I am delighted to advise that the following students have been chosen as Senior Leaders for 2019. They are very talented and will be great ambassadors for JPC.

Head Boy Kuljyot Lall Deputy Head Boy Casey Dykstra
Head Girl Anna Douglas Deputy Head Girl Ashleigh Webb

SENIOR PRIZEGIVING and GRADUATION Monday November 5th : 7p.m, Edmund Rice Centre

Parents, caregivers and grandparents are cordially invited to attend our senior academic prizegiving, which recognises the outstanding academic achievements of our senior students. It is a wonderful opportunity to gather as a JPC community and celebrate all that has been achieved this year.

FRENCH LANGUAGE TO TRANSITION OUT FROM JPC IN 2019

I wish to advise that as result of falling interest in studying French at John Paul College over a number of years it will be offered for the last time in 2019. There are only a total of 7 students who have opted to study French next year across Years 11-13. It is not economic to continue to offer it. The decline in the number of students taking the subject is not a reflection of the teaching standard which has been consistently of a high standard but rather market demand.

Students enrolling in French in Year Ten next year will be provided for if they wish to continue studying French at NCEA level. The College will explore the possibility of introducing Mandarin as the demand for this language is growing.

SCHOOL CONTRIBUTIONS (Thank you)

I extend my sincere thanks to all parents who are paying school contributions. This income is vital to continuing the high quality education that John Paul College provides your children. The reality for school is the 'government provides for the basics' but if we want for example, superior ICT facilities, we must rely on our resources.

- These contributions may be claimed in your personal tax return.
- There is a 10% discount if the full fee is paid by the end of March.
- Payment can be made by cheque, cash, eftpos or credit card. Or, if automatic payments have been set up by the end of March, and full payment of contribution fees completed by the end of October, the 10% discount will apply. Link to the automatic payment form for fees: <http://jpc.school.nz/wp-content/uploads/2017/03/Automatic-Payment-Form.pdf>
- There is also a family rebate of $100.00 for the third and any additional child in the same family.

God Bless

Patrick Walsh - Principal

EYES DOWN EVERYONE - National Chess Tournament in Auckland begins

Huge numbers from The Bay of Islands to Invercargill attended this tournament, which was held over the weekend of October 27-28 at De La Salle College in Auckland. Students had to have been ranked in the regions to be able to play in this National Tournament.

Phoenix Winiata Hill ranked in the top 10.

We also had Finn Lilley and McKenzie Swinburne winning many of their games.

All their rankings improved this weekend.

Minka Crouch joined our team on the Sunday.

This team is a young team who will next year continue on to represent our college at this National level.

Thank you to their parents for helping support these students over the weekend.

CRICKET REPORT

John Paul College's all-girl cricket team, the JPC Maidens, played their debut match on Saturday against a reasonably experienced boys team.

We bowled first and they did get off to a good start until Jessica struck in her first over with Sadie holding onto a top edge catch. Morgan, Maisie and Haylea looked to have plenty of bowling promise and were rewarded with a wicket each. Maddie picked up 2 wickets near the end whilst Sadie was our most economical bowler with 4 overs for just 7 runs. Emma looked very likely as a wicket keeper!

At our turn to bat, Emma and Maddie (right) showed some solid technique at the top of the order with Charlotte showing some determination against some very good bowling. Allie and Sadie were solid in defence as wickets started to tumble with both retiring after facing 30 balls. But the pick of the batswomen was Freya. She mixed defence with her aggression and top scored with 17 which included 2 boundaries. Maisie finished off a good all round performance with some good running at the end to compliment her good bowling performance.

There is still plenty to work on! But I'm looking forward to being a part of their development.

Rotorua Jedis	166

A MESSAGE FOR ALL SENIOR STUDENTS 6 TIPS FOR MANAGING EXAM STRESS By Karen Boyes

There is one week to go before national school exams and if you are starting to get stressed about exam time – this is great news.

Why stress is good.....

Experiencing stress before exams is a good thing! Stress causes your adrenaline to pump and allows you to work longer hours and stay on task more. A 2013 study from Daniela Kaufer and Elizabeth Kirby at the University of California, Berkeley, found that small doses of stress can propel you forward and enable you to meet a challenge. As a time frame gets closer so the stress rises. This is natural and normal and managing it is important. Too much stress can have a negative effect on your memory. Of course, memory is essential in an exam – ultimately you are required to remember what you have learned and how to apply your knowledge to answer the questions.

What to do over the following week...

1. Make a plan – do not leave it to chance. Draw up a timetable and stick to it. Place in the important features of your week, meal times, sports practice, church etc and add your study around these. If you can, you may wish to lessen your out of school activities for the next 4 weeks and then you can devote your time to them after the exams.
2. Learn what you don't know – of all the tips, the most important in the last few weeks is to concentrate on learning the information you don't know. Going over what you know is a waste of time – it might make you feel good, however learning is learning what you don't know. Pull out your old tests, assignments, practice exam papers and learn the questions you got wrong. This sounds simple and it can be hard yet is the MOST IMPORTANT tip. Ask your teachers to help clarify confusions, google other teachers lessons or search for study notes online to help.
3. Study in small segments – The best tip is to study for 20 minutes and take a 5 minute break. This is especially useful if motivation is lacking or the content is difficult. During the 5 minute break, ensure you leave the room so your brain knows you are on a break. You might choose to stretch, get some fresh air, do a few start jumps, eat some brain food, drink a glass of water and quickly check your social networking sites. To help keep you on a track, download the iStudyAlarm available for smart phones.
4. Eat well – Just as an athlete prepares for the big game or race, eating well in the weeks before your exams is imperative. Ensure you eat breakfast each day, as this will help minimise the bad stress. Eat smaller meals throughout the day, rather than big meals (that take a huge amount of energy to digest). Decrease your sugar and caffeine intake and increase your water consumption. Research shows eating an apple gives longer sustained focus than a cup of coffee.
5. Relax – To manage high stress levels, ensure you do something each day to relax. It may be as simple as 10 long slow breaths 2-3 times a day, some slow stretching, gentle swimming or jogging, meditation, yoga or any activity that helps you unwind and relax. Avoid screen time when relaxing as the changing images on the screen often cause your brain to go into a fight/flight state of high alert.
6. Focus on the goal – Four weeks is such a short time in your life so focus on the big picture – the reason you are sitting the exams; to get yourself ahead in life, to get into the course you want next year or whatever your goal is. A helpful activity is to visualise yourself being successful in your exams.

STUDYLINK Apply before 16 December - you can't miss it

If you're studying in 2019, 16 December is a very important date. It's one you just can't miss. Around 170,000 students will need to get organised for study in 2019. Apply for your student allowance or loan before 16 December to give yourself the best chance of having everything sorted and ready for the start of your course.
 If you've had a student allowance or loan in the last 12 months, login to MyStudyLink and use the Returning Application to apply. It'll take less than five minutes.
 Students don't need to have their NCEA results or have locked down all their study plans. Their application can be updated as things are confirmed. By applying early, students will allow enough time for all the steps in the application process to be completed before their course starts.
