Marcus

MARCUS FOR EMPEROR

The following are excerpts from Mr. Marcus' recent discussions and appearances.

"The Office of Emperor is a serious endeavor being the product of over two years of planning and thinking by a small group of dedicated persons that San Francisco, as the leader, as the mecca, as the homeland of homosexual freedom of thought, expression and lifestyles, should be the birthplace of a masculine image in its leadership. The Office of Emperor will create a Council with representatives of various groups we have within our way of life. It is pretty obvious to all of you that the various groups such as The Society of Individual Rights, the Tavern Guild, The Metropolitan Community Church, The Gay Activists Alliance, The Gay Liberation Front, etc., are NOT unified. Several attempts have been made to do this thru a unity council, but because of petty and jealous ridden rivalries which do none of us any good, nothing has been accomplished. Our liaisons with the establishment are weak and ineffective - the only time we can truthfully see a spark of unity is when one person gets hurt in a motorcycle accident or becomes the victim of some illness - then everyone turns out to spend a few dollars at an auction. This is not UNITY."

"I say to you, all persons who meet the public in your daily work - it is up to you to see that the importance of the Emperor's Office is taken seriously. IT IS NOT A POPULARITY CONTEST, NOT A BEAUTY CONTEST OR I WOULDN'T BE RUNNING." It is up to you to see that the Emperor contest is a success to inaugurate the First Emperor of San Francisco at California Hall on September 29th. It is up to you to see that the right person is elected, he being the person who is familiar with and known in all the organizations; the person who is not just a member but active within those organizations; the person who is aware of what's happening in the Community, the person who is in contact and on good terms with leaders in other cities as well, both straight and gay. It is up to you to elect a man who can speak with other men - who can talk to the leadership of SIR, The Tavern Guild, the bike clubs, the drag queens, the drag entertainers, the Empress, the hustlers in the Tenderloin, the 18 - 21 year olds and the gay prisoners just released from hell in prisons that is unlike anything you've ever experienced and I hope to God you never have to experience. The person who is familiar with all the interworking of our City Government and very familiar with City Appointed heads and elected representatives who can express himself in writing, in speech and in actions that benefit his fellow man."

"The Office of Emperor is a man's job, A REAL MAN. I hope you will elect a man to do it, I ask you to elect me. Thank You."

COPULATION OK

L. A. SUPERIOR COURT RULES 288a UNCONSTITUTIONAL

Special to the Times-Kalendar from Frank Fitch

On Monday, Sept. 11, Superior Court Judge George Dell issued a ruling on a motion to dismiss charges against Equity Pictures, et al, for violating laws against acts of oral copulation. He granted the motion dismiss, stating that "The issue directly presented is whether or not a state can constitutionally make unlawful the consensual act of oral copulation between consenting adults," and "the court concluded it cannot."

David Goodstein, an attorney of the Society For Individual Rights, stated that "It is impossible to overestimate the importance of this decision. It is an important step forward for sexual liberation."

(Note: Mr. Fitch's regular column will resume with issue K-19 of the Times-Kalendar.)

(Look for Pelosi Marks comparison in next issue)

New Day

KALENDAR ON WEDNESDAYS

Since many special activities occur during the weekend, The Times-Kalendar is changing its publication dates to every other Wednesday, instead of every other Friday.

We believe this new schedule will allow The Times-Kalendar to serve the Gay community better.

The next issue of The Times-Kalendar will be available Wednesday, September 27th.

Editorial and Advertising deadlines will also be moved from Monday to Friday prior to publication.

Thank you,
 Dick Jay

HOROSCOPE

HOROSCOPES

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Well, sweethearts, a subdued time appears to be in the offing, which for a Virgo can only mean back into the closet for awhile, eh? Perhaps an old acquaintance from childhood will arrive--possibly sans forewarning--and you will have to decide how much to confront him or her with. You are by nature conservative in such decisions.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22) Libra in leather to match the weather is what the stars imply. Like Indian Summer, you are full of gusts and false returns to old haunts. But the promise holds only empty threats of such consequences. You will notice that you have changed considerably in the last several months and would no longer be comfortable in the old skin recently shed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 22) The bile of the universe descendeth upon you, scorpions, not that you haven't earned the honor with your vile evil ways. Any new venture turns to dust and, for this once, it's you and not your unsuspecting "friends" who have to do the sweeping after. An old close one brings you a mirror, but you fail to comprehend the significance and meaning in this.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) Harbor lights, stars, reflections in water... all are to be of importance in the evenings ahead. Much of what you see and do is indirect, difficult to assess the wisdom of, or to explain once it has been finished. Confidence occurs when certain plans arrive at completion and are fully a success. This will allow you to worry less in the future over similar projects, the ends of which you may not perceive.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan 19) Your inability to plan more than one thing at a time causes difficulties when you get into an intricate scheme and begin to ignore the minutia which is genuinely crucial for any further development. Some friends attempt to come to your aid, recognizing what the problem is, but you hesitate to accept their advice. You would do well to be more trusting.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) Your involvement in the life of another begins to lose its excitement, and you may start to look around for a replacement in your life. This leads to some sticky complications, when you learn that you were not the first to feel this way and that two pairs of roving eyes have seemingly settled on the same person as their solution to the problem. This third party will, once he understands the situation, shy away from both, leaving you frustrated and more anxious than ever. Potential for an explosive scene ahead.

