• Topic and Inquiry-based Learning

COMPASS topics are developed from topic questions—life's essential big questions—about students themselves, about society and humankind, and about the natural world. These questions encourage exploration and personalization while developing different skills, and equip students for explanation and elaboration. In each Log, learners examine the same big questions from different perspectives.

COMPASS Topics about Me

- Who am I?
- What have I done in my life?
- What do I wish for?

COMPASS Topics about the Natural World

- What can animals do?
- How does the weather change?
- How do living things change?

COMPASS Topics about Society and Humankind

- Who helps me?
- What influences who I am?
- What events changed the world?

• Language Log

The COMPASS Language Log provides explicit grammar and vocabulary instruction and a methodical, competency-based development of the four skills (Reading, Listening, Speaking and Writing) according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). At the end of each topic, students work on an extensive task or project that requires them to apply and demonstrate new language, skills and concepts with a strong focus on production, as students explore and answer the topic question.

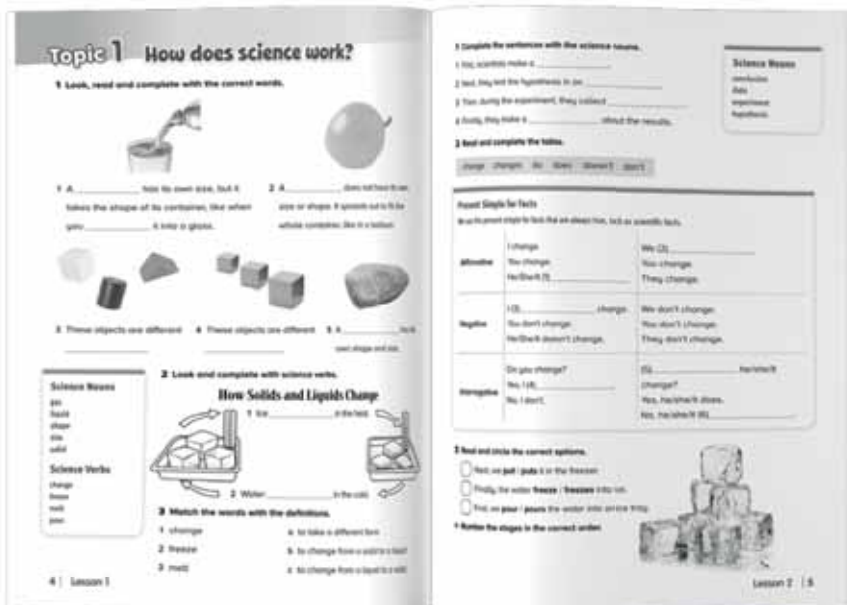

Vocabulary and grammar input and practice help students answer the Big Question.

Speaking and Listening skills are the focus of two lessons each per topic.

• Vocabulary and Grammar Log

The COMPASS Vocabulary and Grammar Log offers students the opportunity to practice, systematize, and test their learning of the new vocabulary and grammar studied in the Language Log.

The COMPASS Vocabulary and Grammar Log provides additional practice for use in the classroom or at home.

• Reading Log

The COMPASS Reading Log offers students a vibrant, appealing reading program that helps them explore the Big Questions more deeply and from different perspectives. As students use the COMPASS Reading Log, they will be exposed to a wide range of texts from different fiction and nonfiction genres.

Many texts were written by published authors of children's literature from different parts of the English-speaking world.

Graphic organizers facilitate the organization of information.

Different activities guide brainstorming of the writing topic.

• Writing Log

The COMPASS Writing Log equips students with US Common Core-based writing strategies, following a scaffolded product and process writing approach. The writing program allows students to learn about and produce a wide range of age- and level-appropriate texts through guided, engaging writing tasks.

• Phonics and Spelling Log

The COMPASS Phonics and Spelling Log is based on US Common Core Standards, with an expanded syllabus to cover six levels. Scaffolded presentation and practice of English sounds and spelling rules enable young readers to decode words and explore new texts.

Introductions to the core vocabulary and phonics strategy include audio support, so students can identify and produce sounds and spellings.

Fun chants help students practice and remember new phonics and spelling concepts.

In COMPASS Starter, students are invited to begin their voyage of exploration alongside the Captain of the Compass and his companion, Davy.

