Nurture & Protect

Welcome, to a very special life reading indeed Diane. It takes calm and courage to find inner peace and use your time in a meaningful way that matches your needs and desires. In your Karmic Ancestry Horoscope, I am giving you direct guidance in matters of money, love, spirituality and overall happiness so you realize that you are not helpless, and can still be the master of your destiny! I know each aspect of your life is important, but you also need to prioritize and understand that during this Juno Direct transit you are being alerted to the true nature of things. Like the noble queen Goddess Juno you must nurture and protect that which is within your control!

This modern astrology horoscope reading is based on your unique natal chart, combining the mystic messages of your ancestors and the power of the ancient gods and goddesses! This year I have introduced the study of asteroids including Chiron, Ceres, Vesta and now Juno! Following several astrological Retrograde transits including a challenging Saturn Retrograde and the recent New Moon over the past few weeks, this personalized study of the positive effects of Juno Direct is a real relief.

Been feeling stuck when it comes to your job, your relationships, your financial situation? I'm not surprised if some if not all of these are feeling magnified right now, as well as a sense that you are being let down by someone or by the greater powers that be as a whole. This has a lot to do with the progressions of the all the astrological transits I have just mentioned, so take comfort that you are finally coming out a period of confusion. Instead of knowing what you don't want, you will start to clearly identify what you do want. You have to be specific with the Universe during these strange times, no vague intention was ever rewarded! It's time to get the best from the people in your life, and know how others can get the best from you too Diane!.

Let's begin this next step on our journey together. I am here to guide each step you take so you are not wasting any of the many blessings in disguise the Universe is sending. There are signs, life cues and the ancestral messages you shall receive from each Planetary Karma card combination are symbols of greater union or togetherness now. It's a multitasking time so without further ado, let's get started!

KARMIC HOROSCOPE

As I've mentioned Diane, this is the first time I am taking a closer look at the astrological significance of the asteroid Juno. The asteroids have not always been a major focus for astrological study but their influence has been confirmed in this modern era of celestial mapping. What is most powerful about the asteroids is their spiritual connection to the ancient Gods and Goddesses of the past, and this signifies something special for you now!

JUNO DIRECT

Orbiting between Mars & Jupiter is the asteroid Juno, named after the Roman Goddess who was also known as Hera in Greek mythology. Depicted in the form of a female warrior, the Goddess Juno was protector of the confined, the vulnerable, protector of finances and represents the gift of true love.

In astrology, Juno symbolizes partnerships, commitment and the balance of power in relationships. It also represents justice, and so with the current transit influence of Juno going Direct, I know that justice and equality is in your favor at this time. You can expect a triggering event in the days to come, as indicated by the Retrogrades that you have recently passed and progressed through. I want to emphasize that in these strange times, everything that challenges you has been leading you to a climatic event. You'll have to face something now but is a blessed opportunity for empowerment and betterment. The Universe has been testing you, because it knows you are strong enough to deal with anything!

When I studied how you would be most effected by Juno Direct Diane, I saw an immediate connection to your relationships, namely your life at home. With the world changing, the magnifying glass has been put on your own inner world and the most private of places – where you live. Feeling confined, even emotionally restricted, can make you feel like life isn't going anywhere yet you also have more time to contemplate your life, your relationships and what you wish to accomplish. If you have been feeling stuck or going backward, that's about to change.

This is a period under which loyalty, faithfulness and the truth of love is revealed. The connection we have with others is amplified and we are faced with what does (or doesn't) nurture or preserve us. You may question yourself too and whether you can trust your intuition. This is normal under the current circumstances, and you would be right to reflect on matters of trust, security and loyalty in all areas of your life.

In regards to human connection, Juno is the asteroid of soul mates. But what is a soul mate anyways? I'm not just talking about romantic love, my dear, I'm talking about all the special soul friends and companions you meet along your journey. Each plays a role based on the karmic connections you forged in your past life on a soul level! I want to explore this more shortly Diane, because Juno Direct has come at a time when you will be highly aware of what is missing from your relationships. The good news is that the climatic event I have mentioned gives way to an unexpected turn-around of your circumstances in a positive way! This signals a major breakthrough in your karmic past life connections, so I'm pleased to know you have been dedicated to the changes that the Universe is encouraging you to make! Juno Direct brings helps you to have a more mature approach to things, and I know that will help you a lot right now.

