

INMATE INFORMATION HANDBOOK

FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS FCI/SPC GILMER GLENVILLE, WEST VIRGINIA

Revised February 28, 2013 – Supersedes all other copies

Introduction

The purpose of this handbook is to provide inmates arriving at FCI/SCP Gilmer with information regarding the Bureau of Prisons (BOP), its programs, and the rules and regulations encountered during confinement at FCI/SCP Gilmer. It is not a specific guide to the detailed policies of the BOP. This information will be made available during the institution's Admission and Orientation Program. The material in this handbook will help new inmates quickly understand the prison environment and assist with initial adjustment to incarceration at FCI/SCP Gilmer. Immediately upon arrival, inmates are given a social screening by Unit Management staff and a medical screening by Health Services staff and within two weeks, inmates are also screened by Psychology Services. In addition, inmates are immediately provided a copy of the institution rules and regulations, which include information on inmate rights and responsibilities. FCI Gilmer is a non-smoking facility. Any use or possession of tobacco products will result in disciplinary action.

Orientation/Intake Screening

Inmate classification and management at FCI/SCP Gilmer are organized into a Unit Management System. Inmates who have been initially designated to FCI/SCP Gilmer will receive initial classification within 30 days of their arrival. Inmates who transfer from another facility or who are parole/supervised release violators will be teamed within 14 days of their arrival. Subsequent program reviews will be held every 90 to 180 days. These are held by the Unit Team to review programs, work assignments, transfers, custody, institutional adjustment, etc. Inmates may not waive their appearance to attend their scheduled program review. Additionally, inmates may request an unscheduled program review by submitting a written request to the Unit Manager.

Central Inmate Monitoring System: The Central Inmate Monitoring System (CIMS) is a method for the Bureau's Central and Regional Offices to monitor and control the transfer, temporary release, and participation in community activities of inmates who pose special management considerations. Designation as a CIM case does not prevent an inmate from participating in community activities. All inmates who are designated as a CIM case will be so notified by their Case Manager.

A unit is a self-contained inmate living area which includes housing sections and office space for unit staff. Each unit is staffed by a Unit Team directly responsible for the inmates living in the unit. The unit offices are located in the units so staff and inmates can be accessible to each other. The unit staff typically includes a Unit Manager, Case Manager, Correctional Counselor, and Unit Secretary. The Staff Psychologist, Education Advisor, and Unit Officer are also considered members of the Unit Team, and they provide input for classification purposes and inmate life skills development.

Inmates are assigned to a specific Unit Team. Generally the resolution of issues or matters of interest while at the institution are most frequently handled by the Unit Team. The Unit Team members are available to assist in many areas to include, parole matters, release planning, institutional concerns, personal issues, family problems, and assistance in setting and attaining goals while in prison. Ordinarily, a member of the unit staff will be at the institution from 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on weekdays, and from 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. on weekends and holidays. The Unit Team schedules their working hours to ensure staff is available to meet the needs of the inmates.

Housing Unit Team Functions

Unit Manager: The Unit Manager at the FCI and the Camp Administrator at the SCP are the administrative heads of the general unit and oversees all unit programs and activities for inmates residing in their general housing unit. He or she is a Department Head and has a close working relationship with other departments. The Unit Manager reviews all team decisions, and ordinarily chairs the Unit Discipline Committee which hears prohibited disciplinary infractions.

Case Manager: The Case Manager is responsible for all casework services and prepares classification material, progress reports, release plans, life skills development goals, correspondence, and other materials relating to an inmate's confinement. The Case Manager serves as a liaison between the inmate, the administration, and the community. The Case Manager serves as a member of the Unit Discipline Committee.

Correctional Counselor: The Correctional Counselor provides counseling and guidance for the inmates regarding institutional adjustment, personal difficulties, and life skills development plans for the future. He or she plays a leading role in segments of unit programs relating to inmate activities, and they ensure inmate sanitation responsibilities are maintained at all times. The Counselor will visit inmate work assignments regularly to assess work performance. The Counselor serves as a member of the Unit Discipline Committee.

Unit Secretary: The Unit Secretary performs clerical and administrative duties for unit staff.

Unit Officer: The Unit Officers have direct responsibility for the daily supervision of inmates and the enforcement of rules and regulations. They have safety, security and sanitation responsibilities in the unit. Unit Officers are in regular contact with inmates in units and are encouraged to establish professional relationships with them.

Town Hall Meetings

Town Hall meetings are held on an as needed basis in each unit. These meetings are held to make general announcements and to discuss any changes in local and national policy and/or relevant issues. Inmates are encouraged to ask pertinent questions of the staff and any guest speakers who are present. These questions should pertain to the unit as a whole, rather than personal questions or issues. Personal issues will be addressed by unit staff at an appropriate time and place for individual privacy.

Team Participation in Parole Hearing

The Case Managers prepare Progress Reports with input from the Unit Team, and other departments for delivery to the U.S. Parole Commission. The inmate's Case Manager will ordinarily be present at the parole hearing. The Case Manager's function at the hearing is to assist the parole examiners by providing input of inmates overall adjustments and participation.

Treaty Transfer for Non-U.S. Inmates

Inmates who are not U.S. citizens may be eligible for a transfer to a prison in their home country to serve the remainder of their sentence. This is possible for inmates whose country has a formal prisoner exchange treaty with the United States. The Unit Team will provide information about these transfers and will inform inmates if their home country has a formal exchange treaty with the United States.

Escorted Trips

Beside visits and funeral trips may be authorized for inmates in lower custody categories, when an immediate family member is seriously ill, in critical condition, or has passed away. Depending on the inmate's custody classification, one or two Correctional Officers will escort the inmate. All expenses will be the responsibility of the inmate, except for the first eight hours of each day the employee is on duty. There are occasions when an escorted trip is not approved, even when all policy-required conditions have been met. These instances are based on a determination that the perceived danger to BOP staff during the proposed visit is too great, or the individual inmate's security concerns outweigh the need to visit the community.

Dress Code

Inmates may go to the evening meals during the week and all meals on weekends and holidays in recreational attire. Inmates will have their shirts buttoned (may leave top 2 unbuttoned) and tucked inside their pants and their belts buckled. Inmates are permitted to select the hair style of personal choice as long as it is not faddish. Inmates are expected to maintain cleanliness and dress in keeping with the standards and good order and discipline of the institution. Each staff member is responsible for enforcing the guidelines of this policy. Policy requires that hair be neat and clean, that inmates be clean shaven in facial areas where mustaches or beards are not worn, and that regular bathing be maintained. Personal Property Limits

Items which may be retained by an inmate are limited for sanitation and security reasons to ensure excess personal property is not accumulated which would constitute a fire hazard or impair staff searches of the living area. The following list is not all-inclusive, but is a guide to the kind of items an inmate may be authorized: legal materials (limited to active cases only), five books, one photo album, and two deodorants. For an inclusive list refer to the Program Statement pertaining to Inmate Personal Property. The amount of personal property each inmate is allowed is limited to those items which can be neatly and safely placed in the locker. The only exceptions include one water jug and one case of soda which may be stored under the locker. The only items allowed on top of lockers are five books and one photo and frame no larger than 5 x 7. No items may be hung from the bed or limit visibility of the bed. The only items allowed under beds are approved shoes, approved medical devices and one box of approved legal work. Each inmate will be limited to one hanger extender. Only clothing and laundry bags containing clothing may be stored on the hooks. All under clothing and socks must be stored in the locker.

Storage space in the units consists of an individual locker. Locks may be purchased in the institution commissary to secure personal items. Under no circumstance will any materials be accumulated to the point where they become a fire, sanitation, security or safety hazard. Inmates are allowed to maintain legal materials, which are limited to active cases, in their locker. The total value of an inmate's accumulated Commissary items (including special purchases) will be limited to the monthly spending limit. Food items left open create a health hazard. These items must be properly sealed at all times. Empty jars may not be used as drinking containers and are to be thrown away.

An inmate will be limited in the number of magazines and newspapers stored in their locker. The limit for magazines is no more than five per inmate, and the limit for books is no more than five per inmate. Local newspapers are not allowed after they are three days old and non-local newspapers may be retained for a period of ten days. Nothing is to be tacked, stapled, or scotch taped to any surface.

Inmates are limited to one radio with ear-buds, purchased through the Commissary. An inmate is limited to one watch. Only those watches sold through the Bureau of Prisons institution Commissary will be allowed. While an inmate is in holdover status, he may not purchase, own, or possess a radio, or watch. Inmates may not give any items of value to another inmate, i.e., radio, watch, shoes, or any Commissary items.

Inmates may have a plain wedding band (without stones) and, with prior approval from Religious Services staff, a religious medal without stones.

It is the inmate's responsibility to check his cell/cubicle immediately after being assigned and report all damages to the Unit Officer, Unit Manager, Case Manager, or Correctional Counselor. An inmate may be held financially liable for any damage to his personal living area.