NEW

• Language Log

When students begin their journey, they may respond mainly at the gesture or word level, and nonverbal response cards are included with the COMPASS Starter Language Log to allow students to do this. However, by the end of this level, they will be able to give extended spoken responses as well as read short texts and write at a sentence or a paragraph level. This is achieved through different strategies taught across the program modules, and also through an exposure to the wide range of vocabulary COMPASS Starter offers to students.

COMPASS Starter Language Log offers a solid language program through clear teaching of vocabulary and grammar together with focused reading, writing, listening and speaking skills work. This enables students to develop their communication skills and become fluent and accurate.

Speaking and listening skills are the focus of two lessons each per topic. COMPASS Starter Language Log also includes a complete synthetic phonics program.

The fiction reading lesson is accompanied by a lively video.

Reading Rain Forest Friends

"Look! The trees are tall. I hear a lot of birds."
"It's a rain forest. Go explore!"

"Hi! I'm Davy. Do you live here?"
"Yes, we do. Come and see!"

"There's a lot of food. We eat insects and fruit."
"I like them, too!"

"We have a lot of friends. The jaguar sleeps on the branch. The sloth hides under it."
"Wow! Your home is amazing!"

"Say and live with us, Davy!"
"No, thank. I live with the Captain. He's my friend."

"Ready, Davy? Let's go home!"

1 Listen and follow.

2 Read the story. Underline Davy's words.

3 Match Davy's words with his feelings.

4 The trees are tall. I hear a lot of birds.

5 "Your home is amazing!"

Understanding Feelings: Read the characters' feelings. How do the characters feel? How would you show their feelings?

1 Davy likes the rain forest a lot.

2 Davy likes his life with the Captain.

3 He is excited to see the rain forest.

4 Davy is surprised.

• Reading Log

Through the COMPASS Starter Reading Log, students are exposed to a variety of fiction and nonfiction texts. These will help them increase their understanding of the Big Questions, as well as introducing them to the wonderful world of reading. A video narration accompanies the fiction text.

Key Words: search, find, big, first, point, see

3 Developing Visual Literacy: Look at the pictures. Circle Yes or No.

1 The eagle helps Dulce. Yes No

2 The frog helps Dulce. Yes No

3 The crocodiles are friends. Yes No

4 The moth is walking fast. Yes No

Color Dulce with the correct colors.

4 Active Reading: Listen and follow again. Draw Dulce's path home.

5 Complete the sentences. Where is Dulce's home?

It's in _____ next to the _____.

6 Think and discuss. Where is your home?

• Writing Log

The COMPASS Starter Writing Log guides students to write their first texts. Following a carefully scaffolded product and process writing approach, students create a fiction and a nonfiction text in each topic. Students work with sample texts, graphic organizers and draft pages before writing and illustrating their final texts.

Over the year, students gradually move from word- to sentence-level writing. The Writing Log helps students produce meaningful, creative and coherent texts at the paragraph level, too. At this level, spaces are provided to help learners with the development of fine motor-skills, so that letter formation is simple and their writing is legible.

COMPASS Bonding Booklet

This booklet is unique in the COMPASS program. It is included with the COMPASS Language Log to help families and schools connect, and together encourage students to maximize their learning opportunities.

• Vocabulary and Grammar Log

The COMPASS Vocabulary and Grammar Log offers students the opportunity to practice, systematize, and test their learning of the new vocabulary and grammar studied in the Language Log.

The COMPASS Vocabulary and Grammar Log provides additional practice for use in the classroom or at home.

COMPASS Logo

Platform

The COMPASS Platform, designed for students, teachers and parents, is a unique, user-friendly part of the COMPASS program. Through the platform, students can access all their classroom material anywhere, anytime, and from any device. They can do extra listening, reading, grammar and vocabulary activities at different levels, based on the content studied in the Language Log. They can also play a spelling game with other students around the world, as well as record their own voice to practice pronunciation.

As well as accessing all teacher's guides, audio, videos and flashcards, teachers will find tests to assess students' grammar, vocabulary, reading, writing, listening and speaking skills. Teachers will also be able to check students' performance in all interactive activities, manage classes, and access practice tests focused on international certifications.

In addition to Language Log activities, students can access all video and audio material from the Language Log.

Both the Vocabulary and Grammar Log and the Phonics and Spelling Log are fully-interactive, and students' scores are recorded in their gradebook.

