Announce the Resurrection of an American Classic

“When Johnny Cash comes on the radio, no one changes the station. It’s a voice, a name with a soul that cuts across all boundaries and it’s a voice we all believe. Yours is a voice that speaks for the saints and the sinners – it’s like branch water for the soul. Long may you sing out. Loud.” – Tom Waits

In 2010, the TAS staff voted for „The 100 Best – and Best Sounding – LPs” of which 42 were produced by CISCO and CLASSIC RECORDS. Here we go!

ROCK, POP, AND FOLK

Joan Baez, In Concert. Vanguard-Cisco (180g LP).
Now-iconic performances, recorded live at college concerts throughout 1961-62.

Holly Cole, Temptation. Classic Records (LP).
The distinctive Canadian songstress and her loyal combo in smoky, jazz-fired takes on the songs of Tom Waits.

Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young, Déjà Vu. Atlantic-Classic (200g LP).
A classic: Great songs, great performances, great sound.

Jimi Hendrix, Axis: Bold as Love. Track-Classic (200g mono LP).
JH's marvelous, trippy, and jazzy second LP reissued in the rare monophonic mix never sounded better.

Jimi Hendrix, Band of Gypsys. Classic Records (200g LP).
Mature Hendrix in one of his most original sets, live at the Fillmore; the music and sound will astonish.

Ian and Sylvia, Four Strong Winds. Vanguard-Cisco (180g LP).
This great Canadian duo's high-lyonesome harmonies convey unvarnished emotion in "Katy Dear," "Long Lonesome Road," and "Royal Canal."

Led Zeppelin, I, II, III, IV. Atlantic-Classic (200g LPs).
Yo — here it is, the first four Zeppelin albums reissued with sound that will raise the hairs on the back of your neck!

Roy Orbison, The All Time Greatest Hits Of Roy Orbison. Monument-S+P Records (two 180g LPs).
The honey-toned tenor's finest work, neatly packaged in this great sounding S+P reissue.

Steely Dan, Aja. Cisco (180g LP).
Approved by Donald Fagan and Walter Becker, this is one of the best-sounding LP reissues in memory. The disc features no compression (unlike previous masterings), tremendous sense of air, and precise soundstage focus.

Jennifer Warnes, Famous Blue Raincoat. Shout-Cisco (three 200g 45rpm LPs).
The 20th Anniversary reissue of Warnes' stunning renditions from the songbook of Leonard Cohen. The Cisco 45 rpm LPs define the state of the art in vinyl playback.

Jennifer Warnes, The Hunter. Private-Cisco (200g LP).
Warnes' post-Famous Blue Raincoat release that also showcases her own vivid songwriting talents in an exquisite performance and recording.

Doc Watson, Home Again. Vanguard-Cisco (180g LP).
The best country guitar-picker of his day plays folk ballads, bluegrass, and gospel classics.

Muddy Waters, Folk Singer. Chess-Classic (200g LP).
"Good Morning School Girl," "You Gonna Need My Help," "Big Leg Woman," and "Country Boy" highlight this famous blues album by Chicago's most famous bluesman.

The Who, Tommy. Track-Classic (two 180g LPs).
Classic's reissue of Tommy must be heard to be believed — it brings this still amazing rock "opera" to astonishing life.

The Who, Who's Next. Classic (200g LP).
Arguably The Who's best LP with arguably The Who's best song — the bitter, timeless, and, alas, time-and-again-tested anthem "Won't Get Fooled Again."

Neil Young, Live at Massey Hall 1971. Rhino-Classic (two 200g LPs).
This awesome sounding 1971 concert album from Neil's vault features a solo Young with just a guitar, a piano, and a microphone, debuting some of his now-famous new songs of the time.

CLASSICAL

Bartók, Concerto for Orchestra. Reiner, CSO. RCA-Classic Records (200g LP).
Arguably the finest concertante work of the past century. Reiner's and Chicago Symphony's performance — in some of RCA's finest sound — generates tremendous excitement.

Bartók, Divertimento for Strings.
Barshai, Moscow Chamber Orchestra.
King Super Analogue (180g LP).

Written just before the Second World War, this isn't merely light and diverting; in the nightmarish second movement Bartók utters a riveting scream of horror at the coming catastrophe. The performance by Barshai and the MCO is perhaps the most powerful on disc.

Beethoven, Kreutzer Sonata. Heifetz, Smith.
RCA-Cisco (180g LP).

While Heifetz's quick tempi and flawless technique sometimes seem like mere showing off, they rise to the level of poetry in Beethoven's astonishingly original, rhythmically innovative sonata. Great sound, too.

Brahms, Violin Concerto. Heifetz, Reiner, CSO.
RCA-Classic Records (180g LP).

