1 Reading

Read about the London Eye. Match the numbers in list A with the things in list B.

- |               |   |
|---------------|---|
| A      | B  |
| a 0.9         | 1 the number of people in a capsule                           |
| b 800         | 2 the number of capsules                                      |
| c 3.5 million | 3 the number of visitors per day                              |
| d 32          | 4 the number of visitors on the Eye at the same time          |
| e 40          | 5 the speed of the wheel in kilometres per hour               |
| f 25          | 6 the distance in kilometres that people can see from the top |
| g 15,000      | 7 the number of visitors per year                             |

Every year 3.5 million people ride on the London Eye. It is the most popular tourist attraction in England. It has 15,000 visitors every day. The Eye has 32 capsules which can each hold 25 people, so 800 people can go on it at the same time. The wheel is quite slow; it moves at 0.9 kilometres per hour and it takes 30 minutes to go all the way round. On a clear day, people at the top can see for 40 kilometres.

The World2day group are on a bus sightseeing tour. Read and follow the route of the bus on the map. Number the places in the order the bus passes them.

Welcome to the World2day London sightseeing tour. Now you all have a map of London and here is the route of our tour.

We're in Trafalgar Square – can you find that on your map? It's in the centre, where it says 'Start here'. Now first we go along the Strand and then along Fleet Street to St Paul's Cathedral. We stop here so you can take photos of this beautiful church. Then we continue to the Monument – that's the Monument to the Great Fire of London of 1666. Then we go across the river – we go over London Bridge – and we drive along Tooley Street. We go back across the river over Tower Bridge. Tower Bridge sometimes opens so that big ships can go under it. Then we turn left and stop at the Tower of London and you can take photos.

Back on the bus, we continue along the river all the way to Big Ben and the Houses of Parliament. Then we turn into Victoria Street and go past St James's Park to Buckingham Palace, where the Queen lives. We stop at the palace so you can take some more photos. We get back on the bus again and we drive up to Hyde Park Corner, and then along Piccadilly to Piccadilly Circus. And finally we're back in Trafalgar Square!
