1999 Chestnut/Tobiano Mare

NOTES: Gators Poco Gin is a performance bred working cow horse that you can ride or breed. We just weaned her May colt the last of Oct. and have sent her back out to the ranch to work cows for a month. "Sis" is broke and we have used her as a broodmare for the last 5 years. When we saddle her up after being off for 5 years she still remembered what her job was. If you are looking for a stout mare that can produce good bone here she is. She has produced 3 tobianos and 2 solids when bred to our overo stallion. She sells open due to having a May 15, 2009 colt that we are keeping. We did not breed her back as we wanted to move her foaling date up.