When this 1955 recording session was finished, Reiner and his orchestra agreed that they had never heard a better performance of Brahms' concerto. Neither have we. Though the violin is spotlighted, Heifetz's playing makes it worthy of the spotlight. One of the great RCAs.

Cantaloube, Songs of the Auvergne. Davrath.
Vanguard-Classic (two 200g LPs).

By consensus, this 1960s recording of Canteloube's uncannily beautiful folk song arrangements is definitive. One of those rare instances when the finest performance of a work just so happens to be — by a wide margin — the best-sounding.

Hindemith, Violin Concerto. Fuchs, Goossens, LSO.
Everest-Classic Records (200g LP).

A big, tuneful concerto beautifully played, and captured in clear, spacious, detailed, dynamic sound.

Mussorgsky, et al., Witches' Brew. Gibson, NSOL.
RCA-Classic Records (200g LP).

Orchestral showpieces by Mussorgsky, Saint-Saëns, et al. The sound is as spectacular as Golden Age stereo gets.

Stravinsky, Firebird Suite. Dorati, LSO.
Mercury-Classic Records (200g LP).

Arguably Mercury's single most beautiful recording. The sound is stunning, and the music, taken from Stravinsky's ballet score, exquisite and exquisitely well played.

JAZZ

Cannonball Adderley, Somethin' Else.
Classic Records (200g LP).

Though the personnel is mostly different, Adderley teams again with Miles Davis for something of a modal follow-up to Kind of Blue.

Louis Armstrong, Satchmo Plays King Oliver.
Audio Fidelity-Classic (180g LP).

Classic New Orleans jazz in stunningly lively sound.

Tina Brooks, Back To The Tracks.
Classic Records (200g LP).

In a short career, Brooks proved to be an imaginative composer, leader, and sideman. He's worth knowing.

Kenny Burrell, Midnight Blue.
Classic Records (200g LP).

Famously wonderful sounding, Midnight Blue is a classic, and as moody as the title suggests.

Miles Davis, Kind of Blue.
Columbia-Classic (200g LP).

For many this is the desert island jazz record.

Miles Davis, Sketches of Spain.
Columbia-Classic (200g LP).

Miles and Gil Evans team for another great set, with more multiple-choice editions, including an upcoming Classic 4-LP 45rpm version.

Duke Ellington, Ellington Jazz Party in Stereo.
Columbia-Classic (180g LP).

The title says it all: superbly detailed sound, playful big band jazz, great soloists, and Ellington.

Ella Fitzgerald, Sings Songs From Let No Man Write My Epitaph.

Verve-Classic (200g LP).

This intimate and excellent recording pairs the great singer with only a piano accompanist. "Black Coffee," "Angel Eyes," and more never sounded so good.

Dexter Gordon, Dexter Calling.
Classic Records (200g LP).

One of this great tenor's finest sessions, the sound really pops on this modal-themed outing.

Dexter Gordon, One Flight Up.
Blue Note-Cisco (180g LP).

With Donald Bryd on trumpet, a gorgeous session in sumptuous sound.

Billie Holiday, Songs for Distingué Lovers.
Verve-Classic (200g LP).

A rare stereo Holiday album, this late recording finds her in great form with a small group and superb sound.

Jackie McLean, Jackie's Bag.
Blue Note-Classic Records (200g LP).

McLean shows great talents as composer, arranger, and soloist in a series of rhythmically complex tunes that leave you just a little off guard.

Lee Morgan, Candy.
Classic Records (200g LP).

One of the great classic Blue Note LPs, Classic Records mono reissue sounds absolutely fabulous.

Sonny Rollins, Our Man in Jazz.
RCA-Classic (180g LP).

Rollins at his best, improvising in concert with Don Cherry and a fine rhythm section in lifelike sound.

Frank Sinatra, The Voice.
Columbia-Classic (180g LP).

Originally released in 1955, this mono recording captured Sinatra's voice at its most lovely and lyrical. This reissue is exceptionally intimate and natural sounding.

Bobby Darin That's All

1959 Double Grammy Award Winner

Record of the Year
Best New Artist

2010 Lifetime Achievement
Grammy Award Winner

Der Albumtitel ist irreführend: Weder handelt es sich um das letzte retrospektive Werk des Künstlers noch um ein Best-of-Album. Dies würde bei Bobby Darin auch ein bisschen seltsam ausfallen, hat der Mann doch in seinem nur 37 Jahre währenden Leben ein paar musikalische Karrieren gemacht. Angefangen hat es mit dem Rock'n'Roll – „Splish Splash“ sollte jedem bekannt sein, später wurde es der Swing und schließlich Folk- und Protestsongs, bevor er 1973 einem angeborenen Herzleiden erlag.