The Goddess Juno was worshiped for a reason. She was a powerful deity whose protection brought wealth and health to those in her favor but her energy was also very nurturing, so that one's heart and life was full of love and joy. I think we could all use a bit of blessed protection from Juno right now Diane! I want to very quickly bring to your attention the balance of Juno Direct from an astrological point of view to remind you that everything and everyone has a light side and a shadow side. Juno energy when harnessed properly brings acceptance, transparency, diplomacy, cooperation, trust, and honor. Harnessed negatively it brings arrogance, superiority or inferiority complex, lack of confidence, defensiveness, betrayal, denial and increased fears of abandonment. If you read and reflect on all of the characteristics both positive and negative, which ones do you identify with most at the moment, my dear?

What you identify with positively are the aspects of yourself you need to NURTURE, and what you identify with negatively you must PROTECT yourself against. I do sense that some of the negative characteristics I have mentioned are actually representative of someone in your life, someone in your home life or connected to your family...

ANCESTRAL MESSAGES

In times like these you need more than astrological knowledge, you need some direct insight into your financial situation, your ability to fulfill your goals regardless of any obstacles, how to heal and enhance relationships and of course improve your overall wellbeing Diane. I decided to use the Planetary Karma cards to reveal symbolic ancestral messages and predictive insight because I understand how your karmic past is connected to your current situation. I have indeed been following your life path closely the past few months and the link to your ancestors was very evident! Your ancestors have faced greater challenges. The karmic link you share with them gives you strength and resilience.

By using my own psychic intuitive gifts, I have been able to interpret the cards you chose to bring you these important Ancestral Messages! It is your lineage, it is your purpose, it is your focus now. It is not merely the Goddess Juno who is here to nurture and protect you, you myself and your ancestors to support you through these unusual times.

YOUR LIFE NOW

Below you will discover what each of the Planetary Karma card combination you chose represents. I have interpreted their more profound meaning in correlation with the astrological influence of Juno Direct, as well as your own personal life progressions apparent in your natal chart. I even went one step further Diane. I did what I like to call a psychic projection of your natal chart to foretell what would be happening in the future if you follow the guidance in this reading!

MONEY: The first card combination you chose reveals more about your current financial circumstances and explores your karmic journey toward prosperity in the future.

SUCCESS: The second card combination you chose reveals answers concerning your goals and what you wish to achieve. Things may feel stagnant so how are you going to break through what is holding you back now?

LOVE: The third card combination you chose reveals how you are feeling about people in your life and the truth of your connection to them. Relationships right now are under the microscope and you will gain clarity and know why things have happened after reading your cards!

HAPPINESS: The fourth card combination you chose reveals the true nature of things from a spiritual perspective with an overall analysis of every aspect of your life. What is your mission to complete with the people in your life, what are the most important connections?

All this and more I have had the privilege to explore and unearth for you Diane! Thank you for being open to the messages your ancestors are sending you and for allowing me to guide you through their deeper meaning! Let's begin.

Money

Does money give you freedom? Perhaps, but perhaps it also binds you to a certain way of life, a certain way of thinking that can in fact entrap you in cycle of regret, frustration and anxiety. It's not always like this of course, but one thing is for certain, money is like water and the ebb and flow of it has an impact on your life and indeed happiness. You cannot rely on what is fleeting, money is always in a state of fluctuation so you must not depend on it for your happiness. Your ancestors knew the power and the curse of money, but what destiny shall it bring you at this point on your life path?

You have chosen the SUN and CHIRON as your first combination. Helios, the God of the SUN would ride his chariot across the sky, seeing all as he courageously and fearlessly traveled the heavens. He was not afraid of the darker forces of life and the Universe. By choosing this card, I know you are feeling a lot of uncertainty and this is disturbing your self-confidence. Your way of life is being tested because you cannot soar through life as you would like. You feel that your financial situation is preventing you from fulfilling your purpose and it is changing the way you perceive yourself and how you value yourself also. Your current circumstances are actually giving you an opportunity to adapt your approach and embrace a new life style. This is only a temporary pit-stop on your path to prosperity, but a much needed one Diane! I also sense criticism from someone in your life about how you handle money matters; a harsh judgment that you don't deserve! CHIRON is a centaur who was known for his knowledge of medicine and compassionate wisdom of the world. He suffered greatly on his journey toward Mount Olympus where he joined his fellow gods as a divine being. He represents a wound or suffering, one that feels raw and open. I sense that by choosing this card, you feel extremely vulnerable. I know however that what troubles you now in regards to money, you are learning a valuable lesson that in turn shall help someone else. You must not let this situation effect your self-worth. You are more than what you possess, it does not define you. CHIRON tells me that although you may have to endure a period of financial uncertainty, you will be stronger if you combine your finances with someone else. You do not have to do this alone, and being vulnerable is not a weakness. We are stronger together after all.

