However, the best form of communication is talking. If families need to clarify a piece of information come and ask us.

Support Unit

Support Unit students have settled in to 2014 well.

Welcome to our new students, who are making a great effort adjusting to their new environment and school routines.

We are looking forward to attending a Variety Club Disco in March, at The St. George Motor Boat Club.

Mrs Parker and Mrs Raucava are organizing meetings to complete Personal Learning Plans for their students. This is a chance for parents and staff to discuss the goals for individual students,

Stage 3

Stage 3 has had a very busy start to the term and has now settled into routines well. They are making pleasing progress in not only their academic work but, also in their behaviour with many children stepping up into their new responsibilities with enthusiasm.

The children are enjoying the units of work that have an emphasis on Asia and Australia's interaction with Asia both past and present. The children are really looking forward to their excursion to Bathurst.

I would like to thank all the parents who came to the 'Meet the Teacher' night and the 'Year 6 Leaders' night. Both of these were significant to both the children and the school and continue to show the importance of us working together.

The Stage 3 children know that they must keep and show the school values in whatever they do.

Cheryl Taylor
Relieving Assistant Principal

Stage 2

It is now week 6 and we in Stage 2 have well and truly settled into our routines and units of work. It has been very pleasing to see so many 4S and 3/4H students already actively involved in school programs such as Dance, Choir, Band, PSSA teams, Got Game and the Environmental group. We also have enthusiastic class representatives for the Student Council.

Our new Interactive Smart boards have added a new and exciting dimension to learning this year and these are now an integral part of our daily lessons.

Home learning is well underway and it was so nice to meet so many parents at our information evening. We look forward to ongoing and open communication between home and school so please feel free to approach either Mike Stevenson or myself with any concerns or queries you may have.

Chaplain's Corner

by Ina Cook, School Chaplain

Well, we have come to the end of summer officially and the days are getting shorter and there is a definite nip in the air at night!

Our kindies have been in school for five weeks and looking like old hands at school - the year is quickly moving ahead.

Our children are a very precious commodity in our school community to be handled with care. At times we can inadvertently injure their spirit and they may become withdrawn and hurt.

We are all born with a spirit, soul and body and all three are interrelated. Our deepest relationships are built on the spirit level. The soul and the body are embedded within the spirit. The spirit is likened to the tentacles of a beautiful sea anemone. If an anemone is poked with a stick these soft flowing tentacles withdraw and close up till it becomes like a shell to protect itself from further injury.

This is similar to the spirit of a person, as the anemone is open and vulnerable so is the spirit of a child. But it can be wounded so easily. If the spirit closes, the soul and the body close to the same degree. A person with a closed spirit will usually avoid communication become quiet and withdrawn not responsive to affection, may become argumentative want to run away and show anti social behaviour.

Sarcasm, harsh words, unjust treatment, unkind jokes can lead to the closing of a person's spirit. When this happens to a child their spirit closes, affection is withdrawn, relationships are strained and they can become angry and unresponsive. These indications may be symptoms of a closed spirit.

To reopen a child's closed spirit it is important for the adult to recognize what is happening and acknowledge this to the offended child with tenderness and softness.

There are many non verbal ways to show the child he is valued and loved but it must be done slowly. Listen intently to what the child is telling you without judgement or justification, trying to understand where the problem lies.

It is so hard for parents/adults to admit they are wrong but for a meaningful relationship to result it is necessary, showing him/her that even adults can make mistakes. Touching the child lovingly will allow the offended child to reach out to the parent or whoever has offended him/her. If the child draws back look further for a person that may have offended the child.

Next newsletter I will continue with the beauty of forgiveness.

Please come and visit if I can be a help to you and/or your child.

Your child should have received a notice about the Parent Seminar on Tuesday 1st April, please fill in the notice and return it to the office.

A friend is a person who knows all about you and still loves you.

With love

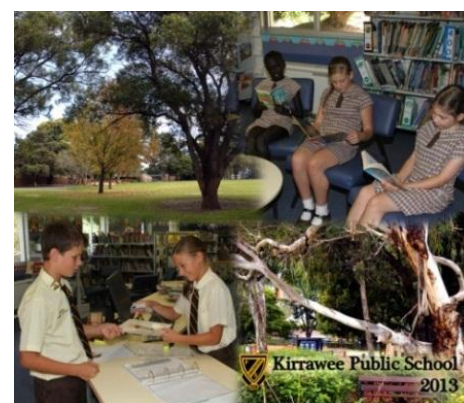

Ina Cook

Dear Parents and Students in Stages 2 and 3,

Interested students in Stages 2 and 3 are invited to prepare a speech with a multicultural perspective. As for our regular public speaking competition, students will be judged on the matter, method and manner they employ when making their speeches. They must speak on one of several topics (see over).

Students in Stage 2 should speak for 3 minutes, and students in Stage 3 should speak for 4 minutes (as for the regular public speaking competition).

There will also be an impromptu component for the speech – 1 minute for Stage 2 and 2 minutes for Stage 3.

Students should show an understanding of multiculturalism. Their speech should demonstrate a balance between fact and opinion as well as a balance between humour and sincerity. They should be confident and engaging speakers.

Entry fees are $20.00 per student.

The competition is not held until early August; however, the deadline for entries is 24th March.

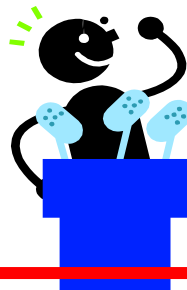

For this reason, I am asking that students with an interest in this competition to let me know. They should then prepare a short speech of about 2 minutes (the entire speech is not required at this stage) about one of the topics listed overleaf as well as an outline of any other ideas to present to me by the 22nd March.

Schools are only permitted to enter 2 students per stage. If more than 2 students from each stage show an interest in this event, I will conduct an informal competition.

Thanks,

Mrs Karen Beckman
