Meet the Judges...

Aaron Nedrick

Aaron attended the North East School of the Arts at the age of 13 and was trained in ballet, tap, jazz and modern and performed in musicals such as "Cats" and "Beauty and the Beast". He later attended Oklahoma City University for two years with a focus in Dance Performance and then went to perform in the musicals "42nd Street" and "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang" at Lyric Theatre of Oklahoma. Aaron then performed for Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines for 3 years as a featured dancer, aerialist and singer in many different shows and musicals on board their ships. He most recently was cast the supporting role of Dante in the feature Netflix film Honey: Rise Up and Dance alongside Tiana Taylor and Sierra McClain working with choreographer Jamaica Craft. And has played the recurring role of Jeff in the tv drama Claws on TNT.

Nicole Wasserman

A Southern California native, Nicole Wasserman grew up training under the direction of former Joffrey ballerina Elizabeth Huebner and master teacher Huggy Ford. She later spent several years traveling the country on scholarship with Tremaine Dance Conventions and The Pulse. Nicole was able to study under and assist faculty such as Doug Caldwell, Brian Friedman, and Mia Michaels to name a few. She then went on to receive her bachelor's degree in Theatre Arts from California State University, Long Beach. Nicole has been sharing her love of dance for the last 20+ years through teaching, and her choreography has been performed at the Latin Music Awards as well as competition stages all over the United States. She currently resides in Louisiana, teaching and choreographing at award winning studios around the state. She recently accepted a position teaching dance at Louisiana State University, and has enjoyed working with the students there. Nicole is thrilled to be spending the weekend with VIP and can't wait to see what the dancers have to share!

Tim Flattery

Tim Flattery originally from Onaga Kansas began dancing at Studio 1 Dance Center. He attended The University of Kansas where he was a member of the Rock Chalk Dancers and The University Dance Company. After earning his B.F.A degree he worked professionally on Holland America Cruise Lines, for Broadway Dance Center one for the New York City contemporary and modern company Beings. Tim was a studio director for a competitive studio in Kansas, the assistant coach for The Rock Chalk Dancers as well as the coach for a High School dance team. He is currently choreographing for studios and universities all over the midwest along with pursuing his passion for judging.
