How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

Details of the Speaking Test

Test Format

There are three parts which take the form of a one-to-one interview lasting between 11 & 14 minutes:

- Part 1 Introduction & Interview (4-5 minutes)
- Part 2 Individual long turn (3-4 minutes)
- Part 3 Two-way discussion (4-5 minutes)

The interview tests your ability to perform the following functions in English:

- provide personal and non-personal information
- express & justify opinions
- make suggestions
- speculate
- express a preference
- make comparisons & discuss contrasts
- summarise
- relate personal experiences
- analyse
- repair conversation & paraphrase

Test Procedure

The test is conducted by one examiner. He or she asks all the questions and assesses you. The test is recorded. You will be taken to the examiner's room where you will be asked to sit either opposite the examiner. The examiner will then begin recording the interview and start the test.

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

Part 1: Introduction & Interview (4-5 minutes)

The examiner will introduce themselves and confirm your identity. They will then ask you a number of general questions about yourself to try and make you feel relaxed. You may be asked about your home or studies. Then you will be asked one or two more sets of questions on familiar topics such as your interests, your country, your family, food, clothes, holidays etc. The questions come from an examiner ‘frame’ (pre-determined questions) so the examiner will not necessarily follow-up with questions based on what you say. You do not have to express an opinion or justify it in this part.

Some typical questions might be:

- ❖ Where do you come from?
- ❖ What is your home like?
- ❖ Tell me about your family.
- ❖ Tell me about your job/studies.
- ❖ Is there anything you dislike about your job/studies?
- ❖ What type of transport do you use most?
- ❖ Do you like reading?
- ❖ What kind of television programmes do you watch?
- ❖ Tell me about a film you have seen recently.
- ❖ Do you have a pet?
- ❖ What kind of food do you like?
- ❖ How often do you go shopping?
- ❖ What’s your favourite festival? Why?
- ❖ How do people celebrate this festival?

How to do Part 1

- Listen to the questions carefully.
- Give full answers to the questions if possible but don’t anticipate related questions. For example, if you are asked where you live a suitable answer would be ‘I live in the new territories – in a village just outside Sai Kung, called Pak Tam.’

NOT ‘I live in Sai Kung. It’s a really nice town with quite a large population and lots of seafood restaurants. It’s a lovely place to live as it’s in the countryside. I have lived there for ten years.’ This sounds like a prepared answer and the examiner’s next question might be ‘What’s Sai Kung like?’

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

- Don't give one or two word answers. This is your chance to show off your English ability. Don't be shy.
- Make sure you relate what you say to what the examiner asks. For example,

Examiner: Do you like reading?

You: Yes, I do but I don't get much time to read these days.

How to prepare for Part 1

- Make a list of possible topics you could be interviewed on e.g.
 - ❖ your home
 - ❖ your country
 - ❖ your job
 - ❖ your interests
 - ❖ your school
 - ❖ your family
 - ❖ food
 - ❖ festivals
 - ❖ clothes
 - ❖ books
 - ❖ films
 - ❖ transport etc.
- Write questions for each of your topics and get a family member or friend to ask you the questions or put them on an audio cassette and test yourself responding to them.
- Record yourself answering the questions and listen to see how you can improve your responses.
- Make sure you know all the vocabulary necessary to talk about these topics. Practice the pronunciation of any new vocabulary.
- Think about the language that will be useful e.g.
 - ❖ ways of expressing likes & dislikes
 - ❖ linkers like 'even though' and 'unless'
 - ❖ tenses to talk about the past and present and your experiences e.g. 'I've never been to Europe.' or 'I went to London for a holiday in 1998.'

Part 2: Individual Long Turn (3-4 minutes)

The examiner will ask you to speak for 1-2 minutes on a topic, which they will give you on a card. The card will give you an outline of what you need to talk about. You will be given one minute to prepare and make notes. The examiner will give you a piece of paper and a pen. They will invite you to start speaking when your preparation time is up.

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

The examiner will not say anything while you are speaking but will stop you if you talk for more than two minutes. Then you might be asked one or two short follow-up questions.

The topics are general in nature. You will be asked to describe things such as a restaurant you enjoy eating in, a book you have read recently or something you cannot live without. You will also be asked to relate what you are talking about, to yourself – e.g. ‘say why you choose to eat in this restaurant’ or ‘say what you enjoyed about the book’.

For example:

Describe a restaurant you enjoy eating in.

You should say:

where this restaurant is what kind of menu it has what other features it has
and explain why you choose to eat there.

Part 2 gives you the opportunity to show that you can speak at length without hesitation. It is also important to show that you can organize your ideas coherently.

How to do Part 2

- Read the topic card carefully.
- Use the preparation time wisely. Make sure you have understood what you need to talk about. Jot down a few points/key words. Don't waste time writing sentences.
- Don't write on the topic card.
- Make sure you cover all parts of the topic card – description and explanation.
- Organise your talk by following the order on the card.
- Make your talk as interesting and as lively as possible.
- Refer to your notes as you speak, developing each point you have.
- Make sure you use examples from your own life. It's much easier to talk more fluently about your own experiences.