ANCESTRAL MESSAGE

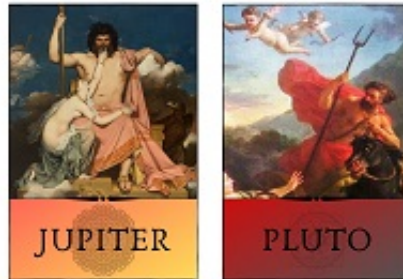

"You were not put on this Earth to revel in the misery of what you don't possess. Be kind to yourself when the material matters of this world restrict you. Gold only weighs you down but your mind shall set you free on a new path that brings greater glory and prosperity."

Success

Figuring out what you really want is not easy Diane, and it changes all the time! Especially at this point on your journey when you must reset your goals and fess up to what you really desire. Under Juno Direct, honesty is the truest of virtues. Before reading your cards and your next Ancestral Message, I want you to reflect briefly on what your life's education of honesty and success has been. I want you to reflect on where you get inspiration and idea about life because this is what you need to nurture now!

What a powerful message JUPITER brings from the King of the Gods himself! JUPITER is essentially Zeus, the God of thunder, the sky and has the immense power to take away or to bestow great gifts. JUPITER symbolizes opportunity and transformation as a result of what's happening now. It is related to your personal goals, and that as you adjust them things run much more smoothly than you anticipated. You cannot force what you want to happen, you must look for the signs the Universe is sending you to take a new approach and re-prioritize your goals. You must be wise and sensible now, but don't take everything too seriously either as a light-hearted approach will actually bring you closer to good fortune Diane! You must be bold, fearless and know that by doing so you are attracting what you want into your life under Juno Direct's protective influence. Take the time to redirect your goals and see each small step as one brick in your castle. Lay out the foundations so that when the time is ripe, you shall experience true success! PLUTO was the God of wealth, the lord of plentiful riches. On the other hand he was also considered a bad omen. By choosing this card, this tells me a lot about your current mindset and how you feel about the restrictions you are facing. You feel intrepid about which way to go and have to be careful to not get into negative or destructive thought patterns. In combination with JUPITER I know however that when this is all finished, you shall experience an incredible regeneration of personal success, wealth and health. Achieving the highest potential of your purpose, your goals and destiny are connected to putting your trust in a male authoritarian figure who shall give you some valuable advice. Or it may simply be that you learn from their mistakes...

ANCESTRAL MESSAGE

"Heed this lesson, do not travel the same path as me. Life is your teacher, not your friend but blessed is the lesson of acceptance. A battle was never won with fear. Let courage be the master of your heart and imagination be the master of your mind."

Love

How can you honor love and connection right now? What lasting connections will you make or break during this period? This next combination helps you to enrich your relationships by knowing the truth of the connection with the people in your life to avoid betrayal and enjoy the honest, open type of love that you deserve.

MARS is known as the God of war but he was originally celebrated as the God of agriculture who protected the harvest. He is a double-edged sword, one that represents determination and aggression, as well as growth and protection. By choosing this card it tells me that there have been two paths in front of you, one of destruction or creation when it comes to love. Emotions can run high and you must always decide how you deal with them, shall they be used as a positive force in your life, or a negative one? You can disagree with those you are closest to, especially under such tense circumstances but you can master your reactions so war is not waged with someone close to you in your life. It is hard to feel a sense of personal expression and freedom right now, but be careful of projecting your frustration on anyone else. It is amazing to me that you have chosen the JUNO card in combination with MARS, Diane! This cannot be mere coincidence, considering the transit focus is Juno Direct! This tells me that you are on the cusp of a true love experience. JUNO was one of the original gods and the greatest protector. She signifies the spark of attraction and beauty. All that MARS energy in combination with JUNO tells me that your relationships are protected but are also about to catch fire! You will feel renewed confidence in your physical attributes so take some time to adorn yourself with what makes you feel attractive, doing it for yourself and not necessarily anyone else. Use the MARS energy to bring more passion to your life because harvesting it will enrich your intimate life and help you to express the sensual side of yourself. The repercussions of this will improve your self-esteem and you shall rediscover your physical self in new ways. You embody charm, power and presence right now, use it!

