ADIA Program in Phoenix, Arizona - February 2019

The beautiful JW Marriott Phoenix Desert Ridge Resort & Spa was host to the 2019 ICOI/ADIA Winter Symposium. Attendees were treated to an outstanding lineup of speakers and enjoyed the amenities of this world class resort. Continuing its tradition of providing the most up to date dental implant education for the entire auxiliary team, the ADIA podium did not disappoint.

The meeting got off to a fantastic start on Thursday with the entire dental team listening to world class clinicians on the main podium. Following the main podium, attendees enjoyed wonderful appetizers at the cocktail reception and had a chance to catch up with friends and colleagues. The cocktail reception also showcased table clinics and poster presentations where ADIA member Mary Panizian from Canada presented a wonderfully informative poster entitled; "How to Avoid the Most Common Errors in Dental Surgery". Ms. Panizian's presentation completed her requirements for ADIA fellowship and it was a great pleasure to present her a Fellowship Certificate in Phoenix.

The Friday ADIA podium program featured a wonderful array of speakers and clinicians who shared their vast knowledge and experience. The meeting continued Saturday with the highly acclaimed ADIA advanced certification courses. The certification courses are specifically designed for assistants, hygienists, practice managers and implant coordinators and provide attendees with an abundance of knowledge making them an integral and indispensable part of the dental implant team. The certification courses are also the pathway to ADIA fellowship, the most advanced of ADIA credentials. Auxiliaries who have attained ADIA fellowship have demonstrated their commitment and dedication to implant dentistry and are often asked to speak on the ADIA main podium.

I invite you to join us for in New York City this August for the ICOI/ADIA World Congress XXXVII. The meeting will feature an exceptional group of speakers and clinicians that is certain to enhance your daily practice. I hope to see you all there!

Best regards,

Avi Schetritt, ADIA Executive Director

We thank everyone who attended and look forward to seeing you at the New York Marriott Marquis in New York, New York for ICOI's World Congress XXXVII, August 17-19, 2019. For more information, please visit www.icoi.org.

ICOI CENTRAL AMERICA SYMPOSIUM

San Jose, Costa Rica February 28 - March 1, 2019

For the first time in ICOI history, we hosted a symposium in San Jose, Costa Rica, February 28 - March 1, 2019. The host hotel was the Real Intercontinental San Jose and their hospitality was abundant throughout the event.

Thursday morning began with several pre-symposium courses offered by our sponsors. A special thank you to:

PLATINUM SPONSOR: Zimmer Biomet; GOLD SPONSOR: NeoBiotech; SILVER SPONSORS: Glidewell Dental & Implantec

Thursday afternoon the main podium session began with an array of gifted clinicians from around the globe. Dr. Guido Sarnachiaro kicked things off with his lecture "Surgical and Prosthetic Considerations for Immediate Implant Placement in the Aesthetic Zone". And Dr. Georgios Romanos followed with a look at "Factors for Optimizing Implant Maintenance".

Our customary welcome reception took place Thursday evening with a fantastic turnout. The popular Table Clinic and Poster presentations were also very enlightening. Congratulations to the winners of this competition:

1st place winner: Dr. Rodolfo Hernández Goyenaga and Dr. Jairo Vargas Martínez (San Jose, Costa Rica) Iliac Crest Graft with Fixed Implant Rehabilitation: 5 Years of Control

2nd place winner: Dr. Jou Tzu Huang (New York, NY) POSTER: Clinical Significance of Biorotation In Posterior Maxilla Implants With The Crestal Approach

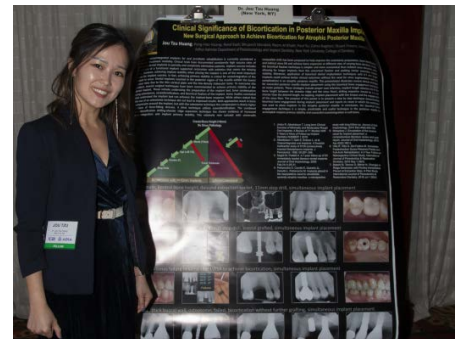

3rd place winner: Dr. Reginald O'Neill (Billericay, United Kingdom) POSTER: Trauma Case Treated Conservatively with a Minimal Intervention Approach

Friday morning, Dr. Rodrigo Neiva began the morning session reviewing "LASSO GBR: Rationale and Technique". While, Dr. Guillermo Chacón discussed the "Latest Advances in Surgical Implant Dentistry". The afternoon belonged to Dr. Francisco Marchesani who covered "Predictable Protocols for Alveolar Reconstruction, Maxillary Sinus Reconstruction and Management of Its Complications".

