meeting. In addition to the Yankee gift exchange, we will be drawing tickets from the setup and cleanup volunteers. If you forgot to write your name on a ticket and put it in the can for each occasion you volunteered – this month is your last opportunity to do so. If anyone would like to donate money or good equipment/tools for the volunteer raffle, please see a board member.

Last month's silent auction was impressive and several members got away with some prize wood for pennies on the dollar. Thank you to all who contributed to the effort. We will be voting for Vice- President and Secretary at this month's meeting. In addition, one of our premier turners, John Schrader, will be getting us ready for the holiday season as he demonstrates tree ornaments.

John Schrader Brings Christmas

Our demonstrator for the November meeting will be John Schrader, who will show us how to make his unusual Colorwood Christmas tree ornaments. An example is shown in the accompanying photograph. Several steps in this process are made with other shop tools, (table saw, band saw, etc.), so John will show a video of these steps. This project is a good intro-turning techniques, and since one typical blank of Colorwood will yield 5 ornaments, there are elements of production turning involved. The ornament pictured just won a semi-finalist award in the Wood Central Christmas Ornament contest <http://www.woodcentral.com/contests/ornaments/>. “Shrader” neer/manager who worked “gee whiz” technologies (electric cannons, death rays, hyper-velocity impact, etc.) while he was working full time. He now spends about 20 hours a week on various aspects of woodturning. His muse leads him to designs that require high precision, which his engineering background helps him realize. He currently sells his work at 5 galleries in the Northwest and 2 on line galleries. He has shown in the Bellevue Artsfair for the last 4 years, and in 2011 won one of the Bellevue Arts Museum Carol Duke Awards for Excellence that included a check for $1,000.

Important Announcement Concerning Membership Renewal

Dues for 2013 are $30 until December 31st at which time they'll rise to $35. The quoted amounts are for an emailed newsletter. Mailed hardcopies for those that do not have email will cost $12 more to offset the costs of printing and postage. Everyone should verify his/her information in the database as they renew membership. Please bring checks or cash to the club meetings and see Tom Johanson near the entry door. If you want to avoid the line at the renewal table, mail your check for membership dues to Tom Johanson, 10452 NE 113th Pl, Kirkland, WA 98033 along with a stamped self-addressed envelope and any address/phone/email changes and he'll gladly mail you your 2012 membership card. Thanks!.

Segmented Woodturning Symposium to be Held in October

The Segmented Woodturners is an internet-based chapter of the AAW with over 500 members around the world. The third symposium, completely dedicated for segmented woodturning is scheduled for October 18-21, 2012 at Lake Tahoe, CA. Information may be found in their 8-page brochure detailing the event at www.segmentedwoodturners.org. There is a 30 minute DVD with highlights of the 2010 symposium available from our library. Worth checking out!

This month Biz has prepared another of her interesting crossword puzzles. I cannot place it here because I don't know how to copy and paste an Adobe PDF document. If anyone knows how, I would appreciate some coaching on that issue. I have attached the puzzle after this newsletter. I will send the answers later.

I still have the carving station bags fashioned after the "Dixie Biggs" bag available. They are 14" x 6" with a rubber non-slip sleeve. Pattern sheet included. $20 ea. Proceeds go towards purchasing more library materials.

Seattle Chapter of AAW Meeting Minutes: October 2, 2012 Board Meeting

We should have a 2013 plan by next meeting. Rick T.: Silent Auction will take place at the October meeting. We'll also do the standard raffle as well. ### Christmas Party coming on December 13

Thursday, December 13 is the date for this year's Christmas Party. Traditionally we celebrate the season with a "Yankee-type" gift exchange, awarding of prizes to those who have helped the club in the previous year and a fine old sharing of holiday foods. If you wish to participate in the gift exchange bring an unmarked, wrapped woodturning, woodworking oriented gift (value usually less than $20,00) to exchange. It is always fun watching the machinations of members trying to set themselves up to win that one prize they see that they want to get. Also, if you wish to participate in the exchange, please remember that the orientation is to give something you as a woodturner might like to receive.

VOLUNTEERTICKETSVOLUNTEERTICKETSVOLUNTEER

Now that I have your attention, if you have not been turning in signed volunteer tickets at each meeting that you volunteer services-set up, take down, bringing in wood for raffle, that sort of thing that helps make meetings smooth and comfortable-you are missing out on some neat possibilities. At our Christmas meeting each year we draw names out of the can holding those tickets. When your name is drawn some sort of reward is given-wood, tools, things of this nature is awarded. It takes many people doing a lot of jobs to set up and run our meetings properly. This is an attempt for the club to say. "Thanks for the help." Don't miss out!

Info Needed

One of the goals of the newsletter is to pass on information that might be relevant for turners, be they beginners or old hands. None of us is good enough that we can't continue to learn, to enhance what we turn. To that end the club offers opportunities for members to watch many of the masters who visit us on day-long seminars, occasionally a full day of turning with them, Sawdust Sessions and the like.

Another thing available are opportunities like those being offered by our member Bonnie Klein at Anderson Ranch or in Port Townsend.

If you know of a member, or another other person presenting woodturning, even woodworking opportunities for members I would appreciated being told so we can alert membership in a timely manner.

Looking forward to hearing from you.
