Sires & Weights: Pyramid Peak (Mt. Livermore), 114; Black Forest (Broad Brush), 112; Distorted Humor (Forty Niner), 116; Stormin Fever (Storm Cat), 116; Sir Bear (Sir Leon), 116; Crafty Friend (Crafty Prospector), 112; Affirmed Success (Affirmed), 119; and Coronado's Quest (Forty Niner), 121.

Three-year-old Coronado's Quest closes out his career looking for his first victory against older horses. The winner of the GI Buick Haskell Invitational and GI Travers, he ran a big race in the GI Breeders' Cup Classic last out, setting the pace before tiring late to be fifth, beaten only two lengths. The Janney homebred is a perfect four-for-four at Aqueduct including his lone start at a mile, last year's GIII Nashua S. Hoping to earn points toward the Eclipse Award as champion sprinter here, Affirmed Success took the GII Forego H. and GI Vosburgh, both at seven furlongs, before pressing the pace, but fading to sixth in the GI Breeders' Cup Sprint. He stretches out beyond seven-eighths for the first time since running seventh in last year's 10-furlong Travers. Stormin Fever picked up the first graded-stakes win of his career taking the Nov. 7 GIII Sport Page H. going seven furlongs. He finished second by a length and a half in the Vosburgh at level weights, but gets a three-pound shift in his favor for this start.

Friday, Churchill Downs:

The runner-up after drifting out during the stretch drive of the GI Breeders' Cup Classic last time out, Silver Charm was odds-on to earn the victory this time, but had to work hard for the score. The '97 Kentucky Derby and '98 Dubai World Cup hero went up after the lead at the start, battled head-and-head with MGISW Wild Rush through honest early fractions and put that one away in the final furlong, but had to fight off a gallant late charge from longshot Littlebitlively, who was getting 11 pounds, to take the photo. "He's something," winning jockey Gary Stevens told the Daily Racing Form. "Inside the furlong pole, I thought we were beat, but then he found another gear." Bobby Barnett, who trains the runner-up, added, "Son of a gun, I hate to be disappointed about running second to a horse like that, but gosh, I thought we had him."

On the board in every start since getting a two-month vacation from March to May, Catinca was bidding for her fourth straight score and her third consecutive graded-stakes win. Stretching out after a convincing victory in the GII First Flight H. Nov. 7, the dark bay shadowed Dixie Flag (Dixieland Band) for a half, took over after six furlongs and proved much the best in the drive to the wire. "She's winning with such command that you know there's more horse left," said trainer John Kimmel. "As we increase the distance, we'll be going into new territory and we'll see how far she can go. I don't think she'll have a problem going a mile and an eighth. She'll get some time off now." The three-year-old will take a break at Payson Park and make her next start during the Gulfstream Park meet.

FALL HIGHWEIGHT H.-GII, $111,400, AQU, 11-26, 3yo/up, 6f, 1:10, my.

2--American Champ, 131, c, 4, Jolie's Halo--Heart of America, by Northern Jove. O/B-Appleton Arthur I (FL); $22,280.

3--Golden Tent, 126, g, 9, Shelter Half--Jump for Gold, by Search for Gold. ($11,000 HRA 1993 FTMFEB).

O-Schwartz B K; B-Fourbros Stable (MD); $12,254. Margins: 2HF, 1 1/4, 1 1/4. Odds: 1.85, 3.45, 34.75. Also Ran: Oro de Mexico, Arromanches, Premium, Olympic Cat, Adverse, Johnny Legit. Scratched: King Roller.

Fifth in the Fall Highweight last year, Punch Line took a little stab at retirement following that race but was unhappy on the farm, according to trainer Billy Turner, and returned to the races with a July 3 allowance win at Belmont. With just one loss in four starts in his comeback, a narrow neck defeat in the Chesapeake S. at Colonial Downs Sept. 12, and a win in his last, the Oct. 17 GII Forest Hills H., the eight-year-old was made the 9-5 choice to earn back-to-back graded wins. Hustled out to an early lead, he opened up daylight through the stretch en route to an easy score. "He likes competition and likes to beat horses," said Turner. "He's doing it at the age of eight and that's amazing." Still, his trainer said retirement may once again be in the cards for the gelding. "We'll have to do some thinking," he said. "The older he gets, the harder it is to bring him back."

◆ NEWS TODAY ◆

SLOW START FOR GOFFS SALE The four-day Goffs November Premier Foal and Breeding Stock Sale, which began Thursday in County Kildare, Ireland, was off to a quiet start, with the average price dropping 16 percent over the first two days from last year. Irish bloodstock agent John Walsh bought the top-priced lot at Friday's second day of the auction, paying 60,000 Irish guineas ($91,432) for a filly from the first crop of the Aga Khan's 1996 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Ashkalani (Ire) out Adjalisa (Ire) (Darshaan {GB}). The weanling, a half-sister to stakes winner Access All Areas (Ire) (Approach The Bench {Ire}), was consigned by Abbeville and Meadow Court Studs, agent. "An Irish businessman has bought her as a foundation mare and he was happy to get her for this price," Walsh said. The sale continues today with the final foal session, to be followed by the first session of broodmares, beginning at 10 a.m.

