ABOUT OUR PARISH

Welcome, New Parishioners and Sunday Visitors:

Mary Immaculate of Lourdes Parish is a canonically open parish of the Archdiocese of Boston, which has a Traditional Latin Mass apostolate. Both the ordinary form of the Roman Rite (1970 Missal) and the extraordinary form (1962 Missal) are celebrated here with the blessing of His Eminence Sean Cardinal O'Malley, Archbishop of Boston. We encourage new parishioners to please register in the parish and to introduce yourselves to the Pastor. We are always glad to welcome Sunday visitors here to our beautiful, historic church. We look forward to your coming again.

PLEASE TAKE THE TIME TO FILL OUT A PARISH REGISTRATION FORM.

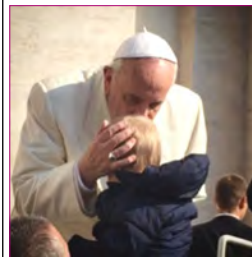

Parish Mission Statement

“What then is a parish? It is the smallest section of the one universal flock which has been entrusted to Peter by the Lord.

Under the authority of a responsible priest who has received the care of souls from his bishop, the parish is, within the Church of Jesus Christ, the first community of Christian life; it is a community cut to human dimensions, in which the shepherd can know his flock and the flock can know their shepherd ... At the heart of this area, we find the parish church with its bell-tower, its baptistery, its confessional, its altar and tabernacle, a symbol of unity and the centre of community life.”

Pastor's Note

NEWS FROM FATHER SALAKO'S MISSION

During Christmastide we received a brief message from Fr. Desiré Salako, S.M.A. He sends us all his Christmas greetings from the Missions in Niger, with the added urgent prayer request for their safety, as the security situation is getting ever more dangerous. The picture of the Nativity scene is from one of the Catholic missions in Niger, which is an overwhelmingly Muslim country.

In an earlier message after All Saints Day, Fr. Salako had sent some pictures of the on-going construction of the chapel for the new S.M.A. Seminary in Benin. From these pictures we can see the progress. The stone altar is from a massif rock and made for some challenging engineering to get it inside. Thanks to your generous contributions to Fr. Salako's summer Mission Appeals we have been able to contribute to this good work.

For the past year we were able to send $43,095 to Fr. Salako's Province of the Society of African Missions, made up of the support we gave him for his summer assistance and contributions from you, the lay faithful of this parish.

"GRATITUDE IS THE THING THAT BRINGS US THE MOST GRACE...I HAVE LEARNT THIS FROM EXPERIENCE; TRY IT AND YOU WILL SEE. I AM CONTENT WITH WHATEVER GOD GIVES ME, AND I SHOW HIM THIS IN A THOUSAND LITTLE WAYS."—ST. THERESE OF LISIEUX (+1897)

SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME (2ND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY)

(Missale Romanum 1970 & 1962)

“Almighty ever-living God, who govern all things, both in heaven and on earth, mercifully hear the pleading of Your people and bestow Your peace on our times. Through our Lord, etc. Amen.”

This prayer is distinctive in our Roman tradition, because it can be traced back to pagan times. Incorporated into Christian use, its substance was not altered; it only received a proper Trinitarian doxology at the end to qualify it as a distinctively Christian prayer addressed to the true God. This is an early example of inculturation.

The Church does not (or at least, should not) destroy the pagan culture into which she is sent on mission. This is both unnecessary and often counter-productive to the mission, as Church history sometimes sadly attests. Rather, existing things in any given culture that are good, true, and beautiful, and therefore, in harmony with the Gospel, can and should be carefully and organically preserved, even if they sometimes need purification. Our prayer above certainly contains nothing contrary to the faith, even though it is originally pagan. In fact, because it is now addressed to the true God, this prayer can be answered efficaciously.

Our best patristic source on notion of inculturation is St. Gregory the Great in his correspondence with St. Augustine of Canterbury regarding the mission to the pagan Anglo-Saxons, as is related to us by St. Bede the Venerable in his Ecclesiastical History of the English People.

The Second Vatican Council likewise addressed this reality in its decree Ad Gentes, “On the Missionary Activity of the Church.” According to this teaching, all that is good about any un-evangelized culture can find its proper place following its transforming encounter with Christ. Thus, the universal Church finds a new voice in the newly Christianized culture with which to praise God and articulate the faith.

