Wen Yuan Lim Schneider the 2021 Roma Liggins winner with Don Secomb at Taree Eisteddfod

I am WenYuan LimSchneider, and I won the 2021 Roma Liggins Award. I have been playing piano at the Taree & District Eisteddfod each year for ten years, allowing me to grow as a musician, a performer, and a person. Having the opportunity to perform in a professional yet supportive environment, I was able to build my confidence and resilience, ultimately shaping me into the person am today. It was a great honour winning the Roma Liggins Scholarship, as it represents the countless opportunities I have received from the Eisteddfod. And although I may not be studying music professionally, music will always be part of who I am – because I have been doing this for most of my life; because I have grown support network each year that I participated; because near the entrance doors to the MEC theatre there is a board, now with my name on it; because my resilience, courage, and confidence have grown all thanks to the Eisteddfods and my piano teacher Don Secomb. And that is why I will forever be grateful for the opportunities given to me by the Eisteddfod. Thank you.

Thank you to all of the people who make this event possible for the benefit of so many young musicians. To our hardworking committee and tireless volunteers, sponsors, tech support and staff, trophy and award donors, caterers, Covid marshals, teachers, parents and performers across our 5 days of competition. Thank you for sharing in this wonderful event.

USE OF PHONES IN THE VENUE: We understand parents wish to record the performances of their children. We do allow this in our section however under very strict rules. All phones must be kept silent. No flash photography. DO NOT record performances of other competitors – this is an offence under the copyright rules and illegal. YOUR WILL CAN HELP

The Eisteddfod Society is delighted to give its time voluntarily to stage the Eisteddfod.

Did you know it now costs over $100,000 annually to stage?

In trying to keep costs to entrants as low as possible, we seek your assistance in raising money to fund a successful future.

Leaving a bequest to the Eisteddfod will ensure that the competitors we support get every opportunity to achieve their dreams.

Example of a bequest:

"I give $..... to the Taree & District Eisteddfod Society Inc. for the running costs of the Eisteddfod"

Thanks for helping the youth of today go forward with confidence to make a difference tomorrow.

Let your Will be done!

For any more information, please ring the President
Tim Stack on (02)65926592