Each inmate is also responsible for sweeping and mopping his cell/cubicle floor, removing trash, and ensuring his room is clean and sanitary. Cardboard boxes and other paper containers are not permitted for storage due to their combustible nature. Chairs are not allowed in the inmate living areas, except in the SCP. In addition, no sexually explicit pictures or materials are authorized for placement in the living area. All personal property, food, Commissary items, etc., should be kept inside the lockers. Excessive magazines, newspapers or books will be confiscated and disposed of in accordance with policy.

The following unit rules are expected to be followed:

- All beds are to be made daily in the prescribed manner. Beds will be made by 7:30 a.m. during the weekday. On weekends and holidays, beds will be made whenever inmates are awake or away from the cell. At no time will a mattress be removed from a bunk and placed on the floor. If a cell or room is not acceptable, disciplinary action will be taken.
- Unit meal rotation is based on the weekly sanitation ratings of each unit. The unit with the highest sanitation is called first, and the unit with the lowest rating is called last.
- Cell doors are closed when not occupied.
- No running in the housing unit.
- Orderlies work 35-hour weeks and are responsible for the unit sanitation. However, everyone is responsible for cleaning up after themselves. Trash receptacles and wastebaskets are to be emptied prior to 8:00 a.m. each day.
- Showers are available every day, but inmates may not be in the shower during an official count. Second floor showers will be closed Monday – Friday, 7:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m. Food Service workers and others with irregular work shifts may shower during the day as long as showering does not interfere with the cleaning of the unit or does not occur during count.
- Personal radios may be played in an individual's cell, but ear-buds must be worn.
- Unit televisions may be viewed during established off-duty hours, which generally coincide with the hours rooms are unlocked in the facility. Ordinarily, televisions will be designated for varying categories, i.e., sports, news, movies, and general programming. Consideration will be given for special events, with regard to the hours of operation and the category designation of the televisions.

A general wake-up for all inmates is 6:00 a.m. The unit is called to breakfast by the Correctional Services Department on the basis of a meal rotation. The Unit Officer will announce breakfast when notified, and the Control Center will announce meal times. Inmates are given a reasonable amount of time to leave the unit if they desire breakfast. It is the inmate's responsibility to leave the unit for work. Inmates who are unable to arrive at work on time are subject to disciplinary action.

Special Housing Unit Status

There are two categories of special housing: Administrative Detention and Disciplinary Segregation. Administrative Detention separates an inmate from the general population. To the extent practical, inmates in Administrative Detention shall be provided with the same general privileges as inmates in general population. An inmate may be placed in Administrative Detention when the inmate is in holdover status during transfer, is a new commitment pending investigation or trial for a criminal act, is pending transfer, for protection, or has finished confinement in Disciplinary Segregation. Disciplinary Segregation is used as a sanction for violations of Bureau rules and regulations. Inmates in Disciplinary Segregation will be denied certain privileges. Personal property will usually be impounded. Inmates placed in Disciplinary Segregation are provided with a blanket, a mattress, a pillow, toilet tissue, and shaving utensils.

Inmates may possess legal and religious materials while in Disciplinary Segregation. Also, staff shall provide a reasonable amount of nonlegal reading material. Inmates in Disciplinary Segregation shall be seen by a member of the Health Services staff daily. Inmates in both Administrative Detention and Disciplinary Segregation are provided with regular reviews of their housing status.

Security Procedures

Staff will count inmates on a regular basis. During count, inmates are expected to stay quietly in their cells/cubicles until the count is announced as clear. The inmate is expected to be standing at bedside during the 10:00 A.M., 4:00 P.M. and 10:00 P.M. official counts held. When a count is announced, each inmate must return to their cell and remain there quietly until a clear count is announced. Official counts will be taken at 12:00 midnight, 3:00 a.m., 5:00 a.m., 4:00 p.m., and 10:00 p.m. Additionally, a count will be conducted at 10:00 a.m. on weekends and holidays. Disciplinary action will be taken if an inmate is not in his assigned area during a count. Disciplinary action will also be taken against inmates for leaving an assigned area before the count is clear. The inmate must actually be seen at all counts, even if the inmate must be awakened.

Call-outs are a scheduling system for appointments (which include medical, dental, educational, team meetings and other activities) and are posted each day in the unit after 4:00 p.m., on the day preceding the appointment. It is the inmate's responsibility to check for appointments on a daily basis; all scheduled appointments are to be kept. If an inmate is in need of routine medical attention, please submit a triage request to the Health Services Department for medical triage. Illnesses of an emergency nature are exceptions. Inmates should report illnesses/emergencies to a staff member, who will in turn contact Health Services staff to determine an appropriate course of action.

Inmates who work in the Facilities Department will be issued a pass by their CMS foreman to complete work projects in other areas of the institution. The inmate must present this pass to a receiving staff member, who will record the time of the inmate's arrival at the work site. Upon completion of the assigned task, the receiving staff member will record the inmate's departure time on the pass, and the inmate will either return to his CMS foreman or go to the next work project area, as noted on the pass. All passes will be returned to the supervising foreman upon completion of the assigned task(s). As previously stated, ten minutes is allotted for an inmate to travel from one area to another.

When the inmate returns to CMS, the foreman who issued the pass will write on the pass the time of the return and initial. The staff member who originally issued the pass will then keep the pass. At the end of each day, staff will turn in all passes to the Correctional Services Department.

All other inmate moves for Call Outs, etc., will be conducted during regularly scheduled controlled movements, which allow an inmate ten minutes of time to move to any authorized area.

In the evenings, Monday through Friday, the first controlled movement will usually begin at the end of the evening meal. This means that, after the evening meal, inmates may go to any unrestricted area of the institution during these hourly moves. On Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, the first controlled movement will begin at the end of the morning meal.

Contraband

Contraband is defined as any item not authorized or issued by the institution, received through approved channels, or purchased through the Commissary. All staff is alert to the subject of contraband and makes an effort to locate, confiscate, and report contraband in the institution. Each inmate is responsible for all items found in their assigned living area and should immediately report any unauthorized item to the Unit Officer. Any item in an inmate's personal possession must be authorized, and a record of the receipt of the item should be kept in the inmate's possession. Inmates may not purchase radios or any other items from another inmate; items purchased in this manner are considered contraband and will be confiscated. An altered item, even if an approved or issued item, is considered contraband. Altering or damaging government property is a violation of institution rules and the cost of the damage will be the responsibility of the inmate.

Any staff member may search an inmate's cell at any time to locate contraband or retrieve stolen property. The property and living area will be left in the same general condition as found and these inspections will be unannounced and random.

FCI/SCP Gilmer operates a drug surveillance program which includes mandatory random drug testing, as well as, testing of certain other categories of inmates. If a staff member orders an inmate to provide a urine sample for this program, and the inmate refuses, the inmate will be subject to disciplinary action. FCI/SCP Gilmer also operates an alcohol surveillance program which includes random alcohol testing of the inmate population, as well as, testing of those suspected of alcohol use. A positive test or refusal to submit to the test will result in disciplinary action.

Fire prevention and safety are everyone's responsibility. Inmates are required to report fires to the nearest staff member so property and lives can be protected. Piles of trash or rags in closed areas, combustible material, items hanging from fixtures or electrical receptacles, or other hazards are not authorized in any areas. In addition, regular fire and safety inspections are made at this institution by staff.

Job Assignments

All inmates are expected to maintain a job assignment. Many job assignments are controlled through a Performance Pay System, which provides monetary payment for work. Federal Prison Industries has a separate pay scale. Unit Managers approve all job changes and ensure the changes are posted on the Daily Change Sheet.

Institution maintenance jobs are usually the first assignment an inmate receives. These jobs might include work in Food Service, in the unit, or in a maintenance shop. FCI Gilmer has a significant number of inmate jobs in the factory operated by Federal Prison Industries, also known as UNICOR. Inmates wishing to work in UNICOR are placed on a waiting list for factory employment. UNICOR employs and trains inmates through the operation of factories producing high-quality products and services for the Federal Government. In addition, UNICOR earnings fund other inmate programs, and pre-industrial training to prepare inmates for employment.

Steel-toed safety shoes must be worn to work as designated in policy.

Food Service

Inmates are provided nutritious and appealing meals. Self-service meal operations for general population inmates may include features such as salad bars, special diet options and no flesh meal alternatives. Removal of food from the dining room is not permitted. Inmates will be in full work uniform with boots for the morning and noon meals through the work week, Monday through Friday. No personal property will be allowed in the dining room, including mugs, jugs. No Commissary items are allowed to be taken into Food Service, except for spices and Tabasco Sauce, in their original container, which are sold in the commissary. Small, single use food items (e.g. soda, tuna, sardines, etc.) are permitted but must be consumed in the dining room and will not be allowed to leave the dining room.

All hats and non-prescription sunglasses must be removed upon an inmate entering the dining hall, unless authorized by the Religious Services Department. Additionally, sleeveless shirts will not be worn in Food Service. Food Service inmates on duty status will have their shirts tucked in.

