Double Agent: FBI Counterintelligence in Lake Ronkonkoma

Saturday, June 4 • 2:00pm

Program code: SAADA6

Just months before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor forced our nation into World War II, Lake Ronkonkoma had already played a vital, and, until now, secret role in destroying Axis espionage in America. It was in this tiny Long Island hamlet that one of history's greatest spies lived and anonymously mingled with local villagers. After more than seven decades this remarkable story is finally revealed in the book Double Agent: The First Hero of World War II and How the FBI Outwitted and Destroyed a Nazi Spy Ring. Author Peter Duffy along with historian and former FBI Special Agent Raymond Batvinis will share the inside story. Co-sponsored by Lake Ronkonkoma Historical Society. Books will be available for purchase and signing.

Manage Garden Pests Organically

Monday, June 6 • 7:00pm

Program code: SAAMGP6