The Phipps homebred will try to put together back-to-back wins for the first time; in her first six starts, she has finished either first or off the board. Tutorial has been second in two stakes since breaking her maiden at Turfway Sept. 23, missing by only a half-length in Churchill's one-mile Pocahontas S. last time out Nov. 6. In the last race of her career, Tomisue's Delight displayed the final-furlong flourish which made her a multiple Grade I stakes winner. After a similar come-from-behind win in the GI Personal Ensign H. at Saratoga, the four-year-old filly was second to Sharp Cat in the GI Beldame Oct. 10 at Belmont and fourth in the GI Breeders' Cup Distaff three weeks ago over this track. Next-to-last early, she turned for home in sixth position, but finished with a rush to get clear late. "At the top of the stretch, she was running and that was the thing," said trainer Neil Howard. "When she gets her feet under her, it's hard to stop her. She will go to Lane's End after this race and she's booked to be bred to Storm Cat."

A winner of three of his first four, all on dirt, Run Man Run was second in his turf debut last out Nov. 7 at Aqueduct and looked for a chance to make amends here. That hope was thwarted when heavy rains moved the race to the main track, but the lightly raced gelding made the best of it, stalking the pace from second before driving past early leader Felarof in the stretch to earn a 1 1/2-length win as the second choice.

Soldier Field, who was running (and winning) for a $75,000 tag in May, has since found a home on the turf and earned his sixth grassy stakes victory here. The bay picked up his first graded-stakes score facing fellow three-year-olds in the 1 1/16-mile GIII Lamplighter H. at Monmouth July 3, but failed in his second try at the level, finishing seventh in the GIII Saranac H. Sept. 5. The bay has been sprinting on the turf in his last three starts, taking a pair of stakes at the Meadowlands and Keeneland before missing by a neck when second against older horses in the GIII Laurel Dash last time out Nov. 3. The second choice in his West Coast bow, the colt was between rivals while contesting the pace early, raced outside favored Surachai as he took a clear lead coming into the stretch and inched away in the final eighth. "He has won going short and going long, but I found he had a ceiling going a route of ground," said winning trainer Linda Rice. "Anything over a mile and a sixteenth was escaping him. You can see in his form, I got him beat a few times going long. I felt that when I shortened him up, he'd be able to beat much better competition. I think he'll probably mature with a break. I think he should be a great miler next year." The colt heads to Ocala for a rest and will winter at Gulfstream.

Brulay rolled through her first three starts, capping the streak with a six-length romp in the GII Railbird S. at Hollywood in May, but was beaten a neck in the GII Princess S. June 14 and then finished fifth in the GI Test S. at Saratoga Aug. 1. Making her first start since as the heavy favorite, the bay grabbed the lead after a half in :44 4/5 and gradually increased her advantage on her way to a handy score.

MOTHER'S MEETING (f, 3, General Meeting--Mother Bear {SP}, by Flying Paster) broke her maiden last December, then stepped right into stakes company and captured the restricted Boo La Boo S. Feb. 21, but went to the sidelines after that start. She reappeared in an optional claiming allowance Oct. 25, but had to be taken up at the three-eighths pole and was eased in the stretch. Off at 6-1 in her turf debut, the Cal-bred miss closed from midpack to make her way through a crowd at the finish, winning by a head with just three noses separating runner-up Danyross (Ire) (Danehill) from the fifth-place finisher. Lifetime Record: 4-3-0-0, $113,520.

The 15-10 choice off that performance, he once again saved his best running for the stretch drive, finishing fastest of all to win by 2 1/2 widening lengths. The winner was a $120,000 KEESEP yearling. Lifetime Record: 5-1-2-0, $35,560. O-Vivian S Ezekiel. B-Mrs. Mary Ann Hockensmith & Vinery (KY). T-Neil Drysdale.

Winless since taking an allowance at Belmont June 5, Pacificbounty was third in the GI Pacific Classic over that stretch, but was off the board in his last two, most recently running fourth in the Oct. 31 Cal Cup Classic. The second choice in this test, the black colt was last after a quarter and had only one of his four rivals behind him after six furlongs, but kicked it into gear for the stretch run to take the lead late and draw clear.

Golden Gate Jock Reaches Milestone:

Jockey Russell Baze became the ninth leading rider of all time with his win aboard Dapper Warren in the third race at Golden Gate Thursday. It was his 6,389th trip to the winner's circle. Baze, who added two more victories on the card, surpassed retired Larry Snyder on the list. "It's kind of nice being that it's Thanksgiving," he said. "I have an awful lot to be thankful for and, really, being that high on the list is probably one of the lesser things." Baze now sets his sights on Sandy Hawley, who hung up his tack after winning 6,442 races.

British Horses Head to U.S.:

Two horses sold Thursday at the Doncaster Sales in Britain are likely to continue their racing careers in the U.S. Two-year-old Hidden Magic (GB) (Magic Ring {Ire}), who won a Catterick six-furlong race on his debut in October, fetched $34,669 from agent Gordian Troeller and is off to join trainer Tim Pinfield at Santa Anita. Supreme Sound (GB) (Superlative {Ire}), who fetched the top price of $173,334 on the third and final day of the sale, is a four-year-old who has won eight races for trainer Peter Harris. Agent Alan Perry, acting for a client from the Harris yard, said racing in America was a distinct possibility for the colt, whose purchase price equaled the Doncaster November sales record.