Inmate funds are retained by the institution in a trust fund account. Funds from the individual account may be withdrawn by use of a commissary card for personal spending in the institution Commissary. Funds may be withdrawn from the account for family support, or other approved purposes. Accumulated institution earnings and funds sent from outside resources are given to the inmate upon release, or may be mailed home. The Commissary access time for inmates in each unit is scheduled on a rotating basis. The schedule is posted in the unit and on the Commissary item sheet. It is the inmate's responsibility to know the amount of money available in his Commissary account. Inmates may check on their account balance via the inmate telephone system or by using TRULINKS. Shopping rotation is based off the 4th and 5th digit of your register # (example 12345-678, your shopping day for that quarter is when numbers 25 – 49 shop). Shopping rotation changes every quarter (every: October, January, April and June the rotation changes). Commissary will be closed the last week of March and September for bi-annual inventories, memorandums will be posted.

Unit Managers can approve withdrawals from the trust fund account to send funds to dependents and other family members, or for the purchase of flowers, payment of a telegraph, postage costs, and for the purchase of special discharge clothing. The Unit Manager can also approve withdrawals for the payment of fines, restitution for losses, legitimate debts and other obligations such as court fees, attorney fees, birth certificates, expenses, trips, bedside visits, funeral trips, and the purchase of legal books. Telephones

Telephones are to be used for lawful purposes only. Threats, extortion, etc. may result in prosecution. All inmate telephones are subject to monitoring, and recording. Inmates must contact their Unit Manager in writing to arrange an unmonitored attorney call. Disciplinary action will be taken against any inmate attempting to violate the Bureau of Prisons' telephone policy and procedures.

There is no specific limit on the number of phone calls an inmate may make. It is expected that each inmate will handle his calls in such a manner which will allow the equal use of the phones by all inmates. Calls are limited to fifteen minutes in duration. Each inmate, unless on telephone restriction, is allowed 300 minutes of phone time per month. Telephones will not be used to conduct a business.

FCI/SCP Gilmer has the Inmate Telephone System (ITS). This system uses a Personal Access Code (PAC). You are allowed to have 30 approved numbers on your phone list. In order to use the system, you will have to transfer funds from your commissary account to your individual telephone account. There are telephones located in each housing unit for your use. No third party, credit card, 1-800, 1-900, 1-888, or 1-976 calls can be made on these lines. Collect calls can also be made to approved telephone numbers. Phone time will be transferred from your commissary account to your telephone account by use of the telephone, or computers. Inmates are responsible for adding/deleting their own telephone numbers using TRULINCS. All telephone numbers must have a valid address. Telephone numbers that have been added/deleted will be updated and available for use approximately 15 minutes after the change has been entered into TRULINCS. Giving or selling your PAC number will result in disciplinary action. All calls are automatically terminated after fifteen minutes.

MP3 Players

MP3 players may be purchased in the Commissary. Music may be added by purchasing Tru-Units and browsing a TruLinks terminal for up to 30 minutes a day. Players must be revalidated every 14 days. Warranty on players is 90 days from date of sale and inmate must have a receipt to make an exchange.

TRULINCS

The TRULINCS (Trust Fund Limited Computer System) public messaging is to be used for lawful purposes only. Threats, extortion, etc. may result in prosecution. All inmate computer stations are subject to monitoring. Disciplinary action will be taken against any inmate attempting to violate the Bureau of Prisons' TRULINCS policy and procedures. There is no specific limit on the number of emails an inmate may send or receive. It is expected each inmate will handle his computer time in such a manner which will allow the equal use of the computer by all inmates. Sessions are limited to thirty minutes in duration. In order to have access to Public Messaging (email), you must obtain and sign an "Inmate Agreement for Participation in TRULINCS Electronic Messaging Program" form and submit the form to the Trust Fund Supervisor or unit team. Inmates must enter their register #, PAC (nine digits) number followed by their PIN (four digits) number within 30 seconds, in order to gain access. You will be allowed three attempts, if you fail to log properly, you will be locked out. Lock-outs will be unlocked twice daily by Trust Fund Staff. In order to use public messaging or printing via TRULINCS, you will have to transfer funds from your commissary account to your individual TRULINCS account. There are computer stations located in each housing unit for your use. The Education Department, Law Library has TRULINCS work stations for Electronic Law Library work only. Inmates residing in Special Housing may obtain contact forms, for updating telephone numbers from their Correctional Counselor. Giving or selling your PAC number will result in disciplinary action. Session time will be automatically terminated after thirty minutes.

Medical Services

The overall Bureau health care delivery system includes local medical facilities, and other major medical facilities, if deemed necessary. Locally, on-site medical care is available from 6:00 a.m. until 8:30 p.m. each day and from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on the weekends and holidays. All illnesses will be reviewed by primary care providers. All inmates' health care will be provided by the Physician and the Physician's Assistant. All healthcare issues should be addressed through Sick Call procedures or by appointment scheduled for by the Health Services staff. Medical sick call is at the 10:30 am recall move on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Dental sick call is on the same days but is conducted at the first move of the morning, generally 6:45 am. When reporting to sick call you must have a completed sick call form, your identification card, and be in the khaki uniform. Sick call forms are to be obtained from the unit or work detail and completed before reporting to health services. You will be charged a $2.00 copay for a sick call visit that you request.

Inmates over the age of 50 may request a physical exam to include a rectal exam every year. Inmates under the age of 50 may request a physical exam every two years.

All urgent care situations or injuries will be given priority for treatment. Inmates who become acutely ill after the regular medical triage period should ask their work supervisor or unit officer to call the Health Services Department for further instruction.

Inmates in the Special Housing Unit (SHU) are unable to sign up for this procedure. For this reason, a medical staff member tours the unit at least once a day. All inmates housed in SHU will need to complete a Medical Triage Form prior to being seen by the designated primary care provider. These forms may be obtained from the SHU Officer or the Health Services Department staff member who is making daily rounds in SHU. Any acute illnesses or emergencies should be reported to the SHU Officer, who will contact the Health Services Department for appropriate instructions. All other care will be scheduled through the inmate's designated primary care provider.

Medications - Pill Line

Controlled medications are dispensed at the Health Services Department (the pill line) during specified time periods. Inmates in detention or segregation are provided their medication by Health Services staff in their cells. All psychotropic and other controlled medications are crushed prior to administering as directed by the pharmacy staff and policy guidelines. All inmates are required to present their identification cards at the pill lines and be in khaki uniform. Pill line times will be posted for reference. The inmate on pill line is required to report to pill line when the unit is released for mainline. If inmates are still in line, health services staff will notify compound so inmates will be afforded the opportunity to eat meals in food service.

On-the-job Injuries

If an inmate is injured while performing an assigned duty, he must immediately report this injury to his work supervisor. The work supervisor will then report the injury to Health Services staff and the institution Safety Department. The inmate may be disqualified from eligibility for lost-time wages or compensation if he fails to report a work injury promptly to the work supervisor. If injured while performing an assigned duty and the inmate expects to be impaired to some degree, he may submit a claim for compensation. A medical evaluation must be included in the claim before any compensation can be considered.

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Psychology

The Psychology Services Department consists of one Staff Psychologist, one Drug Treatment Specialist, and a Psychology Technician under the direction of the Chief Psychologist. Psychology Services offers Non-residential drug treatment, as well as management of the mentally ill, crisis intervention, and brief counseling. There are many alternatives for inmates who have personal problems and desire to seek help. These options include Self-Image groups, Psychology Services, and other voluntary groups conducted by Correctional Counselors. Inmate participation in these activities will be encouraged upon staff's assessment of inmate needs, but participation in such activities is voluntary.

Prison Rape Elimination Act

You have the right to be safe from sexually abusive behavior. The Federal Bureau of Prisons has a zero tolerance policy against sexual abuse. No one has the right to pressure you to engage in sexual acts. You do not have to tolerate sexually abusive behavior, pressure from another inmate, or pressure from staff, to engage in unwanted sexual behavior. This is regardless of your age, size, race, ethnicity, gender or sexual orientation.

If you are being threatened, or pressured to engage in sexual behaviors, you should discuss your concerns with staff. Because this can be a difficult topic to discuss, some staff, like Psychologists, are specially trained to help you. If you perceive an immediate threat, approach any staff member and ask for assistance. It is part of his/her job to ensure your safety. If it is a staff member that is threatening you, immediately report your concerns to a staff member you trust, or follow procedures for making a confidential report.

If you become a victim of a sexually abusive behavior, you should report it immediately to staff who will offer you protection from the assailant. You do not have to name the inmate(s) or staff assailant(s) in order to receive assistance, but specific information makes it easier for staff to best to respond. You will continue to receive protection from the assailant, whether or not you have identified him or her (or agree to testify against him or her). After reporting any sexual assault, you will be referred immediately for a medical examination and clinical assessment. Even though you may want to clean up after the assault it is important to see medical staff BEFORE you shower, wash, drink, eat, change clothing, or use the bathroom.