ARIES (Mar. 21-Apr. 19) Your world, which has been busy if not especially happy, brightens as an old friend returns, and now has more to offer, more in common with you, than ever before. This surprises you, since you imagined his journey away to be towards a world apart. It seems that, beneath the surfaces, this was not the case.

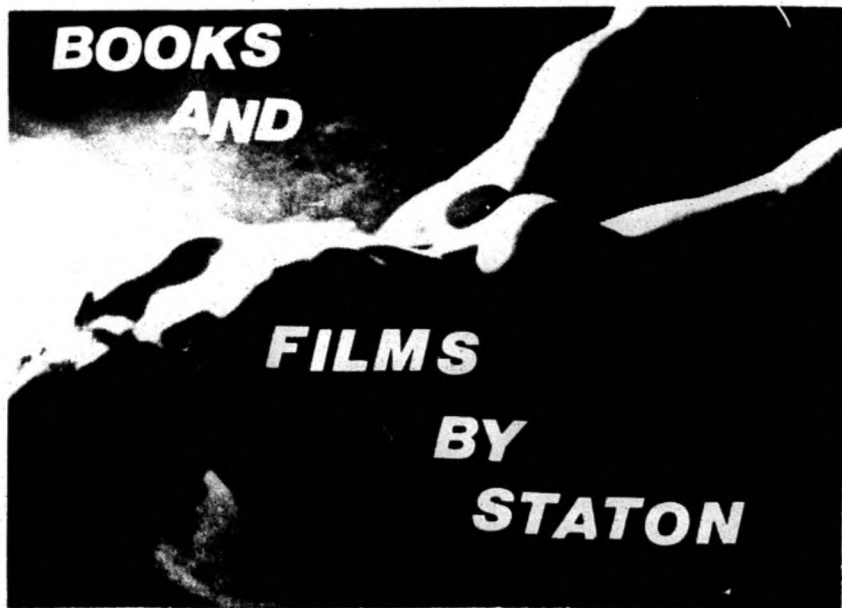

TAURUS (Apr. 20-May 20) Money matters take on an especial importance in the weeks ahead, mostly due to their obstructiveness when lacking. This will prevent you from coming on a little flashier, as you would like in order to impress that cusp child, but if you are serious will not prove too much of an impediment to your desired progress. Learn to do things wisely, rather than having to do them twice.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) You manage to impress your friends with your recent binge of bitchiness, and thus find yourself a little more solitude than you had been expecting. Now you will have the opportunity to see if it is what you really did want, after all. The correct answer is, of course, that you simply don't know. A certain amount of pride makes you anxious to say that you do, but soon you will discover yourself making the necessary moves to return to the usual "scene," imperfect though it is.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Your desire to be fully active in the universe is beginning to wear you out a little, just as your commitments begin to make heavier demands. Nevertheless, you recognize that you've been meeting a large group of superb people, most of whom you would never have known otherwise. So you make the decision to stick it out a little longer and to see if you can't build up the necessary stamina in order to really live 24 hours each day.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) A good deal of thought concerning your relationship with a longtime friend leads you decide that you would rather be a friend than a lover and that you could never go back to one from the other. It is a complex and not entirely happy emotional state to put yourself through, but it does show that you have learned at last something of values in the world, and that a casual affair is not the end-all of the human condition.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20) A Libra is looking, and you're not even noticing. Odd, for you have certainly been looking for somebody to get it on with. But this is one whom you have no suspected or even considered in such a role. Several very heavy hints are dropped, but you respond as though puzzled, without really comprehending what is going on. This will take several weeks to develop, but will prove to be worth the time and effort.

TICKLE ME...

There's a sign in the office here that you would probably smile over. It says, "Sex is, of course, the greatest phallacy." It's certainly food for thought!

I was amused with Rowan and Martin's opening show last night. It's good to see Donna Jean Young (who's your favorite?) finally achieve real reoc finally achieve real recognition and exposure. Among the other delights was a hunky young surfer-type beauty playing guitar at The Party. Wow!

Someone you'll probably enjoy is Bill Green at La Scala Varietorium (1605 Polk Street), who is the man to see for incense (and he makes the best in town himself!) and essential oils. He plays with words beautifully, as in the many erotic names he's bestowed upon his products. Some of the finer examples: Gurr-rape, Fruita Passion, Honey, Co-Queer-Nut, and (hold on) Lee-Moan-Love-Inn-Deer. He's even got one called Christmas Tree, which is the selfsame scent you all know so well. "Life is just a memory -- remember?" Harry Nilsson is right... Go by and see Bill.

