

Keys to the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy

September 2013

This document:

SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL,
Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy [CSL], Sacrosanctum concilium [SC],
4 December 1963,

was a watershed for the Catholic Church and the Christian world. It was the first document of the Council and was issued toward the end of the second session. This constitution sets out the reform of the Liturgy, the liturgical books, and the very life of the Church.

In the 50 years since this Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy was promulgated by Pope Paul VI, many authors have written about it and its impact on Church life. These pages highlight some worthy resources and worthy writing. For each work, there is the usual bibliographic information, a publisher link, recommended uses, and a synopsis. There is also a list of KEYS TO THE CONSTITUTION ON THE SACRED LITURGY from each author's perspective. There are differences and overlaps in these lists. But these Keys will provide valuable summaries for study, for formation, for assessment, and for the ongoing work of the liturgical reform.

This pastoral commentary examines the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy article by article. It addresses the theological, historical, and pastoral implications of the implementation of the liturgical reform. It is still the most important and foundational document and provides the lens from which all other liturgical documents should be interpreted. Parish staffs and volunteers will find the questions for discussion and reflection extremely helpful for ongoing liturgical practice, implementation, and renewal.

Authors include: Joshua Brommer; Joseph DeGrocco; Michael S. Driscoll; David W. Fagerberg; Mark Francis, CSV; Genevieve Glen, OSB; Philip J. Horrigan; Steven R. Janco; Corinna Laughlin; Paul Turner; Mark P. Wedig, OP; Joyce Ann Zimmermann, CPPS.

Forward by Archbishop Gregory Aymond – pp. vii-xiii

Areas of diocesan and parish life impacted by CSL:

1. The Vernacular

- Enabling richer conversation and deepening spirituality through easily available texts; plus new music to fit new words

2. Sacred Scripture

- Expanding use and number of biblical texts led to expanding Catholic biblical literacy; Liturgies of the Word; interpreting the Word in liturgical and paschal context

3. The Divine Office [The Liturgy of the Hours]

- Enhancing those who use it “to attune their minds to their voices when praying it”

4. The Liturgical Year

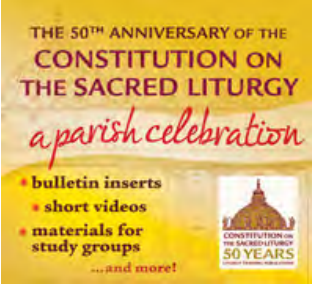

- Focusing on Sunday, on Paschal Mystery, on Christ

5. A Simplification of Rubrics

- CSL, no. 34: returning to noble simplicity...

6. Reverence

- “...that some of the changes...did not so much lead to a loss of reverence as much as make the lack of reverence in some individuals more apparent...that reverence and mystery and splendor...fostered by [the reformed rites]...arise from a spirituality rather than from a ritual text”

This is the 2012 Madeleva Lecture in Spirituality for Saint Mary's College, Notre Dame IN. Contains that the "full, conscious, and active participation" envisioned by Vatican II does not simply apply to our involvement in the Liturgy. Rather, it is a commitment we make to personal involvement in the life of the Church and its continuous coming to be in this present age.

Contents: (1) The Council in Context, (2) Principles of the Liturgical Reform, (3) Sacrament Reimagined, (4) The Reception of the Liturgical Reform in the United States, (5) Becoming the Sign, and (6) Notes.

KEYS TO THE CONSTITUTION ON THE SACRED LITURGY

1. The heart of every liturgical celebration is the celebration of the Paschal Mystery of Christ for the life of the world and our participation in one or another facet of that event.
2. From this, it follows that* all members of the assembly, priestly people through Baptism, and members of the Mystical Body of Jesus, are co-presiders with Christ, the one and only high priest and leader of prayer.
3. In the Liturgy Christ is present in many ways – in the bread and wine, in the word proclaimed, in the ministers, and, not least, in the assembly gathered for prayer and praise. In other words, we make Christ present to each other when we come together.
4. Sacraments are thus both intensive and extensive over time.
5. The “grace” of the sacrament is God’s self-communication in love.
6. To our outward ritual participation must be joined the habit of interior presence and assent.