Das vorliegende Mono-Album „That's All“ wurde original im Jahr 1959 aufgenommen, als sich die Karriere Darins in ihrem frühen Zenith befand. Zu diesem Zeitpunkt wurde er in einem Atemzug mit Frank Sinatra genannt – hört man sich das charismatische Timbre seiner Stimme und die traumwandlerisch sichere Gesangstechnik an, dann sicherlich auch mit Recht. Als Anspieltipps seien nur die wunderbar um seine Ausnahmestimme arrangierten „Mack the Knife“ und „Beyond the Sea“ genannt, bei denen alles, Gesang wie Bläseransätze, absolut auf den Punkt stimmt, Hut ab vor dem Bandleader. Aber auch diese Aufnahmen zeigen bei aller musikalischen und produktionstechnischen Sauberkeit eines nur angedeutet: Die funkelnnde Bühnenpräsenz eines Ausnahmemusikers, dessen Charisma ganz nebenbei zu einer Schauspielkarriere mit diversen Golden-Globe und einer Oscar-Nominierung langte. Es ergeht also neben einer dicken Empfehlung für diese Platte auch noch die, einmal im Internet nach Live-Dokumenten von Bobby Darins zu suchen.

Bobby Darin auf dem Höhepunkt seiner Swing-Karriere – „nur“ in Mono, ansonsten aber in Aufnahme- wie Presstechnik perfekt.

Cisco Music lebt als Impex Records weiter, hierzulande zu haben bei Audio Int'l

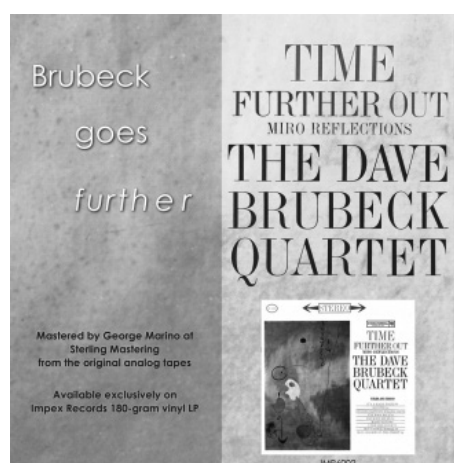

Es traf Fans der schwarzen Ware hart, dass Cisco, ein audiophiles US-Label, das sich ähnlich wie Classic Records auf die Wiederauflage legendärer musikalischer Schätzchen, aber auch Neuproduktionen spezialisiert hatte, unlängst die Segel streichen musste: Die LPs von Cisco Music sind nicht mehr zu haben.

Wie schön ist es da zu hören, dass das Cisco-Team, das für die Produktion von 150 Titeln auf 180 Gramm Vinyl, SACD, Gold-CD und CD verantwortlich zeichnete, jetzt mit dem neuen Label Impex Records durchstartet. Man wird nicht nur Cisco-Produktionen erneut herausbringen, sondern aus Back-Katalogen weitere Schätze ausgraben und auch Neuproduktionen auf den Markt bringen. Vertrieben wird das neue Label bei uns von Audio Int'l.

Bereits erhältlich ist eine 45-er LP-Ausgabe von Gary Karrs Klassiker Adagio d'Albinoni. Außerdem sind für 2010 unter anderem 180-Gramm HQ-180 LPs from Billy Joel, Willie Nelson und Miles Davis sowie Jennifer Warnes' Klassiker The Well auf 45-er 180-Gramm-LP and Gold-CD geplant. Neben schwarzem Gold, SACD und CD sollen in diesem Jahr auf BluRay vier neue Jazz-Produktionen erscheinen.

Wer sich die Zeit bis zum Erscheinen der neuen Impex Records angenehm verkürzen möchte, kann ja schon mal auf die Cisco-Nachpressungen zugreifen, die bei Audio Int'l bereits eingetroffen sind:

Home of REAL High Definition Recordings

AIX Records is producing NEW recordings of world class musicians performing music in a variety of genres. Its the sound of acoustic instruments performing dynamic music as an ensemble that makes recordings done at 96 kHz/24 Bits worth the time, trouble and expense. These DVDs sound better than most of the major label releases because they were created specifically for this format. Most DVD-Audio discs started life as low-resolution analog or digital recordings and were only made into 96 kHz/24 Bits at the final stage of the production process. Check it out and see if you don't agree.

Wenn man den richtigen Dreh heraus hat, ist alles ganz einfach.