BOP staff members are instructed to keep reported information confidential, and only discuss it with appropriate officials on a need-to-know basis. This is to help protect you, and is also for law enforcement or investigative purposes.

How to confidentially report sexually abusive behavior:

1. Write directly to the Warden, Regional Director or Director. You can send the Warden an Inmate Request to Staff Member (Cop-out) or a letter reporting the sexually abusive behavior. You may also send a letter to the Regional Director or Director of the Bureau of Prisons. To ensure confidentiality, use special mail procedures.
2. File an Administrative Remedy. You can file a Request for Administrative Remedy (BP-9). If you determine your complaint is too sensitive to file with the Warden, you have the opportunity to file your administrative remedy directly with the Regional Director (BP-10). You can get the forms from your counselor or other unit staff.
3. Write to, or use TRULINCS to e-mail, the Office of the Inspector General (OIG) which investigates allegations of staff misconduct. OIG is a component of the Department of Justice and is not a part of the Bureau of Prisons. The address is:

Office of the Inspector General
P. O. Box 27606
Washington, D.C. 20530

Regardless of whether your assailant is an inmate or a staff member, it is important to understand that you will never be disciplined or prosecuted for being the victim of a sexual assault.

Education Programs

The Education Department supports a learning experience supported by academic, comprehensive occupational and vocational programs. It is with this learning experience in mind that the staff is committed to assist each inmate in attaining personal educational and occupational goals. In fulfilling its function as a center of learning, the Education Department offers programs and services in the following areas:

1. Literacy Program/General Education Development
2. English as a Second Language (ESL)
3. Post-Secondary Education-PS (College/Correspondence)
4. Occupational Education (Vocational/Apprenticeships)
5. Parenting
6. Adult Continuing Education (ACE)
7. Career Counseling/Pre-Release

Per Policy, with a few exceptions, all Federal inmates who do not have their high school diploma or a GED must enroll in the literacy program for a minimum of 240 hours. Inmates may request via cop-out (Inmate Request to Staff) to be removed from the literacy program after obtaining 240 hours of Satisfactory work; however, if the inmate is sentenced under the VCCLEA or PLRA, Good Conduct Time (GCT) may be affected.

Inmates who are not functioning at an eighth grade English level (reading, speaking & comprehension) will also be placed in the English as Second Language class (ESL). The exception to this rule would be if an inmate is a deportable alien sentenced under VCCLEA/PLRA. In order for a deportable alien to vest their earned GCT or be eligible for the maximum amount of GCT, deportable aliens who do not have a verified high school diploma or a GED and are sentenced under the VCCLEA/PLRA must follow the satisfactory progress provision of these laws. P.S.5350.28 17b.

The Education Department's Literacy Coordinator, or another staff member, will discuss your Education goals within 60 days of your arrival to FCI Gilmer. Monitor the call out sheet daily. If you cannot verify a high school diploma or GED certificate, you will be placed on the waiting list for a literacy class.

Training

Training in various occupational areas will be offered at FCI/SCP Gilmer.

Recreation and Leisure Activities

Recreation and leisure time activities are supervised by the Recreation Department. These programs include indoor and outdoor activities and range from individualized arts and crafts programs to intramural team sports such as softball, basketball, soccer, and volleyball. Physical fitness and wellness programs are important activities for inmates and contribute to positive mental health, good interpersonal relations, and stress reduction. In addition inmates learn to use their free time constructively by participating in physical fitness classes, aerobic exercise, and hobby craft activities.

Hobby craft Materials

Hobby craft raw materials such as leather, paints, and brushes must be stored in the Recreation Department hobby craft area space. Disposal or forwarding of completed projects must be done through the Recreation Department during assigned mail-out days, within 30 days of completion. The completed project must be forwarded to someone on the inmates approved visiting list. Basic Drawing Materials as well as Crocheting Materials are authorized in the housing units. All Basic Drawing

Materials and Crocheting Materials must be kept in the inmates' locker with an inventory sheet posted with all items listed. The inventory sheet will be provided by the Recreation Department.

Sports

All sporting activities will be held in the recreation area. The Recreation Department sponsors structured leagues for softball, soccer, and basketball. Tournaments and minor leagues are held for volleyball, handball, horseshoes, bocce, billiards, and several table games. Inmates who wish to play pick-up games may do so by checking out the needed equipment from the equipment check-out room.

Leisure Time Activities

Leisure time activities include board games, cards, dominoes, television viewing, and Bingo. Inmates may participate in some of these leisure activities in their unit. The band/music program, hobby craft programs, music listening, wellness & fitness research and walking or running may be offered by the Recreation Department, as well. The leisure library has a variety of books for inmates to check out; numerous Spanish books are available as well. Inmates are allowed to check out 2 books using their ID; books are to be returned to the Education Department after 2 weeks. Typewriters are available for inmate use in the library. Inmates may purchase their own typing ribbons from Commissary. An inmate copy machine is available in the leisure library. Copy cards are available for purchase in the Commissary.

Musical Instruments

The Recreation Department has a limited number of musical instruments for the inmate population. These instruments are maintained for check-out or class instruction as available and may not be removed from the department.

Religious Services

The Religious Services Department provides pastoral care, counseling, and a variety of religious programs to assist in one's spiritual formation. There are regularly scheduled services, studies, special programs, holy days, and periodic guest speakers who speak on a variety of faith issues. The staff chaplains are also assisted by contract staff and volunteers. The Religious Services Department staff invites each inmate to actively involve themselves in religious programs and spiritual formation.

Marriages

If an inmate wishes to be married while incarcerated, the Warden may authorize him to do so under certain conditions. All expenses of the marriage will be paid by the inmate. Government funds may not be used for marriage expenses. The marriage must not present a security risk to the institution.

If an inmate requests permission to marry he must:

- Have a letter from the intended spouse which verifies her intention to marry.
- Demonstrate legal eligibility to marry.
- Be mentally competent.

CONTACT WITH THE COMMUNITY AND PUBLIC

Outgoing Correspondence

In most cases, inmates are permitted to correspond with the public, family members, and others without prior approval, or the maintenance of a correspondence list. Outgoing mail is placed in mailboxes located in the housing units. Outgoing mail will be inspected by staff, and must be unsealed when deposited in the institution mailbox. The outgoing envelopes must have the inmate's name, registration number, and complete return address in the upper left hand corner. Do not abbreviate Federal Correctional Institution Gilmer or Federal Prison Camp Gilmer. Outgoing special mail must be brought by the inmate to the mail room daily (excluding weekends and holidays) from 11:30 AM until mainline closes. Inmates at the Federal Prison Camp must give their special mail to the camp counselor.

Inmates will be responsible for the contents of all of their letters. Correspondence containing threats, extortion, etc., may result in prosecution for violation of Federal laws. Inmates may be placed on restricted correspondence status based on misconduct, or as a result of classification. The inmate is notified of this placement and has the opportunity to respond.

There is no mail service on weekends and holidays.

Incoming Correspondence

First class mail is distributed Monday through Friday (except holidays) by the evening watch officer in each housing unit. Newspapers and magazines may also be delivered at this time. The number of incoming letters an inmate may receive will not be limited unless the number received places an unreasonable burden on the institution. Inmates are asked to advise those writing to them to put the inmate's registration number, and housing unit on the envelope to aid the prompt delivery of mail.

All inmate packages received at the institution must have prior authorization. Ordinarily, authorization for inmates to receive incoming packages will be limited to release clothing only.

Incoming Publications

The Bureau permits inmates to subscribe to and receive publications without prior approval. The term "publication" means a book, single issue of a magazine or newspaper, or material addressed to a specific inmate, such as advertising brochures, flyers, and catalogs. An inmate may receive soft cover publications (paperback books, etc.) or hardcover publications and newspapers only from a publisher or a book club. Accumulation of publications will be limited to five magazines (not to be more than three months old) and to the amount which can be neatly stored in the locker provide in each room, because of sanitation and fire safety reasons. The Unit Manager may allow more space for legal publications upon request.

The Warden will reject a publication if it is determined to be detrimental to the security, good order, or discipline of the institution, or if it might facilitate criminal activity. Publications which may be rejected by the Warden include, but are not limited to, publications which meet one of the following criteria:

It depicts or describes procedures for the construction or use of weapons, ammunition, bombs, or incendiary devices.

It depicts, encourages, or describes methods of escape from correctional facilities, or contains blueprints, drawings, or similar descriptions of Bureau of Prisons' institutions.

It depicts or describes procedures for the brewing of alcoholic beverages or the manufacturing of drugs.

It is written in code.

It depicts, describes, or encourages activities which may lead to the use of physical violence or group disruption.

It encourages or instructs in the commission of criminal activity.

It is sexually explicit material that by its nature or content poses a threat to the security, good order, or discipline of the institution.

