

Learn it, Love it, Live it: This stuff will be on a test!

- I. The author was Homer. He was blind, and he was a minstrel (or bard)
  - A. He wrote 2 epics: long, narrative poems
    - 1. The lliad is a war epic
    - 2. The Odyssey is a long journey epic
  - B. They were written abut 800 B.C. and told about events that happened in 1200 B.C.

- C. A minstrel is an entertainer who told stories and sang songs. Also called a bard, rhapsode, epic singer, or song stitcher. A minstrel was both a historian and an entertainer.
  - 1. Minstrels borrowed material from legends, epics, and myths already known by the people.

- Minstrels used descriptions and phrases that were familiar to the audience called epithets. (e.g. "wing'd words," "rosy-fingered dawn," "grey-eyed Athena")
- 3. They made stories as uncomplicated as possible.

- 4. Stories were told repetitively
  - a. There was no written history
  - b. Minstrels traveled from place to place singing of recent events or of the stories of heroes or gods & goddesses
- 5. Audiences never tired of the stories.

- D. Homer outshone other minstrels of his day...
  - 1. Because of his originality of ideas
  - 2. Because of his expression and the effect he had on his audience.

See p. 646 in textbook

The Iliad tells of the war between
 Greece and Troy (located in Asia Minor or the present day country of Turkey).
 The Iliad provides the background for
 The Odyssey and background on

Odysseus.

A. The war lasted 10 long years.

- B. These are the events of the Trojan War:
  - In reality, it possibly began because Greeks tried to control trade routes
  - According to myth: Paris, a prince of Troy, kidnapped Helen, queen of Sparta an wife of Menelaus, king of Sparta (a Greek city-state).

- 3. The Greek kings banded together and sent armies in 1,000 ships across the Aegean Sea to attack Troy. (Helen is known as "The face that launched a thousand ships")
- 4. Gods and goddesses took sides in the war.
- 5. For nine years there was no victory.
- 6. Finally, Odysseus devised a plan: the Trojan Horse

- The Greeks conquered Troy; the Trojans were slaughtered and the city was destroyed.
- 8. The Greeks set out for home in their ships.
- Many gods and goddesses were offended when Greeks desecrated temples and did not make offerings

All About The Odyssey

- III. The Odyssey Epic poem of the long journey. Greek audiences would have known the war story of the Iliad and been familiar with Odysseus as a hero from that story that came up with the idea that ended the war.
  - A. The Odyssey tells of many adventures of Odysseus trying to sail home after the Trojan War. (Ithaca)

All About The Odyssey

- B. It took 10 years for him to sail home.
- C. The main characters:
  - 1. Odysseus (Ulysses): super-human hero from Ithaca.
  - 2. Penelope: Odysseus' wife
  - 3. Telemachus: Odysseus' son

All About The Odyssey

- D. Primary gods and goddesses in the epic
  - 1. Athena: goddess of wisdom
  - 2. Poseidon: god of the sea
  - 3. Zeus: king of the gods

What is an Epic?

IV. The epic

- A. The oldest literary form or genre
- B. A long story-poem involving:
  - 1. A great hero having supernatural qualities (but not "super powers")
  - The gods and goddesses take an active part in helping or hindering (e.g. Poseidon is Odysseus' enemy and Athena helps Odysseus).

What is an Epic?

- 3. The fate of an entire race of people is often at stake.
- 4. Heroes found their greatest glory in battle.
- 5. It involves a struggle that the culture of the hero values
  - a. The hero embodies the values of their culture.
  - b. Greeks used The Iliad and The Odyssey to teach Greek culture and values.

What is an Epic?

- 6. Written in elevated style (formal)
   7. Epics begin with an invocation (a
  - prayer to the muse of poetry)
    - a. Muses are 9 daughters of Zeus who were in charge of the arts.
       Calliope was the muse of epic poetry.

Classical Mythology

V. Greek and Roman mythology

- A. Polytheists: they believed in many gods
- B. Gods had many human qualities
  - 1. They were conniving
- VI. They were quarrelsome
  - A. Many of the gods lived on Mt. Olympus

Classical Mythology

D. Ambrosia: the food of the gods
E. Nectar: the drink of the gods
F. Gods interfered in human affairs
G. Gods were immortal: they live forever

Greek Values and Beliefs

- VI. Greek values and beliefs
  - A. Greeks believed it was wrong for any man to have hubris
  - B. The character of a man was very important
    - One important quality to have was courage
    - 2. Loyalty to both home and family was the most important

Greek Values and Beliefs

- C. Man was not master of his own destiny or fate, he was like a "pawn in a chess game."
- D. Man could not control his own fate, but he could control how he reacted to the gods' interfering or meddling (how someone reacted was an important character quality).

The Bronze Age

- VII. Greek life during the Bronze Age (1200 B.C.)
  - A. It was an era ruled by tribal chiefs
  - B. It was a violent life in hard times
  - C. Greece consisted of small city-states
    - 1. Ithaca: Odysseus' home was an island city-state
    - 2. Athens (named after Athena) was a larger city-state

The Epic Hero

- VIII. The characteristics of an Epic Hero are:
  - A. He possesses supernatural abilities or qualities.
  - B. He is charged with a quest.
  - C. He is tested, often to prove the worthiness of himself and his quest.
  - D. He receives help by divine beings along the way.

The Epic Hero

- E. He encounters numerous mythical beings, magical and helpful animals, and human helpers and companions.
- F. His travels take him to a supernatural world, often one that normal human beings are barred from entering.

The Epic Hero

- G. He reaches a low point where he nearly gives up his quest or appears defeated.
- H. He gains restitution: this often takes the form of the hero regaining his rightful place.

Your Homework

- 1. Paste these pages into your spiral notebook.
- 2. Add questions to the left hand column.
- 3. Find and draw pictures to illustrate these notes. You must have AT LEAST 15 pictures. Label each picture or give a short description.

Some websites to check out!

A Guided Web Tour of Homer's Greece: Links: http://www.gpc.edu/~shale/humanities/literature/w orld_literature/greece/links.html

HOMER'S ODYSSEY: http://www.miracosta.cc.ca.us/ home/gfloren/odyssey.htm

Mythweb:

http://www.mythweb.com/odyssey/index.html

Greek Mythology Link: http://www.maicar.com/GML/