ANCESTRAL MESSAGE

"You can spend your entire life chasing after love, but love already surrounds you. It is within you, it is in every kind word, gentle gesture and comforting smile. When you are love, you invite even more love to come to you."

This is a confronting time when you are contemplating the different areas of your life and what makes you happy, what's your purpose and why is the world changing so dramatically now. This is a time of reflection when you are discovering the true nature of things. What is your journey, what mission do you have to complete now?

MERCURY is the messenger of the gods and by choosing him now, I know he is leading you right to where you need to be. The power of study and communication is your weapon to defeat monotony, and intellectual reflection is the key to understanding the mystery of life as it is now. MERCURY is indicating that all this upheaval will change and life will get a little bit more predictable. Your current doubts about the future have made you hesitate, so if you have been putting off something, you can make an important decision because now is the time to strike Diane! MERCURY is reminding you that sometimes things fall apart so you know how to put them back together. You need mental stimulation and motivation every day, so set yourself a task to complete every day and commit to quality moments of interconnection with the people in your life. Living in the moment may be all you feel you can do, and that's all you have to, my dear! In combination with SATURN I have a clearer picture of why you may have been experiencing some nervous energy. SATURN was the God of time and reigned at his highest during the Golden Age of human progression. He represents self-realization and prosperous growth and change. Choosing this card emphasizes how much your purpose has been restricted during such challenging circumstances and you have felt the frustration of time not being on your side. However, the sobering realities you have had to face has not been for nothing. You must regain self-control, discipline and re-evaluate some of the responsibilities you have. This brings harmony between your sub-conscious and conscious actions bringing balance but also helps you to pinpoint what you wish to pursue as things return back to normal. The true nature of things is contemplation, creativity and connection. Once you embrace this you will start seeing a lot going your way...

ANCESTRAL MESSAGE

"Eternity is not an illusion, your journey is never truly at an end. Time is not your enemy, it is nothing but rhythm and you decide how you shall dance to it. Life shall unravel until you understand how it is built. Your happiness is in your hands."

After reading your cards Diane, it is important that you give yourself a moment to process and reflect on the Ancestral Messages that have been revealed in connection with your life path now. Sometimes it takes time to fully understand their meaning so don't worry if you don't connect with my interpretation of your chosen cards straight away; it is normal to have some spontaneous revelations about your cards the day after you have read them! This often happens because your sub-conscious mind is working away to unlock itself and transform realizations into more conscious thoughts. So don't be surprised if you have an epiphany soon, my dear!

To help along this path of realization, I want you take a short intermission. Open a window, stand on your doorstep to get some fresh air or to simply see what is going on in the world outside the cocoon is that is your home. Get a cup of water, tea or coffee, even wine if that's what you like to relax! What is important is that you give yourself a moment to let all the information sink and to reset yourself before continuing with the next section of your reading.

HANDY HINT: You can also use this type of 'personal intermission' whenever you are experiencing doubt, frustration or even lethargy. Giving yourself a moment of peace and processing time can quite often help you to find clarity and creative solutions Diane!

Before you begin the next task here is a little poem I wrote for you, and a sound therapy link you can listen to as you continue with your reading. I want you to enhance your Juno energy as much as possible right now, as you discover inner peace within yourself, your current situation and with the people in your life.

“Oh! How hunted I felt in my darkest moments
How tethered were my fears to my heart
I could not crawl, I could not bend
To the great overwhelming power of the nothingness I faced
And yet I knew I was not alone.
A hand warmed my shoulder
A kiss on my cheek made me smile
The karmic blessings of my ancestors ran through me
And I raised my head and cried
The release of a thousand tears flowed away
And I cradled the birth of new hope
As a loving mother would her infant.”

NURTURE & PROTECT

If you feel you have given yourself enough time to reflect on your reading so far, then you are ready to participate in a guided self-reflection exercise! Guided self-reflection is useful because it is helping you to unravel your thoughts and feelings as opposed to having someone tell you who you are and what is good for you. The last months (regardless of the challenges they have presented) have been a period of great opportunity; the opportunity to identify what matters most and what you really want. It may have even been a little confronting at times, especially if your reality did not match what you realized you would like for your future. Figuring out what you really want is such an important process in life which is not always easy because what you want can change all the time!

