A Brief History

The first edition of the Lectionary for Mass was released soon after Vatican II (1969) and followed the Council's mandate to "open up the treasures of Sacred Scripture more lavishly so that a richer fare may be provided to the faithful at the table of God's word" (SC 51). New liturgical celebrations were added over the years both in the General Roman Calendar (GRC) and the Proper Calendar for the Dioceses of the United States of America. On December 18, 2001, after the promulgation of the third typical edition of the Roman Missal, the Congregation for Divine Worship and Discipline of the Sacraments inscribed additional saints into the GRC and provided Mass formularies, Lectionary citations, and texts for the Liturgy of the Hours. The publication of the current four-volume Lectionary (1998-2002) included all the Saints and Blesseds of the time. Even more names quickly followed. In 2015, the USCCB's Secretariat for Divine Worship began to compile all the updated additions and corrections. At its meeting in June 2015, the Committee for Divine Worship formally approved the publication of a supplement. Citations from the supplement will be appropriately incorporated into ordos and participation aids over the course of the next year.

What does the Supplement contain?

The readings for:

- Optional memorials for seventeen recently-added saints
- Day of Prayer for the Legal Protection of Unborn Children (Lectionary #516 A)
- Ritual Mass for Celebrating Marriage – Added the missing Ephesians 4:1-6 (802.5a)
- Masses for Various Needs and Occasions – consolidated the readings and psalms for the "Mass for Giving Thanks to God for the Gift of Human Life" (947 A to 947 E)
- Votive Masses – The Mercy of God (968A); Our Lady Queen of Apostles (1002-111); St. John the Baptist (1003A)

Emendations to existing Lectionary citations:

- Twelve alterations (out of the 1,026 citations in the Four-volume Lectionary for Mass). Seven are technical adjustments, reflecting recent canonizations or transfer of date. The readings themselves are not altered.
- Three enhancements by reading suggestions offered by the Holy See
- Reading suggestions and change of title for St. Juan Diego (December 9)
- Pentecost Sunday: At the Vigil Mass – proper Psalms have been added; the our Old Testament readings given in order (62)
- Proper of Saints – updated citations account for canonizations since 2002, transfer of liturgical celebrations to new dates, and the additions of suggested readings.

UNDERSTANDING CATHOLIC WORSHIP: A HANDBOOK FOR PEOPLE IN THE PEWS

Judy Bullock

Arguably the most influential tenet of the Second Vatican Council was the mandate for the “full, conscious, and active participation” of all the people in the liturgy as the aim before all else. In over 50 years since the council, much has been achieved toward this goal. The people can hear and respond in their own languages, pray and sing many parts of the Mass, and serve in many liturgical ministries. Yet, for many, the conscious engagement in the liturgy is still elusive. As the title suggests, this handbook was prepared specifically for the people in the pew, yet it may be even more helpful for priests, deacons, catechists and teachers in Catholic elementary and secondary schools since they are frequently fielding questions about the liturgy that are addressed in this book. Those involved in catechumenate ministry will find that it is a great resource for catechumens and neophytes, especially for the newly baptized during the period of mystagogia. This handbook also serves as a tool for ongoing formation for liturgical musicians, helping them to see how their ministry serves the liturgy and what is the intent of each element. This handbook is not just intended to provide the answers to questions many Catholics have regarding “what we do in Catholic worship and why we do it.” It is not for intellectual enlightenment, but to help each person in the pew through a renewed attentiveness and an openness to the transformative power of the liturgy in order to deepen their faith and encounter the Presence of God.

BORED AGAIN CATHOLIC: HOW THE MASS COULD SAVE YOUR LIFE

Timothy O'Malley

Are you BORED? Not likely, given the endless opportunities today to see, share, post, watch, and like. So are you bored? No way! (Except maybe at Mass.) We want the Mass to entertain, make us laugh, give us foot tapping music and sound-bite theology, and get it done in under an hour. Yet every Sunday many of us tune out. Author Tim O'Malley, in a series of reflections on every part of the Mass, challenges us to turn the idea of boredom on its head, calling boredom—the “good” boredom that opens us to the quiet interior space where we can encounter God—a “sweet gift.” It is there that full participation in the Mass becomes possible—the potential to be transfixed by a ritual, to contemplate the readings, to savor the Eucharist. To be fruitfully “bored again.” Become a Bored Again Catholic and rediscover the power of the Mass to change your life – and the entire world.

LITURGICAL CATECHESIS IN THE 21ST CENTURY

James C. Pauley

In Liturgical Catechesis in the 21st Century: A School of Discipleship, Dr. James Pauley explores the sacred action most essential to forming genuine disciples: the transformative encounter with God in the liturgy.

Drawing upon important twentieth-century intellectual influences as well as the experience of several of today’s foremost catechetical leaders, this book will inspire readers with a promising new vision for sacramental preparation and mystagogical catechesis, one that places maximum emphasis on apprenticing people into an active and fruitful sacramental life in Christ.