“Special Mail” is a category of correspondence which may be sent out of the institution unopened and unread by staff, which includes correspondence to: President and Vice-President of the United States, U.S. Department of Justice (including Bureau of Prisons), U.S. Attorneys’ Offices, Surgeon General, U.S. Public Health Service, Secretary of the Army, Navy, or Air Force, U.S. Courts, U.S. Probation Officers, Members of the U.S. Congress, Embassies and Consulates, Governors, State Attorneys General, Prosecuting Attorneys, Directors of State Department of Corrections, State Parole Commissioners, State Legislators, State Courts, State Probation Officers, other Federal and State law enforcement officers, attorneys and representatives of the news media.

Incoming special/legal mail will be picked up and signed for by unit staff on a daily basis. Unit staff will log all special/legal mail in the unit’s designated log book. Unit staff will require that each inmate accepts and signs for each piece of mail received. Unit staff will sign as a witness and log the date/time the inmate receives his special/legal mail. This mail will be opened in front of the inmate and inspected for contraband. It will not be copied or read by staff. The front of the envelope must clearly indicate that the correspondence is “Special Mail” only to be opened in the presence of the inmate. Without adequate identification as “Special Mail”, the staff may treat the mail as general correspondence. In this case, the mail may be opened, read, and inspected.

Inmate Correspondence with Representatives of the News Media

An inmate may write, following Special Mail procedures, to representatives of the news media when specified by name and title.

The inmate may not receive compensation or anything of value for correspondence with the news media. The inmate may not act as a reporter, publish under a byline, or conduct a business or profession while in Bureau custody.

Correspondence between Confined Inmates

An inmate may be permitted to correspond with an inmate confined in another penal or correctional institution. This is permitted if the other inmate is either a member of the immediate family (mother, father, sister, child, or spouse), or party in current/ongoing legal action (or a witness) in which both parties are involved. The following additional limitations apply.

Such correspondence will be inspected and read by staff at the sending and receiving institutions (it may not be sealed by the inmate).

The Unit Manager can approve federal inmate to federal inmate correspondence, and the Warden can approve all state inmate to federal inmate correspondence.

Material which is non-mailable under law or postal regulations.

Information of escape plots, of plans to commit illegal activities, or to violate institution rules.

For example, an inmate may correspond about refinancing a mortgage for his home or sign insurance papers; however, the inmate may not operate a mortgage or insurance business while confined in the institution.

Notification of Rejection

The Warden will give written notice to the sender concerning the rejection of mail and the reasons for rejection. The sender of the rejected correspondence may appeal the rejection. The inmate will also be notified of the rejection of correspondence and the reasons for it. The inmate also has the right to appeal the rejection. The Warden shall refer the appeal to a designated officer other than the one who originally disapproved the correspondence. Rejected correspondence ordinarily will be returned to the sender.

Change of Address/Forwarding of Mail

Inmates may obtain change of address cards from the institution mail room. These cards should be completed by inmates who are being released or transferred, to notify correspondents of a change in an address. Any general mail received after 30 days will be returned to the sender. “Special Mail” will continue to be forwarded for 60 days after the inmate’s release or transfer.

Certified/Registered Mail

Inmates desiring to use certified, registered, or insured mail may do so at this facility. An inmate may not be provided services such as express mail, private carrier services, COD, or stamp collecting while confined. Scales and certified materials are available in the law library.

At the SPC, all attorney visits will be afforded privacy in the Camp conference room.

If the attorney rooms are in use, the attorney is to be offered the opportunity to reschedule the visit when a more private area is available. If it becomes necessary for the inmate to bring pertinent legal material, unit staff will bring the materials into the visiting room.

6. Prisoner Visitation and Support: The Prisoner Visitation and Support Program (PVS) is a valuable volunteer program. The focus of PVS has always been to visit and provide moral support to inmates who do not ordinarily receive visits from family and friends. Through this program, inmates who are otherwise alienated from the community have the opportunity to develop healthy relationships and benefit from interaction with the PVS volunteers. Volunteers at FCI and SPC Gilmer are allowed to carry paper and writing implements into the visiting room. They are to be processed at the front lobby as volunteers. Their visits will be conducted during normal visiting hours. They are expected to adhere to the institution dress code and visiting policies.

I. Special Housing Unit (SHU) and Holdover Inmates: Visiting for SHU and Holdover inmates will be on Thursday from 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. All visits will be conducted in the visiting room. There are no non-contact visiting areas at FCI Gilmer. SHU inmates will be required to visit in hand restraints, martin chain, and leg restraints. Inmates in administrative detention will be limited to a two hour visit. Inmates in disciplinary segregation will be limited to a one hour visit. Inmates in protective custody status, will be required to visit in an attorney room located inside the FCI visiting room, and will be kept separate from the other inmates who are in the visiting room. Holdover inmates are classified as administrative detention inmates. Visits for these inmates may be arranged when the inmate submits a request to his unit team. All requests should be submitted for approval two weeks prior to the date of the requested visit. These visits will be limited to legal visits and visits from the inmate's immediate family. Members of immediate family include father, mother, stepparents, foster parents, brother and sister, spouse, and children. Inmates in Holdover status will be limited to a two hour visit.

J. Visiting Procedures for Inmates in a Local Medical Facility: Upon request by the inmate or the inmate's family to visit an inmate in the hospital, the unit team will consult with the clinical director to obtain the inmates medical status. If the inmate is in serious/critical condition, the unit team may prepare a request in memorandum format for immediate family to visit the inmate. This request will be routed through the Captain, Associate Warden (Programs), and Warden. The memorandum will contain the location of the inmate, his confirmed prognosis (non-specific), and the exact names/relationships of those wishing to visit. Verification will be obtained via the Pre-Sentence Investigation Report. The family will be informed of the approval and that all visits are subject to hospital visiting regulations.

The original memorandum will be maintained in the inmate's central file, with a copy to the operations lieutenant. The operations lieutenant will ensure the escorting staff members are made aware of the impending, approved visitation.

K. Procedures for Approving Exceptions to the Prior Relationship Requirements: Ordinarily a visitor not meeting prior relationship requirements will be denied. However, under special circumstances, the inmate can request a waiver through the Unit Counselor. The Associate Warden (Programs) will be the final approving authority.

L. Procedures for Disapproving Proposed Visitors: If the background information reveals visitation privileges for an individual would present security concerns or disrupt the orderly running of the institution, the Unit Manager may deny visiting privileges. Documentation reflecting this decision should be maintained in section 2 of the Privacy Folder in the Inmate Central File. The inmate will be notified by the unit team of this decision and his appeal rights.

M. Proper Dress: Inmates are required to wear institution issued clothing (khaki pants and shirts at the FCI, green pants and shirts at the SPC, or assigned jump suits for inmates housed in the SHU), during visitation. Inmates will wear institution provided footwear while in the visiting room. Inmates will leave their personal or institutional boots/shoes in the visiting room processing area. The institution provided footwear will be returned at the conclusion of the visit. Institutional clothing must be neat and clean in appearance. Shirts will be tucked into the trouser waistband at all times. Approved religious headgear may be worn in the visiting room. All religious headgear will be inspected prior to, and at the completion of the visit.

At the discretion of the shift lieutenant or Institutional Duty Officer, other clothing resembling the style or color of inmate clothing (i.e., khaki, white, gray or camouflage in color clothing), may not be allowed to be worn into the institution.

- N. Authorized Items: Items visitors may bring into the institution are a transparent change purse no larger than 5"x8"x4", and two sanitary napkins or tampons. Visitors with infants may bring in four diapers, two small jars of baby food, three baby bottles with contents, one baby blanket, one package of baby wipes, one change of infant clothing, and one see-through drinking cup for small children. Medications should be taken either prior to entering the visiting room or at the conclusion of the visit. Medications needed for health reasons will be allowed at the discretion of the IDO or operations lieutenant. Papers, packages, money orders, and/or gifts are not to be allowed into, or exchanged in the visiting room. No electronic devices will be allowed into the visiting room. Electronic devices include beepers, cellular phones, car alarm remotes, or any remote operating device. No tobacco products of any type are allowed in the visiting areas. Lockers are available to visitors for the storage of personal items not allowed in the institution. Visitors are not authorized to bring any item into the institution to give to an inmate.

Inmates will not take any property to a visit except one comb, one handkerchief, one plain wedding band, one plain neck chain with a religious medallion, prescription glasses (no sunglasses unless medically approved), commissary card, authorized headgear, and photo tickets. Watches are not allowed. If an inmate has property in his possession which is not authorized to be taken into the visiting room, the inmate will be instructed to return to his unit and secure the property before he is authorized to enter the visiting room. Items not authorized upon the inmates departure will be considered contraband and confiscated. No item other than coats, will be stored in the search area.