I'm going to help simplify a very complex question; what do you want? I have identified seven of the most essential aspects of your life. These Seven Levels of Existence all play a part in your ability to be happy and to feel you are achieving what you desire. These include MATERIAL things, SELF-CONFIDENCE, ADVENTURE, SPIRITUAL & EMOTIONAL aspects of self, CAREER RELATED things, LIFESTYLE and HEALTH. It is then important to NURTURE & PROTECT what you want in each of these areas as you begin to achieve the level of existence you desire in each of them. Where do you get inspiration from Diane? How do you know what you want in life?

INSTRUCTIONS

This guided self-reflection exercise is going to help you identify what kind of life you desire, a life that reflects who you are and aligns with your deepest hopes and dreams. I have included random examples to give you an idea of what kind of answers you may discover for yourself. Don't over-think it, just go with your first thought and write down your answers. Begin with the first heading (MATERIAL) and then work your way through until you have answers for all Seven Levels of Existence. You will then have a much clearer picture of the life you want and who you want to be Diane!

STEP ONE: Check the heading and the explanation as to what it signifies and how it is related to your life.

STEP TWO: Review the random examples I have included under each explanation as a guideline then identify FOUR things you aspire to in life.

STEP THREE: Write down and keep your answers somewhere private or share them with someone you trust, especially if this person is someone that you wish to share the task of achieving any of your life desires.

STEP FOUR: Whenever you are feeling uncertain Diane, revert back to the answers of your Seven Levels of Existence to reconnect and remind yourself >what it is you really want. If they have changed, do not worry, simply update your answers as you continue courageously forward! At least you will always have a focused vision of what you want so you are always on the path of nurturing your desires and goals and protecting the little successes you achieve in the process!

The MATERIAL things in life will not solely make you happy but they are external comforts and pleasures that add to your overall wellbeing and satisfaction in life. Your purpose in life is not to accumulate as many material things as possible, but to possess material things that mean something to you. For example a house is just a house, but when you make it a home, a place to nurture relationships, to harvest your potential and to find sanctuary, then it really means something! Write down four MATERIAL things that you wish you had more of in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. I want a more modern house, clothes that suit me better, a more attractive partner or more money so I can go on more vacations.

SELF-CONFIDENCE

Self-confidence should not be confused with ego or a false sense of self. Self-confidence also shouldn't always be associated with your outward appearance, but it does contribute. Building self-confidence is such a subtle and silent art of being comfortable and liking you for who you really are! Write down four SELF-CONFIDENCE things you wish you did or had more in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. I want a more positive self-image, be brave enough to go for what I want, speak with more intelligence and authority, make more new friends.

ADVENTURE

Life is so unfathomable sometimes that we forget that it is an adventure! We all seek a certain amount of security whether it is financial, emotionally in our relationships or anything that makes us feel that we are living life right. The search can take awhile Diane! What you must always be careful of is becoming too comfortable, too complacent and forget to try new things. Life is an adventure which is why you need to take risks to really live it! Write down four ADVENTURE things you wish you had or did more of in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. I want to speak another language, learn flamenco, live in a new city, go bungee jumping.

I have combined SPIRITUAL & EMOTIONAL desires as one category because they are so beautifully interlinked as part of your heart and soul. We are emotional beings, which means what we experience emotionally has an impact with our spiritual journey throughout life. Love is a most powerful remedy for all of life's ailments and gives your soul more inner power and peace than you could ever imagine. Write down four SPIRITUAL & EMOTIONAL things you wish you did or had more of in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. I want to feel closer to my friends, resolve conflict with a family member, be more grounded, meditate or pray every day.

I say career but CAREER RELATED things can also be connected to goal making, long term visions or whatever you wish to achieve in your life but haven't been able to so far. Think of everything you feel you have accomplished or never did and you are on the right track Diane! Write down four CAREER RELATED things you wish to accomplish in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

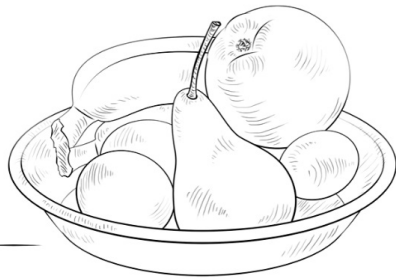

E.g. I want to discover my true calling, show others I'm capable, aim for that promotion, achieve something creatively.