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

- Try to expand your sentences using linking words like ‘however’ and ‘although’. Don’t use words like ‘moreover’ and ‘thus’ which are normally used for writing.
- Don’t hesitate for too long. Talk about anything related to the question rather than nothing at all.
- Try to relax and enjoy sharing your ideas.
- Don’t worry about the time. The examiner will stop you when time is up.
- Also, don’t worry if the examiner stops you before you have finished. You will not be penalized for not concluding your talk.

How to prepare for Part 2

- Using the topics you have thought about for Part 1 take them one at a time and time yourself preparing for one minute and talking about them for one to two minutes.
- Record yourself speaking on these topics. Play the recordings back to see how easy you are to understand and how you could improve. Use the checklist below to assess your performance:

- ✓ Did I cover all the points?
- ✓ Did I elaborate the points?
- ✓ Did I vary my vocabulary?
- ✓ Did I organize my ideas logically?
- ✓ Would an examiner have understood me?
- ✓ Was my pronunciation clear?
- ✓ Were my notes useful?
- ✓ How long did I talk for?

- Spend some time thinking about how you will make notes. Mindmaps are quick and useful for this kind of activity.
- Think about the language:
 - ❖ to introduce your topic
 - ❖ to describe objects, people, events or places
 - ❖ to describe a sequence of events
 - ❖ to talk about experiences
 - ❖ to talk about how you feel or felt about something in the past

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

- ❖ to talk about personal goals
- Practice short answer questions for the follow-up questions.

Part 3: Two-way discussion (4-5 minutes)

The examiner will invite you to participate in a discussion of more abstract issues linked to the topic in Part 2.

You could for example be asked to talk about people's eating habits, diets, fast food or genetically modified food as a thematic link to your talk on a restaurant in Part 2. The examiner could start the discussion in several ways e.g. 'Tell me what you think about ...'; 'What in your opinion is ...' or 'How would you compare...' etc.

You may be asked to relate the topic to your own country/culture.

You will be expected to be able to express your opinions and give reasons. It is an opportunity to demonstrate your fluency as well as the range of your vocabulary and grammar.

You will also be expected to use language to clarify your meaning and repair any breakdowns in communication.

The questions will increase in difficulty slightly as this part of the test progresses. The examiner may begin by asking you to describe something and then move on to ask you to compare, evaluate or speculate.

How to do Part 3

- Remember, there is no wrong answer. Don't be afraid to say what you think about a topic.
- Try to give interesting responses to the examiner's prompts.
- Show your ability to express abstract ideas and support your opinions.
- Demonstrate a willingness to give extended responses. Don't give one-word answers.

How to prepare for IELTS – Speaking

- Try to repair any breakdowns in communication by getting around a word you can't think of or don't know by using other words to express your meaning.
- Give yourself time to think by using expressions like 'I've not really thought about this before but ...'. See Helpful Hints for IELTS, p.77.

How to prepare for Part 3

- Think about abstract issues related to the topics you have for Part 1 & 2. For example - school/teachers – qualities of a good teacher; learning styles; qualifications versus experience; classroom learning versus on-line learning etc.
- Read English language newspapers & magazines
- Stay up to date on current issues.
- Listen to or watch current affairs programmes e.g. Pearl Watch.
- Think about language that will be useful e.g.
 - ❖ language of comparison and contrast
 - ❖ language to express opinions and give reasons
 - ❖ language to speculate about the future
 - ❖ language to discuss the hypothetical e.g. conditional sentences
- Think about a current issue and list vocabulary you would need to talk about it. Think about your opinion on the issue and think about opposing views.
- Find someone else doing the test and practice discussing current affairs, especially in relation to Hong Kong.

General tips:

Before the test

- Try and talk in English as much as possible.
- Participate in the Chat Groups offered by the LC.
- Participate in the ~~IELTS Workshops~~ offered by the LC.
- Participate in the general ~~Workshops~~ based on your area of need which are offered by the LC.
- Remember the more familiar you are with everyday social English the more fluent you will sound.
- Make sure you are familiar with the structure of the test.
- Listen to as much English as you can – watch English TV, listen to English radio - RTHK (567AM) & BBC (675 AM), and watch movies in or outside the SAC.
- Talk aloud and record yourself.

During the test

- Your appearance may have an unconscious effect on the examiner, so dress neatly.
- Arrive early. Sometimes examiners get ahead of schedule.
- Try to look confident. Don't fold your arms. Place your hands on your lap.
- Make eye contact with the examiner to appear more natural & confident.
- Don't worry if the examiner does not look at you throughout the interview. They must watch the time and prepare for the upcoming parts.
- Don't worry about being nervous. Everyone is nervous doing these tests. Don't say to the examiner 'I'm nervous'!
- Speaking 'fluently', does not mean speaking 'quickly'. Slow down & breathe.
- Don't be afraid to correct yourself if you make a grammatical mistake. Even native speakers make mistakes.