- O. Games and a television/play area are provided for children for use while in the visiting room. However, the inmate and his visitors are responsible for their children's actions while in the visiting room. Failure to maintain control of their children may result in the inmate's visit being terminated. Inmates are not authorized to be in the children's play area.
- P. Visitor's cannot provide any items to inmates during a visit.
- Q. Inmates may request a special visit for a family emergency through their unit team. These visit shall be approved by both the Warden and Captain prior to being approved and cannot interfere with the security of the institution.

ACCESS TO LEGAL SERVICES

Legal Correspondence/Attorney Visits

Legal correspondence from attorneys will be treated as "Special Mail" if it is properly marked. The envelope must be marked with the attorney's name and an indication he or she is an attorney and the front of the envelope must be marked "Special Mail - open only in the presence of the inmate". It is the responsibility of the inmate to advise his attorney about this policy. If legal mail is not properly marked, it will be opened as general correspondence. Attorneys shall make advance appointments for each visit. Attorneys are encouraged to visit during the regular visiting hours. However, visits from an attorney can be arranged at other times based on the circumstances of each case and the availability of staff. Attorney visits will be subject to visual monitoring, but not audio monitoring.

During attorney visits, a reasonable amount of legal materials may be allowed in the visiting area with prior approval. Legal material may be shown, but not given to the inmate during an attorney visit. This material will be treated in a similar manner as the "Special Mail" procedures described above. Inmates are expected to handle the transfer of legal materials through the mail as often as possible.

In order to make an unmonitored phone call with an attorney, the inmate must demonstrate to the Unit Team the need, such as an imminent court deadline and that communication with his attorney by other means is not adequate. Phone calls placed through the regular inmate phones are subject to monitoring.

Law Library

The Law Library is located in the Education Department, and contains a variety of legal reference materials for use in preparing legal papers. Reference materials include the United States Code Annotated, Federal Reporter, Supreme Court Reporter, Bureau of Prisons Program Statements, Institutional Supplements, Indexes, and other legal materials. The Law Library is open during convenient non-working hours, including Saturdays. An inmate Law Library Clerk is available for assistance in legal research. Legal materials are also available to inmates in the Special Housing Unit.

Notary Public

Under the provisions of 18 USC 4004, Case Managers are authorized to witness documents. A recent change in the law allows a statement to the effect of papers which an inmate signs are "true and correct under penalty of perjury" will suffice in federal courts and other federal agencies, unless specifically directed to do otherwise. Some states will not accept a government notarization for real estate transactions, automobile sales, etc. In these cases, it will be necessary to contact unit staff for arrangements with the institution's notary public. The Records Office will also have notaries. Documents will be notarized by Records Office staff once an Inmate Request to Staff Member is received.

Copies of Legal Material

In accordance with institution procedures, inmates may copy material necessary for their research or legal matters. A copying machine is available in the Education Department for inmate use for a nominal fee. Individuals who have no funds and who can demonstrate a clear need for particular copies may submit a written request for a reasonable amount of free duplication.

Federal Tort Claims

If the negligence of institution staff results in personal injury or property loss or damage to an inmate, it can be the basis of a claim under the Federal Tort Claims Act. To file such a claim, inmates must complete a Standard Form 95. They can obtain this form by submitting an Inmate Request to Staff Member to their Unit Manager.

Freedom of Information/Privacy Act of 1974

The Privacy Act of 1974 forbids the release of information from agency records without a written request, or without the prior written consent of the individual to whom the record pertained, except for specific instances. All formal requests for access to records about another person and/or agency record other than those pertaining to themselves shall be processed through the Freedom of Information Act, 5 USC 552.

Inmate Access to Central Files

An inmate may request review of disclosable portions of his central file (plus Presentence Report and/or Summary) prior to the individual's parole hearing. Institution staff will permit the review of the central file under procedures established locally.

Inmate Access to Other Documents

An inmate can request access to the "Non-Disclosable Documents" in his central file and medical file, or other documents concerning himself which are not in his central file or medical file, by submitting a "Freedom of Information Act Request" to the Director of the Bureau of Prisons, Attention: FOI Request. Such a request must briefly describe the nature of records wanted and approximate dates covered by the records. The inmate must also provide his registration number and date of birth for identification purposes.

A request on the behalf of an inmate by an attorney, for records concerning the inmate, will be treated as a "Privacy Act Request" if the attorney has forwarded an inmate's written consent to disclose materials. If a document is deemed to contain information exempt from disclosure, any reasonable part of the record will be provided to the attorney after the deletion of the exempt portions.

Executive Clemency

The Bureau advises all inmates the President of the United States is authorized under the Constitution to grant executive clemency by pardon, commutation of sentence, or reprieve. A pardon is an executive act of grace which is a symbol of forgiveness. It does not connote innocence nor does it expunge the record of conviction. A pardon can be in "full" or "partial" depending on whether it absolves a person from all or a portion of the crime. A pardon may have conditions imposed upon it or it can be "absolute," which is without conditions of any kind. A pardon restores civil rights and facilitates the restoration of professional and other licenses which may have been lost by reason of the conviction. Other forms of executive clemency include commutation of sentence (reduction of sentence imposed after a conviction), and a reprieve (the suspension of execution of a sentence for a period of time). Inmates should contact their assigned Case Manager for additional information regarding this program.

Commutation of Sentence

The Bureau also advises inmates on commutation of sentences. This is the form of executive clemency power used to provide post-conviction relief to inmates during their incarceration. This clemency power is authorized by the Constitution for the Chief Executive Officer, who is the President of the United States for federal offenses. Commutation of sentence is usually the last chance to correct an injustice which has occurred in the criminal justice process. Inmates applying for commutation of sentence must do so on forms available from the assigned unit team. The rules governing these petitions are available in the Law Library.

Pardon

A pardon may not be applied for until the expiration of at least five years from the date of release from confinement. In some cases involving crimes of a serious nature, such as violation of Narcotics Laws, Gun Control Laws, Income Tax Laws, Perjury, and violation of public trust involving personal dishonesty, fraud involving substantial sums of money, violations involving organized crime, or crimes of a serious nature, a waiting period of seven years is usually required.

PROBLEM RESOLUTIONS

Inmate Request to Staff Member/Administrative Remedy Process

The Bureau Form BP-Admin-70, commonly called a "Cop-Out," is used to make a written request to a staff member. Any type of request can be made with this form. Cop-outs may be obtained in the housing units from the Correctional Officer on duty or any Unit Team member on duty. Staff members who receive a Cop-out will answer the request in a "reasonable" period of time. The answer will be written on the bottom of the request form or on a page attached to the Cop-out. The Bureau emphasizes and encourages the resolution of complaints on an informal basis. Hopefully, an inmate can resolve a problem informally by contact with staff members or cop-outs. When informal resolution is not successful, a formal complaint can be filed as an Administrative Remedy. Complaints regarding Inmate Accident Compensation and complaints on behalf of other inmates are not accepted under the Administrative Remedy Procedure.

The first step of the Administrative Remedy procedure is to attempt an informal resolution. If the issue cannot be informally resolved, the Correctional Counselor will issue a BP-229 (BP-9) form (usually within 48 hours of the time the inmate approached the employee with the problem). The inmate will return the completed BP-9 to the Correctional Counselor, who will deliver it to the Administrative Remedy Coordinator. The BP-9 complaint must be filed within 20 calendar days from the date on which the basis for the incident or complaint occurred, unless it was not feasible to file within this period of time. Institution staff has 20 calendar days to act on the complaint, and to provide a written response to the inmate. This time limit for the response may be extended for an additional 20 calendar days, but the inmate must be notified of the extension.

When a complaint is determined to be of an emergency, and threatens the inmate's immediate health or welfare, the reply must be made as soon as possible, and within 72 hours from the receipt of the complaint.

If the inmate is not satisfied with the response to the BP-9, he may file an appeal to the Regional Director. This appeal must be received in the Regional Office within 20 calendar days from the date of the BP-9 response. The Regional Appeal is written on a BP-230 (BP-10) form, and must have a copy of the BP-9 form, and response attached. The Regional Appeal must be answered within 30 calendar days, but the time limit may be extended an additional 30 days. The inmate must be notified of the extension.

If the inmate is not satisfied with the response by the Regional Director, he may appeal to the Central Office of the Bureau of Prisons. The National Appeal must be made on a BP-231 (BP-11) form, and must have copies of the BP-9, and BP-10 forms with responses. The BP-11 form may be obtained from the Correctional Counselor. The National Appeal must be answered within 40 calendar days, but the time limit may be extended an additional 20 days if the inmate is notified.