ICOI/ICOI EUROPE/PSI SYMPOSIUM BADEN BADEN, GERMANY

May 23-25, 2019

On May 23-25, 2019, tucked away in the black forest, the beautiful city of Baden Baden, Germany was host to our most recent symposium the ICOI/ICOI Europe/PSI Symposium. Practitioners from around the world were present to learn from our stellar line up of speakers.

Thursday morning began with several pre-symposium courses including both lectures and hands-on activities. On behalf of Dentium, Drs. Daniel Hattab & Michaël Betito reviewed how to "Anticipate the Better Way of Treatment – with a Digital Workflow". Dr. Christian Makary and Mecatron, covered, "Lateral Maxillary Sinus Floor Elevation: A Safe and Efficient Approach Using Piezosurgery". Biotech Dental presented a hands-on course with Dr. Alain Simonpieri related to "Immediate Loading and Implant Placement - From Biology to the Final Prosthodontics". A "Recipe for Success in Horizontal and Vertical Ridge Augmentation Procedures" was brought to us by Dentegris and Dr. Omid Moghaddas. Representing Straumann Group, Dr. Ophir Fromovich presented, "Straumann BLX – The New Generation in Implantology". And lastly, PRF Process founder, Dr. Joseph Chourkoun discussed, "A-PRF, Soft Brushing, Sticky Bone: The State of the Art of Bone Augmentation". A special thank you to our sponsors for providing these courses.

The popular Young Implantologists program began Thursday's afternoon session in the state-of-the-art Auditorium of the Kongresshaus. Dr. Michael Claar, was first up with his "Update Implantology 2019: From Single Tooth Implant to Full Mouth Reconstruction". Dr. Frank Zastrow followed with a review of "Biological Bone Augmentation - How to Get Reliable Results Even in Compromised Situations" and Dr. Sevim Canlar presented, "Digital Marketing in Dental Praxis". After a break with the exhibitors, Dr. Jonathan Du Toit began the next session with "The Biological Rationale for Partial Extraction Therapies" followed by Dr. Thomas Hanser presenting his lecture titled, "The Key Position of Soft Tissue Management in the Context of Three-Dimensional Alveolar Ridge Augmentation". Dr. Robert Frank conclude the day's program with his discussion of, "Starting with Guided Implantology".

Immediately following the Young Implantologists program on Thursday evening, was the Welcome Reception and Table Clinic and Poster presentations. The presenters were as follows and did an outstanding job in this competition:

Dr. Samer Mahmoud Al Mabrouk (Amman, Jordan) POSTER: Biological Drilling

Dr. Vladi Dvoynis (Petach Tikva, Israel) POSTER: Fractured Dental Implants No Longer Require Extraction

Dr. Estela Hudhra (Tirana, Albania) Piezo-surgical Lateral Approach with Autogenous Tooth Graft Combined with CGF -CD34+ Matrices - The Art of State Sinus Lift

Friday evening a sold-out crowd ventured into the Black Forest for our gala dinner at one of the largest white fir buildings in Europe, Geroldsauer Mühle. Authentic region cuisine as well as a festive atmosphere including camaraderie and lots of dancing was enjoyed by all.

The last day of the scientific program began with Prof. Yucheng Su who discussed, "Sinus Floor Elevation: A Known and Unknown Field". Dr. Mariusz Duda and Dr. Randolph Resnik followed with their respective lectures, "Predictable Implant Treatment as the Result of Basic and Continuous Education in Implantology" and "Short Implants vs. Sinus Augmentation in the Posterior Maxilla: Surgical and Prosthetic Considerations". Attendees took a break with the exhibitors and then return to finish out the morning session with Dr. Alain Simonpieri who reviewed, "Modern Approach of Full Arch Immediate Loading" and Dr. Paul Sipos's lecture on "Outperforming Nature".

The afternoon and final session of the event was not to be missed. After lunch, Dr. Christian Makary addressed, "Maxillary Sinus Floor Elevation: A Minimum Risk Approach". While Dr. Thomas Giblin spoke about "Incorporating Digital Dentistry into The Modern Implant Practice". One last break with the exhibitors and attendees returned to learn about "Sinus Lift Procedure from a Palatal Approach" with Dr. Radoslaw Jadach. Last but certainly not least, Dr. Michael Pikos, current ICOI President, closed out the event discussing "Sinus Grafting 30 Years: Myths and Realities".

