The fascinating, untold story of how faith changed the nation's history through this unprecedented election.

Pollster George Barna shows in no uncertain terms how Believers, despite their uneasiness, put Trump in the White House and redirected America's future.

The story also has a Compass connection as Compass' Executive Director, Bill Perkins, attended the private, invitation-only meeting of 1000 evangelical leaders in June, 2016 in New York City that Barna says was the turning point in the polling. You won't put it down!
