THIS SUNDAY'S GOSPEL

The Beatitudes appear in the gospels of Matthew and Luke as part of the Sermon on the Mount. But what actually is the nature of true happiness? Must we be miserable in this world to be happy in the next? Faith and hope bring the lasting joy that is the essence of true blessedness. Beatitude, according to Webster, means perfect blessedness or happiness. But when you read the beatitudes, you seemingly find anything but... It is the poor, the hungry, the weeping and the persecuted who are blessed. In Luke's gospel (Luke 6:20-26), Jesus even adds woes for those who are rich, full, mirthful and popular. I once heard a preacher say that many of God's people look more liked they've been baptized in pickle juice than in water. Is this holiness? Is piety all about being miserable and glum? What are we to make of these alarming words of Jesus? The last thing we ought to do is to tame Jesus' hard sayings. The Lion of Judah does not respond favorably when we try to domesticate him. But neither should we be literalists and interpret the beatitudes outside of the context of the entire Bible. This is one of the great things about the liturgy of the Word. The Church puts three readings together each Sunday that clarify each other. Jeremiah 17:5-8 helps us see what Jesus is getting at in the Beatitudes: Cursed is the man who trusts in human beings, who seeks his strength in flesh, whose heart turns away from the Lord. Whether our possessions happen to be money, a job, a spouse, or children, they become an obstacle when we find our security and sense of self-worth in them. Our ultimate security can only be in one place, and our natural tendency is to look for it in someone or something we can see. Yet, to look for security in an invisible Someone, is not quite natural- it is supernatural. To do it we need supernatural gifts called faith and hope. Faith is really about finding our ultimate security and identity in God's love, protection and help. Is it wrong to take pleasure in a good job or a loving spouse? No. But to find your security in them sets you up for heartbreak. Ask the software engineer who was laid off after his job went "offshore." Hope is about what you are looking forward to in the future, about being more excited about the promise of heaven than any other earthly blessing. Is it wrong to look forward to your wedding day, having a baby, landing a better job, or graduating from college? Not at all. But if you think you will find your ultimate fulfillment in these things, you are under a great illusion. Ask the upwardly mobile executive who climbs to the top of the corporate ladder only to find emptiness there. Paul said it well-if our hopes in Christ are limited to this life only, we are the most pitiable of men. (1 Corinthians 15:19). We've all been given the supernatural gifts of faith and hope in baptism. But these two virtues are like spiritual muscles that must be exercised and developed. If you don't use them, you lose them. And the only way to grow them is to put some stress on them. This hurts, of course. So what have you done lately to develop faith and hope? Or better yet, do you recognize what challenges God has permitted in your life for the purposes of developing your faith and hope? Loss of job, health, loved one, money, popularity-these can be seen just as lamentable annoyances . . . or as opportunities to grow. When faith and hope are well developed, they impart a strength and a joy that cannot be taken away by the trials and tribulations that devastate superficial happiness. Francis of Assisi had no possessions and was in constant pain in the last few years of his life, and yet was one of the most joyful persons that ever lived. That's because faith and hope matured in him and produced beatitude here and glory in the age to come. The beatitudes do not demand a morose Christianity. They are all about laying the foundations of an unshakable joy and a peace that passes understanding.

FEBRUARY: MONTH OF THE HOLY FAMILY

Between the events which marked Christmas and the beginning of Christ's public life, the Church has seen fit to recall the example of the Holy Family for the emulation of the Christian family.

A CATHEDRAL CHALLENGE

We frequently feel helpless during these difficult times in our world.

So, why not challenge ourselves to say one extra everyday for whatever is on our mind?

HAIL MARY

It could be for our world, our family, our city, our country, our Church, the sick, the dying, victims of violence, for peace and understanding, the souls in purgatory, the helpless, the homeless, women contemplating an abortion, military personnel, EMS workers, to fight hunger, etc.

It doesn't take more than a few seconds!