Thank you for all of our speakers, attendees, sponsors and exhibitors for making this event a success.

The Gala Dinner took place on Friday evening at the Geroldsauer Mühle in Baden Baden. An amazing time was had by everyone who attended.

ICOI Around the World

2ND IMPLANT SYMPOSIUM 2019

Damascus, Syria

Under the patronage of the Minister of High Education Prof. Dr. Bassam Ibrahim, and with the participation of 500 specialist dentists from Syria and Arab and foreign countries, the International Congress of Oral Implantologists in Syria organized its second Symposium at Al-Basel Stadium in Assad University Hospital in Damascus on April 16-17, 2019.

The two-day symposium discussed 18 scientific papers on the latest developments in dental implants and the latest technologies in addition to reviewing many international experiences in this field.

President of ICOI Syria, Prof. Dr. Rashad Murad explained in a statement to the Press that the Symposium's program includes rich scientific researches that contribute to the development of the skills of specialists in this field to have outputs that reflect on their clinical practice and patient service in an optimal manner and their research is a starting point for partnership with others, or in clinics.

Prof. Dr. Christian Makary, professor at the University of Saint Joseph in Lebanon said that the symposium in terms of scientific content was, "very valuable and indicates the openness of scientific Syria at this stage to support the skills of doctors." His lecture focused on the complex cases of dental implants and criteria of success, and the appropriate amount of them for the implant.

Prof. Dr. Omid Moghaddas, Professor of Periodontology at Azad University of Iran explained that his lecture focused on the main points in increasing the aesthetics of dental implants and surrounding gingiva while Prof. Dr. Leon Beaulieu, from the United States of America explained the importance of developing work skills in implantation and increase the culture related to marketing.

From Italy, Prof. Dr. Fabio Fustini, said that the purpose of his participation in the conference was to identify his Syrian colleagues and the latest scientific publications in the country. He pointed out that, "the level of dental implants in Syria has been very advanced and benefited from the expertise in it."

The symposium was accompanied by an exhibition of sponsoring companies that includes the latest medical materials used in dental implants.

ICOI GOES TO IDS (International Dental Show) Cologne, Germany

The biggest dental show takes place every 2 years in Cologne Germany. The ICOI Executives are visiting this important event to meet our international Ambassadors and leaders around the world to discuss future ICOI meetings and educational activities. This year we met with at least 20 leaders from different countries and we are planning to be there again March 9-13, 2021.

1st ADIA CERTIFICATION PROGRAM IN SPAIN Madrid, Spain

Saturday, June 8th, the first ever ADIA Dental Assisting Implant Certification Program (DACP) took place in Madrid, Spain. The course was hosted at Coppel Dental Academy, and the educators were Drs. Isabel Gonzalez, Ana Adell and Antonio F. Coppel Garcia.

The participants, who took the 8-hour course, were happy to understand many of the different procedures involved in implant dentistry. We are looking forward to the next course, which will take place in September. And on October 19th, at the CEU/ICOI Symposium a parallel ADIA Symposium will take place.

We are pleased to announce that Dr. Kenneth Judy is the new Editor-in-Chief of ICOI's journal, Implant Dentistry.

ICOI Items of Interest

Lunch & Learn at UNLV

March 8, 2019, Dr. Palti, and Mrs. Lukacs, visited UNLV to have a Lunch and Learn from ICOI with the students.

The students warmly enjoyed the presentation by Dr. Palti and were greatly stimulated in their learning from Dr. Palti.

Dr. Palti really created a keen sense within the student group about current knowledge of Implant Dentistry, and the important role the ICOI has created in the global Implant community. The next meeting will take place at UNLV on September 8, 2019

We look forward to intensify such events in order to spread implant education in as many as possible American and International Universities.

Student Achievement Awards 2019

Matthew Tsun Loek Yeung, award recipient from VCU School of Dentistry.

Uyen Nguyen, award recipient from the Periodontics Department at the Dental College of Georgia.

University of Maryland

Mrs. Lukacs and Dr. Palti visited University of Maryland during the Implant Continuum and presented ICOI membership benefits as well as modern implant concepts for implant practices.

The cooperation with Herbert M. Mendelson, DDS, FAGD, DICOI, will be continued and intensify in the next years and we look forward to a very long term ICOI participation in the upcoming Implant Continuum with this prestigious institution.
