April 2, 2013

Dear Officers, Pastors and Honored Guests:

I am delighted to welcome all of the delegates from the states of Colorado, Oklahoma, Kansas, Wyoming, and Minnesota to the Land of Enchantment – the great state of New Mexico for the 42nd Walter Cade Jr., Midwest Region Laymen Workshop.

We have been praying and preparing for a prosperous workshop, rich in God’s choice blessings. As we participate in this workshop, let us keep in mind what Paul told the Colossians, “And whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; knowing that of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.” (Col. 3:23-24).

I also want to thank the committee members who worked to put together this workshop. Additionally, I am grateful to the Convention churches, pastors and individuals who made financial contributions to provide a foundation for the workshop. As David said, “Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

Greetings to the men and women attending the Walter Cade, Jr., Midwest Laymen's Workshop April 26-28, 2013, in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

On behalf of the Mount Olive Baptist State Laymen of New Mexico, we welcome you to the City of Albuquerque in the great State of New Mexico. We pray God's richest blessings upon you as you experience the events of this weekend. We anticipate educational and spiritual growth through the guidance of The Holy Spirit. We believe we will all be personally inspired to go forth from this place with renewed energy and commitment to share our Living Savior with a dying world.

The Walter Cade, Jr., Laymen Workshops are integral to training, growing, and developing men, women, and boys for dedicated ministry. We pray that this weekend will strengthen us for the journey.

We certainly are honored by your presence, and we count it a great privilege to extend our warmest hospitality to each of you.

Welcome to New Mexico.

Walter Cade Jr., Regional Workshops History

The National Baptist Laymen's Regional Workshop concept began as a vision from God to Walter Cade, Jr. at the start of his presidency at his election as the laymen president at the National Baptist Convention's annual session in Cleveland, Ohio in 1971.

Walter Cade, Jr. desired to involve more men in the national movement. To get more men to come to the national meetings, he knew he must get them familiar with the national work. Therefore, President Cade introduced the regional concept. A mini-national meeting held on weekends in cities within driving distance of laymen, laywomen, junior laymen and pastors.

These meetings were called workshops with the primary objective of fellowship among the delegates and to promote the work and ministries of the National Baptist Laymen. Danny Williams of Denver, Colorado was the state president of the Colorado laymen. He saw President Cade's vision and played a vital role in helping to implement the first regional workshop.

The first workshop was held in Denver, Colorado in 1971 between laymen of Kansas and Colorado. In 1974 the states that came together for a regional were Kansas, New Mexico, Colorado and Arizona. The years 1975 through 1987 saw God sent growth as the laymen teams from Kansas traveled to various states to encourage laymen participation and promote the regional concept.

Initially as states joined together for regional workshops they called themselves "Three States", "Four States" or "Five States", and eventually "Midwest", "Far west" and "Great Lakes", etc. to reflect the part of the country. Some of the first classes taught were, "Stewards of Tithing", "Bible Doctrine", "Young Men's Work", and "The Laymen's Program."

The National Baptist Laymen's Regional Workshops are under the auspices of the National Baptist Laymen's Movement governing body. A regional coordinator is appointed and assigned by the president to give guidance in all aspects of the regional program.

On January 21, 1997 at a special meeting held at the Fifth Street Avenue Baptist Church in Nashville, Tennessee during the annual Winter Board meeting, President Jerry Gash, on the recommendation of Billy Campbell named all regional workshops the "Walter Cade, Jr." regional workshops.

Walter Cade's vision has continued to thrive and grow under the ongoing leadership of subsequent presidents Jerry Gash, Deacon Harold Simmons and hard working others throughout this movement.

Banquet Speaker ~ Deacon Larry Taylor Colorado/Wyoming State Laymen President

Born in Thomasville, Alabama, Bro. Larry Taylor was relocated to Denver, Colorado at a very early age due to medical issues. At an early age, he accepted the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ as his personal Savior and was baptized at the Central Baptist Church of Denver Colorado. Bro. Taylor began serving right away in the music ministry of the church at the early age of 10 as an apprentice musician.

Currently he is employed with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) as one of the Senior Housing Specialist in the Real Estate Owned Division having oversight of 17 states in the Mid West. He has been with HUD for 26 years with 19 of those years in a management capacity.

A busy church life finds Deacon Taylor serving with his local church's Laymen Movement, the Deacon Board, and as the Minister of Music of the Shiloh Missionary Baptist Church, Denver, Colorado. At Shiloh and throughout the States of Colorado and Wyoming, Deacon Taylor has shown his passion regarding youth and young adults by actively promoting and conducting the training of Jr. Laymen and Jr. Deacons, and promoting the youth with an emphasis on placing them into mentored leadership positions of the church at an early age. He also has served as the Northern District Laymen President, and as the 1st Vice President of the Western States Laymen Movement Colorado/Wyoming, and as a former assistant Third Vice President of the National Baptist Laymen Movement. Deacon Taylor is now the President of the Western States Laymen of Colorado/Wyoming.

B.T.U. - YELL

Read the Bible; Study the Bible

Learn the Bible so, when the solemn truth is told,
You will surely know.

Say my friend have you seen

II Timothy 2:15; I Thessalonians 5:22,

Tells you exactly what to do.

Study the word, Study the word,

Study the Word!

B.T.U. MOTTOES

1. Discover the undiscovered.
2. Enlist the unenlisted.
3. Train the untrained.
4. Service above self.
5. Use all Baptist young people.
6. Study in order to serve.
7. Serve best to profit most.

B.T.U. MINISTRIES

1. Train members in Baptist doctrine.
2. Train members in church ministries.
3. Train for personal, individual soul-winning.
4. Train members to give to the church.
5. Train members to support the whole program of Jesus.
6. Train members in mission.
7. Train members in stewardship.