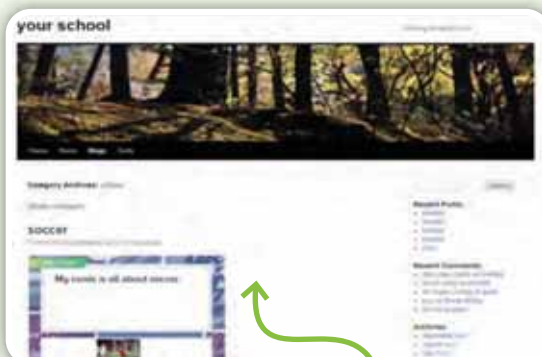

The karaoke function allows students to shadow-read stories and texts in the Reading Log.

The unique bilingual Bonding Booklet provides parents with activities and ideas for discussion to help them get involved in their child's learning.

Flashcards with key vocabulary are embedded in texts and available for students at the click of a mouse.

Students can write, illustrate and publish their texts online in a blog format.

Hands on!

4
Levels

Cristina Rozano, Almudena Machío, Steven J Ogden

Hands on! series takes advantage of natural curiosity and the learning capacity of young children. A four-level pre-primary project-based course based on learning cross curricular content that then helps learners solve tasks while developing English language skills and social and emotional values. An innovative project-based approach for pre-primary / early primary English language learners.

Why choose the Hands on! series?

- Lays down the foundations for values, attitudes, thinking and learning.
- Learn by doing; a hands-on approach!
- Build creativity.
- Fosters cooperative learning and emotional intelligence.
- The Let's talk!, Let's sing! and illustrative Key word features for progressive language acquisition.
- Has a challenge proposal at each level that enhances creativity and thinking skills.
- Helps learners to reflect on their work in the self-evaluation sections.
- Children won't even realise they are learning both English and content!

When working with Amanda and Friends teachers will quickly see how each lesson builds on the previous ones and how the units and objective content slip into place satisfyingly like jigsaw pieces.

The sequence of content presentation follows a pattern: vocabulary first, followed by a concept, then a story and finally everything is consolidated. But beyond ensuring the range of material is correctly approached, is appropriate, is attainable for the children or complies with educational legislation, Amanda and Friends' prime value is in

All about Amanda how it makes the learning experience fun and enjoyable.

Key Features:

- Each unit is divided into four lessons, each with a specific objective, respectively, to introduce vocabulary, a concept, a story and finally unit consolidation.
- But the underlying objective is to achieve this by engaging the children completely and by facilitating in every way possible the teacher's task.
- A wealth of resources is provided to help and the lesson notes meticulously detail the best way to optimise their use.

Pip's Phonics

Gill Budgell

Levels

Pip's Phonics is based on Synthetic Phonics which is used in English speaking countries to teach children the basic skills of reading and writing. It is a process of teaching children the relationship between letters (graphemes) and sounds (phonemes) for reading, spelling and handwriting. The word synthetic relates to the process of identifying, sounding out and then synthesising or blending the sounds in a word from left to right in order to read it. This enables learners to decode from writing to speaking.

Why choose Pip's Phonics?

- Pip's Phonics adapts to every teaching and learning style; the lessons can be tailored to meet every class' needs.
- Pip's Phonics reinforces letter sounds that learners find tricky
- Pip's Phonics offers clear and direct support for teachers with step-by-step, weekly lesson plans, pronunciation tips, letter formation guidance as well as lots of activity ideas.
- Pip's Phonics provides a full suite of resources to enable the teacher to bring phonics alive in the classroom.

M@th Adventures is an innovative two-level course for teaching mathematics to preschool children. This fun series uses engaging hands-on activities and materials to promote the development of mathematical skills such as counting, recognizing, finding or making patterns, sorting, graphing, estimating, comparing, measuring and problem solving.

The topics and vocabulary in each unit are appropriate for children learning English as a second language, without placing too much emphasis on language learning. The video clips and interactive games provide enjoyable practice of mathematical concepts in class and at home.

With M@th Adventures students will:

- develop mathematical skills through hands-on activities and manipulative materials
- learn and practice math concepts through songs and rhymes
- enrich their practice and experience working with digital components like videos and interactive games
- enjoy working with a multitude of manipulative materials in the Resource Pack

In Open Day, students learn to communicate confidently in English.

