mechanism whereby such a compromise or arrangement may be binding on other persons too.

2010 - June [2] (b) Define 'corporate restructuring'. What are the various kinds of restructuring? (5 marks)

Answer :

Please refer 2008 - Dec [6] (a) on page no. 26

2012 - June [1] {C} (b) What is meant by 'strategic alliance' and what are its features?

(c) "A conglomerate merger is neither a type of horizontal merger nor a vertical merger." Discuss. (5 marks each)

Answer :

(b) Strategic alliance is a relationship between two or more parties to pursue a set of agreed upon goals or to meet a critical business need while remaining independent organisations.

Some of the features of strategic alliance are as follows:-

- (i) It aims for a synergy where each partner hopes that the benefits from the alliance will be greater than those from individual efforts.
- (ii) Alliance often involves technology transfer, economic specialisation, shared expenses, reduction in cost, etc.
- (iii) It is gaining importance in infrastructure sectors.
- (iv) Strategic alliance aims to pool the resources and facilitate innovative ideas and techniques while implementing large projects.
- (v) It could help company to develop a more effective process, expand into a new market or develop an advantage over a competitor, among other possibilities.

Answer:

- (c) • Conglomerate merger is a merger between firms that are involved in totally unrelated business activities.
- The companies which merge are neither competitors nor complimentaries.
 - The business of these companies are neither horizontally nor vertically related to each other.
 - Merging companies operate in unrelated markets.

- Thus conglomerate merger is neither a type of horizontal merger nor a vertical merger.

2012 - Dec [1] {C} (c) As per the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956 and the Income-tax Act, 1961 there is no difference between de-merger and slump sale; though it results in separation of a division or unit of an existing company to a potential buyer. But in common parlance, it means rightward and leftward, i.e., totally different approach from one to another. The first requires no payment but second requires down payment. But the ultimate objective is to hive off some business which is not compatible with the core business competency of the main company.

Discuss the eventuality in conjunction with the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961. (5 marks)

Answer:

Demerger - Demerger in relation to companies means the transfer, pursuant to a scheme of arrangement under section 391 to 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 by a demerged company of its one or more undertaking to any resulting company.

Slump Sale - Slump sale means the transfer of one or more undertaking as a result of the sale for a lump sum consideration without value being assigned to the individual assets and liabilities in such sales.

Both demerger and slump sale results in hiving of a division or undertaking, but there are various differences which are as follows:

1. In case of slump sale values are not assigned to individual assets and liabilities and the sale of undertaking is for a lump sum consideration. In demerger, valuation of individual assets and liabilities are mandatory.
2. In case of demerger, the resulting company has to continue the business of transferred undertaking of demerged company, whereas in slump sale it is not so.
3. Demerger results into reorganization of capital whereas slump sale does not result in reorganization of capital.
4. In case of demerger, the shareholders of demerged company has to be issued shares of resulting company and in case of slump sale the issue of shares does not take place.
