Journey Into The Dark Goddess

Kali, the dark mother of the Hindu pantheon is oft the most misunderstood Goddess in all human spiritual endeavor. Her images often depict her as being an evil and demonic force that few should ever dare call upon, whilst others worship her as benign Goddess whom bestows blessings upon her supplicants. She is , in fact, both of these .

Her imagery can send a chill down even the most jaded persons spine. she wears a garland with bloodied severed heads and a skirt of severed arms. She has a tongue sticking out of her mouth drenched and dripping with the blood of her enemies, and a sword covered in human blood that she uses to cut away at the delusions of humanity. Not an image the faint of heart would wish to see I am sure.

Kali's very name means "She who is Black" . Some have said that her name means " She who is death". Kali is the Goddess of the Apocalypse, death and time. It is during her era, the Kali Yurga we find ourselves in. It's an era of strife and yet renewal. All you need to do is watch the news and you will see we are clearly in her era.

Often the dark mother Kali can be associated with raw violence and unbridled sexuality. A figure that would be interpreted in the west as the embodiment of all that is evil, sinful and dark. But let's not forget that she is an emanation of the divine shakti , the core of the feminine divine, which is creative and powerful. She represents raw form of the sacred feminine. A form that takes tough love to new heights, but yet her wild and raging approach is often tempered with the intentions of a sweet caring mother. As I hinted above, not all traditions portray her as violent and wrathful. In some traditions, she doesn't have such a raw persona. Some worship her for her compassion. In essence, everything she does is not out of evil, Its out of compassion. Tough love, I suppose is one way to put it and that would be quite an understatement.

She will challenge the stuffiness and properness you have acquired in this life. She will challenge who you think you are. She will spit in your face, she will push your buttons and will humble you. She will make you face your demons. Cut away your pride. She will make you grow whether you feel you're ready or not. All for the sake of breaking you out of your shell, a shell you so readily hide in. Kali will throw you into your challenges raw. Thus, letting you learn on your own. She would be the one to push you into the deep end of the pool so you can learn to swim. She will show you the futility of your overly valued words and notions of yourself to which we all idolatrously worship. Some people need that kind of tough love.

Her mantras are often recited when people want quick solutions to their problems. All problems, be they physical, mental or spiritual. However, unlike the other goddess that nudge you and sometimes push. Kali will cut right to the chase and shove you. She will put you on the fast track to whatever it is you want. But remember, the fast track is not without its perils. Often we need to grow step by step in order to attain a goal. For example, a person who wins the lotto will not appreciate the money as much as the person who worked hard to earn it. It's no wonder almost all lotto winners end up losing the money and go deep into debt. Take Heed. Kali will help you in that " lotto". But it may not be pretty. When you spend the money and go into debt you might suffer. But you also might learn a lesson and grow from that seemingly negative experience. Now lets understand, she is not acting harshly to punish you, she is thinking " If that's what you want, ok, but you're not ready for it. But after I get through with you, you will be ". She acts like this to make you aware, that is her goal. To Open you up. She is acting from place of pure compassion.

If you have been stuck in your life and you are at a loss as to what to do and you are willing to get the proverbial kick in the ass to get you going... Kali is the one to turn to.

Here is an example of one Kali Mantra: Like most of the Gods and Goddesses, there are several Mantras for each deity. This one, however, is the most popular.

The Mantra:

Om Kleem Kalikayei Namaha

Loosely Defined as " Salutations . I bring to me she who is dark and powerful"

Pronounced: Aum Kleem Kah Lee kah Yay Na Ma Ha

We will discuss more of her mantras later in this book. Now let us continue.