At each level, students are accompanied by characters called Good Buddies. They appear in stories with animals that are or have been critically endangered. This contact with endangered species will inspire students to become balanced human beings who care about the world they live in.

With Open Day students will:

- learn vocabulary and language aligned to the CEFR standards.
- get acquainted with international certification formats for young learners.
- explore content from other subject areas (CLIL).
- learn to enjoy life's moments through mindfulness activities.
- become productive members of their community through activities in the Citizenship section.
- consolidate their knowledge about each topic by doing projects.
- share information about themselves through personalized tasks.
- develop critical thinking through the investigation of life's important questions.

• Student's Book

Each level begins with a Welcome Unit that aims at recycling the contents from the previous level. In the case of Level 1, the Welcome Unit deals with classroom functional language. Each level has four topics with two units each that develop around that specific theme.

The structure of each topic is shown in the chart below:

A two-page opener is included before each pair of units. This helps both students and teachers become acquainted with the topic by means of short tasks.

Topic Opener

Units 1, 3, 5, 7

- My Words (2 pages)
- My Language (3 pages)
- Time to Practice (1 page)
- Mindfulness (1 page)
- Sounds Fun! (1 page)
- My Skills (6 pages)

Unit 1 School Clubs

- Look at the pictures and discuss the questions.
- 1. What are the children doing?
- 2. Where can you do these activities?

- Make a list of clubs and activities at your school. Discuss what club you would like to join.

The presentation of language is through of a two-page comic strip. A third page focuses on another language point or the reinforcement of the previous ones.

Time to Practice provides students with an opportunity to reinforce recently acquired language with test-format exercises in the four skills: listening and speaking in the first unit of a topic and reading and writing in the second one.

A complete page is dedicated to Mindfulness activities for students to develop awareness of their thoughts, feelings and emotions.

Sounds Fun! includes songs, tongue twisters and games to provide phonemic awareness and practice of specific sounds that move from simple to complex structures throughout the six levels.

My Skills pages allow students to develop strategies in the four skills with a wide variety of tasks, including test-format activities.

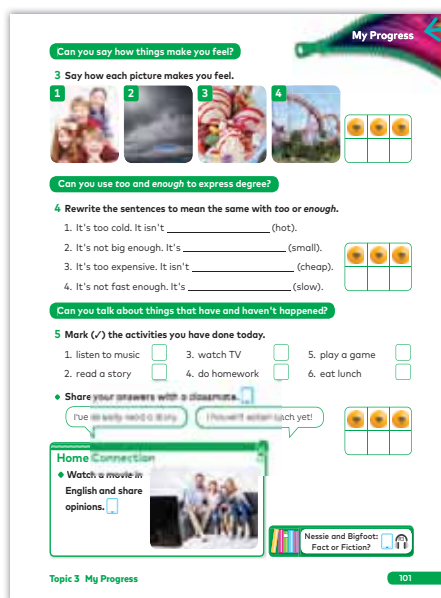

The Citizenship page contains activities focused on values and encourages reflection and critical thinking.

The CLIL page promotes critical thinking and provides students with a chance to apply previous knowledge in a different content area.

My Progress consists of a series of can-do questions for students to reflect on their performance throughout the topic. Each question is followed by a short task for them to obtain evidence of their progress through self-evaluation.

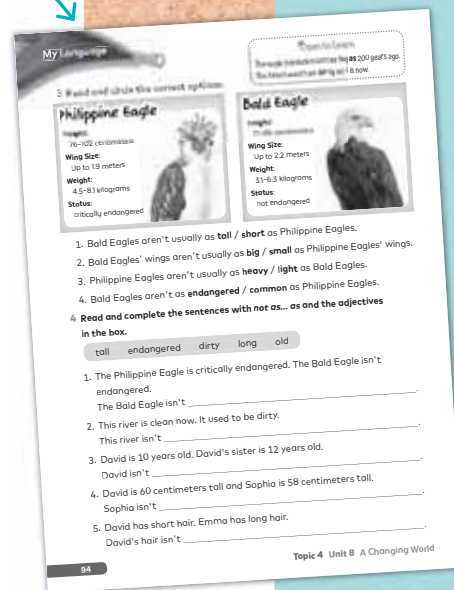

• Readers

There are four Readers per level where students will read enjoyable stories related to each Topic in the Student's Book.