LIFESTYLE

I've heard many people say before that lifestyle is a choice and I would say that I agree! However, first you have to define what a lifestyle is and for me it is very simple; it is the basic habits you have created for yourself that you do day by day. Your lifestyle defines how you get to enjoy your life, or not! Does it not surprise you that when you don't have a lifestyle that enriches you, you become unhappy? Write down four LIFESTYLE things you wish you did or had in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. I want to take my dog for a walk more, volunteer at a homeless shelter, take more time in the morning, have more satisfying sex with my partner.

HEALTH

As I am not a health professional, I cannot comment on the current state of your health Diane, it would be illegal for me to do so. I can however address the subject of health as something to always reflect upon and improve as is necessary. HEALTH could be included as part of your LIFESTYLE and indeed eating habits are an important part of your lifestyle choices. However, I only want you to reflect pragmatically on what is possible for you, no drastic measures you can't upkeep! Write down four HEALTH things you wish you had in your life, use the examples as a reference below:

E.g. See a specialist about my allergies, exercise at least three times a week, eat less sugar, identify my stress triggers.

MYSTIC PROTECTION

As part of this Juno Direct period I want you to feel secure, empowered, invigorated and free to express love and kindness without fear or hesitation. I know you have a lot to think about Diane, which is why I want to protect you against any dishonesty or negative influence in your life just so you can keep focused on all the revelations you have experienced in your reading! You have personally selected a Mystic Healing Gemstone which reveals even more about where you are on your journey right now. Read, reflect and review how your gemstone may be connected to some of the other sections of your reading, namely your Ancestral Messages!

Don't forget, Juno Direct is a period of clarity which enables you to get more out of life and your interactions with people. There is always something to be learned about ourselves, at any stage of life. This year has been an interesting one to say the least and you are being tested by the Universe in more ways than one. But your very existence is precious and I hope you have felt the boundless loving energy I have poured into your Karmic Ancestry Horoscope reading, Diane.

YOUR MYSTIC HEALING GEMSTONE

AMETHYST

COLOR: Purple

SIGNIFICATION: Serenity & spirituality

CHAKRAS: Crown (Sahasrara)

SYMBOLISM: AMETHYST is a semi-precious gemstone which has been popularly used for jewelry since the dawn of time. It was even used at one point in history by ancient Greeks and Romans in the form of a drinking chalice, as they believed it would protect them from becoming inebriated; not sure it worked! Many civilizations believed it protected them in battle or could even heal physical ailments. AMETHYST is a beautiful translucent purple color whose crystal shines brightly as it turns in the light. The metaphysical meaning behind this gemstone correlates with your karmic path in that it symbolizes your creative potential as well as protecting you from ill wishing negativity psychic attacks from others. The healing of this gemstone ensures that you have a sense of inner calm and retrieve your inner wisdom from a higher perspective. AMETHYST ensures you don't overindulge or succumb to any vice or weakness you may have or continue to struggle with. It enhances love and balance in relationships and increases your ambitions so you do not settle for less. AMETHYST is both beautiful and spiritual, quite like your beautiful and profound soul.

INSTRUCTIONS: If you are financially able, you can purchase a small piece of AMETHYST, or a gemstone of a similar color like violet QUARTZ. If not, then you can choose a purple object that you already possess. Keep your gemstone or your chosen object in your pocket and near you when you sleep for the next 7 days to benefit from its karmic cleansing power!

THANK YOU!

I want to take a moment to thank you Diane. Thank you for putting your faith and your trust in me to create this reading for you. You may have noticed the repetitive use of peacock feathers throughout your reading, and this is because the proud peacock is your totem animal during Juno Direct! The Goddess Juno (or Hera) has a mythological link to peacocks and for you it symbolizes a firm connection between the past (your ancestors) and the present (your redefined destiny).

Your totem animal wants you to honor yourself with self-appreciation and grace the people in your life with love, demonstrating the most divine aspects of your personality. As you realize more clearly what you really want, the Universe will send it to you, my dear. I sense that you shall become more confident, more focused and feeling more capable of being able to nurture your purpose in the days to come.

I hope you feel that I have given you the life guidance you need right now, but of course if you have any questions you can always email me and I shall continue to support your life path journey to the best of my devoted ability!

Much love,
Claire