In writing a BP-9, BP-10, or BP-11, the form should contain the following information:

- Statement of Facts
- Grounds for Relief
- Relief Requested

Time Limits (in calendar days) for Filing:

- BP-9: 20 days of incident
- BP-10: 20 days from BP-9 response
- BP-11: 30 days from BP-10 response

Response

- BP-9: 20 days
- BP-10: 30 days
- BP-11: 40 days

Extensions

- BP-9: 20 days
- BP-10: 30 days
- BP-11: 20 days

Sensitive Complaints

If an inmate believes a complaint is of such a sensitive nature that he would be adversely affected if the complaint became known to the institution, he may file the complaint directly to the Regional Director. The inmate must explain, in writing, the reason for not filing the complaint with the institution. If the Regional Director agrees the complaint is sensitive, it shall be accepted, and a response to the complaint will be processed. If the Regional Director does not agree the complaint is sensitive, the inmate will be advised in writing of the determination, and it will be returned. The inmate may then pursue the matter by filing a BP-9 at the institution.

DISCIPLINARY PROCEDURES

Discipline

It is the policy of the BOP to provide a safe and orderly environment for all inmates. Violations of Bureau rules and regulations are dealt with by the Unit Discipline Committee (UDC) and, for more serious violations, the Discipline Hearing Officer (DHO). Inmates are advised upon arrival at the institution of the rules and regulations, and are provided copies of the Bureau's Prohibited Acts, as well as, local regulations.

Inmate Discipline Information

If a staff member observes or believes he has evidence an inmate has committed a prohibited act, the first step in the disciplinary process is writing an incident report. This is a written copy of the charges against the inmate. The incident report will ordinarily be delivered to the inmate within 24 hours of the time staff became aware of the inmate's involvement in the incident. An informal resolution of the incident may be attempted by staff member for 300 and 400-level incidents. If an informal resolution is accomplished, the incident report will not be placed in the inmate's central file. Informal resolution is encouraged by the Bureau of Prisons for all violations except those in the greatest severity category. Violation in the greatest severity category must be forwarded to the DHO for final disposition. If an informal resolution is not accomplished, the incident report is forwarded to the UDC for an Initial Hearing.

Initial Hearing

Inmates must ordinarily be given an initial hearing within five work days of the time staff became aware of the inmate's involvement in the incident (excluding the day staff became aware of the incident, weekends, and holidays). The inmate is entitled to be present at the initial hearing. The inmate may make statements or present documentary evidence on his behalf. The UDC must give its decision in writing to the inmate by the close of business the next work day. The UDC may extend the time limits of these procedures for good cause. The Warden must approve any extension more than five days. The inmate must be provided, in writing, reasons for any extension. The UDC will either make final disposition of the incident, or refer it to the DHO for final disposition.

Discipline Hearing Officer (DHO)

The Discipline Hearing Officer (DHO) conducts disciplinary hearings on violations in the greatest severity category. The DHO may not act on a case which has not been referred by the UDC. The Correctional Supervisor conducts periodic reviews of inmates in Disciplinary Segregation.

An inmate will be provided with advance written notice of the charges not less than twenty-four (24) hours before the inmate's appearance before the DHO. The inmate may waive this requirement. An inmate will be provided with a full-time staff member of his choice to represent him, if requested. An inmate may make statements in his own defense, and may produce documentary evidence. The inmate may present a list of witnesses and request they testify at the hearing. Inmates may not question a witness at the hearing; the staff representative and/or the DHO will question any witness for the inmate. An inmate may submit a list of questions for the witness to answer to the DHO if there is no staff representative. The DHO will request a statement from all unavailable witnesses whose testimony is deemed relevant.

The inmate has the right to be present throughout the DHO hearing, except during deliberations. The inmate charged may be excluded during appearances of outside witnesses or when institution security could be jeopardized. The DHO may postpone or continue a hearing for good cause. Reasons for the delay must be documented in the record of the hearing. Final disposition is made by the DHO.

Appeals of Disciplinary Actions

Appeals of all disciplinary actions may be made through Administrative Remedy Procedures. UDC appeals are made to the Warden (BP-9). DHO appeals are made to the Regional Director (BP-10). The complete Administrative Remedy procedure may be utilized. On appeal, the following items will be considered.

- Whether the UDC or DHO substantially complied with the regulations on inmate discipline.
- Whether the UDC or DHO based its decision on substantial evidence.
- Whether an appropriate sanction was imposed according to the severity level of the prohibited act.

The staff member who responds to the appeal may not be involved in the incident in any way. These staff members include UDC members, the DHO, the investigator, the reporting officer, and the staff representative.

CORRECTIONAL SYSTEMS

Sentence Computation

The Designation Security and Computation Center (DSCC) in Grand Prairie Inmate Systems Department are responsible for the computation of inmate sentences. An inmate will be given a copy of his sentence computation after it has been certified. Any questions about good time, jail time credit, parole eligibility, full term dates, release dates, or periods of supervision, are resolved by staff upon inmate request for clarification or during Records Office open house hours which are posted on the institution bulletin boards.

Fines and Costs

In addition to jail time, the court may impose committed or non-committed fines and/or costs. Committed fines mean the inmate will stay in prison until the fine is paid, makes arrangements to pay the fine, or qualifies for release under the provisions of Title 18 USC, Section 3569 (pauper's oath). Non-committed fines have no condition of imprisonment based on payment of fines or costs. Payments for a non-committed fine or cost are not required for release from prison or transfer to a contract community correction center.

Detainers

Warrants (or certified copies of Warrants) based on pending charges, overlapping, consecutive, or unsatisfied sentences in federal, state, or military jurisdictions, will be accepted as detainers. Detainers and untried charges can have an effect on institutional programs. Therefore, it is very important the inmate initiate efforts to clear up these cases to the best degree he can.

Case management staff may give assistance to offenders in their efforts to have detainers against them disposed of, either by having the charges dropped, by restoration to probation or parole status, or by arrangement for concurrent service of the state sentence. The degree to which the staff can assist in such matters as these will depend on individual circumstances. Federal and state detainers may be quickly processed under the procedures of the "Interstate Agreement on Detainers." This agreement applies to all detainers based on pending charges which have been lodged against an inmate by a "member" state, including the U.S. Government, regardless of when the detainer was lodged. For an inmate to use this procedure, the warrant must be lodged with the institution. If no detainer is actually lodged at the institution, but the inmate knows of pending charges, it is important for the inmate to contact the court and district attorney because, in some states, the detainer notice may start the time running for a Speedy Trial Act agreement.

Parole

Parole is release from incarceration under conditions established by the U.S. Parole Commission. Parole is not a pardon or an act of clemency. A parolee remains under the supervision of a U.S. Probation Officer until the expiration of his full term.

Federal inmates sentenced prior to 1987 are ordinarily permitted an opportunity to appear before the Parole Commission within 120 days of commitment (EXEMPTIONS: inmates sentenced before September 6, 1977 and inmates with a minimum parole eligibility of ten years). Inmates sentenced in the District of Columbia Superior Court who are eligible for parole will normally receive a parole hearing 180 days prior to their parole eligibility date. If the inmate chooses not to appear before the Parole Board for the initial hearing, a waiver must be given to the Case Manager prior to the time of the scheduled parole hearing. This waiver will be made part of the Parole Commission file, and the inmate's central file.

All inmates who previously waived a parole hearing are eligible to appear before the Parole Board at any regularly scheduled hearing after they waive. Application for a parole hearing must be made at least 60 days before the first day of the month of the hearings. The Parole Board conducts hearings at most Bureau institutions every three months. Applications to the Parole Commission for a hearing are the responsibility of the inmate, but in certain cases the Unit Team will assist the inmate if necessary. Application forms may be obtained from the Case Manager.

Following the hearing, the inmate will be advised of the tentative decision reached in the case by the hearing examiner. The recommendations of the hearing examiner must be confirmed by the Regional Office of the Parole Board. This confirmation usually takes three to four weeks, and is made through the mail on a form called a Notice of Action. Federal inmates may appeal a decision made by the Parole Commission by obtaining the appropriate forms from the Case Manager. Inmates with a District of Columbia Superior Court case cannot appeal a decision made by the Parole Commission. If granted a presumptive parole date (a parole date more than six months following the hearing), a parole progress report will be sent to the Parole Board three to six months before the parole date.

Parole may be granted to a detainer or for the purpose of deportation. The inmate should have an approved residence and an approved employer before being released on parole. If granted parole by the U.S. Parole Commission, the Commission will require an approved parole plan prior to release. An approved parole plan consists of an offer of employment, and a place to reside. The job must pay at least a minimum wage and normally may not require extensive travel. The place to reside must be a reputable establishment, but can be almost anywhere (parents, wife, friend, YMCA, etc.) The proposed parole plan is thoroughly investigated by the U.S. Probation Officer, and must be approved.

The parole plan is part of the material which is submitted in connection with the parole hearing. The Unit Team submits the inmate's release plans to the U.S. Probation Officer approximately three to six months before the scheduled parole date.

Residential Re-Entry Centers (RRC)

RRCs, commonly referred to as "halfway houses," provide suitable residence, structured programs, job placement, and counseling, while the inmate's activities are closely monitored. All RRCs offer drug testing and counseling for alcohol, and drug-related problems. During their stay, inmates are required to pay a subsistence charge to help defray the cost of their confinement; this charge is 25% of their gross income, not to exceed the average daily costs of their incarceration. Failure to make subsistence payments may result in disciplinary action. These contract facilities, located throughout the United States, provide two program components: the Community Corrections Component, and the Prerelease Component.