The Divine Feminine

In the Western view of the world, the divine is a decidedly male figure for the most part. In mystical traditions the line might blur between male and female, but for all intents and purposes, the God of western conception is a male. Many of these traditions didn't necessarily start that way. There is evidence to suggest that during the very early days of all our western religions there were pockets of individuals that incorporated a form of the Feminine energy of the universe in their lives. Some in a very direct way, and some a bit more subtlety. From the Israelite worship of Anat or Asherah, to Christianity's vague concept of "Sophia" or knowledge which is considered a form of feminine energy. Even in pre-Islamic days there was a goddess by the name Al-Uzza who was a daughter of Allah; one of 3 actually. In time, slowly but surely, the feminine principle was either totally extinguished or relegated to vague ideas that may not have direct discernible meaning to us. Or even worse, they were turned into demons of the night. Notice there are no references to female angels in western tradition (Biblically that is) but a reference to a female demon of the night.(Isaiah 34:14) More properly referred to as a "Night-monster" or "Night-Owl". Many believe that this night-monster is Lilith, Adams first wife. However , she is not mentioned directly in the book of Genesis. In Jewish Folklore she was made into a demon. But even in the evil realms most are "male". Another interesting fact is that the very word Angel ,which in Greek is Angelos, is a masculine noun to which no female counterpart exists.

If you look very closely at these texts, there are hints of the goddess that the seemingly all male-dominated editors have missed. Whether they are missed intentionally or not is not clear... The end result, according to the western Orthodox religions, is that the goddess is dead.

Look East and you find an entirely different situation altogether. The Feminine energy is not only highly venerated, she is the backbone of existence and without her, not even the male Gods can keep the universe afloat in the sea of consciousness. In Fact, the very word for Feminine energy in Hinduism is Shakti. The meaning of Shakti is unambiguous. It means

Power and is the Cosmic energy that is woven into the entire universe. Shakti is the embodiment of female energy of creativity, life-giving and life-destroying. Essentially, it is the direct agent of all change that takes place throughout the universe. Yes, including your own life my friend in Magick.

This energy, although found throughout our body , usually resides at the base of our spine and is called Kundalini. This energy from time to time wakes up and moves through energy centers called the chakras. Our chakras are energy centers throughout our bodies. Since this book is directly about Kali, I wont go into depth regarding the mechanism of the chakras, all you need to know is that they exist.

Generally speaking, this divine energy has several forms. Often they are depicted as various Goddesses in the Hindu religion. For our purposes in this book, we will touch upon the great Goddess Kali.

Kali Mantras

In this book we will cover 9 Mantras specifically to Kali. As a general warning, please do not take these mantras lightly. You are about to call upon a force that will cause dramatic change in your life. If you are not ready for this, please do not proceed until you are. I created this book in such a way that it will be easy for you to maintain focus on the mantras. In this chapter I will just go over them and then in the next chapter we will use them in rituals.

Kali Rituals

Before we proceed, here is a list of things you can use to enhance your magick
(IF YOU DO NOT HAVE THESE ITEMS IT IS PERFECTLY OKAY, THEY SIMPLY ENHANCE YOUR RITUAL)

1. A "picture" or statue of Kali. I have this one Kali Statue
2. The following Incense: Kali Goddess Blend (Any incense will do, I just prefer this one)
3. The following Candles: Red Chime Candles Gold Candles White Candles Silver candles Blue Candles Black Candles
4. A secure plate or candle holder to hold the candles. Since the ones I recommend vary in size you can use the one of your choosing. Just make sure to find one that will hold these candles and will allow for safety (NEVER LEAVE CANDLES BURNING UNATTENDED)
5. An Incense holder. (NEVER LEAVE INCENSE BURNING UNATTENDED)
6. TIBETAN BUDDHIST MEDITATION 108 BEADS

Let me now explain the rationale behind the objects above.

1. Kali Statue: This is to focus your attention. I find it helps me "feel" Kalis presence when I do a ritual to her.

2. Kali Goddess Blend : This Incense is a wonderful sacred fragrance.

3. Candles: (Please note you can buy any kind of candle you like, they don't have to be chimes or votive. I just happen to like the ones I provided here)

Red Chime Candles: This color is quite powerful

Gold Candles: This candle will be used for the ritual on financial assistance . Many occultists will tell you to use green, but this has been a long-held misconception. The only reason why people have said to use green is because it's the color of money. The thing is, its only the color of money in the USA and maybe a few notes here and there of other nations. They don't call the dollar " greenback" for nothing. Green is not a color that is truly indicative money. Gold is though, Gold is UNIVERSALLY known to be a signifier of wealth both in ancient times and present. If you have been using Green for your money rituals, now you know to use gold instead. It is much more effective.