While you're there on "Poke Street," if you want to improve your mind, stop by any of the following friendly bookstores -- Eric's Books (the blond man -- Eric), The Paperback (which is practically next door and held together largely by Beau) and New Era (where the store is run by a magnificent example of manly, sexy flesh in the form of Ray, and, if he's not there, the delightful blonde woman is Eric's wife, like. Talk to them -- they're all nice people, helpful and sunny. And you might just make a friend. Pardon the pun...

Is every homosexual a potentially Gay person? Or is it just a fantasy? Is life just living out your fantasies? I sure dunno, but it's a hell of a lot of fun.

THAT columnist is great! His mention of the Triple A's "Going Cruising? Ask us!" campaign was funny... Bet the office is deluged by this time. I'm going in the morning...

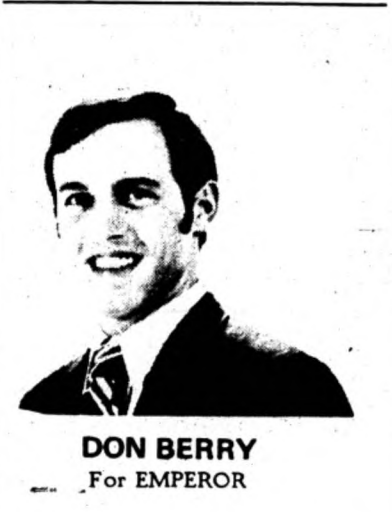

That political party at the Naked Grape last night was something... Marcus sure has a lot of friends, many of whom were rude to the other candidates and even to Mr. SOM (south of Market), but there was no trouble gobbling up the food, which to them was the main attraction. Please, gentlemen, give the guys a break... They may not be doing it as you would, but by God, they're doing something besides complaining and crying for their supper. Maybe that's why the office of Emperor in the first place... Think about it.

As loooong as we're probably stepping on toes, let's take a look and then voice our opinions to the management of the Brass Boot (the spaceshoe store with the nice displays... To erect an iron grill which brings to mind the eyesores and scare tactics of Haight Street and Divisadero. Please, gentlemen, take it down! Why plant a seed of thought in the minds of otherwise happy UNAFRAID beauties such as may be seen wearing the very sort of shoes you peddle??? If you agree, tell them, please. Don't let them ruin Polkstrasse!

The Laurel Theatre continues to suck-seed very nicely, thank you. Thom is a nice man, speaking of the Proud Beauties of Polk Street... I wonder if those films turn him on? You see him and your mind wanders away from the movies -- and they're not bad. It's money well spent... As a matter of fact, Thom tells me that Jaguar Productions' new film (originally called THE LOVE GOD, retitled due to conflict with a superstar Hollywood company) DEEP COMPASSION is going to be sneak previewed in the next week or so. Watch the papers -- it promises to be different and exciting, and of a calibre higher than previous Gay films. Sounds exciting, right? Don't miss it!

The Nob Hill's recent repeat of BOYS IN THE SAND was certainly a boon to those of us who had missed it the first time around. And the new management is lots friendlier and more -- uh -- accommodating than the predecessors. Good for you! I think, though, that the Tom Kat deserves looking into. Soon.

Where does the time go??? Trying to sample everything from Adam (the men's illusion trip with wigs), to artist Dick Z.'s graphics to the sensual delights of the people at Ritch Street is a busy schedule, but then, what good is sitting all alone in your room? Liza (with a "Z") Minelli has it down pat: Sally Bowles is a state of mind, you see. Life really is a cabaret... Wanna glass of wine? Catch you later, kid. Love one another.

one of a kind

There are vests and vests. But there aren't any others like our one-of-a-kind exclusives. Take the one pictured. Start with dark brown supple suede. Then stripe it with black Cobra skin. Then stud it with bronze. Then make it totally reversible, so it's like getting two vests for the price of one. Can you imagine? Then imagine some of the other combinations we have right here in our shop. Come on in.

Music

MUSIC

The best "first" album in many months is by the Eagles, whose single "Take It Easy" is inescapable on the radio. In spite of overexposure, the hit holds up as a superior track, but not the only good one on their album, as is too frequently the case. You might call the Eagles "Sons of Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young" because of the many similarities in vocal style, but this is nothing
like the lame and obvious imitation perpetrated recently by America. Actually, I find far more energy, variety
and consistency of quality
here than in The Mother Group itself. The Eagles are off to a great start. Let's hope they can keep it together.

Everyone I know is worried about The Band, specifically
why they chose to put out a double live album of their old hits, gussied up with a noisome brass section. After a relative dud in "Stage Fright," they needed a monster album to reassure
us they are not washed up,
and what do we get...

Remember Tim Buckley,
he of the intense and bizarre vocalism? Put him
in front of a cooking rock
and roll band and you have
"Greetings from L.A.",
the album that may take
him out of the cult category and into the heads of a lot of good people who can take some complexity
in their rock. Or would you call it jazz? Labels
don't help. Listen.