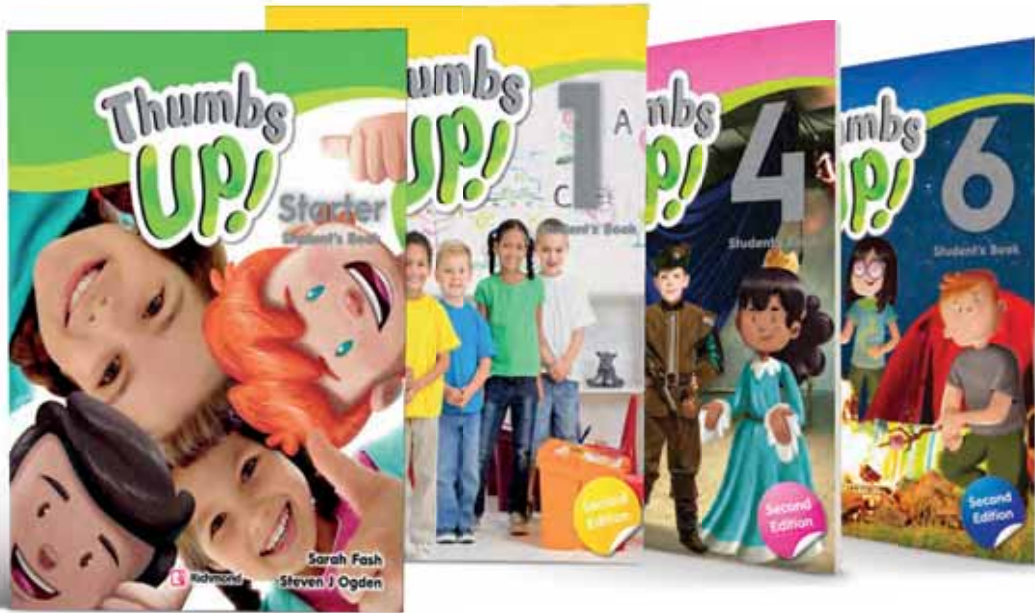

• Practice Book

This provides additional practice, as well as a section to help students explore the Readers and develop their reading comprehension skills.

Thumbs up! Second Edition is a seven-level primary series that motivates children to learn English while developing other areas of knowledge. It fosters students' critical thinking skills, creativity and natural curiosity through comics, videos, cross-curricular themes, games, poems and songs.

With Thumbs up! Second Edition students will:

- discover grammar rules at their own pace with the Inductive Grammar section
- reinforce values with comic strips accompanied by fun activities
- focus on meaning rather than on form, as in first language acquisition
- broaden their knowledge of the world and develop their listening skills through videos and accompanying hands-on cooperative projects.
- follow a structured reading skills program with original stories, a comprehensive phonics, pronunciation and spelling program, and a seven-level writing program

• Student's Book

Eight topic-based units offer a balance of work in the four skill areas: reading, listening, speaking and writing.

Engaging Reading texts with pertinent activities enhance students' reading skills and consolidate the language and vocabulary introduced in the unit.

Listening and Speaking sections in each unit develop and practice these vital skills.

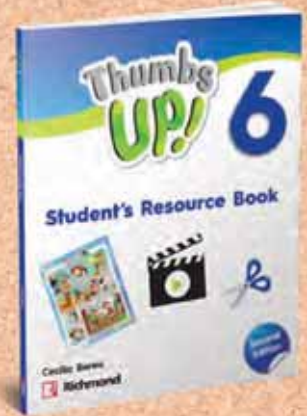

Writing sections in every unit offer step-by-step guidance in creating different types of written text.

WONDER is a new seven-level course for primary education. WONDER in its verb form is to feel curiosity and be excited by something new. The noun transmits something that causes such a feeling. The methodology behind the Richmond Wonders series lives up to this definition and will provide a pleasant learning experience for both the children and the teacher.

Each unit of work is a web of different strands of learning objectives leading off from a central focus. The unit web strands interleave and interleave again with the subsequent levels to create a solid language fabric.

WONDER will provide a pleasant learning experience through:

- Integrated Learning Web Approach
- Story-based learning
- CLIL and Culture lessons
- Research skills development
- Vocabulary game generator
- i-book for teachers

• Student's Book

All the core work is divided into a Welcome unit and eight main teaching units. The units in turn are divided into eight lessons. Additionally, there is a section which covers festivals at the end of the book.

