IN PORCELAIN

Know-how and maximum attention to detail are applied to unique handcrafted processes that make each piece a work of art. A journey through unrepeatably creations inspired by the most varied feelings, traditions or cultures. Works of art that tell stories.

"Beyond birth and death, constant and eternal, is the soul"
Mahabharata: ancient Indian epic.

The epic poem tells how, before the battle in which the Kauravas were going to fight the Pandavas, Lord Krishna wisely answered the archer Arjuna's questions on the reasons for war and for death ... The dialogue between the two, addressing great ethical dilemmas, gave rise to this sublime High Porcelain composition.

In this scene charged with symbolism, Lladró artists have deployed the whole arsenal of their technical and creative resources. The painstaking ornamental work combines glazed and matte porcelain finishes, golden luster and metallic treatments that enhance different parts of the costumes, the chariot and the horses.

Gita Saar is a limited edition of 299 units by the sculptor Francisco Polope. The impeccable treatment of porcelain by Lladró artists makes it the perfect material to tell the story of the lessons on life and death Krishna gave to the brave archer Arjuna.

He is a powerful god. She is an alluring milkmaid. Together they symbolize the union of heaven and earth, the divine and the human, a fascinating and inspirational story of eternal love that has come down to us from the thousand-year-old tradition of ancient India.

This extraordinary High Porcelain creation stands out for the painstaking finish successfully combining glazed and matte textures with numerous details in golden luster. The superb decoration of the piece also boasts very subtle coloring, paying specific attention to the sophisticated tones inspired by the Hindu aesthetic, as well as a wealth of ornamentation covering every single inch of the piece: the borders, the headdress, the bracelets, the anklets.

Medieval Tournament is a spectacular High Porcelain limited edition which captures all the fascination and romanticism of a legendary time, and a demonstration of Lladró artists' control of sculpture and ornamentation. The ornamental splendor of the knights' heraldic emblems and their fabulous armor are reproduced with a wealth of detail in this elegant piece of glazed porcelain, decorated in golden and metallic grey luster, as well as elements of polychrome wood and gold-plated brass.

One of the world's most powerful animals is captured for the first time in porcelain at the moment when the lion meets its cub.

When a cub is between seven and eight weeks' old, the mother decides to introduce it to the rest of the pride, including its own father.

Lladró artists have captured that precious moment in this detailed creation handcrafted in white matte porcelain with delicate touches of white enamels on the mane and the tip of the tail.

This vase, the brand's largest ever, shows a tropical paradise like the one where Eve once lived. Created by the artists at Lladro's High Porcelain workshop, this limited edition of just 150 units makes remarkable use of lush green tones and various levels of relief to faithfully reproduce the beauty of this paradisiacal garden.

An allegory of life in nature, this delicate glazed porcelain creation is based on one of the characters in Paradise Vase. This limited edition is decorated in a range of green and blue colors that recreate a paradisiacal tropical garden.

The celebrated French artist Henri Rousseau is also behind these candles. The ornamentation of these beautiful home fragrances, available in different sizes, is also inspired by the personal style of the famous painter and his unmistakable way of representing the forms of nature. All of them contain a scented candle with the Gardens of Valencia fragrance, with citric notes and a fruity aroma with bergamot, tuberose, sandalwood and musk.