White Candles: White is for purity

Silver candles: This is the color of wisdom as well as for magickal powers.

Blue Candles: This will be used for health

Black Candles: These candles will be used to conquer your enemies and repel evil spiritual entities.

TIBETAN BUDDHIST MEDITATION 108 BEADS: These beads are very helpful for keeping track of your mantra recitations.

Below you will find 9 rituals, very simple but powerful ones. Each ritual can be done at anytime but I would highly recommend doing them on the days I specify in the ritual description. One of the very few things I do agree with in terms of conventional occult wisdom is that days of the week do have power and that's because there are verifiable astrological influences. Other practices have no basis at all and as I said in a previous book, only serves as a distraction and an excuse for the magician to place more importance on him or herself than is actually required. We have come to do magick here, not role play some character from Harry Potter or Dungeons and Dragons... No offense of course.

Here is the issues we will be doing magick for:

- For Inner peace and well being
- For the conquering your enemies
- For financial assistance
- For Health
- For wisdom
- For Magical Powers
- For the repulsion of evil spirits
- For The Embodiment of Kali - Possessions?
- To gain unlimited Favor from Kali

I will walk you through each ritual step by step... Let us now call upon the great mother Kali.

How to Enhance Your Kali Mantra Practice - Achieving Siddhi

\(Excerpted from Vashikaran Magick\) Now that you have learned the mantras, I want to add some additional information here that will really up the effectiveness of these mantras and any mantra practice for that matter. As you saw, most of the mantras can be recited a few times and some, many more times. When doing so, you compound the energy upon itself and then it produces results. Its like a charge builds up and eventually fires, producing the goal. This is generally how mantras work and often once the result is achieved, the energy dissipates and that will be the end of the ritual. But what if you could ALWAYS embody the energy of the mantra? There is a way and It is called Siddhi.

Siddhi, in Sanskrit means " perfection" "accomplishment" and "Attainment" of magical abilities. When one achieves Siddhi with a particular mantra they acquire the actual energy of that mantra. So for example, the Main Attraction Seed Mantra is "Kleem". If you recite this 10,000 times in one sitting, you will have mastered the energy of this mantra and your attraction abilities will be enhanced and things will come naturally to you. After you achieve Siddhi, you will be unstoppable, with every recitation of the mantra after Siddhi you are a true and effective magician. Some schools of thought say that you do not need to do all 10,000 in one sitting but over 40 days. Follow your intuition on whether you want to do these chants in one sitting or several.

In saying this, if you want to enhance any of these mantras, I suggest chanting them 1,000 to 10,000 times in one sitting. I know this sounds like a lot, but once you get into the groove with the mantra the recitation will move very quickly. To keep track of this, I suggest you use Mala beads. I personally use this brand: TIBETAN BUDDHIST MEDITATION 108 BEADS

It has 108 beads; 108 is a sacred number and common in Hindu chanting. Although some of the mantras in this book require fewer than 108 recitation;

I highly suggest you chant a mantra at least 108 times a day. With these Mala Beads, it will be easy to keep track. If you do 10 rounds of 108 recitations, you will be on your way to achieving Siddhi. You can, of course use any mala beads or create your own.

If you feel you need help with Mantra pronunciations, I have Audios you may find useful. Please go to:

Conclusion

What you have learned here is VERY powerful and I suggest you use Kali's energy with Great care. These mantras are like electricity, the energy will flow in the direction of the intended output. In saying that please be firm in your intentions and make absolutely sure what you want is truly what you want.

As they say, be careful what you ask for , you just might get it.