Perhaps one of the most important points in our prayer above lies in its second petition: et pacem tuam nostris concede temporibus (“and bestow your peace on our times”). According to Our Lord in Jn. 14:27, peace is His gift, not something we can manufacture simply by imitation. The peace of Christ is firstly an interior gift of supernatural grace that conquers human sin- the real root of all strife and division. Thus, in the final analysis, peace both precedes and transcends any secondary human effort. In the second place, this peace is a fruit of Christians actively cooperating with divine grace together, that is, truly living the Beatitudes, as a result of their interior transformation.

As we beg God for His gift of peace today, we might ask Him to bestow peace especially to our persecuted brothers and sisters in Niger under the pastoral care of our dear missionary, Fr. Désiré Salako, SMA. We might also ask for deepened healing, conversion, and reconciliation in our relationships with family and friends, where needed. Only as we all are more deeply converted to our loving Lord Jesus will we begin to manifest His peace more concretely in our circles of influence.

Mr. David Allen, M.T.S., is the lay Pastoral Associate for our parish of Mary Immaculate of Lourdes.

LATIN MASS PROPERS: SECOND SUNDAY AFTER EPIPHANY

INTROIT: Psalm 65. 4, 1-2 Let all the earth adore Thee, O God, and sing to Thee: let it sing a psalm to Thy Name, O Most High. Psalm. Shout with joy to God, all the earth, sing ye a psalm to His Name: give glory to His praise. V. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. R. Amen. — Let all the earth ...

COLLECT: O almighty and everlasting God, who dost govern all things both in heaven and on earth: mercifully hear the prayers of Thy people, and grant us Thy peace in our time. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

EPISTLE: From Blessed Paul the Apostle to the Romans, 12. 6-16 Brethren: Having different gifts, according to the grace that is given us: either prophecy to be used according to the rule of faith; or ministry, in ministering; or he that teacheth, in doctrine; he that exhorteth in exhorting; he that giveth, with simplicity; he that ruleth, with carefulness; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness. Let love be without dissimulation. Hating that which is evil, cleaving to that which is good: loving one another with the charity of brotherhood, with honor preventing one another: in carefulness not slothful; in spirit fervent: serving the Lord: rejoicing in hope: patient in tribulation: instant in prayer: communicating to the necessities of the Saints: pursuing hospitality. Bless them that persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that rejoice, weep with them that weep: being of one mind one towards another: not minding high things, but consenting to the humble.

GRADUAL: Psalm 106. 20-21 The Lord sent His word, and healed them: and delivered them from their destruction. Let the mercies of the Lord give glory to Him: and His wonderful works to the children of men.
ALLELUIA Psalm 148. 2 Alleluia, alleluia. Praise ye the Lord, all His Angels: praise ye Him, all His hosts. Alleluia.

GOSPEL: Continuation of the holy Gospel according to St. John 2. 1-11 At that time there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee: and the Mother of Jesus was there. And Jesus also was invited, and His disciples, to the marriage. And the wine failing, the Mother of Jesus saith to Him: They have no wine. And Jesus saith to her: Woman, what is that to Me and to thee? My hour is not yet come. His Mother saith to the waiters: Whatsoever He shall say to you, do ye. Now there were set there six water-pots of stone, according to the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three measures apiece. Jesus saith to them: Fill the water-pots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And Jesus said to them: Draw out now, and carry to the chief steward of the feast. And they carried it. And when the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, and knew not whence it was, but the waiters knew who had drawn the water: the chief steward calleth to the bridegroom, and saith to him: Every man at first setteth forth good wine, and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse; but thou has kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee: and manifested His glory, and His disciples believed in Him. —

OFFERTORY: Psalm 65. 1-2, 16 Shout with joy to God, all the earth: sing ye a psalm to His Name: come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will tell you what great things the Lord hath done for my soul, alleluia.

SECRET: Hallow, O Lord, these our oblations: and cleanse us from the stains of our sins. Through our Lord Jesus Christ ...

COMMUNION: John 2. 7, 8, 9, 10-11 The Lord saith: Fill the water-pots with water, and carry to the chief steward. When the chief steward had tasted the water made wine, he saith to the bridegroom: Thou has kept the good wine until now. This first miracle did Jesus in the presence of His disciples.

POSTCOMMUNION: May the working of Thy power, we beseech Thee, O Lord, be increased in us: that quickened by the divine Sacraments we may be prepared by Thy grace to obtain what they promise. Through our Lord ...