A GLOSSARY OF LITURGICAL TERMS

Dennis C. Smolarski, S.J. and Monsignor Joseph DeGrocio

The dictionary will support the training and formation efforts of parish and diocesan offices in all areas of pastoral liturgy and will also be of interest to DREs, catechists, and many parishioners in adult formation classes. Nothing of this kind exists at the moment. The closest is a much longer, more complicated and expensive dictionary published by Catholic Book Publishing. The book in which this material appeared previously contained additional chapters of interest only to professional liturgists and its title did not state clearly what it contained. A new presentation of only the dictionary material with a clearer title will serve the pastoral needs of many liturgical ministers in training as well as individuals interested in the liturgy.

PREACHING THE MYSTERY OF FAITH: THE SUNDAY HOMILY (BISHOPS' STATEMENT)

Preaching is evangelizing, making the Word come alive for the People of God. This task is central to the New Evangelization and the Church's renewal.

The bishops' statement Preaching the Mystery of Faith: The Sunday Homily, is directed toward priests, deacons, and seminary educators who prepare them to preach the Sunday homily in these times of confusion and relativism. The statement gives special attention to the biblical and theological foundations for effective liturgical preaching and considers the proper connection between the Sunday homily and the Church's liturgy and catechesis. It emphasizes the particular pastoral needs of our time that have prompted the call for a renewed evangelization.

THE DEACON'S MINISTRY OF CHARITY AND JUSTICE

William Ditewig

In The Deacon's Ministry of Charity and Justice, Deacon William Ditewig focuses on this ministry as a constitutive element of the nature of the church itself—always flowing from the ministries of word and sacrament and leading back to them, never apart from them. Along with a rich exploration of the scriptural, historical, and theological foundation of the deacon's practice of charity and justice, Deacon Ditewig develops specific and concrete principles for exercising these ministries faithfully, authentically, and effectively.

GIFT OF JOY: THE BLESSING OF THE CHILD IN THE WOMB

Archbishop Kurtz/Msgr. Bransfield

The presence of new life in the womb of the mother brings unique joy and hope to the center of our families, our Church and our world. It is the ultimate gift. At this very same moment when God created your child, He also created you as a mother and as a father.

This is an incredible new beginning as the gift of life is already unfolding, and Christ rejoices with you in the moment.

Your child has, along with God, not only given you a gift ... but an invitation as well — an invitation to grow in your faith, an invitation to accept the support of your parish community, and an invitation to more fully embrace your relationship with Christ.

Gift of Joy is part of that invitation — a tiny treasure to help you celebrate and understand your unique role as a parent and recipient of God's gift of life. It also introduces you to the experience of the blessing of the Church through The Rite for the Blessing of a Child in the Womb.

Most notably, the first document of the Council, Sacrosanctum Concilium, emphasized the liturgy as the source and summit of Christian life. MY SACRIFICE AND YOURS: OUR PARTICIPATION IN THE EUCHARIST

Paul Turner

The Mass is the prayer of the Church. It's not just the prayer of the priest — it is our prayer — the prayer of the baptized people of God. As a baptized people, we share in the priestly ministry of Christ! As priestly ministers of Christ, we all share in his sacrifice and unite our sufferings and burdens with his every time we gather to offer prayer, praise, and thanksgiving to him at Mass. In this short booklet, Paul Turner unpacks the meaning of the sacrifice of the Mass. In pastoral language, he explores more deeply how our participation in the Mass unites us to Christ. Through this guided reflection, we will become aware of the sacrifice Christ made for us, how we participate in this sacrifice each time we gather and participate in the Eucharistic mystery, and how we give back as his disciples. Each section in this booklet is concluded with questions for discussion and reflection questions which may be used in small or large group settings or for personal reflection.

LITURGY IN A CULTURALLY DIVERSE COMMUNITY: A GUIDE

Mark Francis, CSV

In 1998, FDLC commissioned Rev. Mark R. Francis, C.S.V., to write a guideline for preparing multicultural liturgies. Father Francis and Brother Rufino Zaragoza, O.F.M., revisit the topic in this bilingual English-Spanish book. They outline the principles inherent in truly multicultural liturgies to assist liturgists, music directors, and others who prepare worship to promote the full participation of everyone in a culturally diverse assembly. To achieve this goal, they present, in detail, the varied ways in which the liturgy communicates through words, gesture, movement, art, and environment.

GUIDE FOR CELEBRATING WORSHIP OF THE EUCHARIST OUTSIDE MASS

John Thomas Lane, SSS

Praying in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament outside of Mass has been a part of Catholic tradition for centuries. Although participation in the Eucharist at Mass is the "source and summit of the christian life" (Lumen Gentium, 11) praying before the Eucharist after Mass continues the grace received at Mass and leads us into fuller participation at the Eucharistic table.

There are many ways to pray in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament and the Church provides particular guidelines for these opportunities for prayer. In this resource, John Thomas Lane, SSS, traces the historical developments of these practices from the early Church to the post-Conciliar reform. Lane walks through the various rituals, providing a theological context for best parish practices. This book addresses the following: The Rite of Exposition and Benediction; Perpetual Exposition; Perpetual Adoration; Holy Hours and Forty Hours; The Corpus Christi procession; The Transfer of the Most Blessed Sacrament on Holy Thursday; Youth and Exposition; Eucharistic Congresses and their significance for the parish.