Secondly, why not challenge a friend or family member to do the same? If we all do this, just think of how many extra Hail Mary's could be said in a day!

Take up the challenge and let us walk in life with Our Lady !

WEEKLY EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Blessed Sacrament is adored in the Lady Chapel on Wednesdays & First Fridays from 6:00PM to 7:00PM

OFFERING MASSES FOR THE REPOSE OF SOULS

It is customary not only to visit the graves of our dearly departed, but also to have Masses offered for the eternal repose of their souls. Having a Mass offered for the repose of a soul, and offering our own prayers, is more beneficial and comforting than a card or a bouquet of flowers.

From the Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC):
"From the beginning the church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God" (CCC #1032).

Contact the Cathedral Office to have a Mass offered for a relative or friend who may need our prayers!

FEBRERO: MES DE LA SAGRADA FAMILIA

Entre los acontecimientos que marcaron la Navidad y el comienzo de la vida pública de Cristo, la Iglesia recuerda el ejemplo de la Sagrada Familia para la emulación de la familia cristiana.

«Alegraos ese día y saltad de gozo»

Hoy volvemos a vivir las bienaventuranzas y las “malaventuranzas”: «Bienaventurados vosotros...», si ahora sufrís en mi nombre; «Ay de vosotros...», si ahora reís.

La fidelidad a Cristo y a su Evangelio hace que seamos rechazados, escarnecidos en los medios de comunicación, odiados, como Cristo fue odiado y colgado en la cruz. Hay quien piensa que eso es debido a la falta de fe de algunos, pero quizá —bien mirado— es debido a la falta de razón. El mundo no quiere pensar ni ser libre; vive inmerso en el anhelo de la riqueza, del consumo, del adoctrinamiento libertario que se llena de palabras vanas, vacías donde se oscurece el valor de la persona y se burla de la enseñanza de

Cristo y de la Iglesia, ya que —hoy por hoy— es el único pensamiento que ciertamente va contra corriente. A pesar de todo, el Señor Jesús nos infunde coraje: «Bienaventurados seréis cuando los hombres os odien, cuando os expulsen, os injurien y proscriban vuestro nombre como malo, por causa del Hijo del hombre (...). Vuestra recompensa será grande en el cielo» (Lc 6, 22.23). San Juan Pablo II, en la encíclica

Fides et Ratio, dijo: «La fe mueve a la razón a salir de su aislamiento y a apostar, de buen grado, por aquello que es bello, bueno y verdadero». La experiencia cristiana en sus santos nos muestra la verdad del Evangelio y de estas palabras del Santo Padre. Ante un mundo que se complace en el vicio y en el egoísmo como fuente de felicidad, Jesús muestra otro camino: la felicidad del Reino del Dios, que el mundo no puede entender, y que odia y rechaza. El cristiano, en medio de las tentaciones que le ofrece la “vida fácil”, sabe que el camino es el del amor que Cristo nos ha mostrado en la cruz, el camino de la fidelidad al Padre. Sabemos que en medio de las dificultades no podemos desanimarnos. Si buscamos de verdad al Señor, alegrémonos y saltemos de gozo (cf. Lc 6,23).

MISAS PARA EL REPOSO DE ALMAS

Es costumbre de no sólo visitar las tumbas de nuestros difuntos, sino también de ofrecer Misas por el descanso eterno de sus almas. Ofrecer una Misa por el descanso de almas, y nuestras oraciones propias, es más beneficioso y reconfortante que una tarjeta o un ramo de flores.

El Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica (CIC) nos enseña:

“Desde los primeros tiempos, la Iglesia ha honrado la memoria de los difuntos y ha ofrecido sufragios en su favor, en particular el sacrificio eucarístico, para que, una vez purificados, puedan llegar a la visión beatífica de Dios.”
(CIC # 1032)

Contacte la oficina de la catedral para apuntar una Misa para las almas que necesitan de nuestras oraciones!
