"Seeking God's presence should be a lifestyle not an emergency kit." -Unknown

"There is a deep dryness of the soul and all of the recalcitrant contrivances of man to quench his own thirst will bring not a single drop of moisture to those parched places, for God and God alone holds the water that satiates the soul."

-Craig D. Lounsbrough

- When Jesus cried "I thirst" on the cross
 - We usually think of the _____.
 - It was to _____ as shown in Scripture.

After this, when Jesus knew that all was now finished, he said (in order to fulfill the scripture), "I am thirsty." (John 19:28)

Save me, O God...I am weary with my crying; my throat is parched. My eyes grow dim with waiting for my God.... (Psalm 69)

I am poured out like water, ... my mouth is dried up like a potsherd, and my tongue sticks to my jaws..." (Psalm 22:14-15)

- What if Jesus was thirsting for _____?

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness.... (Matthew 6:5)

What did Jesus receive?

A jar full of sour wine was standing there. So they put a sponge full of the wine on a branch of hyssop and held it to his mouth. (John 19:29)

They gave me poison for food, and for my thirst they gave me vinegar....
(Psalm 69)

When we ask for water.... Jesus gives us _____.

When Jesus asks for water.... He received our gall and vinegar, _____
_____.

Focus Questions:

- How can the one who is living water thirst?
- What is it that Jesus wants us to learn?
- Jesus and Eternity

Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb... (Revelation 22:1)

The Spirit and the bride say, 'Come!' And let him who hears say, 'Come!' And let him who is thirsts come! Whoever desires, let him take the water of life freely." (Revelation 22:17)

On the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, saying, "If anyone thirsts, let him come to Me and drink. He who believes in me, as the Scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water. (John 7:37-38)

Churches should become staging posts where living water flows out into communities and nations of the world. –Brother Yun

Jesus quenches our thirst so that we can share the living water with others and help to quench their thirst. –Susan Robb

Passionate Worshipper

As a response to our ongoing pandemic, we invite you to join our online Maundy Thursday Seder Meal on Thursday April 1, available to view any time after 6pm. This worship service is visual and participatory—you will have the opportunity to see, taste, and reflect over a table set with traditional Passover items. We'll use scripture as well as visual and worship elements to walk through this Jewish Passover Seder, weaving the story of Exodus with the life, death and resurrection of Christ. Celebrating the Passover story helps enrich one's faith and understanding of Christ in the Last Supper, and delivers a universal message of hope. To celebrate the Maundy Thursday Seder meal, there are a few items that you will need to prepare in advance. These items will be used as part of the service. They include:

- Candles and matches/lighter
- Damp washcloth or napkin/paper towel
- Ceremonial foods
 - o 3 pieces of unleavened bread (the traditional bread is Matzo, but you may use naan bread or tortillas)
 - o Karpas (a green vegetable- parsley, celery, cilantro, or lettuce). One stem per family member.
 - o Salt water in a small dipping bowl.
 - o Maror, the bitter herb (horseradish)
 - o Charoset/Haroset (a traditional apple/walnut mixture – you may find a recipe online or mix apple sauce with graham crackers for a nut-free version)
 - o Hagigah (hard-boiled egg). One slice or bite per family member
 - o Shank bone of a lamb (you may use a bone from chicken, turkey, or other meat with a small bone instead)
 - o Red juice
 - o Bread and juice for Holy Communion

As we begin to regather for in person worship, we will be following the same safety protocols as before. Please also remember to register for worship (Monday-Thursday on our church website) if you plan to attend in person. Our service will continue to be livestreamed beginning at 8:15 as well.

Current sermon series — Seven Words: Listening to Christ from the Cross. Together, we will look at the seven last words of Christ on the cross through a lens that finds life and hope in his final sayings, while exploring each from a biblical and historical perspective. We pray that, through this hopeful and contemplative focus on the cross during the weeks of Lent, you will experience anew the depth of his love for us and discover the meaning of his words for us today.

Join us and invite others to worship from home with us any day of the week! All worship services are posted on our church website, fumchurch.com. Sing, pray, hear the message proclaimed and respond through your weekly giving. If you, or someone you know, are unable to access the online worship service, please contact Janice Bowen at wecare@fumchurch.com or 717-766-4611 x112 for other ways to connect with our worship.

When Helping Hurts shows how some alleviation efforts, failing to consider the complexities of poverty, have actually (and unintentionally) done more harm than good." Michelle Schwartzmann, VIM Coordinator, will be leading this study once a month for six months via Zoom conferencing. All are welcome to join us! The study is free, no book required, just join in for the lesson and discussion. To receive the zoom link or for more information, contact Lori Hoffnagle at outreach@fumchurch.com.

New Hope is in need of the following items: Pasta (not spaghetti or elbows), canned fruit, canned tuna/chicken, bathroom tissue, bath soap, toothpaste, and diapers (size 4, 5, 6). Questions? Contact Debbie Karns at deborahkarns1@gmail.com.