The children have opportunities to practise the language and to gain confidence in speaking and using English.

The course characters are used to present the language and the context of the unit in a fun, engaging way to capture the children's interest.

The main language being taught in the lesson is highlighted for the teacher to see clearly what the learning objectives are.

CLIL

Natural Science is a six-level Primary course which covers the core objectives of the Natural Science curriculum in English, following the CLIL methodology (Content and Language Integrated Learning). This methodology teaches scientific knowledge through the medium of English. The core curricular objectives of Natural Science are progressively introduced to achieve two main objectives: to learn the scientific contents and, at the same time, to practise the English language. Natural Science aims to promote the acquisition of key competences, the achievement of academic excellence and the undertaking of global assessment. It also promotes the acquisition of basic skills, such as reading comprehension, speaking and writing skills and integrates Information and Communication Technology (ICT), entrepreneurship and civic education.

Key Features:

- promotes understanding and appreciation of the natural environment through situations which reflect the learner's real world.
- offers a content-based approach to Science through which other interdisciplinary skills develop: language, scientific inquiry, learning to learn and decision making.
- provides opportunities for learners to develop their personal and social skills.
- provides a solid base for values education through the course contents to enable learners to develop scientific curiosity alongside responsibility for the world they live in.

Music Course Components

Primary

- Student's Book is a spiral-bound book that consists of 24 core lessons, organised into three terms.
- Student's Audio contains the main recordings in the Student's Book.
- Activity Book offers further practice of the concepts introduced in the Student's Book. Each page is clearly linked to a specific lesson and can be completed in class or given as homework. An answer key is provided in the Teacher's Book.
- Teacher's Book offers step-by-step lesson plans with fullcolour reproductions of the Student's Book pages. Answer keys are included, as well as all the scores of the songs in the Student's Book, one photocopyable reinforcement worksheet per lesson and photocopyable tests. Cross-references indicate when to use the Activity Book and the Class Audio.
- Class Audio includes all the recordings needed to carry out the activities in the Student's Book, including the backing tracks of all the songs.

Each term starts with a story that can be read out or played on a CD player. These stories introduce different musical contents and, at the same time, involve students in vocal performances, rhythmic accompaniments, etc.

Each lesson includes contents and activities from different areas: musical language and expression, listening activities, etc.

The teaching suggestions aim to provide a consistent and productive lesson.

The new musical contents are presented through listening, creative or performance activities.

Review and reinforcement activities are also included.

At least one lesson in each term includes active listening activities using pieces of classical music with graphic scores which allow students to work on musical elements, such as the structure of a piece, following the beat, distinguishing solo instruments, dynamics of the music, etc.

Put peace education at the heart of your classes!

Students for PEACE is an award-winning four-level course with a difference. Written for teenage learners of English, it combines a carefully graded language syllabus with a unique focus on teaching tolerance, respect and co-operation in the classroom.

The blended course package not only offers students a whole variety of ways to practise their language skills, it also helps them develop the essential 4Cs of 21st century learning: critical thinking, creativity, communication and collaboration. In addition, unit topics such as identity, sustainability and mobility have been specifically chosen to develop students' social and emotional literacy as well as their global awareness.

- through careful choice of the themes in each course unit;
- through collaborative tasks which help learners develop critical thinking and group work
- through activities which emphasize the acknowledgement and acceptance of other people's point of view, of cultural differences and perspectives;

Personal Best is a six-level general English course for today's busy young adults who want to maximize their English language learning experience. Developed with series editor Jim Scrivener, internationally renowned teacher trainer and presenter, it brings together his focus on practice as a driver of improvement for students, and a 21st-century course package with an integrated web-based video show and the Personal Best Language App.

• Language Grammar is presented in stand-alone lessons, separate from skills work. The pronunciation syllabus focuses on connected speech to help with recognizing and producing language; while lexis is prioritized, with two or more vocabulary sets per unit, used in discussions or other tasks.

• Comprehensive skills syllabus: Reading and listening skills pages develop learner skills and strategies; and students are challenged to use selected functional language to improve specific speaking or writing skills. Speaking and writing activities have clear task goals and cumulative aims.