RRCs provide an excellent transitional environment for inmates nearing the end of their sentences. The level of structure and supervision assures accountability, and program opportunities in employment counseling, and placement, substance abuse, and daily life skills.

One reason for referring an inmate to a RRC is to increase public protection by aiding the transition of the offender back into the community. Participating in community-based transitional services may reduce the likelihood of an inmate with limited resources from recidivating, whereas, an inmate who is released directly from the institution to the community may return to a criminal lifestyle. While clearly dangerous inmates should be separated from the community until completing their sentences, other eligible inmates should generally be referred to RRCs to maximize the chances of successful reintegration into society.

GOOD CONDUCT TIME (New Law)

Sentencing Reform Act

This applies to inmates sentenced for an offense committed on or after November 1, 1987 but prior to September 13, 1994. The Sentencing Reform Act became law November 1, 1987. The two most significant changes in the sentencing statutes deal with Good Time and parole issues. There are no provisions under the new law for parole. The only Good Time available will be 54 days of good conduct time for each full year served. This may not be awarded until the end of the year, and may be awarded in part or in whole, contingent upon behavior during the year. Once awarded, it is vested and may not be forfeited. There is no statutory Good Time or Extra Good Time for inmates being sentenced for crimes committed after November 1, 1987.

Violent Crime Control Law Enforcement Act

This applies to inmates sentenced for an offense committed on or after September 14, 1994, but prior to April 25, 1996. A prisoner (other than a prisoner serving a sentence for a crime of violence) who is serving a term of imprisonment shall receive credit toward the service of the prisoner's sentence of 54 days at the end of each year of the prisoner's term of imprisonment, unless the Bureau of Prisons determines that, during that year, the prisoner has not satisfactorily complied with such institutional disciplinary regulations as have been approved by the Attorney General and issued to the prisoner. A prisoner who is serving a term of imprisonment of more than one (1) year for a crime of violence, other than a term of imprisonment for the duration of the prisoner's life, may receive credit toward the service of the prisoner's sentence, beyond the time served, of up to 54 days, subject to determination by the Bureau of Prisons that, during that year, the prisoner has displayed exemplary compliance with such institutional disciplinary regulations. Credit toward a prisoner's service of sentence shall not be vested unless the prisoner has earned or is making satisfactory progress toward a high school diploma or an equivalent degree.

Prison Litigation Reform Act

When considering good conduct time for an inmate serving a sentence for an offense committed on or after April 26, 1996, the Bureau shall award:

- (1) 54 days credit for each year served (prorated when the time served for the sentence during the year is less than a full year) if the inmate has earned or is making satisfactory progress toward earning a GED credential or high school diploma, or
- (2) 42 days credit for each year served (prorated when the time served by the inmate for the sentence during the year is less than a full year) if the inmate has not earned or is not making satisfactory progress toward earning a GED credential or high school diploma.

Good Conduct Time awarded after the date of enactment of the Prison Litigation Reform Act shall vest on the date the prisoner is released from custody.

GOOD TIME (Old Law)

Good Time

Good Time awarded by the Bureau of Prisons under statutes enacted prior to November 1, 1987, has the effect of reducing the stated term of the sentence that is, it advances the date when release will be mandatory if the offender is not paroled at an earlier date. The award of Good Time does not in itself advance the offender's release date. It has this effect only if the offender would not otherwise be paroled before the mandatory date.

The behavior for which Good Time is awarded may also be considered by the Parole Commission in setting a parole date. This is not always done; however, even when it is, the extent of the benefit to the offender may not be equivalent to the Good Time earned.

Statutory Good Time

Under 18 U.S. Code 4161, an offender sentenced to a definite term of six months or more is entitled a deduction from his term, computed as follows, if the offender has faithfully observed the rules of the institution and has not been disciplined:

- Not greater than one year - five days for each month of the not less than six months or more than one year sentence.
- More than one year, less than three years - six days for each month of the stated sentence.
- At least three years, less than five years - seven days for each month of the stated sentence.
- At least five years, less than ten years - eight days for each month of the stated sentence.
- Ten years or more - ten days for each month of the stated sentence.

At the beginning of a prisoner's sentence, the full amount of statutory good time is credited, subject to forfeiture if the prisoner commits disciplinary infractions.

If the sentence is for five years or longer, 18 USC 4206 {d} requires the Parole Commission to release an offender after he has served two-thirds of the sentence, unless the Commission determines he has seriously violated Bureau of Prisons rules or regulations or there is a reasonable probability he will Commit a crime. For offenders serving sentences of five to ten years, this provision may mandate release before the date established by subtracting good time from the sentence.

Statutory Good Time does not apply to life sentences or to those few inmates remaining who were sentenced under the Youth Corrections Act. It applies to a split sentence if the period of confinement is exactly six months; a shorter period does not qualify for good time under the statute and a longer period cannot be a part of a split sentence.

Extra Good Time

The Bureau of Prisons awards extra good time credit for performing exceptionally meritorious service, or for performing duties of outstanding importance, or for employment in an industry or camp. An inmate may earn only one type of good time award at a time (e.g., an inmate earning industrial or Camp good time is not eligible for meritorious good time), except a lump sum award may be given in addition to another extra good time award. Neither the Warden nor the Discipline Hearing Officer may forfeit or withhold extra good time.

The Warden may disallow or terminate the awarding of any type of Extra Good Time (except for lump sum awards), but only in a non-disciplinary context and only upon recommendation of staff. The Discipline Hearing Officer may disallow or terminate the awarding of any type of Extra Good Time, (except lump sum awards) as a disciplinary sanction. Once an awarding of meritorious good time has been terminated, the Warden must approve a new staff recommendation in order for the award to commence. A "disallowance" means an inmate does not receive an Extra Good Time award for only one calendar month. A "disallowance" must be for the entire amount of extra good time for that calendar month. There may be no partial disallowance. A decision to disallow or terminate extra good time may not be suspended pending future consideration. A retroactive award of meritorious good time may not include a month in which Extra Good Time has been disallowed or terminated.

Community Corrections Center Good Time

Extra good time for an inmate in a Federal or contract Community Corrections Center is awarded automatically beginning on arrival at the facility and continuing as long as the inmate is confined to the Center, unless the award is disallowed.

Camp Good Time

An inmate assigned to a camp is automatically awarded Extra Good Time, beginning on the date of commitment to the camp, and continuing as long as the inmate is assigned to the camp unless the award is disallowed.

Lump Sum Awards

Any staff member may recommend to the Warden the approval of an inmate for a lump sum award of Extra Good Time. Such recommendations must be for an exceptional act or service which is not a part of a regularly assigned duty. The Warden may make lump sum awards of Extra Good Time of not more than 30 days. If the recommendation is for more than 30 days, and the Warden agrees, the Warden will refer the recommendation to the Regional Director, who may approve the award.

No award will be approved if the award would be more than the maximum number of days allowed less than 18 USC 4162. The actual length of time served on the sentence, including jail credit time, is the basis on which the maximum amount of the award is calculated. Any Extra Good Time already earned will be subtracted from this stated maximum. Staff may recommend lump sum awards of extra good time for the following reasons:

- An act of heroism.
- Voluntary acceptance and satisfactory performance of an unusually hazardous assignment.
- An act which protects the lives of staff or inmates or the property of the United States.
- This is to be an act and not merely the providing of information in custodial or security matters.
- A suggestion which results in substantial improvement of a program or operation, or which results in significant savings.
- Any other exceptional or outstanding service.

Good Time Procedures

Extra Good Time is awarded at a rate of three days per month during the first 12 months, and at the rate of five days per month thereafter (i.e., the first twelve months, as stated, means 11 months, and 30 days - Day for Day - of earning Extra Good Time before an inmate can start earning five days per month. For example, if an inmate was to stop working, transfer from Industry to an institution job, or if good time was terminated for any reason, the time the inmate is not earning good time does not count in the calculation of the first 12 months. If the beginning or termination date of an Extra Good Time award occurs after the first day of the month, a partial award of days is made. An inmate may be awarded Extra Good Time even though some or all of the inmate's statutory good time has been Forfeited or withheld.

Extra Good Time is not automatically discontinued while an inmate is hospitalized, on furlough, out of the institution on a writ of Habeas Corpus, or removed under the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act. Extra Good Time may be terminated or disallowed during such absences if the Warden finds the inmate's behavior warrants such actions. An inmate committed for civil contempt is not entitled to extra good time deductions while serving the civil contempt sentence. An inmate in an Extra Good Time earning status may not waive or refuse extra good time credits. Once Extra Good Time is awarded, it becomes vested and may not be forfeited or withheld or retroactively terminated or disallowed.
