

History of N. B. H. S.

Class of '51

In early September of 1939 a loud wailing noise appalled the peace loving citizens of North Baltimore. This wailing was being made by 52 little children who just didn't want to go to school. These 52 beginners were:

Bill Boney	Nancy Shilling
Jean Symonds	Sharie Allison
Barbara Woesner	Deloris Rider
Yvonne Kline	Naomi Wymer
Lynette Willis	Thelma Snyder
Jack Swartzbaugh	Ila Vaughn
Joan Ralston	Dan McMahan
Jeannette Davis	Gerald Rush
Dorothy Bobb	Buddy Mills
Margie Baney	Joe Shafer
Joyce Phillips	Esther Nungester
Dean Roach	Kenneth Culver
Gene Benner	L. Bland
Jim Scott	N. Bland
Wayne King	Bob Farley
Frank Mossberger	Larry Moore
Paul Wirries	Ruth Ackerman
Robert Sterling	Jack Alexander
Robert Bishop	Rozella Parker
Philip Sponsler	Margaret Palmerton
James Roberts	Marilyn Chapman
Carol Wymer	Russell Heilman
Marilyn Monasmith	Max Champ
David Wenner	Clara Belle Miller
Charlotte Franks	Delores Busch
Delores Steele	Bob Hosler

By the end of the first day of school Miss Bechtel and Miss Lytle had everyone well in hand.

The students passed under the capable supervision of many other helpful teachers during their elementary schooling, to Miss Roach, Miss Hamlin, Miss Trautman, Miss Alverna Foley, Mrs. Sponsler, Ida Foley, and Miss Miller.

During the elementary schooling several students left our school, and several joined us in our happy, bustling school life. Those who joined us were:

Nan Blue
Peter Letso
Donald Leeper
Gloria Naylor
Barbara Wise
Martha Moore
Phyllis Brumbaugh
Joyce Phillips

Several students left our midst to go to other schools, but came back again. I guess they just couldn't stay away.

During the Junior High the Class of '51 picked up several students. These were:

Patty Apple	Harold Haynes
Michael Roach	Janice Gordon
Mary Lou Knepper	Betty Gruber
Allie Mae Miller	Carol Solarik
Tom Kuhlman	Wayne Cook
Albert Bear	Ivan Nungester
Glen Snyder	Norman Gallant
Dorothy Corbin	Fred Long
Clyde Wymer	Robert Vandersall
Lois Saylor	Bonnie Hosler

By that time we were freshmen, we had gained several students, and joining our ranks from Hammansburg were:

Martha Cunningham,
Jeannette Davis, who moved to Hammansburg from N. B. during the fifth grade.

Richard Gonyer,
Gene Ebersole,
Bill Zeltner

Other we gained were:

Eddie Baltz
Rose Ellen Griffith
Joe Phillips
Bill Schlumbohm
Eldon Schlumbohm
Edwin Snyder

Joyce Phillips had moved back, but left again during her sophomore year.

Jim Scott was back again after his adventures to Van Buren.

During the rest of high school we lost many of our old friends.

Many of them moved to other schools, or found a new type of life besides that life which exists inside the walls of the school.

By the time we were Seniors the size of our class had dwindled to 31, but we gathered in some new friends. Betty Barringer returned to our school after a year of absence, Sharie Allison came back from several years at Hoytville, Jo Ann Warren came in the Junior year from Bowling Green.

So, by the end of May, 1951, the Class of '51 answered to this roll call:

Ruth Ackerman	Mary Lou Knepper
Sharie Allison	Marilyn Monasmith
Margie Baney	Jack Phillips
Betty Barringer	Dean Roach
Mabel Benedict	Michael Roach
Robert Bishop	James Roberts
Dorothy Bobb Trout	Gerald Rush
William Boney	Jim Scott
Delores Busch	Philip Sponsler
Marilyn Chapman	Robert Sterling
Wayne Cook	Jean Symonds
Martha Cunningham	Jo Ann Warren
Jeannette Davis	Naomi Wymer
Gene Ebersole	Carol Wymer
Janice Gordon	Bill Zeltner
Wayne King

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1951, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament.