American English version

The Personal Best eWorkbook is a page-faithful version of the print workbook, but fully digital, interactive and trackable. It offers comprehensive self-study practice of the language and skills taught in the Student's Book. It provides practice not only of grammar, vocabulary and pronunciation but for all the four skills.

Students can use the set of navigation tools at the bottom of the page to flip through pages and locate content faster.

Students get automatic feedback every time they complete an activity. When they submit an activity, their score will be sent to the Markbook.

Learn more about... Learning Curve: the Web show for Personal Best

Learning Curve is an exciting webshow with interesting

content from around the world. It exposes students to natural spoken language and develops a range of speaking and listening sub-skills. Located and filmed in New York and London, the Learning Curve hosts present documentaries, interview people on the street, and even discuss their personal lives through video diaries, allowing students to engage with English as an international language and learn about the diverse cultures that speak it.

Personal Best Language App

This Language App, available for each level of the course, is closely linked to the grammar and vocabulary in the Student's Book. It offers optional self-study practice on a user-friendly interface, allowing students to practice what they want, when they want.

The wide range of interactive games, working on form, meaning and pronunciation through productive and receptive exercises, brings choice, variety and challenge to language learning.

@Work is the perfect course for anyone who needs to communicate in English at work, regardless of their profession or job title. @Work brings a light-hearted, non-executive approach to English learning and is also suitable for pre-work tertiary students. Available at four levels, the material offers a minimum of 60 hours of study, but can be extended with additional digital components to meet the varying needs of different students. These include the interactive digital workbook, and the online Business Theories and Business Skills series. Whatever the industry, whatever the job, @Work will suit any employee, preparing them to conduct business outside the classroom.

With @Work students will:

- learn get-the-job done language while avoiding business English clichés
- practice writing emails with a 12-page email writing section including tips covering style, tone, grammar, punctuation and spelling
- follow video modules comprising presentations, negotiations, communications and meetings

The Richmond Handbooks for Teachers are highly practical and accessible methodology guides written by teachers for teachers. Ideal for both new and experienced teachers, they contain a mixture of analysis, development work, ideas and photocopiable resources for the classroom and can be used in training courses or for personal development. Each title offers practical solutions to the everyday problems faced by English teachers in the primary or secondary classroom but will also be of use to any language teacher, teacher of young adults or trainee teacher. The classroom activities are designed for lower level classes but most can be easily adapted to higher levels.

The series also includes a handbook for CLIL practitioners which features a collection of CLIL case studies and experiences from the primary, secondary and tertiary sectors.

Key Features:

- Practical, realistic suggestions for the language classroom and teacher development tasks
- Clear, jargon-free explanations of theory and methodology
- Solutions for everyday problems faced by teachers in the foreign language classroom
- A range of photocopiable activity worksheets
- Classroom diversity in teaching situations is addressed
- Current educational methodologies, reforms and issues are reflected

There are five parts with 25 questions in total. You will have 25 minutes.

You will hear each conversation twice. You will need a pen or pencil and some colored pencils or pens: red, blue, green, yellow, orange, pink, purple, black, brown and gray.

• Reading and Writing test

There are six parts with 35 questions in total. You will have 30 minutes.

You will hear each conversation twice. You will need a pen or pencil.

• Speaking test

There are four parts.

Part 1
Say hello to the examiner. Tell them your name and age. The examiner will ask you to look at two pictures and describe four differences.

Part 3
The examiner will show you four sets of four pictures. You say which picture is different and why.

Part 2
The examiner will ask you to look at four pictures which tell a story. They will tell you about the first picture. You have to continue the story and describe the other three pictures.

Part 4
The examiner will ask you some questions about yourself. For example: "Have you got any hobbies?"

The Richmond Mazes is an innovative series of interactive readers with a difference. Available as both apps and printed readers, they offer students a challenging, fun way of improving and extending their knowledge of the English language. Each original fictional story focuses on a realistic scenario from the world of work, and offers students a series of choices, allowing them to steer their own path through the story and create alternative outcomes. They can win bonus points by selecting the most appropriate route or even be sent back to the beginning if they make the wrong choice! The lively range of characters and surprising storylines will keep readers hooked for hours.

Key Features:

- Graded language to suit students at all four levels
- Glossary section with explanations of key business vocabulary
- Focus on working situations helps students see business language in context
- Rich mixture of audio and color illustrations brings the stories to life
- “My-route” option lets students reread the maze and explore alternative endings