Selbst bei einer so eindeutigen Aufgabe wie der Abtastung von Schallplatten gibt es scheinbar unendlich viele Lösungsmöglichkeiten. Manche treiben beinahe schon einen Materialaufwand wie für einen Kleinwagen. Dabei würde es ausreichen, wenn Ihre linke Hand die Platte absolut präzise mit 33,3 Umdrehungen pro Minute ohne eine Spur von Höhenschlag und Vibrationen rotieren lassen könnte. Ihre Rechte müsste dann nur den Tonabnehmer mit der exakt richtigen Auflagekraft im senkrecht auf der Platte halten und der Rille ohne Widerstand mit möglichst kleinem Spurfelhwinkel folgen. Die Platte interessiert sich schließlich nicht dafür, womit sie abgetastet wird. Hauptsache die Abtastung holt alles heraus, was an Informationen in der Rille steckt.

Auch uns ist es bisher noch nicht gelungen, die schwarzen Scheiben in reiner Handarbeit abzuspielen, doch der Well Tempered Amadeus kommt

Bill Firebaugh meldet sich mit einem sehr vernehmlichen Paukenschlag zurück. Der Well Tempered Amadeus ist mit seiner reduziert-eleganten Erscheinung ein analoger Blickfang. Seine ungewöhnlichen Detaillösungen ergeben klangliche Fähigkeiten, die weit über seine Preisklasse hinausreichen. Das hat er mit einer Reihe von hochwertigen Tonabnehmern bewiesen. Eine sehr bemerkenswerte Alternative zu den etablierten Analogspielern, die ihren Preis ohne Frage rechtfertigt und eine nachdrückliche Empfehlung verdient.

HIFI STATEMENT
NETMAGAZINE

Der Amadeus hat durch seinen gefühlt deutlich erweiterten Dynamikbereich und die hohe Laufruhe zu jedem Zeitpunkt riesige Reserven – falls das Musikmaterial es denn erfordert.

Nebengeräusche treten so weit in den Hintergrund, dass die Musik im Gegenzug völlig befreit zwischen und hinter den Lautsprechern steht. Die Räumlichkeit ist dabei wirklich frappierend, ebenso die „Echtheit“ von Stimmen und Naturinstrumenten. Den besten Beweis dafür, dass Laufwerk wie Tonarm den Eindruck von Ruhe und Kraft nicht durch Überdämpfung erzielen, tritt das London Reference an: Seine bekannt offene und agile Spielweise gibt der Amadeus GT eins zu eins an die angeschlossene Anlage wieder.

Weiter zurücktreten hinter den Eigenschaften des Tonabnehmers und der Musik auf der Schallplatte kann ein Plattenspieler wohl nicht – und das zu einem Preis, der wohl nur dem materiel- len Bauaufwand gerecht wird. Die gedankliche Leistung hinter dem Well Tempered ist nicht zu bezahlen.

Thomas Schmidt,
Lp 5/09

diesem puristischen Ideal sehr nahe. Sein Laufwerk dreht die Platte mit praktisch nicht mehr messbarem Rumpeln und geringsten Gleichlaufschwankungen während sein geniales Golfball-Lager dem Tonarm freie Beweglichkeit um alle Achsen bei absolut gleichmäßiger Bedämpfung durch Silikonölbäd ermöglicht. Auch wenn Sie als Vinyl-Liebhaber das Abspielen noch nicht in Ihre beiden Hände nehmen können, brauchen Sie nur Ihre beiden Ohren, um das Ergebnis zu beurteilen – am besten bei Ihrem nächsten Fachhändler.

1988 stellt stereoplay bei dem Vorgängermodell die niedrigsten Rumpelstörungen fest, die sie jemals gemessen haben und platzierten dieses Modell in die „absolute Spitzemklasse“. Hier sind die Kommentare zu dem neuen Amadeus:

Erlauben Sie mir zum Abschluss, ausnahmsweise einen englischen Internetforum-Beitrag zum Amadeus zu zitieren, der es perfekt trifft: „It's the closest you can come to not having a turnable and still play records“. Wenn ich den Well Tempered höre und an diesen Satz denke, muss ich jedesmal laut lachen.

Der Well Tempered Amadeus hat von den drei getesteten Spielern klar das größte Potential, und es lässt sich nahezu jedem Tonabnehmer dieses Universums wecken – solange der Pickup gut und technisch in Ordnung ist. Wem der Well Tempered zu unkonventionell oder zu unscheinbar ist, der findet in den Spielern von Avid und Thorens erstklassige Alternativen.

B. Rietschel, AUDIO 4/09

Sein neuer Amadeus erreicht stratosphärische Höhen der Performance zu einem erschwinglichen Preis. In einer Welt von Plattenspielern, die so viel wie Luxusautomobile kosten, erscheint der Amadeus als eine Mischung aus Schnäppchen und einer Art von Wunder.