We, the Senior Class of 1951, will to the faculty the memories of us, and hope our leaving will not inconvenience you too much.

We, the Senior Class of 1951, leave to the juniors our first period government class and Mr. Barnes.

We, the Senior Class of 1951, will to the sophomores all the work ahead and hope they will be as studious as we were.

We, the Senior Class of 1951, will to the freshmen the days ahead, the years of fun, and the hope of becoming a sophomore.

I, Janice Gordon, will my energy to Naida Troutner. Make good use of it, Naida.

I, Naomi Wymer, will my ability to stick to one man to Donna Prosser. If you try hard enough, Donna, you'll find the right one.

I, Betty Barringer, will my debating ability to Lois Ziegler. Don't be shy Lois, speak up.

I, Phil Sponsler, will my locker No. 144 to Jim Clements. That way Jim, you can keep your eyes on the girls in both halls at the same time, I always could.

I, Joann Warren, will my ability to get out of classes to work on the school paper to Bonnie Carmean. I hope it will help in getting a good paper.

I, Ruth Ackerman, will my seat on Mr. Aldrich's bus to anyone who can stand his constant griping.

I, Gerald Rush, will my women troubles to Bunk Gerdeman, maybe you can get along with their parents better than I did, Bunk.

I, Bob Bishop, will my ability to stay out of the useless arguments to anyone who doesn't like to argue.

I, Jim Roberts, will my ability to argue with Bechtel and Fast without getting them mad to anybody that can do it.

I, Mary Lou Knepper, will my working in the cafeteria to Mary Anne Krontz.

I, Jack Phillips, will my one year of summer school to Harry Franks, just in case you might need it Harry.

I, Dorothy Bobb Trout, will my married life to Mary Jo Monasmith. Housework is fun once you get used to it, M. J.

I, Marilyn Chapman, will all the work that has to be done to the class of '52, and best wishes to the class of '51.

I, Bill Boney, will my basketball suit No. 11 to "Bunk" Gerdeman. Make good use of it, Bunk.

I, Margie Baney, will my love for a McComb boy to Mary Lou Damon. Keep waiting for him, Mary Lou, he's worth it.

I, Martha Cunningham, will my ability to get my work in late to Charlene Cunningham. Good luck. You'll need it to get through.

I, Delores Busch, will my ability of letter writing to service men, especially to a former Bloomdale resident to Lois Ziegler. You've got a fairly good start, Lois.

I, Wayne King, will my ability to use my parents cars frequently to Tucker Winkle. Of course, you have to ask them for it, Tucker.

I, Dean Roach, will my ability to aggravate Mrs. Sweebe in typing class to John Sponsler. Don't bother to bring any paper, just bring something to eat.

I, Wayne Cook, will my General Business book to Shirley Zeltner. Good luck, Shirley.

I, Mabel Benedict, will my way with the men to anyone who thinks that they are qualified.

We, Jean Symonds and Carol Wymer, will our ability to be friends all through high school to Mary Jo Monasmith and Wilma Gordon. We hope that you have as much fun as we have had.

I, Marilyn Monasmith, will the good times I have had during high school to my brother, John. If you can't find any fun, make some, you're the one that can do it.

I, Gene Ebersole, will my Plymouth to Duke Flowers providing you allow only Dorothy to ride in it.

I, Elmer Sterling, will my ability to sleep in bookkeeping to anybody who thinks they can get away with it.

I, Bill Zeltner, will my government book to anybody that wants it. I hope they do better than I did.

I, Mike Roach, will my ability to skip school to Pat Boney. Just don't do it close to a ball game, Pat.

I, Jim Scott, will everything I don't have to the guy who isn't there. That's a lot of nothing.

I, Shari Allison, will my driving ability to Mr. Barnes. Don't be discouraged, Mr. Barnes.

I, Jeannette Davis, will my ability to fall in and out of love every week to Bonnie Carmean. Some loves can last two weeks, Bonnie, but not much longer.
